

ISLAM AND THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE¹

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

On Saturday, April 24, 2021, Armenian Genocide Remembrance Day, the Asterisk Occupier of the Oval Office proclaimed that the killing of up to 1.5 million Armenians during World War I and continuing after that was a historical act of genocide.²

Politicians occupying a political office illegally can make proclamations. Yet, regardless of their taking an oath of office, it does not make the proclamation legally fool-proof. To accept the Asterisk Occupier as a legitimate presenter of proclamations is akin to regarding a traitor to republican-democratic principles as being a patriot.³

Adolf Hitler spoke the following to his Army commanders on August 22, 1939: "Thus for the time being I have sent to the East only my 'Death's Head Units' with the orders to kill without pity or mercy all men, women, and children of Polish race or language. Only in such a way will we win the vital space that we need. Who still talks nowadays about the Armenians?"

A BRIEF HISTORY

At the end of the 19th century, the Bloody Sultan, Sultan Abdul Hamid II (1842-1918, Sultan 1876-1909), undertook measures to solve the Armenian Question. Armenia wanted some self-governing status within the Ottoman Empire. In 1890 and 1891, the Sultan gave Kurdish bandits, who later became the Hamidiye Alaylari (Hamidian Regiments), semi-official status. They were allowed to attack Armenians. These were the first official pogroms against Armenians sanctioned by the Ottoman Empire, and these killings are known as the first massacres, the Hamidian Massacres.⁴ At least 300,000 Armenians were massacred between 1894 and 1896. Therefore, the total genocide in Armenia borders on approximately 2 million corpses.

"What I myself saw this Friday afternoon [November 1] is forever engraven on my mind as the most horrible sight a man can see. I went with one of the cavasses of the English Legation, a soldier, my interpreter, and a photographer (Armenian) to the Armenian Gregorian cemetery. The municipality had sent down a number of bodies, friends had brought more, and a horrible sight met my eyes. Along the wall on the north lay 321 dead bodies of the massacred Armenians. Many were fearfully mangled and mutilated. I saw one with his face completely smashed in with a blow of some heavy weapon after he was killed. I saw some with their necks almost severed by a sword cut. One I saw whose whole chest had been skinned, his forearms were cut off, while the upper arm was skinned of flesh. I asked if the dogs had done this. 'No, the Turks did it with their knives'. A dozen bodies were half burned." ... "A crowd of a thousand people, mostly Armenians, watched me taking photographs of their dead. Many were weeping beside their dead fathers or husbands."⁵ Sachtleben, depicting the victims of a massacre of Armenians in Ezerum on October 30, 1895, being gathered for burial at the town's Armenian cemetery." Ezerum is located in East Anatolia. 40,000 Armenians were deported from the city in 1915.

In December 1895, Armenians of the community of Urfa, officially known as Şanlıurfa, were slaughtered.

"Cruelest and most ruinous of all were the massacres at Urfa, where the Armenian Christians numbered a third of the total population. Here in December 1895, after a two—months siege of their quarter, the leading Armenians assembled in their cathedral, where they drew up a statement requesting Turkish official protection. Promising this, the Turkish officer in charge surrounded the cathedral with troops. Then a large body of them, with a mob in their wake, rushed through the Armenian quarter, where they plundered all houses and slaughtered all adult males above a certain age. When a large group of young Armenians were brought before a sheikh, he had them thrown down on their backs and held by their hands and feet. Then, in the words of an observer, he recited verses of the Koran and cut their throats after the Mecca rite of sacrificing sheep.'

When the bugle blast ended the day's operations some three thousand refugees poured into the cathedral, hoping for sanctuary. But the next morning — a Sunday — a fanatical mob swarmed into the church in an orgy of slaughter, rifling its shrines with cries of 'Call upon Christ to prove Himself a greater prophet than Mohammed.' Then they amassed a large pile of straw matting, which they spread over the litter of the corpses and set alight with thirty cans of petroleum. The woodwork of the gallery where a crowd of women and children crouched, wailing in terror, caught fire, and all perished in the flames. Punctiliously, at three—thirty in the afternoon the bugle blew once more, and the Moslem officials proceeded around the Armenian quarter to proclaim that the massacres were over. They had wiped out 126 complete families, without a woman or a baby surviving, and the total casualties in the town, including those slaughtered in the cathedral, amounted to eight thousand dead.⁶

The killing of the Armenian Christian and Jewish populations between 1915 and 1917 by the Ottoman Muslim Turks was genocide. It was perpetrated by Pashas⁷ of the Young Turk Movement,⁸ mainly Lieutenant General Ismail Enver Pasha (1881-1922), who was the Minister of War in the Ottoman Empire as well as Prime Minister (1913, 1914-1918). He was decapitated in the Turkish War of Independence in 1921. Mehmed Talaat Pasha (1874 -1921), who was Grand Vizier of the Ottoman Empire (1917-1918). He was assassinated by an Armenian revolutionary Soghomon Tehlirian, in Charlottenburg, Germany on March 15, 1921; and Jemal Ahmed Djemal Pasha (1872-1922), a governor of the southern provinces of the Ottoman Empire, Governor of Greater Syria, and the Commander of the Army (1914-1918). He was assassinated by the Armenian Revolutionaries Stepan Dzaghigian, Artashes Gevorgyan, and Petros Ter Poghosyan in Tiflis on July 21, 1922.

