Obama said in his address at the United Nations on 25 September 2012, "The future must not belong to those who slander the prophet of Islam."

JT: I wonder how many Muslims have read and comprehended the Koran, the stories of what Mohammed did, the facts about his life in the Hadiths, and were they really understood? If you read them all like I have, even in two different languages and indifferent editions, the only logical conclusion is that Islam slanders itself and the rest of the world.

Barack Hussein Obama has signed over 900 executive orders.

JT: That's not Obama's circumventing of Congress and being dictatorial is it?

Aging pop star Madonna tells a Washington, D.C. audience, “Y’all better vote for fucking Obama, okay? For better or for worse, all right? We have a black Muslim in the White House. Now that is some shit. That’s some amazing shit. It means there is hope in this country. And Obama is fighting for gay rights, okay, so support the man, God damn it.”

JT: That is certainly a special kind of English. No wonder leftists, obots, progressives, dumbed-downers and other idiots adore Madonna. Her language is so much akin to a true statement from The Merchant of Venice by William Shakespeare (Do you know who that person (was/is, Madonna?): You speak an infinite deal of nothing. – The Merchant of Venice, I. I. 113.

http://townhall.com/tipsheet/katiepavlich/2012/08/24/listen_barack_obama_calls_new_born_baby_a_fetus_outside_of_the_womb

JT: Remember when Barack Hussein Obama said that babies who survived an abortion should be killed?

Think about this in conjunction with Barack Hussein Obama's stance on abortions: Barack Hussein Obama is a Muslim, a sucker Muslim. What does Islam say that Muslims must do to unbelievers in Islam if they do not convert? The unbelievers must be forced to pay the poll tax (jizya) or be killed. Isn't Barack Obama being a good Muslim with his stance on abortion? He is for killing future individuals who in probably all cases would not be Muslim. That 's being a good Muslim, isn't it? Now enter Michelle Obama, who is not better than her husband. School children need at least 3000 calories per day. Possibly more! There are only 800-850 calories in a school meal, dictated by Michelle. Starving is another way to kill the unbelievers, isn't it Michelle?!

From <http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2012/sep/25/obama-un-general-assembly-transcript> we read from Obama's speech at the United Nations concerning Ambassador Stevens's murder that "Chris went to Benghazi in the early days of the Libyan revolution, arriving on a cargo ship. As America's representative, he helped the Libyan people as they coped with violent conflict, cared for the wounded, and crafted a vision for a future in which the rights of all Libyans would be respected. After the revolution, he supported the birth of a new democracy, as Libyans held elections, built new institutions, and began to move forward after decades of dictatorship."

JT: Everything Obama did in Libya was against the Constitution for the United States of America. But obots, leftists, progs, and dumber-downers don't care! Probably not even a majority of American citizens care because the lamestream media is not doing its media responsibility: reporting the truth. The real message behind what Obama said concerning the murdering of Ambassador Stevens is: "I'm glad he was murdered. He knew too many of my secrets. I'm Barack Hussein Obama and I approve this message." That is what is known as really being thrown under the bus!

At <http://nation.foxnews.com/iowa/2012/09/27/voting-begins-iowa> we read that "Voting began today in Iowa, the first battleground state where voters can cast their ballot in the presidential election.

Iowa is one of 32 states (plus the District of Columbia) that allows no-excuse early voting, meaning that any registered voter can head to the polls before election day and cast their ballot. Idaho and South Dakota were the first states to start early voting last week, but Iowa is the first of the key swing states that could determine the outcome of the election where voting has begun. Ohio is the next swing state to begin early voting. Polls there open on Tuesday, Oct. 2.

JT: "This will give me and my obots ample time to rig the outcome of the election in those states! I am Barack Obama and I approve this message!"

At <http://www.theblaze.com/stories/muslims-torch-loot-buddhist-holy-sites-in-bangladesh-over-alleged-facebook-photo/> we see and read (It's worth quoting everything!)

(TheBlaze/AP) — Thousands of Bangladeshi Muslims angry over an alleged derogatory photo of the Quran on Facebook set fire to at least 10 Buddhist temples and 40 homes near the southern border with Myanmar, authorities said Sunday.

“I have seen 11 wooden temples, two of them 300 years old, torched by the mob. They looted precious items and Buddha statues from the temples. Shops owned by Buddhists were also looted,” local journalist Sunil Barua said, according to Russia Today.

The violence began late Saturday and continued until early Sunday, said Nojibul Islam, a police chief in the coastal district of Cox’s Bazar.

He said the situation was under control Sunday afternoon after extra security officials were deployed and the government banned public gatherings in the troubled area.

He said at least 20 people were injured in the attacks that followed the posting of a Facebook photo of a burned copy of the Quran. The rioters blamed the photo on a local Buddhist boy, though it was not immediately clear if the boy actually posted the photo.

