The Daily Mail reports, "A furious mob [of Muslims] has desecrated dozens of Commonwealth War Graves in a Libyan cemetery amid continuing fury in the Middle East over the burning of the Koran by U.S. soldiers. Headstones commemorating British and Allied servicemen, killed during World War II campaigns in the Western Desert, lay smashed and strewn across Benghazi Military Cemetery. Protesters rampaged through site on Friday, despite efforts by America to calm tensions sparked when it emerged U.S. soldiers had burned Muslim holy books in a pile of rubbish at a military base in Afghanistan." (At AtlasShrugs.com, Pamela Geller writes, "And Obama is apologizing. In addition, our Generals are apologizing. In addition, the Pentagon is apologizing. America, where are you on this? Why would civilized men apologize for destroying materials that were being used to send jihadist messages to kill our soldiers, our citizens? This is madness. Where are Muslim apologies for 1,400 years of jihadi wars, land appropriations, cultural annihilations and enslavements? Where are the apologies for the relentless war on the Jews, the Hindus, Christians, and all non-Muslims? Where are the apologies for 911, 7/7, 3/11, the Cole, Khobar, Beslan, and Bosnia? As an American, I do not apologize. I withdraw Obama's apology. I withdraw General Allen's apology. I condemn their apology. I do not submit to a culture that suffocates ideas, critical thinking, women, non-Muslims. I do not apologize that the United States of America is 'the greatest, the noblest and, in its original founding principles, the only moral country in the history of the world.'"

JT: Isn't it amazing what a following the Mon-god Allah has? What must we call this following? The answer is easy. They are lunatics!

Apologies to the Afghan people from Obama and General John Allen are apparently not enough for the Obama administration, which sends acting assistant secretary of defense for Asia and Pacific security affairs Peter Lavoy to the All Dulles Area Muslim Society (ADAMS) Center, a Virginia mosque, to apologize to its members. Lavoy states, "I come here today to apologize on behalf of the Department of Defense for the incident that took place in Afghanistan this week."

JT: I think that the apologies to Afghanistan and the Muslim world, the Umma, and all Islamic dictatorships –none are democratic republics – for the burning of the Holy Koran in Afghanistan, which was thrown into the rubbish by the Afghans themselves, is not enough. The United States of America should apologize for the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution for the United States of America. Apologies must be made for winning the two world wars that were fought against dictatorships for freedom. We must apologize for all of the presidents of the United States of America, including James Earl Carter and cigar-fetish William Jefferson Clinton. We must not apologize for Barack Hussein Obama because he is such a genius and a leader of the unfree world. But we must apologize for not yet having made him the first world caliph! We must apologize for all of the Nobel Prizes that Americans have received and return the prizes and the prize monies, because all of the intelligence that went into competing and receiving such prizes is an insult to the lunacy of Muslims. We must apologize for the Jewish faith and Christian faith because they are the only religions in the world that have human rights, a moral law, and the laws of nature as their foundation. We must apologize that our children have teddy bears and dolls instead of Moon-god Allah idols. We must apologize to all Muslims and their ideology that we are sorry that we do not believe in the Moon-god Allah. Come on, America! Apologize! Apologize! Apologize! Allah hop!!!

Chicago's Cardinal Francis George says that under Obama "The state is making itself into a church."

JT: Okay patriotic and non-patriotic Americans! ... Have you all got thrills running up your legs now? Isn't it wonderful that Obama is destroying freedom of religion in order to replace it with the freedom of the Obama caliphate? Are you all ready to bow down before him, him, him f__k him? If you are not ready then read this:

"THERE IS NO TIME LEFT"

Obama Syndicate Plans Imminent Takeover of USA by Islam and Globalists

by Sher Zieve

While Congress ignores it (or secretly supports it), the US courts continue to fall one by one towards accepting and utilizing Shari'a law in place of US law and the wholly-owned-by-the-totalitarian-Left-and/or-the-Saudis (same thing) media continue their mindless and largely irrelevant programming (to continue the mesmerizing of the American people) Obama is openly supporting and assisting the Islamist takeover of the USA. I have been writing about this since prior to the Obama syndicate's usurpation of the White House. However, it's comforting to know that my more well-known brethren have at last gotten the message and are now, also, writing about it. In the end, we are all in this together!

