

Frederick William Dame

A VERY CONFUSED AND BRAINWASHED MUSLIM

BACKGROUND

Asra Q. Nomani

Source: <http://www.npr.org/2014/01/28/267608430/death-by-terrorists-daniel-pearls-friend-tries-to-finish-his-story>

Born in Bombay (now Mumbai), India, Asra Q. Nomani moved to the United States at the age of four with her older brother and joined her family in New Jersey. When she was four years old, she moved to the United States with her older brother to join their parents in New Brunswick, New Jersey. Her father, Zafar Nomani, was earning a Ph.D. at Rutgers University Rutgers University. When Nomani was ten her family moved to Morgantown, West Virginia, where her father became an assistant professor of nutrition. ... In her books Tantrika and Standing Alone in Mecca, Nomani states that she is descended from the contemporary Muslim scholar Shibli Nomani, who is known for having written a biography of Muhammad. Nomani received her B.A. in Liberal Studies from West Virginia University in 1986 and M.A. from American University in International Communications in 1990.

Nomani is a former Wall Street Journal correspondent and has written for The Washington Post, The New York Times, Slate, The American Prospect, and Time. She was a correspondent for Salon.com in Pakistan after 9/11, and her work appears in numerous other publications, including People, Sports Illustrated for Women, Cosmopolitan, and Women's Health. She has delivered commentary on National Public Radio.

She was a visiting scholar at the Center for Investigative Journalism at Brandeis University. She was a Poynter Fellow at Yale University.

Nomani is the founder and creator of the Muslim Women's Freedom Tour. She has also defied literalist interpretations of Islam that segregate women from men in prayers at mosques, and was a lead organizer of the woman-led Muslim prayer in New York City on March 18, 2005, which has been described as "the first mixed-gender prayer on record led by a Muslim woman in 1,400 years." ... Nomani has said the prayer was the first publicly led Friday prayer in modern-day history.

In 2015 a group of Muslim activists, politicians, and writers issued a Declaration of Reform which, among other things, supports women's rights and states in part, "We support equal rights for women, including equal rights to inheritance, witness, work, mobility, personal law, education, and employment. Men and women have equal rights in mosques, boards, leadership and all spheres of society. We reject sexism and misogyny." The Declaration also announced the founding of the Muslim Reform Movement organization to work against the beliefs of Middle Eastern terror groups. In 2015 Nomani and others placed the Declaration on the door of the Islamic Center of Washington.¹

PRESENTATION

The reason why this female American Muslim who voted for Donald J. Trump has been posted at many online sites. The article is now repeated in its entirety to give the reader of this essay a comprehensive presentation of its contents.²

I'm a Muslim, a woman and an immigrant. I voted for Trump.
Here's why this long-time liberal voted for the Republican this year.
By Asra Q. Nomani

A lot is being said now about the "silent secret Trump supporters." This is my confession—and explanation: I—a 51-year-old, a Muslim, an immigrant woman "of color"—am one of those silent voters for Donald Trump. And

¹ Edited from https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Asra_Nomani.

² <https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/global-opinions/wp/2016/11/10/im-a-muslim-a-woman-and-an-immigrant-i-voted-for-trump/>.

I'm not a "bigot," "racist," "chauvinist" or "white supremacist," as Trump voters are being called, nor part of some "whitelash."

In the winter of 2008, as a lifelong liberal and proud daughter of West Virginia, a state born on the correct side of history on slavery, I moved to historically conservative Virginia only because the state had helped elect Barack Obama as the first African American president of the United States.

But, then, for much of this past year, I have kept my electoral preference secret: I was leaning toward Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump.

Tuesday evening, just minutes before the polls closed at Forestville Elementary School in mostly Democratic Fairfax County, I slipped between the cardboard partitions in the polling booth, a pen balanced carefully between my fingers, to mark my ballot for president, coloring in the circle beside the names of Trump and his running mate, Mike Pence.

