A Kafir Brotherhood?

On March 21, 2012, Bill Warner, Director, Center for the Study of Political Islam at <https://www.politicalislam.com/blog/a-kafir-brotherhood/> published an article arguing that Americans must come together in a kind of Kafir Brotherhood to combat creeping Islam and slimy sharia. Although we must appreciate everything that Mr. Warner does to expose Islam, there is a better nomenclature than Kafir Brotherhood.

We must combat Islam with the same kind of respect that Islam shows the world: no respect whatsoever. We must see it as the enemy of freedom. We must realize that leftists, progressives, union thugs, occupiers, and anti-American millionaires and billionaires are pro-Islam only to the degree that they, too, have as their goal the destruction of the United States of America and the intent to make money while that is happening. Islam is a cancer. It has been cancerous from day one. There was never a golden age of Islam. There has been destruction of human values only. A Muslim will tell you that Islam is the source of basic human rights. However, Islamic rights do not include individual freedom and the other rights listed in the American Bill of Rights.

Any organization along the principles of a Kafir Brotherhood should not be labeled as such because the word Kafir is an Islamic term. An anti-Islam organization should be titled Patriots for America, or Patriotic America, or some similar title.

Democracy is not the answer! Democratic Republicanism is the answer because the United States of America is a Republic with positive, functioning principles of democracy. At least they were functioning until Barack Hussein Obama usurped the Constitution. Democracy alone is the rule of the mob, for the mob, by the mob. Essentially that is what Islam is: rule of Islam, by Islam, for Islam. There is no worse a mob group than Islam and its Umma; they are one. The present problem is that the Democratic Party is no longer a patriotic political party. It has not been patriotic for over one hundred years. The Republican Party is often no better. Yet, at least the Republican Party saw to it that America did away with racism, until Barack Hussein Obama appeared, for he tries to reinstall racism as often as he can.

Furthermore, the free thought that was the United States of America has become a nation of political correctness. Political correctness is a method of telling lies. Political correctness brainwashes people. With Patriotism for America, there should be no special emphasis on political correctness. It is better to be politically exact. One does not have to lie and one does not have to brainwash the citizen. In being politically exact, one uses language that is straightforward in its aim to present behaviors, ideas, policies, genders, cultures, disabilities, races, ideologies as they were in history and as they are today. There is no trespassing over the boundaries of commentary into a language of meaningless nothings. Words in a language have definite meanings. There is no use in presenting gobbledygook. For example, if a politician's stance on a certain issue is dumb, then it is dumb. Period! There is no sense in saying that the politician's stance is in such an ambiente that one might want to consider the possibilities of the of the statements made in an atmosphere of academic sensibilities concerning the relative quotients of intellectual relationships with those statements made by the political colleagues who do not necessarily, yet who also might agree or disagree on the matter at hand in an atmosphere of cordiality and mutual respect for differing opinions.

Political exactness regarding Islam is that it is evil. The complete history of the islamization of the world proves the fact.

As Patriotic Americans, we must understand that there are no such people as moderate Muslims. The only moderation in Muslims is that they will tell you that they are moderate. What appears to be moderation is nothing more than a silent observance of koranic brainwashing. You can trust a Muslim to be a Muslim. That is as far as trust vis-à-vis Muslims and Islam can go. Muslims will lie as much as necessary to gain domination over you!

American Patriots are the needed Brothers and Sisters. The ever-present goals are the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution for the United States of America. Everything that is Islam-associated or Islam-oriented, regardless of the direction from whence it comes, is anti-American, and must be fought to the end. Islam has declared war on the United States of America and the still-free world. It is time that the cancer that is Islam be exterminated. Expose it for what it is: a lunacy and the chief lunatic was Mohammed!

"There is never any "getting along" with Islam.

Its demands never cease and the demands must be met on Islam's terms:
submission."
