BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA IS FULL OF SERVICE BUT DOES NOT KNOW WHAT PATRIOTIC SERVICE IS

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

It has been a week since on March 2, 2011, two United States Air Force men were killed by gun shots in their heads and two more were wounded. The killer, Arif Uka, a 21-year-old Kosovo Muslim who worked part-time for the German Postal Service at Frankfurt Airport in Germany, shouted "Alahu Akbar!" and "Jihad! Jihad!" during the shooting. Had his pistol not blocked there would have been more killings. The German authorities claim that he acted alone and has no contact with Islamic jihadist organizations.

However, Arif Uka became radicalized via Internet contacts concerning propaganda against the involvement of United States Forces in Afghanistan. Being brainwashed for a period of three weeks via virtual Internet associations with at least 140 organizations known to be Islamist/jihadist, and by viewing Islamic propaganda films over the Internet, Arif Uka was convinced that as a part of the umma, the world Muslim community, it was his duty to undertake action against the Americans who were killing his Muslim brothers and sisters in Afghanistan. [1]

The putative occupier of the Oval Office, Barack Hussein Obama, made the following statement regarding the shootings. "I'm saddened, and I am outraged, by this attack that took the lives of two Americans and wounded two others. I think the American people are united in expressing our gratitude for the service of those who were lost." [2] Barack Hussein Obama made no mention of the killings being Islamic terrorist killings. Indeed, Barack Hussein Obama made no mention of Islam or that it was an attack by a radicalized terrorist on the United States military in a foreign country, which is an attack on the United States of America.

Two questions that immediately rise are:

1. Why were no references made to the killings being Islamic terrorist killings?
2. What was Barack Hussein Obama saying or trying to say with his "I'm saddened and I am outraged" statement, especially with the phrase "united in expressing our gratitude for the service of those who were lost"?

The first question is quite easy to answer. There were no references to Islamic terrorism or just plain terrorism because the phrase Islamic terrorism and the word terrorism are not part of Barack Hussein Obama's prodigious-let-me-be-clear-rhetorical vocabulary. Only racism is part of his sophomoric intellect. Of course, everyone knows that terrorists, particularly Islamic terrorists are not racists. They are freedom fighters. Being a Muslim that he is, Barack Hussein Obama cannot insult Islamic freedom fighters by calling them terrorists. Terrorism does not occur in the Koran and it was never practiced by Mohammed. (There are other words for it!) The methods of Islamic invasions and aggrandizement as well as the activities of Mohammed, especially during the last ten years of his life during which he undertook devious machinations to spread Islam violently in the Arab world of his time can never be considered as terrorist activities because they were undertaken on Allah's behalf. Indeed, there is the Arabic activity jihad, which is a responsibility and an important duty of all Muslims. Normally, the word jihad is translated into English as struggle. There are at least 41 occurrences of the concept of jihad appearing in the Koran. The singular person who undertakes jihad is called a mujihad; the plural is mujahideen. There are Sunni Muslims who consider jihad to be a sixth pillar of Islam, the other five pillars being the shahada (creed), salat (daily prayers), sawm (fasting during Ramadan), zakat (the giving of alms) and hajj (the pilgrimage to Mecca at least once in a lifetime.) Although jihad being a sixth pillar of Islam is not an official status, jihad is one of the ten ways to practice the so-called religion. [3] Muslims use the word jihad to refer to their inner struggle to keep their faith; the struggle to improve and expand Islam; and the struggle to defend Islam against all kinds of enemies. In the Western World the concept of jihad is often translated as Holy War. With the application of the concept of al-taqqiya, the idea that a Muslim can undertake anything as long as it supports the expansion and establishment of Islam throughout the world, the emphasis is to stress that jihad is not a warring concept, but rather a non-militant coping with problems facing Islam.

Barack Hussein Obama has to follow his line of al-taqqiya and thus he made a typical Barack Hussein Obama non-committal statement, like he has always done in the past. For example:

On June 1, 2009 Abdul Hakim Mujahid Muhammed killed a United States Army recruiter and wounded a second recruiter in Little Rock, Arkansas. Abdul Hakim Mujahid Muhammed was labeled a lone wolf by Barack Hussein Obama two days later.