Recently, Senior Fellow for European Politics at the Madrid-based Grupo de Estudios Soeren Kern wrote in his article "Caliphate Conference" Seeks to Islamize Europe, U.S.": "The explicit aim of the Istanbul Process — currently backed by the Obama administration — is to make it an international crime to criticize Islam. A Muslim fundamentalist group is organizing a conference focused on turning Austria and other European countries into Islamic states.

"The "Caliphate Conference 2012" will be held on March 10 in the Austrian town of Vösendorf, situated just south of Vienna. The main theme of the event will be "The Caliphate: The State Model of the Future."

"The conference is being organized by Hizb ut-Tahrir [Party of Liberation], a pan-Islamic extremist group that seeks to establish a global Islamic state, or caliphate, ruled by Islamic Sharia law." The remainder of the article is at

A caliphate will bulldoze all of the freedom-loving citizenry under the earth! Get ready to genuflect. Buy your official Barack Hussein Obama genuflection kit, complete with the sacred Obama carpet and a directional compass to tell you which direction Washington Mecca DC is, the holy city of the Obama caliphate. I greet Obama, O the greatest Obama, O, O, O, rectal hole!

I bow down to you in rectal position.

I bow down to you in rectal position and show you the soles of my shoes.

I bow down to you in rectal position and wish that the fleas of a thousand camels infest your armpits.

I bow down to you in rectal position and wish that a thousand camels defecate on you.

O intelligent one. I bow down to you in rectal position and honor you as the most intelligent jackass in the world.

I bow down to you in rectal position and honor your mind, which is like a plate, flat and shallow.

I bow down to you in rectal position and say à la Shakespeare in Henry IV, Second Part:

"Away, you scullion! you rampallion! you fustilarian! I'll tickle your catastrophe."

O Barack Hussein Obama,

I bow down to you in rectal position to honor you as a unicorn – a freak, homunculus homo sapiens homunculus that was germinated outside of the legal bounds of procreation!

FoxNews.com reports, “Israeli officials say they won’t warn the U.S. if they decide to launch a pre-emptive strike against Iranian nuclear facilities, one U.S. intelligence official familiar with the discussions told the Associated Press. The pronouncement, delivered in a series of private, top-level conversations, sets a tense tone ahead of meetings in the coming days at the White House and Capitol Hill. Israeli officials said that if they eventually decide a strike is necessary, they would keep the Americans in the dark to decrease the likelihood that the U.S. would be held responsible for failing to stop Israel’s potential attack. The U.S. has been working with the Israelis for months to persuade them that an attack would be only a temporary setback to Iran’s nuclear program.” [29658]

JT: The real reason why Israel would keep the USA in the dark if it attacked the nuclear facilities in Iran is to make sure that Obama would not warn the Ayatollahs and Mullahs in Iran about the coming attack.

The Jerusalem Post reports, “Islamist parties won more than 80 percent of seats in Egypt’s upper house of parliament, the country’s election board announced Sunday. The Muslim Brotherhood’s Freedom and Justice Party took 58 percent of the seats in contention, while the harder-line Salafist Al-Nour party came in second with a quarter of all seats. The nationalist Wafd party came in third with just 7 percent of the vote.”

JT: Wow! I'm surprised. I didn't think that the Muslim Brotherhood was that popular! I thought that the Muslim Brotherhood was an organization for Muslim gays. As for the Salafist Al-Nour party that believes in pure Islam à la the days of Mohammed. I think that the Salafists should revert to the pre-medieval times and their living conditions. There should be no TV, radios, pcs, toilets, airplanes, houses, etc.; just tents, camels and donkeys, and a man who reads only the Koran, if he can read at all, and who has four wives and slave maidens. Allah hop!!!

In Chicago, Louis Farrakhan, the controversial Jew-bashing leader of the Nation of Islam, addresses a crowd of thousands of supporters and asks, "Do you think they're wicked enough to be plotting our brother's [Obama's] assassination as we speak?"

