

Imagine

Imagine there's no breakfast
No lunch or dinner too
For everyone is shiftless
Just like me and you
Imagine all the people
Starving every day...

Imagine there's no borders
No guards protecting you
Losing your belongings
To folks you never knew
Imagine all the terror
Each and every day...

You may say I'm an Obot
But I'm not the only one
Maddow said that I must join her
And support the chosen one...

Imagine no possessions
When everything is free
No need to work to earn it
With yours distributed to me
Imagine all the people
Living just like me...

You may say I'm an Obot
But I'm not the only one
Maddow said that I must join her
'Cause the left is so much fun...