Yozgad, situated in Central Anatolia, there was a slaughtering of 6400 Armenian children, young girls, and women. Their Turkish captors took them to a promontory some distance from the city.

"To save shell and powder, the gendarmerie commander in charge of this large convoy had gathered 10,000—12,000 Turkish peasants and other villagers, and armed with 'hatchets, meat cleavers, saddler's knives, cudgels, axes, pickaxes, shovels', the latter attacked and for some 4—5 hours mercilessly butchered the victims while crying 'Oh God, Oh God' (Allah, Allah). In a moment of rare candor, this gendarmerie commander confided to the priest—author, whom he did not expect to survive the mass murder, that after each massacre episode, he spread his little prayer rug and performed the namaz, the ritual of worship, centered on prayer, with a great sense of redemption in the service of Almighty God."¹⁰

The population in Armenia was reduced by 90 percent. Between 800,000 and 1.2 million Armenians were deported. The Turkish Army lost the Battle of Sarikamish to Russia in January of 1915. Turkey blamed the defeat on Armenian traitors and indications of a widespread conspiracy that was not nonexistent. The Armenians were killed and deported to solve the Armenian Question, which was the diplomatic nomenclature that was used following the Congress of Berlin in 1878 that discussed how the Armenians were to be treated and protected from their neighbors.¹¹

The underlying reason for the Armenian genocide and deportations was/is Islamization. It was a continuation of Muhammad's/Allah's divine commands and was carried out as a systematic Turkish government policy. Moreover, the said proclamation by the Asterisk Occupier of the Oval Office overlooks the fact that the killing of the Armenians is totally in line with the dictates of Muhammad and the writings in the Islamic trilogy: the Koran, the Sira, Muhammad's biography, and the Hadith, Muhammad's recorded traditions.¹²

¹² Muslims believe that the Koran is the perfect word of Allah delivered to Muhammad. Why? Because Muhammad said so. The Sira is Muhammad's biography, the most complete one being written by Muhammad bin Ishāq bin Yasār bin Hiyār, (704-767/768), translated into English by Alfred Guillaume, The Life of Muhammad. A translation of Ishaq's Sirat rasul Allah. Oxford University Press, Karachi:

The President of the Republic of Turkey claims that it was/is not genocide because there is no historical basis or Turkish legal program that supports the killings of innocent men and women and children for the simple reason that they were Christians. There was no official policy of extermination carried out against the Armenian people as a group.

The image below is from an original 1919 documentary film depicting the cruelty meted upon a group of 19 teenage Armenian Christian girls whom Muslim soldiers of the Ottoman Empire gang-raped. However, the film did not show the gruesome killings. Even for today's desensitized world of Internet gore, the gruesome murder of these young girls by Muslim soldiers will make any die-hard gore viewer turn away in 2006, hereafter referred to as Ishaq. Collected and written approximately 250 to 300 years after Muhammad's death, the Hadith is the recording of actions Muhammad (570-632) did. The most authoritative are the Hadith by Sahih Bukhari Muhammad ibn Ismā'īl al-Buchārī (820-875) of 854 and Sahih Muslim ibn al-Haddschädsch (822-875), sometime during the 9th century. Sahih means authoritative.

appalling disgust. After suffering the most debased form of rape and sexual torture by Turkish Muslim soldiers, the actual narrative goes that these young girls were later impaled on a cross and a spike driven into their private parts. Death came slowly but painfully, with the Muslim soldiers gleefully laughing at them. Crucifixion is an Islamic method of torture/killing for those who refuse Muslim rule.

The two photographs above are visual examples of the results of Islamic jihad. The fact that the soldiers laughed at the crucifixion death of the teenage girls is entirely in line with the actions of Muhammad. He did the same. The soldiers were emulating Muhammad.

"Amir B. Sa'd reported, on the authority of his father, that Allah's Apostle gathered his parents for him on the Day of Uhud when a polytheist had set fire to (i.e., attacked fiercely) the Muslims. Thereupon Allah's Apostle said to him: "(Sa'd), shoot an arrow, (Sa'd), may my mother and father be taken as ransom for you." I drew an arrow and I shot a featherless arrow at the Meccan polytheist, aiming his side. He fell down and his private parts were exposed. Allah's Messenger laughed so that I saw his front teeth."¹³

A devout Muslim will try to emulate Muhammad at every opportunity. The believing Muslim will know how Muhammad bathed, how he ate, how he put on his shoes, how he rode a camel, how he prayed to Allah, how he dressed, how he had sex with his numerous wives, how he decapitated his enemies, how he took slaves, how he went to the toilet and how he wiped himself after doing his fecal activity, which foot he placed first on entering a house or leaving a house, etc. This is Muslim perfection!

Armenian Massacre of 1915 - Severed heads Photographer: Chronicle, Date taken: 1915. Source: <https://www.alamy.com/armenian-massacre-of-1915-severed-heads-image65982171.html>, accessed April 27, 2021.

