JUST THINKING

Number 23

The United States Supreme Court upholds Obama Care as constitutional and declares it unconstitutional.

JT: As the result of another Obama lie, the American dream has become the American Nightmare. The bogey man is Barry the Muslim!

Patrick Gaspard, executive director of the Democrat National Committee, responds to the court's ruling with Twitter messages directed at Republicans. One reads, "TAKE THAT MOTHERFUCKERS!" Another reads, "It's constitutional, bitches."

JT: Later Gaspard tweeted something that was supposed to be an apology: "I let my scotus excitement get the better of me. In all seriousness, this is an important moment in improving the lives of all Americans."

There are content mistake in his so-called apology. It should read "I let my scrotum on my shoulders excitement get the better of me. In all seriousness, this (the scrotum on my shoulders) is an important moment in improving the lives of all Americans, including illegal immigrants."

The Supreme Court also ruled 6–3 against the Stolen Valor Act, saying that a person has the right to lie and claim that s/he was given medals for military service is guaranteed by the First Amendment.

JT: This was a god decision for Obama. It sanctions lying. Obama will now become the most decorated person in the history of non-military service! He won't be lying about his awards either. They are now constitutionally approved! True American fighting patriots have become poor suckers!

Mitt Romney tells Newsmax.TV, "I agree with Senator [Marco] Rubio [R-FL] when he says some people are so adamant when they're addressing illegal issues that they miscommunicate, that somehow we [Republicans] don't welcome immigrants. We do welcome immigrants, and we want a system that makes it easier for people to know what their status is, to have a transparency that doesn't exist now in our immigration system. Frankly, we'd like to do what [Obama] said he was going to do when he was campaigning as [a] candidate... He said he was going to reform immigration his first year. He just decided not to do that. ...I will reform immigration with an idea of making immigration more transparent, helping reunite families, assuring that we have a large and ample supply of workers that are needed in agriculture and other temporary assignments. ...There's a huge first benefit to the country of our immigration system. Bringing people in legally to America has been a source of vitality from the beginning, and continues to be."

JT: That's a lot of Blah! Blah! Blah! Where's Romney coming from? Was he born yesterday? Obama fixed the immigration mess by dictatorial decree! I like the last sentence of what Romney said to Newsmax.TV: "There's a huge first benefit to the country of our immigration system. Bringing people in legally to America has been a source of vitality from the beginning, and continues to be." Yup!!! More destruction of American traditions, culture, language, and above all, MORE CRIME. You all can see what happened with regard to the latter. The best known immigration top criminal is sitting in the White House!

JT: The ObamaCare tax is not a tax, but it can be interpreted as a tax!

Taxes, taxes everywhere

And not a dime to keep!

Taxes, taxes everywhere

Obama is a creep!

These are better and some of them have been with us since Barry Boy and the Chicago Thug Company arrived on the scene:

- Chief Justice John Roberts is not a chief Justice, but he can be interpreted as a Chief Justice!
- Barack Hussein is not the President of the United States of America, but he can be interpreted as being the President of the United States of America.
- The United States of America doesn't have a 16 trillion dollar debt, but it can be interpreted as a 16 trillion dollar debt.
- The Muslim Brotherhood isn't peace-loving and friendly to Israel, but it can be interpreted as being peace-loving and friendly to Israel.
- I'm not who I am but I can be interpreted as being who I am.
- The Supreme Court of the United States of America is not the Supreme Court, but it can be interpreted as being the Supreme Court.
- Michelle Obama is not beautiful, but she can be interpreted as being beautiful.
- Just Thinking is not Just Thinking, but it can be interpreted as being Just and Thinking!
- Obama is not a natural born citizen, but it can be interpreted that he is a natural born citizen.

And ad infinitum, which can be interpreted as not yet having arrived.

Thank you Chief Justice (?) John (?) Roberts (!)! Your tenure will go down in history as the Roberts' Court ... that helped the Company of Chicago Thugs destroy the Constitution for the United States of America.

Campaigning in a church, Michelle Obama relates an oft-repeated story about a small black child who visited the White House and who touched Obama's hair to see if it was the same as his. Mrs. Obama tells the crowd, "If you ever wonder whether change is possible in this country, I want you to think about that little black boy in the Oval Office of the White House... and I, I want you to think about how children who see that photo [of the event] today think nothing of it, because that is all they've ever known. Because they have grown up taking for granted that an African-American can be president of the United States. And, and, I want you to think of the, of the stories in, in the Bible, about folks like Abel and Noah, folks like Abraham and Sarah, and, and, and the verse in Hebrews [sic] that says, 'All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised. They only saw... them and welcomed them from a distance. Through, through so many heartbreaks and trials, those who came before us kept the faith. They could only see that promised land from a distance, but they never let it out of their sight. And today, if we're once again willing to work for it, if we're once again willing to sacrifice for it then I know, I know we can carry that legacy forward.'"