After Hillary Clinton called Trump to concede, making him America's president-elect, a friend on Twitter wrote a message of apology to the world, saying there are millions of Americans who don't share Trump's "hatred/division/ignorance." She ended: "Ashamed of millions that do."

That would presumably include me—but it doesn't, and that is where the dismissal of voter concerns about Clinton led to her defeat. I most certainly reject the trifecta of "hatred/division/ignorance." I support the Democratic Party's position on abortion, same-sex marriage and climate change.

But I am a single mother who can't afford health insurance under Obamacare. The president's mortgage-loan modification program, "HOPE NOW," didn't help me. Tuesday, I drove into Virginia from my hometown of Morgantown, W.Va., where I see rural America and ordinary Americans, like me, still struggling to make ends meet, after eight years of the Obama administration.

Finally, as a liberal Muslim who has experienced, first-hand, Islamic extremism in this world, I have been opposed to the decision by President Obama and the Democratic Party to tap dance around the "Islam" in Islamic State. Of course, Trump's rhetoric has been far more than indelicate and folks can have policy differences with his recommendations, but, to me, it has been exaggerated and demonized by the governments of Qatar and Saudi Arabia, their media channels, such as Al Jazeera, and their proxies in the West, in a convenient distraction from the issue that most worries me as a human being on this earth: extremist Islam of the kind that has spilled blood from the hallways of the Taj Mahal hotel in Mumbai to the dance floor of the Pulse nightclub in Orlando, Fla.

In mid-June, after the tragic shooting at Pulse, Trump tweeted out a message, delivered in his typical subtle style: “Is President Obama going to finally mention the words radical Islamic terrorism? If he doesn’t he should immediately resign in disgrace!”

Around then, on CNN’s “New Day,” Democratic candidate Clinton seemed to do the Obama dance, saying, “From my perspective, it matters what we do more than what we say. And it mattered we got bin Laden, not what name we called him. I have clearly said we—whether you call it radical jihadism or radical Islamism, I’m happy to say either. I think they mean the same thing.”

By mid-October, it was one Aug. 17, 2014, email from the WikiLeaks treasure trove of Clinton emails that poisoned the well for me. In it, Clinton told aide John Podesta: “We need to use our diplomatic and more traditional intelligence assets to bring pressure on the governments of Qatar and Saudi Arabia, which are providing clandestine financial and logistic support to ISIL,” the politically correct name for the Islamic State, “and other radical Sunni groups in the region.”

The revelations of multimillion-dollar donations to the Clinton Foundation from Qatar and Saudi Arabia killed my support for Clinton. Yes, I want equal pay. No, I reject Trump’s “locker room” banter, the idea of a “wall” between the United States and Mexico and a plan to “ban” Muslims. But I trust the United States and don’t buy the political hyperbole—agenda-driven identity politics of its own—that demonized Trump and his supporters.

I gently tried to express my thoughts on Twitter but the “Pantsuit revolution” was like a steamroller to any nuanced discourse. If you supported Trump, you had to be a redneck.

Days before the election, a journalist from India emailed me, asking: What are your thoughts being a Muslim in “Trump’s America”?

I wrote that as a child of India, arriving in the United States at the age of 4 in the summer of 1969, I have absolutely no fears about being a Muslim in a “Trump America.” The checks and balances in America and our rich history of social justice and civil rights will never allow the fear-mongering that has been attached to candidate Trump’s rhetoric to come to fruition.

What worried me the most were my concerns about the influence of theocratic Muslim dictatorships, including Qatar and Saudi Arabia, in a Hillary Clinton America. These dictatorships are no shining examples of progressive society with their failure to offer fundamental human rights and pathways to citizenship to immigrants from India, refugees from Syria and the entire class of de facto slaves that live in those dictatorships. We have to stand up with moral courage against not just hate against Muslims, but hate by Muslims, so that everyone can live with sukhun, or peace of mind, I finished in my reflections to the journalist in India.

He didn't get the email. I didn't resend it, afraid of the wrath I'd receive. But, then, I voted."