The photograph shows the severed heads of two Armenians displayed on a small cloth-covered table. The Armenian Genocide (Turkish: Ermeni Soykırımı), also called the Armenian Holocaust, the Armenian Massacres, and, by Armenians, the Great Calamity, refers to the deliberate and systematic destruction of the Armenian population of the Ottoman Empire during and just after World War I. It was characterized by the use of massacres, deportations and forced marches under conditions intended to lead to the death of the deportees. The total number of Armenian deaths is generally held to have been between 1 and 1.5 million. The Ottoman Empire attacked other ethnic groups during this period, including Assyrians and Greeks. The events were the same policy of extermination. It is widely acknowledged to be one of the first modern, systematic genocides. The scale of the death toll is evidence of an organized elimination of Armenians. The date of the onset of the genocide is April 24, 1915, the day that Ottoman authorities arrested some 250 Armenian intellectuals and community leaders in Constantinople. After that, Armenians were uprooted from their homes and they were forced to march for hundreds of miles, depriving them of food and water, to the desert in Syria. Massacres were indiscriminate of age or gender. Rape and other sexual abuse were commonplaces.

CHRISTIANS AND JEWS

According to legend, Gregory Pargev (Saint Gregory The Illuminator, 240-332) actively preached the Christian faith before adopting Christianity, which began to spread in Armenia already in the 1st century CE thanks to the apostles Thaddeus and Bartholomew.¹⁴ Christianity became the national religion in 301, thus making Armenia the first Christian nation.

There has been a Jewish presence in Armenia dating back before the spread of Christianity in the region. Historical research claims that following a retreat from Judea due to a Roman attack on Armenia, Tigranes the Great (140-55 BC, ruled 95-55 BC) brought 10,000 Jewish captives with him to the ancient Kingdom of Armenia,

A sizeable Jewish population in Armenia began in the first century BCE that established a permanent Jewish community. Many powers attempted to divide and conquer Armenia. As a result, the Jewish population and the general Zoroastrian Armenian population suffered the ramifications of invasions, occupations, and reconquests. By the 3rd century CE, there was a massive increase in Jewish immigration from the Hellenistic region. Consequently, some Armenian towns became predominantly Jewish.

The Arab Caliph Al-Walid (674-715, ruled 705-715) ordered his Muslim armies to penetrate Armenia in 705. The Armenian leaders were captured and burned alive. Under the Abbasid Caliph al-Mansur (714-775, ruled 754-775), the Muslim Arabs were the first to invade and commit terror on Christian Armenia. The caliph taxed the Armenians heavily. Torture by gibbets and presses took place everywhere when the Armenians could not pay the Islamic jizya tax. Arab Muslims ate the Armenian Christian flesh and drank their blood.¹⁵ The Christian Armenians were often executed on the gallows.

The first genocide of Armenians at the hands of Turks began precisely one millennium ago. Turkish Islam invaded Armenia in 1019. By 1049, the Seljuk Sultan Tughril Bey (990-1063, ruled 1037-1063) had burned priests, destroyed Christian churches, and plundered the Armenian populace. By 1060, six hundred churches had been destroyed, and at least 70,000 young girls and women of nobility were taken as slaves to Persia. The women were, of course, Kafir (unbeliever) women. They were captive creatures who were/are for the pleasures of Muslim men, who are allowed to have (forced) sex with their female captives.¹⁶ An undocumented number of captured Armenian Christian men were decapitated.¹⁷

Jews have always been victims of genocide, regardless of the century. There were not enough Jews to be killed that would meet the qualifications of the killings to be considered a separate genocide. Generally speaking, statistical sources list only 335 as living in Armenia in 1926. "According to the 1897 Russian Empire Census, there were some 415 people in Alexandropol (Gyumri) and 204 in Erivan (Yerevan), whose native language was Jewish and significantly smaller numbers elsewhere, 6 in Vagharshapat, 15 in Novo-Bayazet. The number of self-reported Jewish-speakers was the following in other Armenian-populated areas of the Russian Empire that now lie outside Armenia: 4 in Shushi (Artsakh), 93 in Elizavetpol (Ganja, Azerbaijan), 4 in Igdir

(now Turkey), 424 in Kars (Turkey), 111 in Ardahan (Turkey), 189 in Akhalkalaki (now Georgia), 438 in Akhaltsikhe (Georgia), 72 in Shulaveri (Georgia).

As for Western Armenia (Turkish Armenia), according to official Ottoman figures from 1914, 3,822 Jews lived in the Six vilayets that had significant Armenian population: 2,085 in Diyarbekir Vilayet, 1,383 in Van Vilayet, 344 in Sivas Vilayet, 10 in Erzurum Vilayet, and none in Bitlis and Mamuret-ul-Aziz (Harput). There were further 317 Jews in historical Cilicia: 66 in Adana Vilayet and 251 in Maraş Sanjak. "¹⁸

There are no separate statistics on the number of Jews killed between 1915 and 1917. The numbers are undoubtedly included in the total referring to the Armenian genocide. There is a historical, geographical separation into Soviet Armenia and Turkish Armenia. The genocide was predominately in Turkish Armenia. The Jews in Armenia were mainly Russian Armenian Jews.