JT: Rumor has it that the little boy wanted to see Barack Hussein Obama's true, original birth certificate, but was told that satanical gifts to humans have no certificates or documentation. The little boy then asked if Michelle really eats XXL hamburgers. Michelle immediately corrected him and said, "NO! I eat XXXL hamburgers. We in our White House always tell the truth!"

In Florida, Judge Terry Lewis dismisses Voeltz v. Obama, stating that because the Democrat Party does not yet have an “official” presidential candidate, no voter in the state can challenge Obama’s name appearing on the November ballot. Lewis writes, “The respective major political parties determine their nominee at a national convention [that hasn’t occurred yet]. Thus, under Florida law, Mr. Obama is not presently the nominee of the Democratic Party for the office.” Lewis also declares Obama a natural born citizen.

JT: The decision is correct. Of course it is! Firstly, the Democratic Party does not have an "official" presidential candidate, they have an "official" dictator. Secondly, the voting machines have already been rigged in the dictator's favor, whether or not he is on any ballot in any of the fifty-seven states. Thirdly, Russia, China, and the Islamic world have already sanctioned the dictator's re-election. Fourthly, the ONE is a natural born citizen because there was no Caesarian birth. Fifthly, the ONE was an ungodly, satanical gift to unkind humankind. Sixthly, It makes no difference what the Constitution for the United States of America and the state laws say about presidential candidates. They have the capability of being reinterpreted at the whim of any judge and dictator!

In Nashville, Tennessee, Michelle Obama addresses the 49th general conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. She says, “To anyone who says that church is no place to talk about these issues, you tell them there is no place better, no place better. Because ultimately, these are not just political issues, they are moral issues. They’re issues that have to do with human dignity and human potential, and the future we want for our kids and our grandkids.”

JT: Me thinks that Michelle in a church talking about political issues, moral issues, human dignity, human potential and the future for kids and grandkids, and comparing herself and the ONE to Jesus Christ is the epitome of hypocrisy and politicizing the church! After the political get-together in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Michelle went on a gouging-down spree so that she would not choke on what she said!

A June 28–July 1 CNN/ORC international poll shows Mitt Romney with “an eight point advantage [over Obama, 51–43 percent,] among voters who live in the 15 states considered in play in the race for the White House.” Those 15 states are Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Wisconsin.

JT: Just in! A message from the fish's head! "I will win the elections in Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Wisconsin because I have already rigged the voting machines in these state in my favor. This is Barack Hussein Obama and I approve this message!"

Depoe Bay, Oregon is forced to cancel its 4th of July fireworks display after federal wildlife officials claim the noise will disrupt sea birds that are protected by the 1918 Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

JT: How can the federal wildlife officials claim that the noise caused by an Independence Day celebration this year will disrupt the sea birds that are protected by the 1918 Migratory Treaty Act, when such disruptions evidently did not occur in past years? The answer is easy. The federal wildlife officials who made the decision in this case are birdbrains! The order came from the top bird, as this image proves:

Quote: "I want my wildlife officials in Depoe Bay, Oregon to think like me. Think BIRD!"

While Washington, D.C. and northern Virginia suffer from oppressive heat and problems caused by a storm-caused power outage, Obama heads to Camp David for an extended weekend. He tells reporters, "Stay cool" and "drink a lot of water."

JT: The ONE is a genius. What a magnificent solution!

Commerce Secretary John Bryon, who had two separate hit-and-run accidents on June 11, 2012, resigns his position due to health reasons.

JT: The Los Angeles County District Attorney does not prosecute Bryson for hit-and-run, which is a felony. (<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2012/07/03/los-angeles-prosecutor-wont-file-charges-against-ex-commerce-secretary/?test=latestnews>) The Bryson-obot logic probably argues that he was not running but driving before hitting and not hitting then not running away, but driving.

At GQ.com, Marc Ambinder writes, “According to ongoing discussions with Obama aides and associates, if [Obama] wins a second term, he plans to tackle another American war that has so far been successful only in perpetuating more misery: the four decades of The Drug War.”

JT: Rumor has it (JT rumors are always interesting!) that Chief Justice John Roberts' participation in Obama's future war on drugs is to make the use of drugs and narcotics, and whatever, constitutionally legal, thus making them fall under congressional tax laws!

On July 4, Obama attends a naturalization ceremony for immigrants in the U.S. military and says, “Just as we remain a nation of laws, we have to remain a nation of immigrants. That’s why, as another step forward, we’re lifting the shadow of deportation from serving—from deserving young people who were brought to this country as children. ...It’s why we need comprehensive immigration reform.”

JT: The quotation is not exact. Some words were left out. Here it is as Obama thinks it: “We will not remain a nation of laws, but of dictatorial decrees. We have to remain a nation of dumbed-down citizens and illegal immigrants. That's why, as another step towards the eventual destruction of America under my leadership, we're lifting the shadow of being free to the transparency of being forced servant serfs—from young people who were brought to this country as children and want to remain here illegally, but will be free from paying taxes. ...It's why we need comprehensive immigration reform according to my wishes, not according to logic. I now naturalize you as illegal immigrants. You are now officially naturalized illegal citizens, or illegal naturalized citizens, or whatever. You now have two or three nationalities, thanks to me! By the way, do any of you play golf?"

