According to Chicago Sun Times, “The U.S. attorney’s office in Springfield [Illinois] has been busy the past few years investigating a variety of fraud schemes involving state grants. Thirteen people have been charged so far, six who have pleaded guilty. Two of them have ties to ...Obama. One is the daughter of his controversial former pastor, the Rev. Jeremiah Wright. Another was chief of staff to Obama’s longtime friend Eric E. Whitaker when Whitaker was Illinois’ public health chief. In all, prosecutors are alleging a total of $16 million in fraud involving state health or commerce department grants and contracts.” <http://www.suntimes.com/22212263-761/watchdogs-tally-in-illinois-grant-fraud-probe-so-far-13-charged-16m-embezzled.html>

MILITARY COUP IN PROGRESS IN WASHINGTON D.C 9/10/13!!!

THIS IS NOT A DRILL!!!

THIS IS NOT A JOKE OR PARODY!!! THIS IS REAL!!!

I have received information originating from a well-known former General at the Pentagon; everybody knows this guy's name. This information comes to me second hand, but I consider the go-between to be very reliable.

The information that I have received so far is that five of the US Military's highest-ranking Generals have met with Barack Obama and warned him that if he orders an attack on Syria he will be arrested and charged with Treason for attempting to provide aid and comfort to our enemies, namely the al-Qaeda affiliate al-Nusra Front in Syria.

The generals reportedly punctuated that statement with a promise that if he is convicted of Treason, Barack Obama will find himself swinging at the end of a rope at Leavenworth.

Held Hostage In Syria 'Overheard Captor's Conversation Blaming Rebels For Chemical Attacks'

by Larry O'Connor 12 Sep 2013 110 post a comment

An Italian journalist and Belgian writer who had been held captive in Syria for the past six months were released this past Sunday. Domenico Quirico says he overheard a conversation held on Skype by his captors. The captors claimed that the recent chemical attack in Syria was orchestrated by the rebels to draw Western countries into the fight against the Assad regime.

Quirico told his newspaper, La Stampa daily, "In this conversation, they said that the gas attack on two neighborhoods of Damascus was launched by the rebels as a provocation to lead the West to intervene militarily."

Although Quirico concedes that he has no way of validating the information he overheard, he also points out that one of the three participants in the conversation identified himself as a Free Syria Army general.

The Free Syria Army is the faction of the Syrian rebels who have been described as the "moderates" in the fight against the Assad regime. Just yesterday the Free Syria Army began receiving arms from the American government.

The Daily Mail has more information on how the journalists were treated by the captors, whom they believed to be that same "moderate" Free Syria Army:

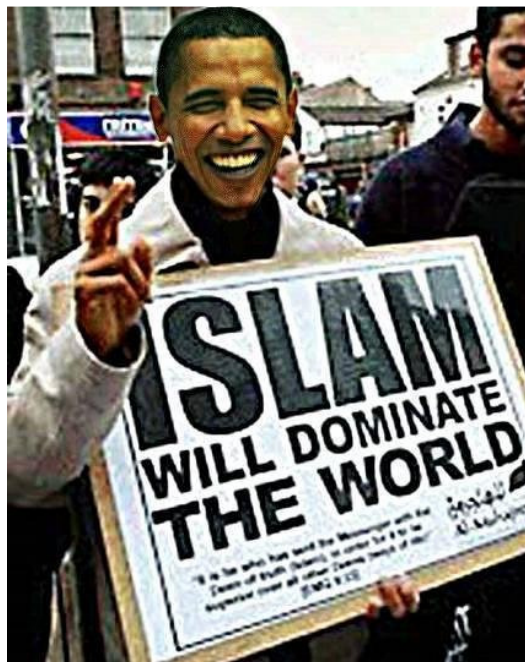

His fellow captive, Mr Piccinin de Prata told Belgian radio station RTL that he had a 'moral duty' to share what he heard.

Since they were released on Sunday, the pair have spoken of their ordeal at the hands of their captors, who were thought to be from the Free Syria Army.

The men told reporters that they were beaten on a daily basis and subjected to two mock executions.

Piccinin said that they were treated as though they were 'subhuman'.

JT: Naw! No way. Barack Hussein Obama says that President Assad did it. We all know that Barack Hussein Obama always tells the truth.

Court orders pig squeal payments

Posted: Sep 11, 2013 6:53 PM Updated: Sep 11, 2013 6:56 PM

A French court reportedly ordered a pig farm to pay damages to a former worker who claims he went deaf because of the incessant squeals of the animals.

A court in Lons-le-Saunier ruled that the owner had committed an "inexcusable error" by failing to protect Serge Personeni from a work hazard, according to the AFP.

The amount to be paid to Personeni, 59, who worked there from September 2001 until February 2008, will be decided later after he is inspected by a doctor.

Personeni was in charge of feeding and looking after nearly 4,000 pigs.

Deafness was recognized as a work hazard in France in 2012. It was then decided that those working in places with decibel levels higher than 85 should receive protective equipment.

HORRIBLE: Egypt Christians killed for not paying 'Jizya' tax to Islamists

Last week we reported that since the fall of Morsi, Islamists had taken over the Egyptian town of Dalga and were terrorizing Christians there. Now we are hearing that some Christians are being told to pay a very expensive 'Jizya' tax (a protection tax) or they are told they will be killed. And that is exactly what happened here:

CBN NEWS – Muslims in southern Egypt killed two Christian men for failing to pay them protection money.

