Number Eight

Characters like Barack Hussein Obama are found in all democratic republics and are despised by their patriotic citizens. Barack Hussein Obama! Your kind of character has no dignity!! You are the epitome of nothingness!!!

There is a dignity in the warm passions of an American Patriot that is never to be found in the cold malice of Barack Hussein Obama. In the former there is the heat in the heart that permeates the body and soul. In the latter there is poison. The instant an American Patriot has it in his power to punish, he feels a disposition to forgive. But the canine venom of Barack Hussein Obama knows no relief but revenge. This general distinction will, I believe, apply in all cases and suits as well WE the People vs. the Obama thug regime.

Barack Hussein Obama! As I presume your last proclamations before Congress and your teleprompter speeches before the American public will undergo the strictures of other patriotic pens, I shall confine my remarks to only a few germane points that show your evilness. All that you have said might have been comprised in half the compass. What you say and feel is so important to you. However, it is really tedious and unmeaning, and only a repetition of many of your former follies, with here and there an offensive aggravation. Your cargo of lies will have no market. It is unfashionable to look at them – nay ... even speculation is at an end. They have become your drug and are in no way calculated for the climate of rational thinking American Patriots.

In the course of your blabbering you argue that the policies as well as the benevolence of your regime have thus far checked the extremes of class conflict, yet you support and instigate class conflict as often as you can, particularly when they tend to distress a people still considered as our fellow subjects, and to desolate a country shortly at your instigation to become again a source of mutual hate. What you mean by the benevolence of your regime is to me inconceivable. To put a plain question: Do you consider yourselves humans or devils? For until this point is settled, no determinate sense can be put upon the benevolence. You have already equaled and in many cases excelled, the savages of other dictatorships in the world; and if you have a cruelty in store you must have imported it, unmixed with every human material, from the original warehouse of Hell.

WE the People are indebted to the interposition of Providence for the short chain that limits your ravages and her blessings on our endeavors. WE the People detest the so-called Obama regime's benevolence. Remember you do not, at this time, command a foot of land in the United States of America. We the People circumscribe your power; wherever you are physically located, regardless of the geography of the golf course. To avoid a defeat, or prevent a desertion of your goon thugs, you have taken up your quarters in golf holes and caves on ski slopes of inaccessible security. You even resort to seek protection from something resembling the wild bellowing of a moose cow calling your opponents Knuckleheads. In order to conceal what everyone can perceive, you always endeavor to impose your propaganda upon us as an act of mercy. If you think to succeed by such shadowy devices, you and your obots are but infants in the political world; you have the A, B, C, of stratagem yet to learn and are wholly ignorant of the people you have to contend with. Like clowns in a state of intoxication you and your thugs forget that the rest of the world has eyes, and that the same stupidity which conceals you and your thugs from yourselves exposes you to the deserved satire and contempt of the world.

The politics of Barack Hussein Obama's socialism-communism professes the unnatural design not only of estranging Americans from Americans, but of mortgaging America and her resources to our enemies, such as your refusal to build the Keystone pipeline, which is only an extension and straightening of existing pipelines. You would rather have Americans pay a Dhimmi-jizya tax to Saudi Arabia and other Arab oil producing countries in the form of oil purchases at too expensive a price!

I consider your lying declarations like a madman biting in the hour of death. What you say ever contains likewise a fraudulent meanness; for, in order to justify barbarous conclusions, you advance false positions. The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution for the United States of America are open, noble, and generous. They are true policy, founded on sound philosophy, and neither a surrender nor mortgage, as you have scandalously insinuated and called for their revamping in your weird political direction. I have seen every proposal and speak from positive knowledge.

In Barack Hussein Obama, Americans have never found an affectionate friend and faithful ally. In Barack Hussein Obama, Americans have found nothing but tyranny, cruelty, and infidelity.

But the happiness is that the mischief you, Barack Hussein Obama, threaten is not in your power to execute; and if it were, the punishment would return upon you in a ten-fold degree. The humanity of America has hitherto restrained her from acts of retaliation. The affection she retains for many individuals has, to the present day, warded off her resentment and operated as a screen to the whole. But even these considerations must cease when national objects interfere and oppose them. Repeated aggravations will provoke a retort, and policy justifies the measure. WE the People mean now to take you seriously upon your own ground and principle, and as you do, so shall you be done by.

