

Frederick William Dame

(Exercising freedom of speech ... as long as it still exists.)

Just Thinking

Number 172 Special GOOD-BYE Issue

On January 20, 2017, Donald John Trump will be sworn into office as the 45th President of the United States of America. Barack Hussein Obama will be gone, although he has rented a house in Washington D.C. so that he can be ever-present to comment contra the politics of the Trump Administration and take action against them. Based upon his experience as a misleader, shown in the image below, Barack Hussein Obama will attempt to further destroy everything he encounters that he does not agree with.

I admonish you, Barack Hussein Obama to shut up your face! You have caused enough damage to the United States of America!

Source: <https://glennhenson.files.wordpress.com/2011/04/image001-obama.jpg>.

Barack Hussein Obama was never with the American people, particularly American patriots. He was always with America's enemies. He was a frustrated individual when he became President-Elect in 2008 and he remained frustrated. He could only compensate for this frustration by playing golf and conducting himself in every anti-constitutional and anti-American activity that he could think of. This is how Obama functioned. This is his placard in eight years of change that were nothing but destruction, domestically and internationally.

The picture of Obama's world is the picture of Obama. His world is himself. He is at the center of the universe which he believes cannot exist without him. He claims he has superior intelligence, but he was never able to explain political problems and their solutions. He was only able to use strawman arguments and create chaos where no chaos existed. Barack Hussein Obama's whole regime had no free choice to think otherwise and provide differing viewpoints. In retrospect, everything was chaotic. Chaos was his interest. Chaos was his bludgeon. Obama's lamestream media, Obama's cabinet, Obama's czars that he used to circumvent congressional control, Obama's consultants, Obama's so-called Republican opposition of RINOs, (Republicans In Name Only) were required to think as Obama thought. Indeed, many of them were bought for their thinking!

Barack Hussein Obama isolated the United States of America against playing a constructive role in world politics from a position of strength. He tried to be brutal in drawing red lines. But every foreign government leader saw that his red lines were nothing more than wet washcloths without substance slapped at a non-existent object. Barack Hussein Obama was unable to realize that the world is complicated and that his foreign policy could not withstand pressure from America's adversaries, from North Korea and China to the United Nations and the Islamic State, which Obama helped to create and described as only a junior varsity team in the arena of world conflict games.

Barack Hussein Obama did not desire to penetrate the Middle East conflict, but took sides with the Muslim groups and countries that desire to exterminate Israel. Obama did not construct an advisory system upon which America could rely. Rather, he decided to place American power under the auspices of the Muslim-controlled United Nations, the most politically corrupt organization in the world.

In Hillary Rodham Clinton and John Kerry he had persons who would respectively make any anti-American decision for money and who would sell his birthright for a word of praise from Islamic terrorists. Both of them never really never had an American foreign policy. Both of them were YES persons. Hillary said YES to everything that brought in contributions to the Clinton Foundation. Kerry said YES to everything that was pro-Islam, anti-Israel, and anti-American. That was Obama's intent: nominate people who will say YES to Obama and NO to America. The YES-in-Chief said YES to everything that he envisioned as a socialist-communist, in reality everything that was fascist and totalitarian. All three, Obama, Clinton, and Kerry were and are pathetic.

In the Obama regime, it was totally clear how power was distributed. It wasn't! It was the goodwill of Obama. It was Obama instructed. Governmental power did not come from the American Constitution. Political power did not flow into the bureaucracy with department heads being able to make their own decisions. Everything came from Obama's evil-infested cranium.

Obama's statements were formulated lies. He very often contradicted himself because he did not understand the subject matter, or was more concerned with playing a round of golf.

Obama truth developed a new system, a parallel universe that came with Obama's hallucinations of lies with which he managed to dumb down Americans. They have accepted them and they are comfortable. Assuredly, Obama's regime made the American citizen and the illegal immigrants comfortable, even more so than vegetables, for even vegetables decide on their own when to make the decision to feed on nutritious sources so that they can grow. However, there were never nutritious sources from the Obama regime that would allow America and Americans to grow. All that came out of the Obama political cloaca was a substance that was authoritarian and especially cesspool-left-wing-propagandized populism.

Obama feels comfortable in this kind of world because he is able to bend it to his liking. Obama's lies are the deliberate creation of a different reality and in this pseudo-reality is where Obama is masterly: the created chaos, the created straw arguments yielding created confusion.

Barack Hussein Obama – no one really knows who he really is and from whence he comes – always stressed that his policies were for the average American without having any concept of what made up the Average American. It was this method that kept Americans separated from reality.

At <http://pamelageller.com/2017/01/giving-aid-comfort.html/> American patriot Pamela Geller evaluates what Obama has done in eight years to help America's enemies.

“And while he may be leaving office, his actions warrant review and reflection, lest we ever again become proud enough to boast, ‘That could never happen here.’ Much did happen, and we were content to ignore, block, unfriend, change the channel, and avoid the sobering reality of Obama's open assault on the foundations of America. Historians will write about what he was able to accomplish in plain sight, and will surely express awe at the total abject blindness and apathy our citizens exercised in response to his crimes.”

“Logic dictates that once is a mistake, twice is suspicious, and three times is a pattern. In short, the actions of Obama as president continually favoring enemies of the United States are not just suspicious—they are official policy. At some point, Obama's actions must be understood as criminal and premeditated. Obama is not incompetent. He is simply on the opposite side, a scary though obvious conclusion.”

Barack Hussein Obama is always scary and a continued threat to the existence of the United States of America because Barack Hussein Obama lives in a world of his own created illusions of omnipotent fantasies.

The English language is very creative and contains irrefutable truths. There are five words in English that when placed together are a most beautiful GOOD-BYE to Barack Hussein and Michelle Obama. With all sincerity, they are:

GOOD RIDDANCE

TO

BAD RUBBISH!

***

Frederick William Dame
Patriotic, Steadfast, and True
January 19, 2017