THE ROLE OF ISLAM

Torture¹⁹

Torture plays a significant role in the spreading of Islam. The Koran commands crucifixion and mutilation.

The Koran in 5:33 says:

"Those who wage war against God and His Messenger and strive to spread corruption in the land should be punished by death, crucifixion, the amputation of an alternate hand and foot or banishment from the land: a disgrace for them in this world, and then a terrible punishment in the Hereafter"

Allah says that the criminal who strives to spread corruption in the land can be (1) executed, (2) crucified, (3) mutilated, or (4) expelled.

In Koran 5:38, Allah issues the command to chop off the hands of male or female thieves.

"[As for] the thief, the male and the female, amputate their hands in recompense for what they committed as a deterrent [punishment] from Allah. And Allah is Exalted in Might and Wise."

Halving a person. An old woman was split in two.

The executioner appointed by Zayd to torture an old woman "tied each of her legs with a rope and tied the ropes to camels, and they split her in two."²⁰

Mutilation

Muhammad reported that Allah told him that mutilation, although not mandatory, was ethical when it was done out of retaliation. Muhammad vowed:

"If God give me victory over [the] Quraysh in the future I will mutilate 30 of their men."²¹

The Muslims took a similar vow:

"By God, if God gives us victory over them in the future, we will mutilate them as no Arab has ever mutilated anyone."²²

Sahih Bukhari reports:

"Anas said, 'Some people of 'Ukl or 'Uraina tribe came to Medina and its climate did not suit them. So the Prophet ordered them to go to the herd of (Milch) camels and to drink their milk and urine (as a medicine). So they went as directed and after they became healthy, they killed the shepherd of the Prophet and drove away all the camels. The news reached the Prophet early in the morning and he sent (men) in their pursuit and they were captured and brought at noon. He then ordered to cut their hands and feet (and it was done), and their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron. They were put in 'Al-Harra' and when they asked for water, no water was given to them.' "

Burning the treasurer of the city of Khaybar

"When he [Muhammad] asked him (the treasurer of the city of Khaybar that Muhammad conquered in 628) about the rest (of the treasurer, he refused to produce it, so the apostle gave orders . . . "Torture him until you extract what he has," so [the torturer] kindled a fire with flint and steel on his chest until he was nearly dead."²⁵

Decapitation

Many Imams and apologists claim that beheading is not mentioned in the Koran. This is true. The Koran uses a different formulation as is dictated here: God revealed His will to the angels, saying:

"I shall be with you. Give courage to the believers. I shall cast terror into the hearts of the infidels. Strike off their heads, strike off the very tips of their fingers." (Koran 8:12)

"When you meet the unbelievers in the battlefield strike off their heads." (Koran 47:4) command from Allah via Muhammad. Sahih Bukhari reports that the goal of jihad is the total dominance of Islam over all other political systems and religions.

A man asked Mohammed,

"Mohammed, what manner of fighting can be considered done for the sake of Allah? Some fight because they are angry and some for their pride." Mohammed looked up at the man and said, "The man who fights to make Islam dominant is the man who fights for Allah's cause."²⁶

Mohammed said,

"The man who joins jihad, compelled by nothing except sincere belief in Allah and His Prophets, and survives, will be rewarded by Allah either in the afterlife or with the spoils of war. If he is killed in battle and dies a martyr, he will be admitted into Paradise. Were it not for the difficulties it would cause my followers, I would never stay behind while my soldiers head off for jihad. If I could, I would love to be martyred in jihad, be resurrected, and martyred again and again for Allah."²⁷

Allah has a (contractual) agreement with all jihadists. If they die in jihad, Allah will reward them above all people. If they don't die, then they can profit by theft. So the jihadist has guarantees of profit in both this world and the next.²⁸

Mohammed:

"Allah promises the jihadi with pure intent either a place in Paradise or a return to his home with spoils of war and the guarantee of Allah's reward in the afterlife."²⁹

The truth behind the politics is that Islam/Muslims consider mass killings of Muslims as genocide, but when Islam/Muslims kill Kafirs on a massive scale, it does not count as genocide. The rationale is that Islam does not kill vast numbers of Kafirs. Islam cleanses the world of Kafirs. An excellent historical example is that in Afghanistan before the Islamic conquest began in approximately 642, when the Muslim armies were victorious at the Battle of Nihavand, which the Muslims call the Victory of Victories, the inhabitants in Afghanistan practiced Zoroastrianism, Hinduism, and Buddhism. These religions no longer exist in the country. There are only about 50 Hindus who live in Kabul and Jalalabad. In the 1970s, approximately 500,000 Hindus lived in Afghanistan.³⁰ The mountain range stretching from Northern Pakistan through Afghanistan and into Tajikistan is called the Hindu Kush, meaning the funeral pyre of the Hindus.

The killing of Christians and Jews, regardless of the country, is not a capital crime. The killings are sanctioned by the Koran (Allah's word) and Muhammad to please Allah.

War is a permanent strategy of Islam against the non-believing world. Allah commands the killing of Kafirs. Muhammad says so because Allah told him to say so. Islam and Muhammad drew the first blood in killing adversaries.³¹ Resisting Islam was worse than killing adversaries.

