

COMMENTS ON A COMMENT ON A MERKEL STATEMENT

On January 8, 2019, at <http://right.fromrightandleft.com/2016/01/08/angela-merkel-and-the-liberals-are-wrong-about-migrants/> AssOnRight wrote a comment titled Angela Merkel and the Liberals are WRONG About Migrants. AssOnRight comments on Germany's Chancellor Angela Merkel's statement that "We must accept migrants are more criminal." I now take the opportunity to comment on AssOnRight's comment. Therefore, this is my comment on a comment with my comments appearing in red after each statement made by AssOnRight.

I want to address three issues today:

1. We (the West? Or Germany? Or Europe?) ought to bear the suffering of our neighbor. (I'm not sure that the West should bear the suffering of "our neighbor" when that suffering is caused by an evil force. That evil force, the source of the suffering must be eliminated from existence.)

I am a devout Christian and it breaks my heart to see human beings, humans that Jesus loves, being persecuted and suppressed in a war-torn part of the world. (Every devout Christian feels this! Human beings who are persecuted and suppressed in whatever part of the world is one excellent reason to eradicate the evil force.)

I don't care what religion they are or what color they are. (The color of the followers is not important. The principles of the religion are important. If Islam were a religion in the sense of Christianity or Judaism, it would have practically no adherents. However, it is a cult of evil that supports evil, and rewards its members for doing evil.)

We are all part of Adam's race (Race? Heritage is a better word.) and all need the intercession of Jesus Christ. (Muslims say that they don't need such intercession because their moon god Allah via an epileptic fit of Muhammad said that the intercession of Christ was not necessary because Muhammad would be the active intercessor.)

I also believe that when we can be the body of Christ and help human suffering we should. (It is impossible for Muslims to be the body of Christ. They reject this concept or any such action. For Muslims, Muhammad, not Christ, is the person to emulate. Muslims want to be like Muhammad!)

There are so many things that we could be doing to help that we just aren't. (One of the first actions to do is to recognize Islam for what it is: An evil human creation.) Let me just list a few:

- We could be militarily solving this crisis so these poor people have a stable homeland. (Agreed, and immediately!)
- We could be shipping aid into the Middle East for truly hurting women and children. (Agreed, immediately, but not through the control of Erdogan in Turkey or any other potentate in the Middle East.)
- We could be leaning HARD on Arab nations to take their first refugees. The list could go on ... (Don't lean hard on them! Force them to accept more refugees and pay for the destruction that they are causing in Syria, in Libya, in Israel, etc. Moreover, propagandize the truth about Barack Hussein Obama's and Hillary Clinton's responsibility for the failure of their actions in Libya, Egypt, and Syria that allowed the rise of these catastrophes.)

This conflict isn't that complicated. (No conflict involving Islam is complicated. The conflict is evil sourced!)

Its (sic: it's) like doing business, you don't have to like the person, you just have to pay them. (But that is Obama's Chicago way of conducting business. It makes those who pay just as much a criminal as those receiving the payment!)

Why aren't we actually picking a side and winning (i.e. the side that would support our government in Iraq, which many military families have sacrificed to create)? (The support of the German and the American government's side in Iraq is flawed because the German and American governments are supporting a regime in Iraq that is not conducting its political business according to the principles of international law and diplomacy, but according the principles of Islam, their Sunni interpreted Islam, which is basically evil just as any other interpretation of Islam like those interpretations according to the Shiites or Suffis are evil. Regardless of the types of Islam, history has always shown them to be evil, and destroyers of cultures. Nothing good ever came out of Islam or any type of Islam!)

Sometimes our ally just needs to be the enemy of ISIS. (The allies of the West must always be freedom and democratic republics – for example Israel – not any Islamic potentate or created obstacles to freedom and democracy because the true threat is Islam, whether it is formed in ISIS or any other Islamic movement like the recognition of a United Nations invention of Palestinian state within or at the borders of Israel.)

Why has there been no leadership by Obama to use our vast resources to solve this crisis? And I'm talking about the military and humanitarian issues. (The basic principle concerning Obama and leadership is that Obama likes himself. Therefore, Obama will undertake only those actions that he believes are good for him! Barack Hussein Obama does not care about oppressed peoples, unless they are oppressed by capitalism and democratic republics. Obama is a Muslim and he is convinced that Islam is good for the world. It is his wish to establish an international Islamic movement that would counteract any trend to the further existence of freedom and democratic republics and establish a Umma, an Islamic world caliphate. The very important person politicians in the West do not understand this. Neither do they understand the evil that is Islam.)