CRITICAL COMMENTARY

Asra Q. Nomani's article is repeated below. My critical comments in bold print, emphasized with a font bullet, follow the respective paragraph!

A lot is being said now about the "silent secret Trump supporters." This is my confession—and explanation: I—a 51-year-old, a Muslim, an immigrant woman "of color"—am one of those silent voters for Donald Trump. And I'm not a "bigot," "racist," "chauvinist" or "white supremacist," as Trump voters are being called, nor part of some "whitelash."

COMMENT

- Muslims are, however, bigots and racists. They are the first racists in history when one considers how Muslims enslaved Africans when they conquered lands in Africa, especially North Africa.
- You cannot be a chauvinist. The correct English usage is female chauvinist.
- Neither can you be a white supremacist because you are of Indian heritage. You are a Muslim and, therefore, you are a Muslim supremacist by definition of what a Muslim is and Islam teaches.

- There is no discernible national whitelash in the United States of America. The term is often used by commentators like the political-chocolate-commie-cueball-extremist-stain Van Jones, who is given the credit for creating the term, and black African-American instigators of racial protests like Al Sharpton and the African-American Muslim Louis Farrakhan.
- Voting for Donald J. Trump is not proof that America is racist. It is proof that shouting 'RACIST!' no longer functions as a vote getter.

In the winter of 2008, as a lifelong liberal and proud daughter of West Virginia, a state born on the correct side of history on slavery, I moved to historically conservative Virginia only because the state had helped elect Barack Obama as the first African American president of the United States.

COMMENT

- Yes, Ms. Nomani, there are two Virginias, West Virginia and Virginia. Virginia is not very conservative.
- Virginia made a mistake in voting for Barack Hussein Obama, and if that was the reason you moved to Virginia, you made a mistake, too! West Virginia voted Republican for John McCain in 2008, Republican for Mitt Romney in 2012, and Republican for Donald Trump in 2016.

But, then, for much of this past year, I have kept my electoral preference secret: I was leaning toward Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump.

COMMENT

- Muslims are full of secrets!
- The truth is that Mr. Trump was only a presidential candidate. The Republican Party did not want him. A large portion of the Republican Party still does not want him!

Tuesday evening, just minutes before the polls closed at Forestville Elementary School in mostly Democratic Fairfax County, I slipped between the cardboard partitions in the polling booth, a pen balanced carefully between my fingers, to mark my ballot for president, coloring in the circle beside the names of Trump and his running mate, Mike Pence.

COMMENT

- Are you sure your vote was counted properly, considering the amount of ballot fraud in Virginia, part of it instigated by the governor Terry McAuliffe?³

After Hillary Clinton called Trump to concede, making him America's president-elect, a friend on Twitter wrote a message of apology to the world, saying there are millions of Americans who don't share Trump's "hatred/division/ignorance." She ended: "Ashamed of millions that do."

COMMENT

- Mr. Trump has no hatred, does not want division, and he is not ignorant.

That would presumably include me—but it doesn't, and that is where the dismissal of voter concerns about Clinton led to her defeat. I most certainly reject the trifecta of "hatred/division/ignorance." I support the Democratic Party's position on abortion, same-sex marriage and climate change.

COMMENT

- Because you "support the Democratic Party's position on abortion," you are not a good Muslim. Muslims consider abortions a crime if performed after the fetus has lived beyond the first 120 days in the mother's womb. Furthermore, the killing of unborn human beings who are not Muslim is a method of killing un-believers.