Fighting and killing in Allah's cause as commanded via Muhammad is jihad! It is a holy act.

According to a Hadith, Muhammad once said that Muslims ought to be happy when killing heretics.³² According to Ishaq, killing helps Allah and his Apostle.³³ When Muslims kill for Allah, they see the power of Islam.

The Koran 59:3 states that Allah wreaks vengeance on his adversaries. Jihad is one of the best actions a Muslim can perform.³⁴ Jihad is an eternal action for all Muslims. Jihad is the best Muslim deed.³⁵

Jihad will continue into the future.³⁶ Jihad must last till there are no adversaries of Islam in the world.

There are 164 Jihad Suras in the Koran that speak of a military expedition, fighting for Allah, or distributing the spoils of war. They are:

Oh, how peaceful and tolerant is Islam! And the bringers of peacefulness and tolerance are Allah and Muhammad!

Dhimmitude

Muhammad very quickly saw the deficit of his strategy of killing off all Kafirs. There would be no support of the Muslims by those who had money and those who would pay taxes. Therefore, Muhammad created dhimmitude; otherwise, Muslims would have had to work themselves. A dhimmi is a Kafir who agrees to accept the rules of the Islamic law, the Sharia, who will never oppose Islam in exchange for being allowed to live and pay taxes to the Muslim ruler. A formal contract, called a dhimma, is made with Christians and Jews, which requires that they follow the rules of Islam and pay the jizya, a poll tax. If the dhimmis accept and pay the tax, the ruling government will protect them. Of course! Otherwise, the ruling Muslims would be cutting off their economic support!

The Treaty of Umar was in 637 AD. The following rules were established for all dhimmis under Islam everywhere in the Arab and future world.

³⁶ Sahih Bukhari 4,152,146 and Sahih Muslim 020,4696.

1. We shall not build, in our cities or their neighborhood new monasteries, churches, convents, or monks' cells, nor shall we repair, by day or by night, such of them as fall in ruins or are situated in the quarters of the Muslims.
2. We shall keep our gates wide open for passersby and travelers. We shall give board and lodging to all Muslims who pass our way for three days.
3. We shall not give shelter in our churches or in our dwellings to any spy nor hide him from the Muslims.
4. We shall not manifest our religion publicly nor convert anyone to it. We shall not prevent any of our kin from entering Islam if they wish it.
5. We shall show respect toward the Muslims, and we shall rise from our seats when they wish to sit.
6. We shall not seek to resemble the Muslims by imitating any of their garments.
7. We shall not mount on saddles, nor shall we gird swords, nor bear any kind of arms, nor carry them on our persons.
8. We shall not engrave Arabic inscriptions on our seals.
9. We shall not sell fermented drinks (alcohol).
10. We shall clip the fronts of our heads (keep a short forelock as a sign of humiliation).
11. We shall always dress in the same way wherever we may be, and we shall bind the zunar round our waists. (Christians and Jews had to wear special clothing.)
12. We shall not display our crosses or our books in the roads or markets of the Muslims. We shall only use clappers in our churches very softly.³⁷ We shall not raise our voices when following our dead. We shall not take slaves who have been allotted to Muslims.

³⁷ Muhammad hated bells because they were instruments of Satan. They gave him headaches and initiated his epileptic fits.

13. We shall not build houses higher than the houses of the Muslims. Whoever strikes a Muslim with deliberate intent shall forfeit the protection of this pact.³⁸

A dhimmi could not testify in a Sharia court; thus, a dhimmi had no legal recourse in an argument with a Muslim. A dhimmi could not criticize Mohammed or speak with a Muslim about Christianity. The preceding is the basis of Sharia demands in all countries that are not Islamic. For example, in the United States, the Islamization of America is already underway.³⁹

Sharia Law

The final goal is to implement Sharia law, some rules of which are:

- Theft is punishable by amputation of the hands.
- Criticizing or denying any part of the Koran is punishable by death.
- Criticizing Muhammad or denying that he is a prophet is punishable by death.
- Criticizing or denying Allah is punishable by death (Allah moon god).
- A Muslim who becomes a non-Muslim is punishable by death (Compulsion).
- A non-Muslim who leads a Muslim away from Islam is punishable by death.
- A non-Muslim man who marries a Muslim woman is punishable by death.
- A woman or girl who has been raped cannot testify in court against her rapist(s).
- Testimonies of 4 male witnesses are required to prove rape of a female (Koran 24:13).
- A woman or girl who alleges rape without producing 4 male witnesses is guilty of adultery.

