JUST THINKING

Number 100 Special Anniversary Issue

Muhammad-Koran Share'a Number 1
Washington, District of Islam
The Muslim States of America
May 13, 2014

Dear Just Thinking:

Congratulations on the 100th issue of Just Thinking! Since the first issue of Just Thinking on February 2, 2012, I have been enthralled with the information that the issues contain. Me (sic: I) and Michelle agree with you wholeheartedly. You are able to see through our ruses and explain how we progressive Muslims function. I, myself am a great author, but like Just Thinking, I am never without ideas. This we both have in common.

My opinion is that the enemedia, who do exactly as I want them to do, who report exactly as I want them to report, who pucker up their lips exactly as I want them to pucker up their lips, could learn a lot from the Just Thinking issues. Perhaps at one of my next hardball interviews I will recommend to the enemedia that they take cues on how to report from Just Thinking.

Your viewpoint that Just Thinking opinions should be supported with visual aids is a superb thought. Our two daughters Malia Ann and Natasha are the best examples of progressive children. They love to read (sic: look at) the pictures and cartoons, although they do not always understand the deeper philosophical message. Well, sometime neither does me or Michelle (sic: neither do I nor Michelle) understand.

In addition, I would like to say in the name of my caliphate slaves that Just Thinking must keep ups (sic: keep up) its ability of being able to present news from my caliphate into perspective.

We should not forget that free speech, as Just thinking says, "as long as it still exists", is really nothing more than my being able to allow it when I wants it (sic: want it). However, Just Thinking does not have to worry. I have the perfect organizations that keeps (sic: keep) an eye on what you and your colleagues write about me and me (sic: my) paradisiacal political policies.

Just Thinking provides for high quality political mental health. Michelle and me (sic: I) are true followers of Just Thinking. We congratulate Just Thinking on its 100th anniversary issue, which is this letter.

As a practicing Muslim I do not drink alcohol. But if I did, I would drink a toast to Just Thinking's continued success.

Yours in Muslim Umma patriotism,

Barack Hussein Obama

King of the Muslim States of America