On November 5, 2009 United States Army Major Nidal Malik Hassan killed 14 United States Army personnel and wounded 30. After the killings were investigated, the Barack Hussein Obama regime labeled Major Malik Hassan a lone wolf.

On December 25, 2009 Umar Farouk Abdulmutallab, known as the underwear bomber, who attempted an attack on Northwest Flight 253, was labeled a lone wolf by the Barack Hussein Obama regime.

In May 2010, Faisal Shahzed attempted a car bombing of Times Square in New York City. The Barack Hussein Obama regime labeled him a lone wolf.

Consequently, these instances cannot be acts of terror carried out by jihadists because the persons were psychologically disturbed, and in the case of Faisal Shahzed the bombing attempt was caused by frustration due to personal economic misfortune. It is not important to Barack Hussein Obama that investigations proved beyond doubt that all four terrorists were linked to al-Qaeda.

The second question, What was Barack Hussein Obama saying or trying to say with the phrase “united in expressing our gratitude for the service of those who were lost”? needs to be examined in more detail.

There are 22 definitions of the word service in The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, including the adjective and transitive verb definitions. Therefore, a presentation of the definitions as they appear chronologically in the dictionary accompanied by a short etymological history is appropriate in order to examine what Barack Hussein Obama meant by his statement.

DEFINITIONS, ETYMOLOGY, AND THEIR SEPARATE HISTORIES [4]

The word service derives from the Latin noun for slave and slavery servus, which also gave rise to servitum, thus servitude. It occurs in French as servise and service, the latter spelling dating sometime before 1300. In about 1300 there was also a Middle English verb servisen, which meant to serve as a retainer. Other than these etymological beginnings, there is no Indo-Germanic (Indo-European) origin known to linguistic historians.

The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language tells us that the definitions of service as a noun are:

1. The occupation or duties of a servant. This meaning occurs in the English language sometime before 1200. It is referred as meaning this in Ancrene Riwe, (also Ancrene Wisse), a monastic manual that was written in the late 12th or in the first half of the 13th century. [5]
2. Employment in duties or work for another, especially such employment for a government. The historical meaning is the same as in definition number 1.
3. A government branch or department and its employees, the government service. Civilians working for the government are in the civil service

4. The armed forces of any nation or a branch thereof. The meaning in the sense of a duty or militia service of a sailor or soldier to one's country was first recorded sometime in the 1580s to 1590. The serving in the military as an occupation occurs in 1706. The term service mark originated in 1945.
5. Work or duties performed for a superior. The historical origin is the same as in definition number 1.
6. Work done for others as an occupation or business. The mechanic provides excellent service to car owners.
7. Installation, maintenance, or repairs provided by or guaranteed by a dealer or manufacturer. The noun terminology service station came into American English in 1921. The meaning of doing maintenance or repair work on something was coined in American English in 1926. The term service charge came into the English language in 1929.
8. A facility providing the public with the use of something, such as water or transportation. Examples are communal water service, communal transportation service, and communal health service.
9. Acts of devotion to God; witness to God. With the orthography being servise, this meaning came into existence about 1175.
10. A religious rite. This meaning was most likely used with the orthography serfise sometime before 1100.
11. An act of assistance or benefit to another or others; favor. My wife does me a great service in representing me.

12. The serving of food or the manner in which it is served. This is the meaning of food provided by a servant or the sequence of courses that are served in a meal, like appetizer, soup, main dish, desert, etc. This meaning came into existence about 1300.
13. A set of dishes or utensils. By 1699 we find the word meaning a set of dishes or utensils. The meaning of a particular dish occurs circa 1536.
14. The act, right, or manner of serving in many games, as tennis, volleyball, and jai lai, that are played on a court; a serve. The professional tennis player often serves aces.
15. Copulation with a female. The sense of a lascivious man is attested in the 1550s.
16. In law, the serving of a writ or summons. An important responsibility of the courts is to serve writs.
17. Any material, as cord, used in binding or wrapping rope. The service binding provided added protection.