- A woman or girl found guilty of adultery is punishable by death (Islamophobia).
- A male convicted of rape can have his conviction dismissed by marrying his victim.
- Muslim men have sexual rights to any woman/girl not wearing the Hijab (Taharrush).
- A woman can have 1 husband, who can have up to 4 wives; Muhammad can have more.
- A man can marry an infant girl and consummate the marriage when she is 9 years old.
- Girls' clitoris should be cut (Muhammad's words, Book 41, Kitab Al-Adab, Hadith 5251).
- A man can beat his wife for insubordination (Koran 4:34 and Religion of Peace).
- A man can unilaterally divorce his wife; a wife needs her husband's consent to divorce.
- A divorced wife loses custody of all children over 6 years of age or when they exceed it.
- A woman's testimony in court, allowed in property cases, carries one-half the weight of a man's.
- A female heir inherits half of what a male heir inherits (see Mathematics in Koran).
- A woman cannot speak alone to a man who is not her husband or relative.
- Meat to eat must come from animals that have been sacrificed to Allah - i.e., be "Halal."
- Muslims should engage in Taqiyya and lie to non-Muslims to advance Islam.⁴⁰

At best, there can be only second and third-class people subservient to Muslims as long as they pay the jizya tax to the Muslim overlords/leaders. Slavery is allowed, but slaves are sub-humans.

Allah gives Muslims the power of killing masses of Kafirs by "My permission." It is Allah's will. One cannot be an adversary of Allah (and Muhammad) because Allah is the best plotter (Koran 3:54)

The final condition of Christians and Jews is to be subservient to Islam or be killed.⁴¹ Jews are rats.⁴² They are the enemy of Islam.⁴³ Christians and Jews are the reason for the decay of the human race and livelihood.⁴⁴

The process of cultural annihilation is jihad, then dhimmitude, and then the destruction of the dhimmi culture, which is then replaced by Islam and Sharia law.

TRUCES

Islamic countries never sign treaties with their adversary country, culture, or organization. Islamic countries sign truces. In the western concept, the agreement may be called a treaty, even an international contract, but the agreements are truces in the Islamic political system. A truce should not exceed a length of 10 years. That's what Muhammad propagandized, and the Muslims, all of them believe every word that Muhammad said and adore every action that he undertook against non-believers, particularly Jews. Muslims will always try to emulate Muhammad.

The ten-year truce concept is illustrated by the fact that it is based on the ten-year treaty of Hudaibiya that was ratified between Muhammad and his Quraysh opponents in Mecca in 628. Theoretically, the maximum amount of time Muslims can be at peace with infidels is ten years. Based on Muhammad's example of breaking the truce after two years, citing a Quraysh infraction, the sole function of the "peace-truce"

(hudna) is to buy weakened Muslims time to regroup for a renewed offensive. Muhammad is quoted in the Hadith saying:

"If I take an oath and later find something else better, I do what is better and break my oath."⁴⁵

European countries, primarily Germany, interpret Barack Hussein Obama's policy towards Iran as prohibiting Iran from ever obtaining nuclear weapons. NATO countries and Western countries in the United Nations do not understand that the western concept of pacta sunt servanda means nothing to a Muslim country/leader. If the Muslim country wants to believe it, that country will do so until it decides on something better. Muhammad said the above quote, and it still holds because he received the message is from Allah. In Muslims' beliefs, neither Allah nor Muhammad make mistakes. For Muslims, the signing of any peace agreement, contract, treaty is provisional only. Western countries never understand this. Although the recent agreements between Israel and some Muslim countries initiated by the Trump administration are very positive international political developments, Israel should be wary of these agreements' intent and eventual outcome. Never trust a Muslim! Their actions are always underscored by the concept of taqiyya.

EXPLAINING TAQIYYA

There is always the possibility that an Islamic leader/country will be deceptive. The doctrine of deception is called taqiyya. Taqiyya is the "concealing or disguising one's beliefs, convictions, ideas, feelings, opinions, and/or strategies at a time of imminent danger, whether now or later in time, to save oneself from physical and/or mental injury." A one-word translation would be "dissimulation."⁴⁶ Taqiyya permits Muslims to deceive non-Muslims actively and beyond the context of self-preservation.

"Taqiyya [deception] is of fundamental importance in Islam. Practically every Islamic sect agrees to it and practices it. We can go so far as to say that the practice of taqiyya is mainstream in Islam, and that those few sects not practicing it diverge from the mainstream... Taqiyya is very prevalent in Islamic politics, especially in the modern era."⁴⁷

The primary Koranic verse that gives divine sanction to deceiving non-Muslims countries and cultures is:

"Let believers not take for friends and allies infidels instead of believers. Whoever does this shall have no relationship left with Allah – unless you but guard yourselves against them, taking precautions."⁴⁸

Al-Tabari's (838-923 AD) expanded on this standard concept to the entire Muslim concept when he wrote:

"If you [Muslims] are under their [non-Muslims'] authority, fearing for yourselves, behave loyally to them with your tongue while harboring inner animosity for them ... [know that] Allah has forbidden believers from being friendly or on intimate terms with the infidels rather than other believers—except when infidels are above them [in authority]. Should that be the case, let them act friendly towards them while preserving their religion."⁴⁹

The Islamic scholar Ibn Kathir (1301-1373) proclaimed: "The Most High said,

"[U]nless you but guard yourselves against them, taking precautions"—that is, whoever at any time or place fears their evil may protect himself through outward show—not sincere conviction. As al-Bukhari records through Abu al-Darda the words [of the Prophet], "Truly, we grin to the faces of some peoples, while our hearts curse them."⁵⁰

Other Islamic scholars have expanded the concept of taqiyya to include behaving like infidels in the following manner, such as bowing down and worshipping idols, or even doing anything except killing a fellow Muslim.⁵¹

War is deceit

Muhammad is the example of the most perfect human. The Koran states this 91 times. Muhammad allowed deceit to take place in three situations: reconciling two or more quarreling parties; husband to wife and vice-versa; and in war, because according to Muhammad, war is deceit.⁵²

A Muslim named Muhammad bin Maslama volunteered to kill the poet Kab, who had made derogatory verses against Muhammad. Maslama needed Muhammad's permission to deceive Kab so that he could get near him to kill him. Muhammad gave his permission.