³ http://www.nytimes.com/2016/04/23/us/governor-terry-mcauliffe-virginia-voting-rights-convicted-felons.html?_r=0 <http://freedomoutpost.com/massive-voter-fraud-proven-in-virginia-mainstream-media-ignores/> <https://www.lifezette.com/polizette/bombshell-1000-illegal-votes-cast-eight-virginia-localities/>

- No, you are not a good Muslim. You don't follow the teachings of Muhammad regarding these positions!
- Same-sex marriage is forbidden.
- Muhammad never commented on climate change. However, he did comment on one aspect of the environment: trees!
- Muhammad forbade his followers from cutting trees, but then he changed his mind after a new revelation.⁴

⁴ What you O Muslims cut down of a palm tree of the enemy or you left it standing on its stem it was by the Leave of Allah, and in order that He might disgrace the Fasiqun (the rebellious, the disobedient to Allah)' Qur'an 59:5

Hadith

It is narrated on the authority of 'Abdullah that the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) ordered the date-palms of Banu Nadir to be burnt and cut. These palms were at Buwaira. Qutaibah and Ibn Rumh in their versions of the tradition have added: So Allah, the Glorious and Exalted, revealed the verse:" Whatever trees you have cut down or left standing on their trunks, it was with the permission of Allah so that He may disgrace the evil-doers" (lix. 5). Sahih Muslim 19:4324

The Prophet ordered that the graves of the pagans be dug out and the unleveled land be level led and the date-palm trees be cut down. (So all that was done). They aligned these cut date-palm trees towards the Qibla of the mosque (as a wall) and they also built two stone side-walls (of the mosque).

Sahih Bukhari 1:8:420, Sahih Bukhari 5:58:269, Sahih Muslim 4:1068

'Abdullah b. Umar reported that Allah's Apostle (may peace be upon him) burnt the date-palms of Banu Nadir. Sahih Muslim 19:4326

Scholars

(What you cut down of the Linah, or you left them standing on their stems, it was by leave of Allah, and in order that He might disgrace the rebellious.) Linah is an especially good type of date tree. Abu `Ubaydah said that Linah is a different kind of dates than 'Ajwah and Barni. Several others said that Linah refers to every type of date fruits, except for the 'Ajwah (ripen dates), while Ibn Jarir said that it refers to all kinds of date trees. Ibn Jarir quoted Mujahid saying that it also includes the Buwayrah type.

When the Messenger of Allah laid siege to Bani An-Nadir, to humiliate them and bring fear and terror to their hearts, he ordered their date trees to be cut down. Muhammad bin Ishaq narrated that Yazid bin Ruman, Qatadah and Muqatil bin Hayyan said, "Bani An-Nadir sent a message to the Messenger, saying that he used to outlaw mischief in the earth, so why did he order that their trees be cut down Allah sent down this honorable Ayah stating that whatever Linah was felled or left intact by the Muslims, has been done by His permission, will, leave and pleasure to humiliate and disgrace the enemy and degrade them. Mujahid said, "Some of the emigrants discouraged others from chopping down the date trees of Jews, saying that they were war spoils for Muslims. The Qur'an approved of the actions of those who discouraged and those who approved of cutting these trees, stating that those who cut them or did not, did so only by Allah's leave. There is also a Hadith narrated from the Prophet with this meaning. An-Nasa'i recorded that Ibn 'Abbas said about Allah's statement,

Tafsir ibn Kathir, 59:5 - The Prophet Cut down the Date Trees of the Jews by the Leave of Allah

- This kind of behavior is often the case with Muhammad. He decrees something, and then another epileptic fit tells him to decree something contrary. So much for Muhammad's concern for the environment!

But I am a single mother who can't afford health insurance under Obamacare. The president's mortgage-loan modification program, "HOPE NOW," didn't help me. Tuesday, I drove into Virginia from my hometown of Morgantown, W.Va., where I see rural America and ordinary Americans, like me, still struggling to make ends meet, after eight years of the Obama administration.

COMMENT

- In Islam, single mothers are not supposed to exist. A single mother is part of a Muhammad-decreed female foursome in a good Muslim family.
- You drove into Virginia from your hometown of Morgantown, West Virginia to vote. Did you vote twice?
- Rural America and ordinary Americans are not like you. You are a female Muslim!