You ought to know that you and the DemocrAT Party are far more exposed to incendiary desolation than WE the People in our present state can possibly be. Americans occupy a country whose riches are in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution for the United States of America, and patriotism. The wealth of DemocrATS lies chiefly in giving handouts of other people's money to the depositories of unions, fleets of dumbed-down followers, and society's parasites. There is not a DemocrAT's politically held office but may be laid in ashes by a single patriotic counter candidate. Your own may probably contribute to the proof: in short, there is no evil which cannot be returned when you come to incendiary political mischief. Such election losses that the DemocRATS will sustain when executed in the 2014 election season is infinitely greater than any loss you can inflict. Barack Hussein Obama and the DemocRATS neither are, nor can be secure from this sort of election destruction, and, as political pundits justly observe, a loss at the November elections will bankrupt the DemocRATS and the Obama regime.

In the past it has been the custom of Republicans and Democrats to make honest accusations on each other. The honest accusation herewith is in reality a truth: just as there are Republicans In Name Only, there are Democrats who are nothing but Democrats only.

Think not that our distance secures you, Barack Hussein Obama, or our invention fails us. WE the People can much easier accomplish such a point in our revolution against you than any dog gulping down its chuck. WE the People do not talk the same language. WE the People do not dress in the same $10,000 habit. WE the People do not appear with the same bullying manners as you. WE the People can pass from one part of America to another unsuspected; many of us are more acquainted with the country than you are, and should you apolitically provoke us, you will most assuredly lament the effects of it. Mischiefs of this kind require no intelligence to execute them. They require only hate and a love of evil. The meanness is obvious and the opportunities unguardable. I hold up a warning to your senses, if you have any left, and likewise to the very unhappy people who think their affairs are committed to you. I call not with the rancor of an enemy, but with the earnestness of a friend on the deluded people of Obamaland lest between your blunders and theirs, they sink beneath the evils that you have contrived for us all.

"He who lives in a glass house," says a Spanish proverb "should never begin throwing stones." This is exactly your case and you must be the most ignorant of mankind, or suppose us so, not to see on which side the balance of accounts will fall. There are many other modes of retaliation, which, for several reasons I choose not to mention. But be assured of this, that the instant you put your threats into execution, a counter-blow will follow it. You openly profess yourselves savages and it is high time WE the People should treat you as such, and if nothing but distress can recover you to reason, to punish will become an office of charity. Indeed, it is more than probable that your own folly will provoke a much more ruinous act. Say not when mischief is done that you had not warning and remember that WE the People do not begin it, but mean to repay it. This much for your savage and impolitic threats when you speak!

Regardless of what you say, surely the union of absurdity with madness was never marked in more distinguishable lines than those that come out of your foul mouth when you speak off your teleprompter. You may do well enough for you, who dare not inquire into the humble capacities of American Patriots; but WE the People, who estimate persons and things by their real worth, cannot suffer our judgments to be so imposed upon; and unless it is your wish to see yourself exposed, it ought to be your endeavor to keep yourself out of sight, preferably in a padded room enclosed by iron bars. The less you have to say about yourself the better. WE the People have done with you, and that ought to be answer enough. You have often been told so. Strange that the answer must be so often repeated. You go a-begging as a dictator-king and spoiled brat, or with some unsaleable commodity you were tired of; and though everybody tells you no, no, still you keep hawking your health care for the American people about whom you do not care. As WE the People have no inclination to welcome you and your product, WE the People bid nothing for it. However, there is one constitutional commodity that will have you in time.

The impertinent folly of your narcissistic self deserves no other notice than to be laughed at and thrown aside, for the principle on which you are founded is detestable. Americans are invited to submit to a man who has attempted by every cruelty to destroy them, and to join him in making socialism-communism the joi d'être in America? Your positions are the steer stools par excellence.

Can Bedlam in concert with Lucifer form a more mad and devilish request? Were it possible a people could sink into such apostasy they would deserve to be swept from the earth like the inhabitants of Sodom and Gomorrah. The proposition is a universal affront to the rank which man holds in the creation, and an indignity to Him who placed him there. It supposes that Americans are made up without a spark of honor, and under no obligation to God or man.

