JUST THINKING

Number 11

From <http://2bigbroncos.net/humor/Garfield.html> we read the following

GARFIELD

ON THE OIL CRISIS

YOU GOTTA LOVE GARFIELD 'S EXPLANATION -- TOO CUTE & ALSO TOO TRUE!!!

A lot of folks can't understand how we came to have an oil shortage here in our country.

Well, there's a very simple answer.

Nobody bothered to check the oil.

We just didn't know we were getting low.

The reason for that is purely geographical.

Our OIL is located in:

Alaska

California

Coastal Florida

Coastal Louisiana

Coastal Alabama

Coastal Mississippi

Coastal Texas

North Dakota

Wyoming

Colorado

Kansas

Oklahoma

Pennsylvania

and

Texas

Our dipstick is located in the White House

Any Questions?

NO?

Didn't think So.

JT: In the Urban Dictionary at <http://www.urbandictionary.com> there are 17 definitions for dipstick other than the normal oil gauge. The definitions that immediately apply to Barack Hussein Obama and his views on oil economics are:

- One who has the intelligence of an oil dipstick in a car. Usually the oil is dirty and not too bright much like the person being described here.
- A stupid or obnoxious person.
- A slang term for a person who is dumb.
- Used as a substitute for dipshit whenever that particular word would be deemed inappropriate.
- A loser, an idiot.
- A stupid someone with willy brains.

Garfield knows his English! There are other meanings that might apply to Barack Hussein Obama. Those are left for the reader to decide. (Pun intended!) Garfield's use is 100 percent on target. That's a good reason for shouting GARFIELD FOR PRESIDENT at future Obama rallies.

The Obama administration decides to give $1.5 billion in aid to Egypt, despite a prohibition by Congress against that aid. According to The Washington Post, "A law passed by Congress in December forbids funding unless the State Department certifies that Egypt is making progress on basic democratic freedoms. ...Especially surprising is the Obama administration's apparent decision to hand over the full amount to Egypt, according to congressional aides, rather than withholding portions to maintain leverage and doling out sums only to meet the obligations of ongoing defense contracts." Senator Patrick Leahy (D-VT) comments, "I am disappointed by this decision. The Egyptian military should be defending fundamental freedoms and the rule of law, not harassing and arresting those who are working for democracy.

JT: It is only right that Obama gives the Muslim Brotherhood 1,5 billion dollars. It is not aid. It is the jizya, the special tax non-believers pay to Muslims. We all know that Islam regards the USA as belonging to Islam! Obama is only doing what a good Muslim does. He's making sure that Islam collects from its kafirs. As for Patrick Leahy, he is disappointed? Now that is a strong, critical sentence. This is the first time in his political life that he has criticized Obama. Normally Leahy says "I only do what is right. I am so wonderful and the Democrats are so wonderful. Don't you think I'm nice?" Is Leahy about to throw Obama under the bus?

Mass marriages at an Iranian University.

Source: <http://www.israellycool.com/2012/02/06/mass-wedding-at-iranian-university/>

JT: They are having the times of their lives. The man in the third row is marrying two at a time!

JT: Tomorrow I'm going to marry wife number two, The day after tomorrow I'm going to marry wife number three. The day after the day after tomorrow I'm going to marry wife number four. And what is in the box is none of your business. You are my wife and you do not have the right to ask me questions!

On March 25 APNews reports, "The United States has paid $50,000 in compensation for each Afghan killed in the shooting spree attributed to a U.S. soldier in southern Afghanistan, an Afghan official and a community elder said Sunday. The families of the dead received the money Saturday at the governor's office, said Kandahar provincial council member Agha Lalai. Each wounded person received $11,000, Lalai said. ...A U.S. official confirmed that compensation had been paid but declined to discuss exact amounts, saying only that it reflected the devastating nature of the incident. The official spoke anonymously because of the sensitive nature of the subject.”

JT: That is quite a lot of money to pay for the 72 grapes they will receive in Jannah. Why 72 grapes and not virgins? When Mohammed uttered this reward he spoke in a dialect. "For example, the Koran says martyrs going to heaven will get hur, and the word was taken by early commentators to mean 'virgins,' hence those 72 consorts. But in Aramaic, hur meant white and was commonly used to mean white grapes. (<http://www.nytimes.com/2004/08/04/opinion/martyrs-virgins-and-grapes.html>) On the other hand, maybe the grapes are really virgins. (http://wikiislam.net/wiki/72\_Virgins). Regardless, both are sweet, unless one is a Muslim gay!