Finally, as a liberal Muslim who has experienced, first-hand, Islamic extremism in this world, I have been opposed to the decision by President Obama and the Democratic Party to tap dance around the "Islam" in Islamic State. Of course, Trump's rhetoric has been far more than indelicate Political correctness is delicate in its rhetoric. and folks

...[O]ne must go on jihad (i.e. razzias or raids) at least once a year ... one may use a catapult against them when they are in a fortress, even if among them are women and children. One may set fire to them and/or drown them. ... If a person of the ahl al-kitab [i.e. People of the Book] is enslaved, his marriage is revoked. ... One may cut down their trees. ... One must destroy their useless books. Jihadists may take as booty whatever they decide ... they may steal as much food as they need...^[5]
Kitab al-Wagiz fi fiqh madhab al-imam al-Safi'i \(Beirut, 1979\), pp. 186. Translation by Dr. Michael Schub

1 – cutting down lotus trees that people use for shade, for sport and for no useful purpose.

2 – Cutting down the lotus trees in the Haram.

Based on this, there is no sin on you if you cut down this tree that you had planted, so long as you did not plant it by the road for people to use for shade. Is it haraam to cut down lotus trees? - Fatwa No. 45671 can have policy differences with his recommendations, but, to me, it has been exaggerated and demonized by the governments of Qatar and Saudi Arabia, their media channels, such as Al Jazeera, and their (lamestream) media proxies in the West in a convenient distraction from the issue that most worries me as a human being on this earth: extremist Islam of the kind that has spilled blood from the hallways of the Taj Mahal hotel in Mumbai to the dance floor of the Pulse nightclub in Orlando, Fla.

COMMENT

- There is no such thing as a liberal Muslim.
- Muhammad said that if anyone believed differently than he believed, that person is a hypocrite and had be killed!
- You are not a good Muslim because you are not toeing the Islamic line! The Islamic State is Islam in its pure form. There is no other Islam.
- Mr. Trump is not politically correct. Therefore, he tells the truth. Political correctness is a method of telling lies.
- You are not a good Muslim because Qatar and Saudi Arabia and their governments and media portray Islam as it is, and most assuredly as Muhammad desired it to be portrayed! If they portray Islam as being good, peaceful and tolerant, it is nothing more than taqiyya, the Muslim doctrine that allows lying in certain circumstances to further Islam.
- By the way, Qatar in English is pronounced gutter!
- "Extremist Islam of the kind that has spilled blood from the hallways of the Taj Mahal hotel in Mumbai to the dance floor of the Pulse nightclub in Orlando, Fla." is representative of the core of Islamic teaching.

- Muhammad bragged shortly before he died: "I have been made victorious with terror (cast in the hearts of the enemy)."⁵
- Muhammad implored his followers to emulate him because he was the perfect person.
- Terrorist Islam is the only kind of Islam that exists until the whole world becomes a slave to Islam and Muslims.

In mid-June, after the tragic shooting at Pulse, Trump tweeted out a message, delivered in his typical subtle style: "Is President Obama going to finally mention the words radical Islamic terrorism? If he doesn't he should immediately resign in disgrace!"

COMMENT

- It was very correct of Mr. Trump to tweet the challenge!!!
- I'm surprised Obama did not go golfing after the deadly shooting at the Pulse nightclub.

Around then, on CNN's "New Day," Democratic candidate Clinton seemed to do the Obama dance, saying, "From my perspective, it matters what we do more than what we say. And it mattered we got bin Laden, not what name we called him. I have clearly said we—whether you call it radical jihadism or radical Islamism, I'm happy to say either. I think they mean the same thing."

COMMENT

- Hillary Rodham Clinton would dance any dance if it meant filling the coffers of the Clinton Foundation with donations in exchange for political favors and her entrenchment in a political power position.

⁵ Bukhari 4.52.220 .

- Islam, original Islam, is radical. It was always radical, is always radical, and will always be radical. If you think otherwise, you have been brainwashed!