What sort of men or Christians must you suppose the Americans to be, who, after seeing their most humble lives insultingly rejected; the most grievous laws passed to distress them in every quarter; an undeclared domestic war let loose upon them, and everyone invited to the slaughter; who, after seeing their kinsmen murdered, their fellow citizens starving to death because they have no income, and their houses and property being reclaimed; who, after the most serious appeals to heaven, the most solemn abjuration by oath of all government connected with you, and the most heartfelt pledges and protestations of faith to each other; and who, after soliciting the friendship, and entering into alliances with other sections of the country, should at last break through all these obligations, civil and divine, by complying with your horrid and infernal proposal? Ought WE the People ever after to be considered as a part of the human race? Or ought WE the People not rather to be blotted from the society of mankind and become a spectacle of misery to the world? But there is something in corruption, which, like a jaundiced eye, transfers the color of itself to the object it looks upon, and sees everything stained and impure; for unless you were capable of such conduct yourselves, you would never have supposed such a curse of socialism-communism. The offer fixes your infamy. It exhibits you as a creature without faith; with which oaths and treaties are considered as trifles, and the breaking of them as the breaking of a bubble. Regard to decency or to rank might have taught you better; or pride inspired you, though virtue could not. There is not left a step in the degradation of character to which you can now descend; you have put your foot below the ground floor, indeed, below the domiciles of worms, and the key of the dungeon is turned upon you.

That the invitation to become socialist-communist may want nothing of being a complete monster, you have thought proper to finish it with an assertion which has no foundation, either in fact or philosophy. The only true assertion is: Socialism-communism is evil!

WE the People style ourselves as the enemy of the Obama regime, and by way of propagandizing the establishment of estranging political ideas the Obama regime is styled the enemy of WE the People. Indeed, the Obama regime IS the enemy of WE the People. The Obama regime IS totally non-philosophical! The Obama regime IS barbarism! They are of the same species and when applied to beings of the same species, let their station in the creation be what it may. WE the People have a perfect idea of a natural enemy when the devil comes into the play, because the enmity is perpetual, unalterable, and unabateable. It admits neither of peace, truce, or treaty; consequently the warfare is eternal, and therefore it is natural. WE the People are humans confronting evil and know that on moral and ethical grounds WE the People must be in opposition to the Obama evil that is a curse on the American society.

Our quarrels are not accidental and they are not equivocally created. WE the People cannot become friends of the Obama regime based upon any concept of hope and change that is evil in its core. The Creator has constituted the Obama regime's socialism-communism as the enemy of mankind. He has not made socialism-communism any one order of beings. That comes from Satan. Even though WE the People may quarrel, WE the People will still hold together. If any two opposing opinions are so, then the offence of one opposing opinion frequently originates with the accuser. Yet, the Obama regime does not maintain it has an opinion only. It claims it has the doctrine that is the answer to America's troubles. Problems cannot be solved with evil solutions.

Separated from the reality of WE the People, the Obama regime has contracted an unsocial habit of manners, and imagines in others the jealousy it creates in its own sphere. Never long satisfied with peace, the Obama regime supposes the discontent universal, and buoyed up with its own importance, conceives itself the only object pointed at.

WE the People and the Obama regime are not natural enemies. There does not exist in Nature such a principle. WE the People receive our essence from the Laws of Nature. The Obama regime receives its existence from the antithesis to Nature: Satanic Hell!

The expression natural enemy has been often used, and always with a fraudulent design; for when the idea of a natural enemy is conceived, it prevents all other inquiries, and the real cause of the quarrel is hidden in the universality of the conceit. Men start at the notion of a natural enemy and ask no other question. The cry obtains credit like the alarm of a mad dog and is one of those kinds of tricks which, by operating on the common passions, secure their interest through their folly.

But WE the People are not to be thus imposed upon. WE the People live in a large world and have extended our ideas beyond the limits and prejudices of racist baiters. WE the People hold out the right hand of friendship to all the universe and WE the People conceive that there is a sociality in the manners of democratic republic countries that is much better disposed to peace and negotiation than that of negotiation with the evil Obama regime. Until the latter becomes more civilized – which will never happen because the Obama regime is uncivilized to the core – it cannot expect to live long at peace with any American Patriot. The Obama regime's common language is vulgar. It is offensive. It is permeated with the rudiments of insult. The Obama regime is Hell; the mighty arm of Satan that shakes the earth to its center and its poles; the scourge of good! Barack Hussein Obama is the terror of the world! Barack Hussein Obama governs with a nod and pours down vengeance as if he were some kind of god. His language neither makes a nation great or little; but it shows a savageness of manners and has a tendency to keep national animosity alive. The entertainments of his speeches are calculated to the same end, and almost every public exhibition of an Obama regime propagandist is tinctured with insult. Barack Hussein Obama is always in dread of the Constitution; terrified at the apprehension of the Bill of Rights; suspicious of being outwitted by WE the People; and privately cringing though he is publicly offending. Let him, therefore, return to Hell and he will find the idea of a natural enemy to be only a phantom of his own imagination.