After Maslama had gained Kab's confidence, Maslama, and another Muslim assaulted Kab and killed him, severing his head. Upon seeing Kab's severed head, Muhammad shouted "Allahu akbar" or "God is great."⁵³

Allah is the source of the Islamic doctrine of taqiyya. Allah is the "best deceiver" (Koran 3:54, 8:30, 10:21). Islamic dual ethics allow Muslims to deceive because when Muslims or Islam are weak, they ought to preach and behave peacefully, as the Meccan suras proscribe. However, when they are strong, they ought to behave violently; they should go on the offensive, according to the Medina suras. This is an excellent example of Islamic dual ethics. The later Median suras abrogate the earlier Meccan suras.

War is eternal

War is eternal until "all chaos ceases, and all religion belongs to Allah" (Koran 8:39). "The duty of the jihad exists as long as the universal domination of Islam has not been attained. Therefore, peace with non-Muslim nations is a provisional state of affairs only; the chance of circumstances alone can temporarily justify it."⁵⁴

⁵² Sahih Muslim B32N6303 "War is deceit" is in Sahih Bukhari 4,52,269.

⁵³ Sahih Bukhari 5,59,369.

⁵⁴ Emile Tyan, The Encyclopedia of Islam (Leiden: Brill, 1960), vol. 2, s.v. "Djihad," pp. 538-40.

"By their very nature, peace treaties must be of temporary duration, for in Muslim legal theory, the normal relations between Muslim and non-Muslim territories are not peaceful, but warlike."⁵⁵ Hence "the fuqaha [jurists] are agreed that open-ended truces are illegitimate if Muslims have the strength to renew the war against them [non-Muslims]."⁵⁶

Furthermore, there can be no question of genuine peace treaties with these nations; only truces, whose duration ought not, in principle, to exceed ten years, are authorized. But even such truces are precarious since they can, before they expire, be repudiated unilaterally should it appear more profitable for Islam to resume the conflict.⁵⁷

Islam must be in a constant state of war with the non-Muslim world. However, it need not be physical, as radicals among the Ulema (scholars) have classified several non-literal forms of jihad, such as "jihad-of-the-pen" (propaganda) and "money-jihad" (economic) – and if Muslims are permitted to lie and feign loyalty to the infidel to further their war efforts, offers of peace, tolerance, or dialogue from extremist Muslim corners are called into question.

Religious obligation?

Fighting, animosity, and hatred, directed from the Muslim to the infidel, is the foundation of Islam. Muslims believe it is a sign of justice and kindness to Kafirs because only their submission to Islam can ever bring peace.

There is an interesting philosophical – more particularly epistemological – problem with taqiyya. It rests on Allah's ethics. Muslims believe that no less an authority than Allah justifies and even encourages deception. Therefore, according to Allah via Muhammad, they will not experience dilemmas or ethical qualms about lying.

This is particularly true if the human mind is indeed a tabula rasa shaped by environment and education. Deception is a first nature.

CLOSING STATEMENT

Not only Armenia has suffered from the Jihad of evil Islam. In the Civil War in Sudan (2013-2018) up to 2 million Christians were killed and enslaved in Sudan and 4 million were forced to leave their homes because Muslims were trying to institute Sharia law on Christians in Southern Sudan.⁵⁸ This is also genocide. Egyptian Coptic Christians have been the target of Islamic State jihadists because the Coptics support Egyptian President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi (1954-20XX, President since 2014). A presentation of the warning to the Coptic Christians is the killing of the Coptic Christian Nabilo Habashi Salama, aged 62.

As of this writing Islamic jihadists during the holy fasting month of Ramadan have killed 2305 persons and wounded 1274.⁵⁹ Contrary to Islamic propaganda, Ramadan is a month of jihad.

"Muhammad waged his first and most crucial battle, the Battle of Badr, on the seventeenth day of Ramadan (which fell this year on May 10) in 624 A.D. Muhammad led 313 soldiers out of his town, Medina, to intercept a Damascus-bound caravan. It was allegedly loaded with the possessions of Muslims that Meccan pagans had confiscated after the Prophet's Hijra (immigration to Medina in 622 A.D).

The Meccans mobilized an army of 1000 men to confront the Muhammad's armed force. But according to the Quran, with the help of an army of angels, Allah granted Muhammad victory against the odds.