Bangladesh’s popular English-language Daily Star newspaper quoted the boy as saying that the photo was mistakenly tagged on his Facebook profile. The newspaper reported that soon after the violence broke out, the boy’s Facebook account was closed and police escorted him and his mother to safety.

Joinul Bari, chief government administrator in Cox’s Bazar district, said authorities detained the boy’s parents and were investigating.

“We’ve called in army along with paramilitary troopers and police who were constantly guarding the areas to ward off any further violence,” Bari assured.

Bangladeshi Home Minister Mohiuddin Khan Alamgir vowed to bring the perpetrators to justice, and reportedly told Bangladeshi media: “The attack was conducted in a coordinated manner. Temples and houses were set on fire using petrol and gun powder. It would have been impossible if the attacks were not planned.”

Buddhists make up less than 1 percent of Muslim-majority Bangladesh’s 150 million people.

The Bangladeshi violence follows protests that erupted in Muslim countries over the past month, beginning largely in Egypt and Libya on September 11.

Some two dozen demonstrators have been killed in protests that attacked symbols of U.S. and the West, including diplomatic compounds, and the protests appear to be spreading.

JT: I think that Obama should call for a shutdown of Facebook, arrest the owner of Facebook and the person who took the photograph. At the same time he should give a speech before the world extolling how peaceful and tolerant Islam is. Kick the thug out of office in November and kick illegal, Muslims and all of the others out of the United States of America. What happened to the Alien and Sedition Acts? This is JT and JT approves this message.

At <http://dailycaller.com/2012/10/01/doj-domestic-phone-email-internet-surveillance-of-americans-skyrocketed-under-obama/> we read that under Obama between 2009 and 2011, warrantless electronic surveillance requests by the Justice Department to spy on phone communications increased 60 percent from 23,535 to 37,616. ...

The number of people whose phone calls were subject to such surveillance during that same time period tripled. ... More people were subjected to federal government pen register and trap and trace surveillance of their phones in the past two years than in the previous decade.

DOJ surveillance of Internet communications, while rarer, increased 361 percent between 2009 and 2011.

Mr. Fredrick writes a list of Barack Hussein Obama's supposed male lovers Reggie Love, actor Kal Penn, Donald Young, Larry Bland, college roommate Phil Boerner, former Congressman Artur Davis, Massachusetts Governor Deval Patrick, and former Senator Bill Frist. Also of note is Larry Sinclair, who claims he shared cocaine and homosexual activities with Obama in the back of a limousine in Chicago on November 6, 1999, and again the next day in a motel room in Gurnee, Illinois.

At <http://www.nationalreview.com/corner/328974/stunning-historical-discovery-peter-kirsanow> we read about a Stunning Historical Discovery By Peter Kirsanow October 1, 2012 4:15 P.M. with Comments. The article deserves to be quoted in its entirety.

Cambridge, Mass.— Celebrated historian Bertram Oxley has uncovered a memorandum from former Japanese Emperor Hirohito to Admiral Yamamoto dated December 6, 1941, showing that the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor was motivated by an offensive film made by Charlie Chaplin ridiculing Japanese cuisine.

"Contrary to historical accounts over the last seventy years," Professor Oxley said in an interview today with the BBC, "What appeared to be a meticulously planned surprise attack was actually a spontaneous demonstration by moderate sushi connoisseurs in the Imperial Navy in response to a hateful and offensive movie. Thereafter, extremist elements within the Japanese military co-opted the spontaneous attack, transforming it into the overseas contingency operation sometimes referred to as 'World War II.'"

The discovery has created a sensation in scholarly circles. "This is a remarkable find," declared Reginald Smythe, chairman of the Progressive Historians Association and former Obama State Department official. "Had President Roosevelt condemned this movie — instead of uttering that infernal 'Day of Infamy' provocation — the war could have been avoided and millions of lives would have been saved."

Reached at his home in Houston, former President George H. W. Bush, an aviator in the Pacific during the war, expressed skepticism. "It's simply inconceivable that the Japanese First Air Fleet, with six aircraft carriers, could have staged a spur of the moment attack on an island thousands of nautical miles from the Japanese homeland with such stealth and precision." Most experts dismissed Mr. Bush's remarks, however, since it's widely understood that World War II was primarily his son's fault.

White House spokesman Jay Carney, asked this afternoon about the memo's discovery stated, "Of course, hindsight's 20-20. But one can only wonder how much pain and suffering could have been averted had FDR simply apologized to Hirohito at the outset."

“Fortunately,” Carney continued, waving off questions from White House reporters anxious to return to questions about Mitt Romney’s grooming habits, “We’ve evolved to a more sophisticated strategy of leading from behind, so we’re unlikely to repeat the disastrous mistakes of the past.”

JT: Methinks that this is foolproof proof that history does repeat itself!!