Little did I think at this period of the domestic war to see a proclamation which could promise Barack Hussein Obama no one useful purpose whatever, and tend only to expose him. One would think that you were just awakened from a four years' dream, and knew nothing of what had passed in the interval. Is this a time to be offering laws by your phone and pen? Is it worth your while, after every force has failed you, to retreat under the shelter of a phone and pen? Or can you think that WE the People are to be begged or threatened into submission by a signature on a piece of paper or a phone call? But as the taxpayer supported, self-appointed dictator-king that you are, you conceive yourself bound to do something, and the genius of ill-fortune told you that you must pen or phone.

For my own part, I do not threaten to put phone to the ear or to put pen to paper in order to execute lies. I put pen to paper in order to tell the truth. One truth is that of all the words in the English language that are negative in their meaning, not one of them can be used to describe Barack Hussein Obama because that character is in a hole deeply below those negative meanings. Convinced of our superiority by the issue of every election campaign conducted legally, I am inclined to hope that that which all the rest of the world now see, would become visible to you, and therefore felt unwilling to ruffle your temper by fretting you with repetitions and discoveries. There have been intervals of hesitation in your conduct, apparently because you were high on some drug, or because you were infatuated with yourself, or because you were preoccupied the weird, unnatural love of a body servant, from which it seemed a pity to disturb you, and a charity to leave you to yourself. You have often stopped, as if you intended to think, but your thoughts have ever been too early, or too late, and always evil.

There was a time when Congress and the Courts disdained to answer, or even hear a petition from WE the People concerning your ineligibility. That time is past and they are petitioning our acceptance. WE the People now stand on higher ground and offer documented information supporting Barack Hussein Obama's impeachment, and the time will come when they, perhaps in vain, will take it from us. The latter case is as probable as the former ever was. Congress and the Courts cannot refuse to acknowledge our independence with greater obstinacy than they before refused to hear cases of Barack Hussein Obama's constitutional eligibility. There is something in obstinacy which differs from every other passion; whenever it fails it never recovers, but either breaks like iron, or crumbles sulkily away like a fractured arch. Most other passions have their periods of fatigue and rest; their suffering and their cure; but obstinacy has no resource, and the first wound is mortal. Congress and the Courts have already begun to give it up, and they will, from the natural construction of the vice Barack Hussein Obama has committed, find themselves both obliged and inclined to do so.

Barack Hussein Obama! If you look back you see nothing but loss and disgrace. If you look forward the same scene continues, and the close is an impenetrable gloom. You may plan and execute little mischiefs, but are they worth the expense they cost you, or will such partial evils have any effect on the general cause? Your propaganda expeditions will be felt at a distance like an attack upon a hen-roost, and expose you in the world with a sort of childish frenzy. Is it worthwhile to keep thugs and goons and dumb persons to protect you in writing proclamations? Possessing yourselves of yourselves is not conquest, but convenience, and in which you will one day or other be trepanned. American Patriots' morals and ethics – which you never had – will mean that your next political action will lock you into your bread-and-water cell.

It would puzzle all the politicians in the universe to conceive what you stay for, or why you should have stayed so long. You are prosecuting a domestic war in which you confess you have neither object nor hope, and that conquest, could it be effected, would not repay the charges: in the meanwhile the rest of your affairs are running to ruin and a revolution is kindling against you. In such a situation there is neither doubt nor difficulty; the first rudiments of reason will determine the choice, for if peace can be procured with more advantages than even a conquest can be obtained, he must be an idiot indeed that hesitates. Do not hesitate any longer. Resign from your usurped position and go into some self-imposed exile paid for by your friendly pay-to-play palls in Islamic cartels.

But you, Barack Hussein Obama, are probably buoyed up by a set of wretched mortals, who, having deceived themselves, are cringing with the duplicity of a spaniel for a little temporary bread. Those men and women will tell you just what you please. It is their interest to amuse in order to lengthen out their protection. They plan to keep you amongst them for that very purpose; and in proportion as you disregard their advice, and grow callous to their complaints, they will stretch into improbability and season their flattery the higher. Characters like these are to be found in every country, and every country will despise them. Barack Hussein Obama, you are one such character.