JT: I don't think the assassination of Obama would be wicked. I would like to think it would be Allah's will, and if not that, then just a good turn of events!

Don Fredrick at The Obama Timeline reports in the February installment that "At IllinoisPayToPlay.com investigative reporter Hugo Floriani writes, "Daniel T. Frawley, a former business partner of Antoin 'Tony' Rezko, claims he gave Rezko $400,000 that Rezko gave to then U.S. Senator Barack Obama. This claim comes through Frawley's emails to, and conversations with, Robert 'Bob' Cooley, former Chicago mob lawyer turned government informer and author of the book on Chicago corruption entitled 'When Corruption Was King.' ...Frawley's claim that the money he gave Rezko went to Obama is alluded to in a December 1, 2010 deposition executed in the context of a legal malpractice complaint filed by Frawley, on July 9, 2010, against his former attorney and long-time friend, George Weaver. ...Frawley's claim, that he passed money to Rezko that went to Obama, is referenced in an email to Cooley dated May 31, 2011, wherein Frawley outlines his thoughts on how to bring 'this' to the public's attention." The email stated, “PUT AS THE GUTS OF THE [law]SUIT THE MEETING AT THE FOUR SEASONS AND THE 400 GRAND GOING TO YOU KNOW WHO AND THE USE OF THE MONEY.” According to Floriani, “Cooley confirmed to a source that ‘YOU KNOW WHO’ refers to then U.S. Senator Barack Obama. Cooley also told a source that, ‘Dan was wearing a wire for a couple of years on Tony Rezko, and he told the feds he was giving money to Rezko for Barack Obama. They told him over and over again never to discuss Obama and wires with the FBI, the U.S. Attorney’s office, and never even mention Obama’s name. ...According to the source, Cooley added that Frawley told him in several emails, during multiple phone conversations, and in a face-to-face meeting in Chicago, that he gave more than $1 million to Rezko ‘who said that he wanted it for Obama.’

As noted previously in The Obama Timeline, in April of 2005, while Aiham Alsammarae was Iraq’s Minister of Electricity, a $50 million contract was negotiated with a company called Companion Security to train Iraqi security guards in Illinois. Companion Security was run by Daniel T. Frawley, a former Chicago police officer, and a Tony Rezko/Daniel Mahru partnership. In May 2005 a Panamanian company, Fintrade Services, loaned money to Rezko. On Fintrade’s board of directors was Ibtisam Auchi, wife of Nadhmi Auchi. Another of Nadhmi Auchi’s companies helped finance a power plant in Iraq, working with Rezko and Aiham Alsammarae. Alsammarae is a Chicago resident with dual (U.S. and Iraqi) citizenship. He was accused of graft with Iraqi construction projects and imprisoned for four months in Iraq in a $2 billion corruption case. (Obama was therefore a critic of the war in Iraq at the same time he was receiving political favors and contributions from Rezko, who was in turn dealing with Iraqis and kickback schemes.) Auchi, who made a fortune through the United Nations oil-for-food scandal with Saddam Hussein, was Rezko’s long-time money man—and a big contributor to Obama campaigns. Alsammarae intends to run for a seat in the Iraqi parliament. “We have to do it the Obama way,” says the ex-convict. “We are trying to send a message of change.” In April of 2006, Companion Security worked with then-Governor Rod Blagojevich to lease an Illinois military facility for training Iraqi security guards.

JT: Should we be surprised? No! That is the Chicago-Obama way. Barack Hussein had to have some experience to be included on the Judicial Watch list of the ten most corrupt Washington politicians for the last six years. Obama is competing with Al Capone and Bugsy, and Legs, and Bonnie and Clyde, for the position of the FBI's most wanted criminals. Wait a minute! Obama has the FBI in his pocket. My goodness! Shit! There are no honest criminals nowadays and there are no honest federal agencies under the Obama regime. (<http://www.judicialwatch.org/>)

At its online store, the Obama campaign sells $5 campaign buttons featuring a photograph of Obama, his wife, and daughters. ABC reports, "It's the first time this election cycle that images of Sasha and Malia Obama have been used by the [Obama] re-election team after years of careful control over their public use. But more remarkable may be the legal and ethical questions raised by use of the photo, which was originally taken and published at taxpayer expense and for which political and commercial use is expressly prohibited."