In Seoul, South Korea for a nuclear security summit, Obama states, "I believe that China is very sincere that it does not want to see North Korea with a nuclear weapon. But it is going to have to act on that interest in a sustained way.”

JT: Is this Obama's method of chopping sticks in foreign policy? (Pun intended!)

TheBlaze.com reports on Harvard Law School's "Sex Week," that begins March 26. Events include, "Sex-Positivity and Slut-Pride: Sex Tips for a Modern World from Good Vibrations," which is advertised by the notice, "Join HLSRJ and Good Vibrations for a short discussion of sex-positivity, a demo of lube and some popular sex toys, then Q&A. Free Food!"

JT: The Obamas, Pelosis, Franks, obots, progressives, leftists, union thugs, and occupiers – one great bang of a gang – will all have thrills running up and down their legs!

JT: Now the Gang of Ten say that it is reported that Abu ben ibn Bekarir said that Ali Bowshwani Igorn ibn Ali Mumar said that Alluak Moham Hamhead ibn Zir reported that ali Bakari Schwinni related that Obur Al-III-Tabori al Hound said that the chief lunatic Mohammed said that Allah-Hubal, the Muslim Moon-god, told him that if the sons of Islam raise their left arms and begin flapping both arms fast enough, they will be able to fly.

The Associated Press reports, “A 21-year-old student was shot to death in a Mississippi State University dormitory, though the killing appears to be isolated and there is no indication others may be in danger, officials said Sunday.”

JT: The weapon(s) bullet(s) came from Obama, Jesse Jackson, and Al Sharpton. The three blacks did nothing more than pull the trigger!

Federal Reserve Board chairman Ben Bernanke addresses the National Association for Business Economics and has less than reassuring words about the economy. He states the obvious,

JT: My translation comments are in red! “Recent improvements are encouraging, (Obama is doing such a fantastic job for the American economy.) but ...in an absolute sense, the job market is still far from normal by many measures, (It was always George W. Bush's fault! Obama is good for shovel-ready jobs!) and millions of families continue to suffer the day-to-day hardships associated with not being able to find suitable employment. (Which is due to the fault of George W. Bush. That I was chairman of the FED under George W. Bush has nothing to do with the present situation. I tried to control him, but I couldn't. With Obama, control is not necessary. Everything is automatic!) ...Conditions remain far from normal, as shown, for example, by the high level of long-term unemployment and the fact that jobs and hours worked remain well below pre-crisis peaks. (But this is only for the scum proletariat. The government workers and union members are really raking it in!) We cannot yet be sure that the recent pace of improvement in the labor market will be sustained. (What we can be sure of is that we cannot be sure of.) ...To the extent that this reversal has been complete, further significant improvements in the unemployment rate (downward) will likely require a more rapid expansion of production (in China) and demand from consumers (that the government pay for everything) and businesses, (those few that remain) a process that can be supported by continued accommodative policies.” (We need to get Obama re-elected for a second term so that I can keep my job!)

Separate comment: Bernanke and Obama keeping their positions! Now that is real inflation!

In The Washington Times Jeffrey T. Kuehner comments on Obama's March 16 Executive Order that essentially grants dictatorial powers. "...Obama has given himself the powers to declare martial law—especially in the event of a war with Iran. It is a sweeping power grab that should worry every American. ...he document is stunning in its audacity and a flagrant violation of the Constitution. ...In short, the order gives ...Obama the ability to impose martial law. He now possesses the potential powers of a dictator. The order is a direct assault on individual liberties, private property rights and the rule of law. It is blatantly unconstitutional. The executive branch is arrogating responsibilities precluded by the Constitution without even asking the permission of Congress. The order gives ...Obama a blank check to erect a centralized authoritarian state. This is a law one would expect to find in Hugo Chavez's Venezuela or Vladimir Putin's Russia. ...Would [a confrontation with Iran] tempt ...Obama to claim a state of emergency and thereby implement his executive order? No one knows the answer. And we shouldn't have to find out. The president does not—and should not—have the authority to subordinate the entire private economy to the government, especially without the consent of Congress and the American people. It is national socialism masquerading as military security. ...Obama's executive order represents the culmination of the welfare-warfare state. He is walking in the footsteps of his predecessors, those who enabled the rise of the imperial presidency. And it leads to only one tragic end: the gradual deterioration of our democracy."