By mid-October, it was one Aug. 17, 2014, email from the WikiLeaks treasure trove of Clinton emails that poisoned the well for me. In it, Clinton told aide John Podesta: “We need to use our diplomatic and more traditional intelligence assets to bring pressure on the governments of Qatar and Saudi Arabia, which are providing clandestine financial and logistic support to ISIL,” the politically correct name for the Islamic State, “and other radical Sunni groups in the region.”

COMMENT

- ISIL is the politically correct lie for the core of Islam that is represented by the Islamic State.

The revelations of multimillion-dollar donations to the Clinton Foundation from Qatar and Saudi Arabia killed my support for Clinton. Yes, I want equal pay. No, I reject Trump’s “locker room” banter, the idea of a “wall” between the United States and Mexico and a plan to “ban” Muslims. But I trust the United States and don’t buy the political hyperbole—agenda-driven identity politics of its own—that demonized Trump and his supporters.

COMMENT

- The donations were the actions of exactly what Islam has always done, bribe the opponents, defeat them, and exterminate them!
- You say that you trust the United States. This is proof that you are either not a good Muslim, or you are exercising taqiyya.
- You say you reject "the idea of a 'wall' between the United States and Mexico and a plan to 'ban' Muslims." Of course, now you are being a really good Muslim!

I gently tried to express my thoughts on Twitter but the “Pantsuit revolution” was like a steamroller to any nuanced discourse. If you supported Trump, you had to be a redneck.

COMMENT

- Twitter can be and is most often anything but gentle!

Days before the election, a journalist from India emailed me, asking: What are your thoughts being a Muslim in “Trump’s America”?

I wrote that as a child of India, arriving in the United States at the age of 4 in the summer of 1969, I have absolutely no fears about being a Muslim in a “Trump America.” The checks and balances in America and our rich history of social justice and civil rights will never allow the fear-mongering that has been attached to candidate Trump’s rhetoric to come to fruition.

COMMENT

- You should have fears of being a renegade Muslim!
- There are always evil people like George Soros, and Barack Hussein Obama, and Hillary Clinton who will always use fear-mongering to achieve their goals.

What worried me the most were my concerns about the influence of theocratic Muslim dictatorships, including Qatar and Saudi Arabia, in a Hillary Clinton America. These dictatorships are no shining examples of progressive society with their failure to offer fundamental human rights and pathways to citizenship to immigrants from India, refugees from Syria and the entire class of de facto slaves that live in those dictatorships.

COMMENT

- But they were excellent sources of contributions to the Clinton Foundation in exchange for political favors!

We have to stand up with moral courage against not just hate against Muslims, but hate by Muslims, so that everyone can live with sukhun, or peace of mind, I finished in my reflections to the journalist in India.

COMMENT

- Do Muslims have morals?
- Muslims do not hate. They take terrorist action because of their love for Islam, their love for the moon god Allah, and their love for the epileptic and the psychopath Muhammad.
- They emulate Muhammad who said that there are either Muslims or unbelievers, and the unbelievers must convert to Islam and become second-class citizens, or be killed.
- You don't know what sukhun means. Sukhun does not really mean peace of mind. Sukuhn has many meanings and applications.⁶ Sukhun is a variant of sukhan from the Urdu language, the language of a culture that Islam has always tried to subjugate and which it has majorly accomplished.
- The emotional definition applies to one "often having trouble finding emotional balance because of hyperactivity. Always getting consumed whole by different projects or your profession. That is probably the main reason why your love life gets often put on hold. There is a certain fear of getting into relationships, because it could compromise your professional development. You might even realize that this fear is unrealistic yet it still exists and at times persists. Often giving priority to your career can result in different exciting adventures in your love life. It is rare for those who under this figure to find balance and fulfillment."

⁶ Refer to: <http://www.namekun.com/name-meaning-of/sukhun#namevariants1>.