JT: How many bananas was Michelle gouging down in the picture? And Barry? Was he not high on dope? As for the children, ... feel sorry for them. They surely could not choose their parents!

***

Fox News reports that terrorist detainees imprisoned at Guantanamo are getting a new soccer field—that will cost the taxpayers $750,000.

JT: The Taliban says that soccer is against the Koran and the teachings of Mohammed. Perhaps they could kick Korans instead of soccer balls!

Obama saved the auto industry! Michelle Malkin writes, “Let’s clear the fumes (again), shall we? The bailout pain was not distributed equally. It was redistributed politically. Bondholders standing up for their property and contractual rights got shortchanged and demonized personally by the president. Dealers and suppliers faced closures based on political connections and lobbying clout, rather than neutral efficiency evaluations. And as I first reported in September 2010, in the rush to nationalize the auto industry and avoid contested court termination proceedings, the White House auto team schemed with Big Labor bosses to preserve UAW members’ costly pension funds by shafting their nonunion counterparts. These forgotten nonunion pensioners (who worked for the Delphi/GM auto parts company) lost all of their health and life insurance benefits. Hailing from the economically devastated Rust Belt—northeast Ohio, Michigan and neighboring states—the Delphi workers had devoted decades of their lives as secretaries, technicians, engineers and sales employees. Some have watched up to 70 percent of their pensions vanish. They’ve banded together to seek justice in court and on Capitol Hill under the banner of the Delphi Salaried Retiree Association. Through two costly years of litigation and investigation, the Delphi workers have exposed how the stacked White House Auto Task Force schemed with union bosses to ‘cherry pick’ (one Obama official’s own words) which financial obligations the new Government Motors company would assume and which they would abandon based on their political expedience. Obama’s own former auto czar Steve Rattner admitted in his recent memoir that ‘attacking the union’s sacred cow’ could ‘jeopardize’ the auto bailout deal.”

JT: See! Obama is the savior. Except he saves the wrong things. If an industry is decrepit, let it go bankrupt and start anew. What would he do with the National Association of Witch Doctors? Probably dance around a fire, rattle some bones, pay them what they want and charge the American taxpayers.

Congressman Jim Moran (D-VA) demands the removal of an ad at the Clarendon Metro stop of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA). The ad reads:

“Barack Obama wants politicians and bureaucrats to control America’s entire medical system. Go to hell Barack. Watch the movie Sick & Sicker to see where ObamaCare will take us.” Moran states, “The specific language in the WMATA-approved ad that should be removed is not political, it’s profane. It defames the President of the United States in a way that coarsens the public discourse. All Americans have the right to make their voice heard under the First Amendment. But when we are talking about an advertisement on tax-payer funded facilities, as is the case with Metro, it should meet the minimum standards of propriety. I repeat my call on WMATA to exercise appropriate judgment and remove this offensive ad.”

JT: This one is easy. Moran is a moron.

Obama defends his Quran-burning apology in an interview with ABC’s Bob Woodruff, saying, “The reason that it was important is to save lives, and to make sure our troops who are there right now are not placed in further danger.” Asked if the apology improved matters, Obama responds, “Uh, it, it, it, it, it, it ...calmed things down.” “We’re not out of the woods yet, uh, but my criteria in any decision I make, getting recommendations from folks who are actually on the ground, uh, is, what’s gonna best protect our folks, and make sure that they can accomplish their mission.”

JT: Obama forgot to say, "My apology bought some important time so that my schedule would not be too loaded with the foreign policy concerns in Afghanistan. That will give me more time to play golf!"

***

Ryan Crocker, U.S. Ambassador to Afghanistan, tells the Fox News Channel’s Brett Baier that the U.S. military may prosecute the soldiers who burned copies of the Quran. Crocker states, “If there are to be proceedings, they’re going to be U.S. proceedings under the UCMJ [Uniform Code of Military Justice]—and I don’t think there is any question or doubt on the part of the Afghan government that that is exactly how it's going to go.”