JT: These are enough legal grounds for a trial for treason, incarceration for life, and if that doesn't happen, also justification for eliminating the Obama cancer!

***

So, on March 26, 2012, Barack Hussein Obama whispered something to Dimitry Medvedev, the Russian President.

JT: The news media has reported what was whispered. However, Just Thinking listened a little longer. Here is what Obama said at the end of his whispering: "I'm one. Are you one, too? Here's my number!"

***

Digitalburg.com reports, "In a bid to save the CIA's drone campaign against al-Qaida in Pakistan, U.S. officials offered key concessions to Pakistan's spy chief that included advance notice and limits on the types of targets. But the offers were flatly rejected, leaving U.S.-Pakistani relations strained as ...Obama prepares to meet Tuesday with Pakistan's prime minister."

JT: I think the solution to the disagreement with Pakistan is to let Pakistan have all of our missile secrets, just like Obama is doing with Russia. Of course, the drone in the White House probably doesn't understand how to handle foreign relations with Pakistan since Pakistanis were not part of his Chicago-thug-days acquaintances.

***

FreeBeacon.com reports, "The Obama administration is now referring to Obamacare as a 'bi-partisan bill' and calling the unpopular individual mandate 'a Republican idea,'

JT: America should be thankful that there is a Republican Party and that it has members of the party in Congress. Otherwise who would be to blame for all of the faults in American politics?

***

On MSNBC Stephanie Cutter, Obama's deputy campaign manager, complains that Obama's "...Republican opponents have jumped all over him because they do want to play politics with this issue [the Trayvon Martin shooting]. [Obama] spoke from his heart on this, it was trying to emphasize with some parents who had just lost a child.

JT: I knew all along from the time of Obama's birth.! Obama is an it! By the way, Stephanie Cutter, a person's heart does not emphasize!

The Ulsterman Report writes, "First it was her use of the East Room to stage a televised sack race with a late night talk show host. Now First Lady Michelle Obama has staged yet another self-promoting event in one of the nation's most sacred rooms in the White House—this time a workout session for an upcoming broadcast of The Biggest Loser. For fans of Civil War era history, you know that it was the East Room that was the place of President Lincoln's funeral as well as the location for the signing of the Civil Rights Act in 1964—two of the most historically important events for African Americans. And yet, despite this room's significance, the First Lady has now repeated its use as nothing more than a backdrop for her repeated lowbrow network television show appearances. The Obama White House—where classless counts every day of the year..."

JT: Michelle doesn't know or care about American history. Michelle knows and cares about Michelle. However, I know something that Michelle doesn't know. There is a difference between East and West as well as a difference between morals and XXXL hamburgers!

Between February 12 and 14, "Representatives of the world Muslim elite from more than 40 countries gathered in Istanbul to attend the Inaugural Global Summit organized by Salamworld, an international company aiming to develop the first social media platform oriented towards the needs of the Muslim population. Salamworld Inaugural Global Summit was highlighted by more than 60 most significant international and Turkish press agencies.

Starting with the welcoming message of Turkish Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan, the Summit was also welcomed by Mahathir Mohamad, Former Prime Minister of Malaysia, and Mustafa Abdul Jalil, the Head of Libyan Transitional Council. The participants who came to show their support from various countries like Malaysia, Indonesia, United Kingdom, Russia, USA, Saudi Arabia, Egypt and many more, stressed on the importance of modern social media networks and the changes they could bring by encouraging positive development of Muslim communities worldwide.

The impact of social media and its role in the way people communicate, build relationships, and establish businesses, is astonishing, and Salamworld have undertaken a very serious task of developing first Muslim Social Network,' was the message conveyed by the former Prime Minister of Malaysia and a Non-Executive Director of Salamworld, Mahathir Mohamed in his video address to the participants of the Summit.