The definitions of the adjective form service(able) are:

1. Of or for service; suitable, useful. This meaning appears sometime before 1393 in Confessio Amantis (The Lover's Confession), a poem in Middle English by John Gower, composed sometime between 1386 and 1393.
2. Not for use by the general public; reserved for employees, deliveries, or the like: a service elevator, a service road. The latter meaning came into the English language in 1921.

3. Of or pertaining to the armed forces. The serving in the military as an occupation occurs as early as 1706 and the meaning as a professional member of the armed forces of a country came into the English language in 1899.

The definitions of the transitive verb form service, serviced, servicing, services are:

1. To make fit for use; adjust; repair; maintain, service a car. To provide or supply services to, as a commodity used by the public. This meaning came into the English language in 1893.
2. To copulate with. Used in connection with male animals and male homosexuals. The sense of referring to male animals, like the stallion serviced the mare, goes back to the late 14th century. The use of (faggot) service to mean male homosexual servicing of another male homosexual person arises in American English in 1914.

Since the killed and wounded Servicemen at the airport in Frankfurt, Germany were/are United States military personnel, the only service that Barack Hussein Obama could have referred to is the noun definition of number four above and the adjective definition of number three above. Be aware of how Barack Hussein Obama made the reference!

BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA! Place the following into your socialistic/communistic-Islamic-brainwashed head!! There is more than adequate space!!! Such service is truly called patriotic service!!!! Patriotic service is the loyal support of one's country. Patriot and its associated words like patriotic and patriotism can be traced in the English language back to circa 1596. [6] Patriotism is not a new word Barack Hussein Obama. Yet we are not surprised that Barack Hussein Obama's let-me-be-clear genius does not like the word, for we should know by now that Barack Hussein Obama is no patriot! [7] Barack Hussein Obama did not just forget to say the word patriotic. The non-use of the word was intentional because Barack Hussein Obama hates patriotism!

WHY BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA HATES PATRIOTISM

There are reasons for Barack Hussein Obama's dislike, indeed, hatred of the terms patriotism, patriot, and patriotic. The first reason is that Barack Hussein Obama is a Muslim. Muslims have no concept of the word patriotic as it is related to one's country in the sense of the nation state, for their country is the umma, the world community of Muslims devoted to the daily practicing of Islam. Indeed, the concept of nation state is nothing more than tribalism in Islam. Nationalism and the nation state are alien concepts in Islam because the basis of the ideology is the collecting of people together and the bonding of them to the belief in Allah and Mohammed. [8] It is absolutely forbidden to group Muslims along the lines and dictates of tribalism, which is what the concept of the nation state would connote in Islam.

It is sourced in the hadiths of Sahih Muslim and Sahih Bukhari [9] that "It is narrated by Abu Da'wud that the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said, 'He is not one of us who calls for 'asabiyyah, (nationalism) or who fights for 'asabiyyah or who dies for 'asabiyyah.'" [10] And in another hadith also recorded in Sahih Muslim and Sahih Bukhari, "the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) referring to nationalism, racism, and patriotism said, 'Leave it, it is rotten.'" [11] One can read the following hadith recorded in Mishkat al-Masabith, "the Messenger of Allah said, 'He who calls for 'asabiyyah is as if he bit his father's genitals.'" [12] The Islamic message concerning patriotism and nationalism is explicitly anti-Islam.

A second reason Barack Hussein Obama hates the concept and practice of patriotism is that patriotism is adverse to socialism/communism and Islam in the umma. They have as their self-imposed destiny and ideology the goal of organizing the world into one community. According to Barack Hussein Obama's politics, only socialism/communism in cohort with Islam and the umma can save the world from democratic republicanism and capitalism.

