

Frederick William Dame

An Open Letter to Barack Hussein Obama

I received the following email from Barack Hussein Obama dated Friday, 12 October 2012.

The Subject: I HEAR YOU

"Frederick William,

How about Joe last night?

If you're as proud of him as I am, let's do what needs to be done in the final push – and let's win.

This election could come down to what happens tomorrow morning.

My team on the campaign is about to make some of the toughest budget decisions we've had to make. This is one of the last chances we get to expand our ground game for the final stretch, and what we have in the bank at midnight tonight will decide how big we can go.

Can you donate \$5 or more today, and drive this campaign forward?

I know we've asked a lot of you over the last 18 months.

I hear you.

But too much is on the line, and now is the worst possible time to decide to hold back.

Today, I'm asking you to dig a little deeper and say you're ready to fight alongside me and Joe.

Donate $5 or more right now:

Thank you,

Barack"

This is my public answer:

Barack Hussein Obama, or whatever your name is!, alias T.U.R.D. (The Usurper of Republican Democracy).

How can anyone be proud of the vocal crap that emerged from Joe Biden's orifice? I hear you, too and I don't like what I hear; either from you or from Joe Biden, or from any of your regime cronies and thugs.

Here is what you can be proud of:

All of you have come a long way with lies. I hope that the American Patriots will send all of you cronies and thugs off into political oblivion ad infinitum on November 6!

Scum is a bad word, but very descriptive when it is used as referring to persons of questionable veracity and character, isn't it?