JT: United States soldiers are going to be put on trial under the UCMJ for burning rubbish?!?

Secretary of State Hillary Clinton tells legislators, “The United States, I will be quick to add, still has profound concerns, but on the occasion of Kim Jong-Il’s death, I said that it is our hope that the new leadership will choose to guide their nation onto the path of peace by living up to its obligations. Today’s announcement (of food in exchange for suspending uranium enrichment) represents a modest first step in the right direction. We, of course, will be watching closely and judging North Korea’s new leaders by their actions.”

JT: Man is she dumber than I thought she was. Food for the suspension of uranium enrichment. Hilarious Hillary. There is a difference between suspension and stopping and never reactivating uranium enrichment.

“Let’s put every single member of Congress on record: You can stand with oil companies or you can stand up for the American people.”

JT: It seems to me that standing up for the oil companies in the present times is the same as standing up for the American people. That is a truism. Yet with Barry's logic, he never stands up for the American people. Therefore, why should he stand up for the oil companies?

***

Al-Arabiya is reporting, in Arabic only so far, that the U.S. is talking with the Egyptian government to free the blind Sheikh and 49 other Egyptians currently imprisoned in the U.S. in exchange for the freedom of the 19 Americans the Egyptians are holding.

JT: I think that Obama should be exchanged for Hosni Mubarak. Mubarak kept peace for over thirty years. Obama has given America away, piece by piece.

***

Fox News reports that terrorist detainees imprisoned at Guantanamo are getting a new soccer field—that will cost the taxpayers $750,000. (There are an estimated 171 detainees at Guantanamo as of February 2012. The cost of the soccer field is therefore about $4,385 per detainee. How many Cuban jobs the field will “save or create” is not known.) Defense Secretary Leon Panetta claims he knew nothing about the expenditure.

JT: If the matter has nothing to do with communism, Defense Secretary Panetta doesn't know anything anyway!

***

The Department of Defense orders that copies of the Quran “will only be distributed to US Service Members who are Muslim as indicated on their identification tags. ...Qurans will not be placed in general literature distribution racks. They will be kept in a secure location and distributed in the manner described ...above.” They will be kept in a secure location and distributed in the manner described ...above.” (Pamela Geller writes at AtlasShrugs.com, “The collapse of American will. More sharia provisions in the military. Non-Muslims are not allowed to handle the quran unless they are considering converting to Islam or are being targeted for conversion. ...So American soldiers who wish to study the quran to understand the enemy threat doctrine are disarmed and subjected to enemy propaganda instead. Abject surrender to a comprehensive legal system that mandates our subjugation and annihilation.”)

JT: POGO got it right! We have met the enemy and they are us!

DailyCaller.com reports, “According to an analysis posted in February on a website linked to Iran’s government, the Islamic republic has plans to attack targets in both America and Israel, The Daily Caller has learned. The analysis, posted in Persian on the Iranian website psyop.ir, is titled ‘From Mediterranean Sea to the Waters of America.’ It ominously warns of an impending attack on American soil. ...Iran already possesses ballistic missiles, including some obtained from North Korea, which are capable of reaching U.S. military bases in the Middle East and Western Europe. It has also armed its vessels with long-range ballistic missiles, and is working on intercontinental ballistic missiles capable of reaching the American mainland.”

JT: And Venezuela is an Iranian colony!

FreeBeacon.com reports Debbie Wasserman Schultz, the Obama-appointed chairwoman of the Democrat National Committee, “...is facing criticism for her upcoming appearance at a fundraiser hosted by an American Muslim leader who was placed on the Federal Terrorist Watch List. Wasserman Schultz is set to keynote an annual fundraising dinner for EMERGE USA, a Muslim community group led by Khurram Wahid, a controversial attorney with a track record of defending accused terrorists and associating with Muslim Brotherhood-backed groups.”

JT: With her face and intelligence, or lack of it, I hope she wears a communist-red-colored burka with no eye and nose slits, and a chain with a cross around her neck!