The third reason why Barack Hussein Obama hates the word patriotism is that he cannot be patriotic to a country, even if he is the bogus leader of that country, when he possesses no natural born citizenship relationship to that country. Barack Hussein

Obama is not a natural born citizen of the United States of America according to Article II, Section I, Clause V of the Constitution for the United States of America. Therefore, he has no natural law birthright of being born an American citizen to two parents who were both citizens of the United States of America at the time of Barack Hussein Obama's birth.

BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA IS WHAT HE BREATHES

It is appropriate to ask this question: Is Barack Hussein Obama a good Muslim? The definite answer is NO! Consider this hadith from Sahih Bukhari: "Abu Huraira reported The Apostle of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: 'When any one of you awakes up from sleep and performs ablution, he must clean his nose three times, for the devil spends the night in the interior of his nose.' " [13]

Here we have a let-me-be-clear statement from the source of all Islam. Mohammed says that Muslims are supposed to clean their nose and nostrils with water when they rise in the morning. Islamic Mohammed taught that it was necessary to sniff water into one's nostrils and then blow it out. This would cause the person to blow the devil out of one's body. Perhaps in his nuits saines, Mohammed in his omniscient knowledge dreamed that the devil came into the body through the nose during the hours of nightly sleep.

Evidently Barack Hussein Obama does not blow-wash his nose when he awakes in the mornings. Thus, the problem with Barack Hussein Obama is that he keeps the devil in his body. Barack Hussein Obama has done this all of his life. The devil and Barack Hussein Obama are a united entity. Coupled with the fact that there are so many Obamatons who are into Barack Hussein Obama so deep where the sun does not shine means that there is stoppage at the other-end orifice of the satanic Barack Hussein Obama. The devil could not escape through that exit if he wanted to because he would encounter oh so many evil aspirants who would also want to become one with the devil. The devil has decided that Barack Hussein Obama is his only served recipient at the present. The copulation is perfect.

Barack Hussein Obama, the elected jihadist and Islamic terrorist, is the singular lone wolf occupying the Oval Office who is leading the pack of sub-wolves in their dictatorship over the American sheeple. Barack Hussein Obama's form of terror is subtly evil. Barack Hussein Obama is aware of only two definitions of service:

1. The advancement of socialism/communism, Islam, and, including in a spiritual euphoria, himself. As such it is disservice to the United States of America in any conceivable manner, from advocating socialism/communist within the framework of Islam to the zeroing of the Constitution for the United States of America.
2. For what it is worth, the servicing of his possible homosexual lover and basketball czar Reggie Love, Barack Hussein Obama's body man, or being serviced by him, may be of the utmost importance to Barack Hussein Obama, according to an article in Globe Magazine on 22 July 2009. [14] It may be of more importance than playing rounds of golf, which as of this writing Barack Hussein Obama has done 60 times since inauguration day on 20 January 2009. This is an average of one round of golf per every 1.85 weeks. [15]

CLOSING REMARKS

As you read the following paragraph, recall the statement that Barack Hussein Obama made on March 4, 2011 regarding the (Islamic-jihadist-terrorist) killing of two United States Airmen in Frankfurt, Germany, particularly the phrase “united in expressing our gratitude for the service of those who were lost”.

One the same day as the Frankfurt, Germany terrorist attack on the United States Servicemen was executed by the Muslim jihadist Arif Uka, The Army Times reported on March 2, 1011 that “The Obama administration’s narrow interpretation of a new law granting benefits and support to the caregivers of severely injured Iraq and Afghanistan veterans has sparked bipartisan outrage in Congress, with a key senator warning of a ‘hell of a fight’ if the administration moves ahead with its pending regulations.” The Army

Times further reported that the number of military families that would be recipients of benefits that include "medical training, monthly living stipends, health care benefits, counseling and respite care for primary caregivers of severely disabled veterans" will be reduced by 75 percent. [16]

The evil one is stealthily working in the background to restrict exceedingly important and needed medical benefits and treatments for American veterans who patriotically served the United States of America.

That is real gratitude. What else would one expect from this Satan?

"I don't want some mom whose son may have recently died to see the commander in chief playing golf," he said. "I feel I owe it to the families to be in solidarity as best as I can with them.