Across the world, Muslims commemorate Muhammad's victory every Ramadan. They invoke that event to give hope to a desperate Islamic nation that the golden days of Islam may return."⁶⁰

Islam does not have a Judeo-Christian GOLDEN RULE that says do unto others as you would have them do unto you. The history of Islam is characterized by Islam becoming wealthy through violence against the Kafirs. Islam is nothing more than a political system with a divine license from Allah to take what is desired through war. Jews are nothing but apes and Christians nothing but pigs. (Koran 5:59)

Turkey and Azerbaijan will not cease their conflict with Armenia. It would be against Allah's and Muhammad's divine commands to allow a neighboring Christian nation to continue to exist. Regardless of who the Muslim ruler is in the respective countries, they will continue their holy jihad into perpetuity. It is Allah's will!

The Ottoman jihad against Armenia was genocide. The Turkish historian Taner Akcam in his book Killing Orders: Talat Pasha's Telegrams and the Armenian Genocide uncovered official, authentic documents and telegram communications that have never before been published. They destroy the present Turkish denial of the genocide. The Ottoman government had a central, controlling role in the elimination of the Armenians.⁶¹

The killing of Armenian Christians will continue. The still existing Armenian Jews are not safe either!

In 1991, The Republic of Armenia gained independence from the Soviet Union. Its larger neighbor, Azerbaijan, an Islamic country, began attacking Armenia on September 27, 2020 to capture the region known as Berg-Karabach. The Republic of Turkey, an Islamic country allied with Azerbaijan, transported thousands of jihadists from Syria to fight against the Christian Armenians.⁶² After the truce signing on November 9, 2020, Azerbaijan (with Turkish support) and Armenia accused each other of breaking the agreement. Azerbaijan claimed that Armenia did not live up to its promise according to international law.⁶³ Being a Muslim country, only Azerbaijan has the right to nullify truces, as noted above. As a guarantor of the truce, Russia intervened, and the mutual accusations did not flare up into a military entanglement between Armenia and Azerbaijan.⁶⁴

Approximately 98.7 percent of the Armenian population is Christian (3,256,113).⁶⁵ Between 300–500 Jews presently live in Armenia, most of them in the capital Yerevan. They are of Ashkenazi, Mizrahi, and Georgian origin.⁶⁶

Islam is successful because it is a political system with a modus operandi of anti-humanitarianism, brutality, and violence. This has been the situation during the time span from the first killings instigated by Muhammad at the Battle of Badr in 624 up to the Islamic jihad attack on the World Trade Center on September 9, 2001. During this period, at least 270 million people were eliminated by Islam via torture, killing, and war. This is a very conservative estimate documented by Dr. Bill Warner of the Center for the Study of Political Islam.⁶⁷ If one considers collateral deaths, i.e., deaths of relatives as a result of psychological traumas and suicides, and the deaths of Muslims themselves, the total could easily reach up to one billion during the last 1400 years. The jihad for the elimination of Kafirs, regardless of the Kafir nationality and culture, is perpetual. Mohammed claimed,

"I have been ordered to wage war against mankind until they accept that there is no god but Allah and that they believe I am His prophet and accept all revelations spoken through me. When they do these things I will protect their lives and property unless otherwise justified by Islamic law, in which case their fate lies in Allah's hands."⁶⁸

Islamic jihadists have an unquenchable thirst for Kafir blood and an unsatiable hunger for Kafir corpses. Perhaps this reverts back to the pagan days of Muhammad. Alfred Guillaume reports incidences of cannibalism.⁶⁹

It will always be a part of Islamic doctrine routine to terrorize and kill Kafirs because doing so is a command from Allah. It will be accomplished in Allah's name. Peace will exist only when all people submit to Islam. Islam means submission! We must not forget that Muhammad and the Koran state that violence and terror are sacred.

"I have been given five things which were not given to anyone else before me:

1. Allah made me victorious by awe, by His frightening my enemies for a distance of one month's journey.
2. The earth has been made for me and for my followers, a place for praying and a place to perform rituals; therefore, anyone of my follow-ers can pray wherever the time of a prayer is due.
3. The spoils of war has been made lawful for me, yet it was not lawful for anyone else before me.

⁶⁸ Sahih Muslim 001,0031.

⁶⁹ There were Meccans who were not opposed to cannibalism. Quraysh women of Muhammad's tribe drank wine out of their enemies' skulls. Some Meccan women actually cut the nose and ears off Muhammad's uncle Hamza and used the nose and ears to make anklets and collars, necklaces that fit tightly around the neck. Hind, a Quraysh woman, extracted Hamza's liver and chewed it. Apparently this tradition was a survival of prehistoric animism. By eating an enemy's liver it was hoped to absorb the deceased's strength. Consult Alfred Guillaume. Islam, Penguin Books, New York: 1956. p. 385, fn. 1, and p. 387.

4. I have been given the right of intercession on the Day of Resurrection.

5. Every Prophet used to be sent to his nation only but I have been sent to all mankind.⁷⁰

The Western world leaders are full of willful ignorance when it comes to understanding the evil that is Islamic reality, which consists of Sharia law, jihad, killings, torture, mutilations, decapitation, burning, stoning, and dhimmitude. These leaders would rather apologize for Islam and claim, as Islam propagandizes, that Islam is peaceful and tolerant.

Leading the pack of such spineless politicians is the present corrupt, antisemitic, self-spineless, and incoherent Asterisk Occupier of the Oval Office.⁷¹
