JT: This must be Islam's answer to all of the world's problems.

***

1. A man can have sexual pleasure from a child as young as a baby. However, he should not penetrate vaginally, but sodomising the child is acceptable. If a man does penetrate and damage the child then, he should be responsible for her subsistence all her life. This girl will not count as one of his four permanent wives and the man will not be eligible to marry the girl's sister... It is better for a girl to marry at such a time when she would begin menstruation at her husband's house, rather than her father's home. Any father marrying his daughter so young will have a permanent place in heaven. [Tahrirolvasyleh (commentaries on Islamic jurisprudence), fourth edition, Qom, Iran, 1990]
2. A man can have sex with animals such as sheep, cows, camels and so on. However, he should kill the animal after he has his orgasm. He should not sell the meat to the people in his own village, but selling the meat to a neighbouring village is reasonable.
3. If one commits the act of sodomy with a cow, a ewe, or a camel, their urine and their excrement become impure and even their milk may no longer be consumed. The animal must then be killed as quickly as possible and burned.
4. Wine and all intoxicating beverages are impure, but opium and hashish are not.
5. If a man sodomises the son, brother, or father of his wife after their marriage, the marriage remains valid.
6. During sexual intercourse, if the joystick enters a woman's vagina or a man's anus, fully or only as far as the circumcision ring, both partners become impure, even if they have not reached puberty; they must consequently perform ablutions.

7. A woman who has contracted a continuing marriage does not have the right to go out of the house without her husband's permission; she must remain at his disposal for the fulfillment of any one of his desires, and may not refuse herself to him except for a religiously valid reason. If she is totally submissive to him, the husband must provide her with her food, clothing, and lodging, whether or not he has the means to do so. A woman who refuses herself to her husband is guilty, and may not demand from him food, clothing, lodging, or any later sexual relations; however, she retains the right to be paid damages if she is repudiated.

8. It is not illegal for an adult male to 'thigh' or enjoy a young girl who is still in the age of weaning; meaning to place his joystick between her thighs, and to kiss her. [Numbers 2-8 are from The Little Green Book]

JT: The author of these books is Ayatollah Khomeini, the former religious leader of Iran (1979-1989). Note that Tahrirolvasleyeh (commentaries on Islamic jurisprudence), fourth edition, Qom, Iran, 1990 is somewhat misleading because some sources say that the book was never in the fourth edition. It could be that the book had four volumes, although some sources say that all volumes were in two volumes. Therefore, those who want to deny these statements can say that they are lies because there was neither a fourth edition nor four volumes. There has never been an official translation from the Farsi into English. Volumes I and II in Arabic are at <http://shiaonlinelibrary.com/>. Some sites will link the reader to "partial English translations." However, whenever these are clicked the result is: THIS ACCOUNT HAS BEEN SUSPENDED. From <http://www.d-intl.com/2013/10/15/swedish-archbishop-prefers-allah/>:

"Like kings, all bishops have their own motto and (Antje) Jackelén chose "God is greater". If that sounds familiar, it may be due to the fact that an Arabic translation renders it as "Allahu akbar". There are those who believe that her choice is far from random – but very deliberate.

Many have been taken aback by the theological opinions Jackelén revealed during a questioning in Uppsala on October 1. The candidates for the highest position in the Swedish church were asked if they thought Jesus presented a truer picture of God than Muhammed. With her evasive answer Jackelén suddenly emerged as the bishop who couldn't choose between Jesus and Muhammed. This provoked strong reactions on some editorial pages.

Kyrkans Tidning thought that the bishop's answer might indicate that Christ is being relegated to the margins of the Church of Sweden and Dagens Nyheter encouraged the candidates to show some theological backbone. The editorial writer at the newspaper Dagen wrote that it is time to accept the idea of a split within the church – between Christians and those who think all religions are equally good.

The bishop of Lund's preference for Allah has prompted one of the church's most preeminent theologians, professor Eva Hamberg, to leave her post as a member of the church's theological council in protest against bishop Antje Jackelén's failure to stand behind the Church of Sweden's profession of faith. As a reaction to what she calls "the inner secularization of the Church of Sweden", she has also renounced her position as priest and her membership of the church.

In a number of interviews Hamberg has expressed her disappointment that not even the top leader of the church will clearly profess a Christian faith but wavers between Jesus and Muhammed.

It is not only Jackelén's motto and her unwillingness to put Jesus ahead of Muhammed that has evoked strong feelings among many committed Christians. During her questioning in Uppsala, the new archbishop also said that the Church of Sweden has more in common with other religions than with other Christian churches, that the Virgin Birth must be understood metaphorically, that hell doesn't exist and that the Biblical texts should not be taken as truth."

JT: Methinks Antje Jackelén belongs in an asylum (behind Swedish curtains) with the Bishop of Stockholm Eva Brunne (<http://news1.org/2015/10/first-lesbian-bishop-now-calling-for-church-to-remove-crosses-and-make-room-for-islam/>)