(P.S. Whatever he said was insulting!)

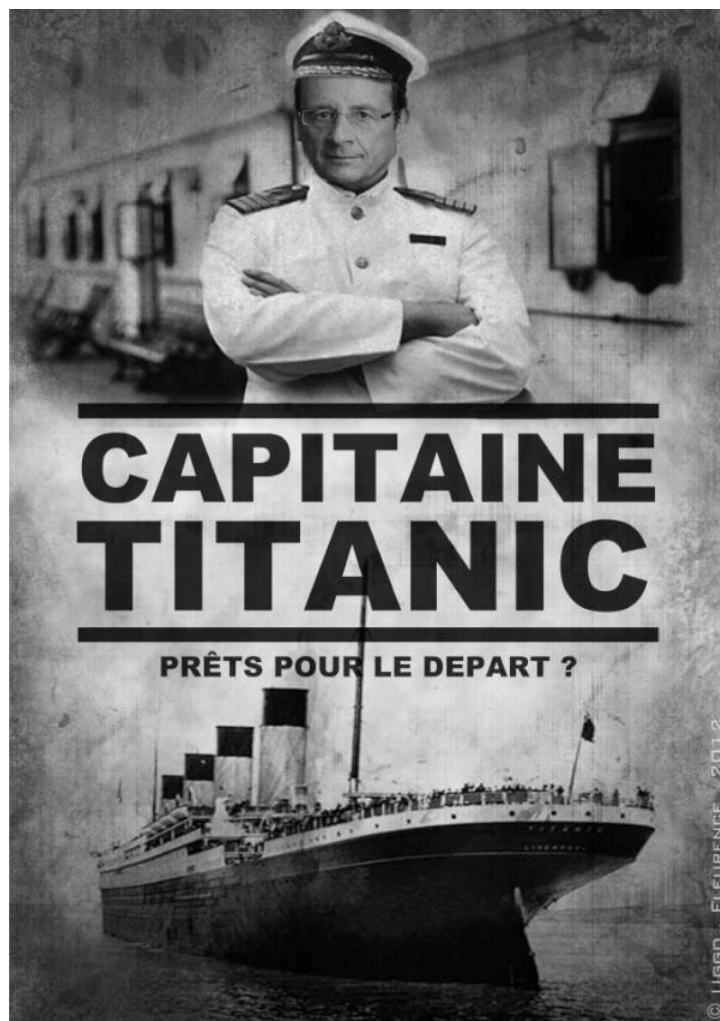

FoxNews.com reports, "Iran declared Wednesday that it can destroy nearby U.S. military bases and strike Israel within minutes of an attack on the Islamic Republic, reflecting tensions over Iran's suspect nuclear program. The veiled threat came during a military drill that has included the firing of ballistic missiles. The elite Revolutionary Guards, conducting the war games in Iran's central desert, said that the missiles were aimed at mock-ups of foreign military bases."

JT: Methinks this is part of Obama's world peace plan. Nuke Israel, nuke the USA, and then there will be peace, well, really pieces!

The new socialist French government announces massive tax increases on homes owned by non-French citizens, such as vacationing Brits. According to The Telegraph, "Tax on rental income would rise from 20 per cent to 35.5 per cent, and capital gains tax on property sales would rise from 19 per cent to 34.5 per cent. The extra in each case is being labeled a 'social charge.'"

Business Insider reports, "French Prime Minister Jean-Marc Ayrault announced today (July 3, 2012) that the government will tax incomes of more than €1 million ($1.25 million) at a rate of 75 percent. That's in addition to a new 45 percent tax rate for the country's highest earners, and a capital income tax equal to that of wages. We think this means that if you make €2 million euros, you would pay 45 percent on the first €1 million and 75 percent of the second €1 million to the government, or a total of €1.2 million. Prêts pour le Depart? = Are you ready for departure?

On July 5 Obama begins a two-day “Betting on America” bus campaign trip in Ohio and Pennsylvania, where Obama needs to work to win some support among white blue-collar workers who have been turning to Mitt Romney.

JT: Just in! A message from the One! "Hear Ye, Hear Ye, Hear Ye! I am making these bus tours to give the servant serfs of America the impression that I am a wonderful, law-abiding Democrat. However, all the while I know that the voting machines in Ohio and Pennsylvania are rigged in my favor because I have ordered my obots to do this. If the truth be known, we will have free elections for me! I am Barack Hussein Obama and I approve this message."

“Go tell your parents to vote for Barack or I’ll twist your brother’s head off”

JT: They are good at twisting everything, especially truth, morals, ethics, and goodness into just plain evil and anti-Americanism.