- The emotional capability definition means "sociable, open, kind and humorous these personality traits of yours result in a lot of relationships. So, you have a very wide and extensive network that allows you to change the relationships."
- Sukhun regarding materials, "colors, minerals: Noble materials, raw materials, wood, stone, amber. Colors: indigo, blue sky or azure, mauve, lilac, grey, taupe, saffron."
- Sukuhn regarding Astrology: "Aries, Capricorn, Uranus."
- Sukhun regarding Tarot: "the mast, the wheel of fortune, the trolley, the world."
- Personality analysis deals with "colorful and fascinating, you are an amazing person with a magnetic personality! Loving life and its pleasures never depriving yourself of earthly pleasures. Materialistic desires and wishes are always top priority if you have a say in it. Things have to move or change constantly you are not one for standing still. Sometimes overexcited, but mostly dynamic and enterprising. An intuitive idealist who needs to be recognized in order to feel fulfillment. This type of need can possibly turn into a weak point. Your unique way of communication can be seductive and full of pleasure. Curious and thirsty for knowledge you need to understand the surrounding world. Independent by nature. (THIS CONTRADICTS ISLAM!) Constantly aspiring towards freedom (THIS CONTRADICTS ISLAM!), while needing to have a home port!" (THIS CONTRADICTS ISLAM. THE UMMA IS THE HOME OF MUSLIMS!)
- The work definition means "having practical intelligence and a good sense of observation skills allows you to correctly analyze situations and gather good people around yourself. Your independent ambitions do not stop you from working in teams. There are only a few things in this world that you fear. Great thirst for knowledge, discoveries and adventures will take you to exciting horizons. Strong yet intuitive a hard worker who is never afraid of responsibilities. Sometimes having a hard time with superiors. Suitable occupations: management positions, the political, administrative or ministerial, posts the liberal professions (doctor, lawyer, Advisor...), international trade or luxury, haute couture, fashion, modeling, business, research, large global organizations, positions of responsibility or out of the ordinary. "

- The wellness meaning concerns "having tremendous inner resources allows you to cope with various obligations. An active and dynamic person who loves doing sports whenever there is spare time. Nobody can stop you because you always fly by at a hundred miles. Your weak points are your nervous system, bilious and lymph, liver, heart, lungs."
- The situation of finances in sukhun means "it is clear as day that you love money and that this relationship is two-sided! Thus, you attract each other. Where the money goes, you go and vice versa! However, watch out for uncontrollable spending impulses which exceed the limits of what is reasonable. Your financial journey is pretty atypical!"
- I never knew a Muslim who didn't love money, especially the money and wealth of Jews. Jewish fortunes are the Muslim's possessions for the taking. That's the reason Muslims want to kill Jews. Muslims want their wealth and possessions!"

He didn't get the email. I didn't resend it, afraid of the wrath I'd receive. But, then, I voted.

COMMENT

You are afraid? Fear is what Islam instills in people. Islam feeds off fear!

QUINTESSENCE

Ms. Asra Q. Nomani! You have been so brainwashed that you think what you are saying appears as the truthful situation. To me it appears as steer-stooling taqiyya. With taqiyya the aim is to fool the unbelievers and to eventually force them into a situation that they will let down their defenses against Muslims and Islam. It is paramount that Muslims lie for the greater, perfect Islam. Muslims can drink alcohol, fornicate, kill, and take drugs, etc. because they are not in Jannah, where Allah can see them. Moreover, Allah is all-forgiving. Islam is the enemy of the West and will always be the enemy of the West until it is defeated. If you believe yourself to be moderate, you will easily succumb under pressure from core-believing Muslims who would gang-rape you and then behead you at will as a sacrifice to Allah.

Thus, you are very confused and brainwashed ... a-ticking, and a-ticking, and a-ticking.

Frederick William Dame
Patriotic, Steadfast, and True
November 15, 2016

Notice:

Persons interested in knowing why Islam is not peaceful, read:

http://thecompleteobamatimeline.com/uploads/3/4/8/7/34872825/islam_is_not_peaceful.pdf.

Persons interested in knowing why Islam is not tolerant, read:

http://thecompleteobamatimeline.com/uploads/3/4/8/7/34872825/islam_is_not_tolerant.pdf.