Highly impressed by Salamworld presentation by Riz Khan, famous Television and News Reporter, Muslim social leaders and respected scholars, notably, the leaders of such biggest Muslim communities as Indonesian Nahdlatul Ulama and Muhammadiyah with the dozens millions of followers, shared their thoughts and voiced out their concerns on the subject of the current lack of technological infrastructure in most part of the Islamic world.

Salamworld Inaugural Global Summit was impressively concluded by Sami Yusuf, international composer, singer-songwriter, UN celebrity partner and founder of the spiritique genre. During his live performance the friend of Salamworld presented the songs in English, Urdu, Farsi, Arabic and Azeri, stressing on his Azeri origin.

The project, which was initiated in April 2011 by the international team of IT professionals and experienced entrepreneurs, is scheduled to deliver an innovative system with a package of multilingual services this year. Coined by many as 'Muslim Facebook', Salamworld's team members insist that the development of the new platform is driven by the need to create an alternative online environment where Muslims could feel themselves in their virtual home, rather than become a competitor to popular social networks currently available today.

In the course of the year, Salamworld representatives have paid a visit to more than 30 countries and built strong strategic partnerships with various Muslim organizations and communities at all levels. "We are honored to receive support from our Executive Board Members and hear words of encouragement from Muslims worldwide. This continues to motivate us to generate new ideas that can unite and strengthen the Ummah We're open for cooperation and partnership." concluded Abdul-Vakhed Niyazov, Chairman of Salamworld.

Salamworld is an international business organization aiming to create an exemplary responsible society of online members and introduce alternative way of virtual life established in line with the needs and requirements of the new generation of Muslim individuals by means of developing an advanced social media with high-load capabilities.

JT: Salamworld (or is it pork Salamiworld?) will be the new Facebook for Muslims. That presents a problem for Muslim women. Because they have to wear complete body coverage in some Muslim countries, where are the faces? Salam(i)world will surely give Muslims advice on how to be a Muslim. For example: During Ramadan it is forbidden to eat during the day. After sunset, a Muslim can gouge down as many XXXL hamburgers as that person sees fit. A Muslim is not allowed to take anything into the body during the day. Is brushing one's teeth taking something into the body? This is a serious question and Muslims must be advised whether or not brushing the teeth during the day is against the principles of the fasting month Ramadan. Another question could be: A Muslim is not supposed to kill an unbeliever during Ramadan. If, however, a Muslim kills an unbeliever during Ramadan, does that mean that the Muslim has committed a sin? I think that we all know the answer to this question. Muslims never committ sins! They are perfect. A curse be on them:

May the fleas of a thousand camels infest their armpits!

1. "Former U.S. diplomat John Bolton alleged Thursday that the Obama administration leaked a story about covert Israeli activity in order to foil potential plans by the country to attack Iran's nuclear program.
2. In a ceremony befitting ...Obama's vision of a repentant postmodern America, a section of the U.S. Embassy in Kingston, Jamaica has been named after a propagandist for Stalinist Russia and darling of the international left—the controversial African-American stage actor and social activist Paul Robeson. The Embassy's Information Resource Center that boasts housing 'the definitive collection of Americana' in Jamaica is now named the 'Paul Robeson Information Resource Center.' ...When Stalin died in 1953, Robeson—winner of the Stalin Peace Prize a year earlier—praised him in a glowing eulogy as a great man.

3. Obama's reaction to the the shooting of Trayvon Martin was most likely orchestrated.

JT: Is anyone surprised? It is high time for Obama to be tried for treason and the other hundreds of violations of federal, state, and communal laws.

***

Obama commented on the shooting of Trayvon Martin: "If I had a son, he'd look like Trayvon."

JT: Did he mean physical looks or character looks. If Obama meant character, well, Obama's son would be the spittin' image of his father: a thug!

***

Michelle Obama and her daughters have been vacationing in Las Vegas for part of the week—with a side trip to Mount Rushmore.

JT: Rumor has it – JT rumors are right on target! – that Michelle was taking a reconnaissance of Mount Rushmore to see if there is space for her to be engraved into the side of the mountain. Geologists told her that there is no mountain big enough for her. They are now without jobs!