2. What does any part of #1 above have to do with allowing hordes of refugees into your country, and why does it give them a get out of jail free card to go around raping women? The Western world is built on principle and law. (That is the problem. Those refugees and asylum seekers from Muslim countries recognize the Sharia law only. In their minds the laws in Western democratic republics are weak and not ordered by Allah or Muhammad. Therefore, they must not be recognized and followed.)

The role of government is limited, (Not in Islam! It is all pervasive!) but one proper role is to administer justice. There is no justice in allowing lawlessness and no person is above the law. (Well, What about Obama? Practically everything he has done is outside the law of the Constitution for the United States of America.)

Angela Merkel, you are just flat out wrong and the liberals who call for refugee's (sic: refugees) are flat out wrong. (Practically everything liberals call for are wrong The conservative Christian Socialist Union, the governing party in German Bavaria has stated throughout the past year the weakening of the European laws on refugees will ultimately cause the disintegration of the European community and Germany, to say nothing of other countries like Norway, Denmark, France, etc. What the Christian Socialist Union in Bavaria has said is coming true, but German political parties like the Left (Die Linken) and the Greens (Bündnis 90, Die Grünen), are still calling for more refugees and more understanding of those who believe in Islam. They always claim that those who are against more controls concerning the admittance of refugees and Muslims are racists and Neo-Nazis.)

We could be helping in meaningful ways that do not allow for situations like what is happening in Germany. We send massive ships with aid all over the world for natural disasters. Where is this today? (The influx of refugees and Muslim asylum seekers into America and Europe, and Germany is not a natural disaster. It is a controlled, desired movement by Islamic-controlled politics to undermine Western societies.)

3. Finally, as a Christian, we now have the opportunity to reach countless Muslims who have been denied the gospel under Sharia and Muslim rule. (What a wonderful statement this is! It disregards all Islamic propaganda realities. The world was created for Islam. Being a Christian will get you only two things: either the status of a poll tax-(jizya) paying dhimmi or a beheading if you do not convert to Islam. First, Islam must be presented by an international program as not to even be considered a religion. If Islamic states can get the United Nations to declare that the criticism of Islam is hate speech and must be prosecuted, but not the criticism of Christianity, Judaism or any other belief system is not hate speech and is allowed, then the tables have been turned 180 degrees. Islam is at best a cult, cult of wickedness. The Koran itself is hate speech!)

In their suffering the ground is fertile for them to listen to the Gospel. (The ground has always been fertile for the spread of Christianity in Islamic countries. However, when there are Islamic countries like Turkey, Iran, and Saudi Arabia that deny the existence of churches in the country or even the possibility of reading the Holy Bible, and no Western democratic republic will take a stand against such countries – because of the fact that they are sources of oil and natural gas – then nothing will ever happen.

Where are the churches today? (They are no longer in existence due to liberal, leftist philosophy, which is quite a contradiction in terms. The fact that churches are increasingly becoming defunct proves that Karl Marx and the goals of Communism have been successful!)

Where are the missionaries and people bringing them the good news? (Missionaries wouldn't even be allowed into the Islamic country to be missionized! Who cares about missionaries? The youth and the public nowadays are more concerned with who knows who, the size of Kim Kardashian's derrière, how to get free stuff from the government, or who is dating who in Hollywood, or Obama is such a good person, or Michelle is so beautiful. [Vomit!!!] The good news for the youth and the brain-dead public is the answer to the question Where's the next party?)

While the first two points can firmly land on the liberal's heads, this one is our own failure. (All of the points land on the liberals' heads. The failure is that most people in the Western democratic republics have been dumbed down and they accepted it willingly.)

Let's stand up for strong borders, human dignity, and religious freedom in the year to come and ditch these stupid liberal ideologies. They just don't work.

(Conservatives have always stood for strong borders but then the Kennedys let everybody into America as future Democrat Party voters in 1965. Human dignity has been established in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution for the United States of America. However, over 150 years of liberal education policies at the political behest of the Democrat Party have caused Americans to lose all of their respect for these documents and the human dignity contained therein. Religious freedom is essential to the existence of a democratic republic. Yet, Islam should not be considered a religion. The Koran and the teachings of Muhammad in the Hadith are nothing more than a volume of hate speech and a collection of hateful actions.

Yes, ditch not only the stupid liberal ideologies, which are interlaced with hate speech, but also the liberals, who consist of haters of everything that is conservative, correct, and just!!! That will work!!!)

Mr. AssOnRight! Your comments are interesting, but they are futile because you are really slapping on the wrist without doing any slapping and the reason for this is that what you write is politically correct. Your stance is quite sophomoric at best!!!