Muslims in the area are demanding Christians pay them "jizya," a kind of tax that Islamic law requires religious minorities to pay Muslims. However, the tax is so high many Christians simply can't afford it. The Voice of the Martyrs reports that a Muslim man demanded a Christian in a village in Assiut pay him nearly $1,500.

The Christian sought help from local police but to no avail. When he failed to come up with the money, several Muslims went to his home and shot him and his cousin to death.

I Own the World has this to say about Michelle's assault on life's basics:

"It is being hailed as remarkable. After her latest initiative, Let's Drink Water!, was such a smashing success, Michelle has quickly, almost maniacally, moved to this latest all important reminder to her constituents – Let's Breathe (and not just through our mouths all the time.)

She has most of the basics covered.

Let's Move.

Let's Eat.

Let's Drink Water.

Let's Breathe.

Sources say that after Let's Breathe, Michelle will be moving on to more shaded, more nuanced initiatives.

Let's Wipe Away From Our Vaginas seems to be geared towards women, but Michelle reminds us not to be that Neanderthal and gender specific, after all, most of these initiatives are geared toward her voter base, the left, and a vagina can be found on just about anyone.

An insider close to the Obama camp says down the road we can also look for
IF YOU'RE GOING TO PICK, DON'T EAT IT.

And our favorite initiative so far, Put One Foot In Front of The Other When You Move. It's an update to Let's Move, because many of the constituents were left helpless without specific instructions.

Stay tuned for more. (I'm sure the readers can inform me of some other initiatives I have missed.)

JT: I think the next basic to be covered by Michelle will be: Let's crap!

We read at <http://cnsnews.com/news/article/patrick-goodenough/russia-will-agree-consequences-syria-only-if-it-believes-100-percent> that the Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov says, “Of course, it does not mean that every violation [by Syria] that will be reported to the Security Council will be taken [at its] word. Of course, we will investigate every case, because there are a lot of false information, pieces of information in the world, and we should be very cautious about every fact. And when we are sure—100 percent—then we in the Russian Federation will be ready to adopt [a] new resolution of the Security Council, to embed the measures to punish the perpetrators of this violation. It’s nonsense to continue the speculations on the matter today.”

Don Fredrick of The Obama Timeline makes this comment: "In other words, Russia will not agree to a United Nations Security Council resolution calling for a strike against Syria unless Russia agrees that the Assad regime has violated the terms of any agreement. It will not be enough for Obama to claim Syria 'crossed a red line.' Russia will rule on whether the line was, in fact, crossed. Russia is not only the fox guarding the hen house; Russia will decide whether any hens are missing."

JT: Don Fredrick's view is 100 percent correct. My comment is that anything Russia (President Putin) does to make Obama look bad is okay with me. Of course, the media lap dogs will make Obama look good. Yet there are enough intelligent Americans, like the readers of The Obama Timeline and Just Thinking, who are able to see through the pro-Obama lies of the lamestream media.

TakiMag Jim Goad responds to Vice President Joe Biden's September 12 description of Republicans as "Neanderthals," writing, "The most stubbornly hypocritical glitch in the egalitarian mindset is that eugenics is roundly and vigorously dismissed as a dangerous and discredited pseudoscience... unless it can be wielded to portray ideological enemies as genetically inferior throwbacks. Thus, the same sheltered, daydreaming buttercups that strain to deny even basic visual differences between ethnic groups are the first to blame rural white poverty on things such as inbreeding and overall crappy genes. In such cases, eugenics are not only suddenly real, they are highly pertinent—decisive, even. The same double standard permits politicians—who'd never dare publicly suggest that sub-Saharan Africa is not exactly the Hope Diamond of intellectual achievement—to smear large swaths of people who don't kowtow to their dim notions of 'progress' as 'Neanderthals.' Vice President Joseph Biden, that asshole, recently referred to Republicans as 'Neanderthals.' A couple of years ago, current Secretary of State John Kerry, who resembles an archeological dig even while alive, dismissed global-warming critics as 'Neanderthals.' In 2003, now-dead Senator Ted Kennedy said he would resist the appointment of any 'Neanderthal' that George W. Bush might nominate as a judge. The Daily Kos, that festering armpit of self-congratulatory leftist delusion, recently suggested that NRA members possessed the 'Neanderthal gene.' The pejorative 'Neanderthal,' despite being anthropologically hurtful and unabashedly homo sapiens-supremacist, is thrown around with gleeful impunity by the selfsame egalitards who insist that everyone is created equal... except, of course, for the knuckle-dragging prehistoric losers who don't think like they do. If I know one thing about people, it's that they need to feel superior to other people, and since it's no longer culturally permissible to suggest that sub-Saharan Africa may be a teeny bit backward, one is free to indulge their innate craving to feel superior at the expense of the stocky, hairy, big-browed, club-wielding descendants of homo neanderthalensis whose genetic vestiges now listen to heavy metal, attend NASCAR races, own hunting rifles, pray to Jesus, handle serpents, and vote Republican."

http://takimag.com/article/in_defense_of_neanderthals_jim_goad?utm_source=Taki%27s+Magazine+List&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=ad4bea114f-RSS_EMAIL_CAMPAIGN&utm_term=0_f7706afea2-ad4bea114f-379412953#axzz2f0gY3ld7)

JT: Now that is what I call hitting POLDS with an oratorical club! Good work and excellent words Mr. Goad!

"The federal government raked in a record of approximately $2,472,542,000,000 in tax revenues through the first eleven months of fiscal 2013, which ran from Oct. 1, 2012 through the end of August, according to the Monthly Treasury Statement for August.

That is up about $285 billion from the approximately $2,187,527,000,000 in taxes the government took in through August of fiscal 2012."