You're a 19 year old kid. You're critically wounded and dying in the jungle somewhere in the central highlands of Vietnam. It's November 11, 1967. LZ (landing zone) X-ray. Your unit is outnumbered 8-1 and the enemy fire is so intense from 100 yards away, that your CO (Commanding Officer) has ordered the MedEvac helicopters to stop coming in. You're lying there listening, to the enemy machine guns and you know you're not getting out. Your family is half way around the world, 12,000 miles away, and you will never see them again. As the world starts to fade in and out, you know this is the day. Then -over the machine gun noise- you faintly hear that sound of a helicopter. You look up to see a Huey coming in. But... it doesn't seem real because no MedEvac markings are on it. Captain Ed Freeman is coming in for you. He's not a MedEvac so it's not his job, but he heard the radio call and decided he's flying his Huey down into the machine gun fire anyway. Even after the MedEvacs were ordered not to come. He's coming anyway, and he drops it in and sits there in the machine gun fire, as they load three of you at the time on board. Then he flies you up and out through the gunfire to the doctor's and nurses and safety. And, he kept coming back! Thirteen more times! Until all the wounded were out. No one knew until the mission was over that the captain had been hit 4 times in the legs and left arm. He took 29 of you and your buddies out that day. Some would not have made it without the Captain and his Huey. Medal Of Honor recipient, Captain Ed Freeman United States Army, died at the age of 70, in Boise, Idaho. May God bless and rest his soul. I bet you didn't hear about this hero's passing. It's a shame that the media couldn't be bothered to honor Captain Ed Freeman.

"We will return to the topic of the migrants because I have another letter here regarding the effect [of] immigrants on the everyday flow of operations. Eyewitness from a Munich hospital: A friend in Prague has a friend, who, as a retired physician, had returned to work at a Munich area hospital where they needed an anesthesiologist. I correspond with her and she forwarded me her email. Yesterday, at the hospital we had a meeting about how the situation here and at the other Munich hospitals is unsustainable. Clinics cannot handle emergencies, so they are starting to send everything [everyone] to the hospitals. Many Muslims are refusing treatment by female staff and, we, women, are refusing to go among those animals, especially from Africa. Relations between the staff and migrants are going from bad to worse. Since last weekend, migrants going to the hospitals must be accompanied by police with K-9 units.”

“Many migrants have AIDS, syphilis, open TB and many exotic diseases that we, in Europe, do not know how to treat them. If they receive a prescription, in the pharmacy they learn they have to pay cash. This leads to unbelievable outbursts, especially when it is about drugs for the children. They abandon the children with pharmacy staff with the words, ‘So, cure them here yourselves!’ So the police are not just guarding the clinics and hospitals, but also large pharmacies. Truly we said openly, ‘Where are all those who had welcomed [the refugees] in front of TV cameras, with signs at train stations?!’ Yes, for now, the border has been closed, but a million of them are already here and we will definitely not be able to get rid of them.”

“Til now, the number of unemployed in Germany was 2.2 million. Now it will be at least 3.5 million. Most of these people are completely unemployable. A bare minimum of them have any education. What is more, their women usually do not work at all. I estimate that one in ten is pregnant. Hundreds of thousands of them have brought along infants and little kids under six, many emaciated and neglected. If this continues and German reopens its borders, I’m going home [to the Czech Republic]. Nobody can keep me here in this situation, not even [at] double the salary than at home. I went to Germany, not to Africa or the Middle East. Even the professor who heads our department told us how sad it makes him to see the cleaning woman, who for 800 Euros cleans, every day for years, and then meets young men in the hallways who just wait with their hand outstretched, want everything for free, and when they don’t get it they throw a fit. I really don’t need this! But I’m afraid that if I return, that at some point it will be the same [in the Czech Republic]. If the Germans, with their nature cannot handle this, there in Czechia it would be total chaos. Nobody who has not come in contact with [the refugees] has [any] idea what kind of animals they are, especially the ones from Africa, and how Muslims act superior to our staff, regarding their religious [accommodation].”

“For now, the local hospital staff has not come down with the diseases they brought here, but, with so many hundreds of patients every day—this is just a question of time. In a hospital near the Rhine, migrants attacked the staff with knives after they had handed over an 8-month-old on the brink of death, [who] they had dragged across half of Europe for three months. The child died in two days, despite having received top care at one of the best pediatric clinics in Germany. The physician had to undergo surgery and two nurses are laid up in the ICU. Nobody has been punished. The local press is forbidden to write about it, so we know about it [only] through email. What would have happened to a German if he had stabbed a doctor and nurses with a knife? Or if he had flung his own syphilis-infected urine into a nurse's face and so threatened her with infection? At a minimum he'd go straight to jail and later to court. With these people—so far, nothing has happened.”

“And so I ask, where are all those greeters and receivers from the train stations? Sitting pretty at home, enjoying their non-profits and looking forward to more trains and their next batch of cash from acting like greeters at the stations. If it were up to me I would round up all these greeters and bring them here first to our hospital's emergency ward, as attendants. Then, into one building with the migrants so they can look after them there themselves, without armed police, without police dogs who today are in every hospital here in Bavaria, and without medical help.”

Quoted from <http://clashdaily.com/2015/10/u-s-muslim-kills-mom-cuts-her-heart-out-masturbates-on-her-dead-body>.

This is absolutely disturbing and disgusting. Chances are that you won't even hear about it from the mainstream media.

A California man accused of murdering his mother told police that he sliced open her chest, removed her heart and then masturbated as "a release," extremely disturbing court documents claim.

An unapologetic Omar Mark Pettigen, 31, said that the horrific act felt "good" upon his arrest just north of Oakland five days after the slaying, according to charging documents obtained by The Daily News.

His capture came after his father asking police to perform a welfare check at his ex-wife's Fremont home on Sept. 29 after not hearing from her or their son from his home in New Mexico.

When officers arrived at the home, Nailah Pettigen, 64, "appeared to have been disemboweled" in her blood-soaked bedroom, police said.

The former American High School math teacher was found sliced from her neck down to her cervix and had her underwear around her ankles. She had also been shot at least seven times, an autopsy later found.

Her son, who was collared in Kensington on Sunday, said he committed the vile act because she was killing herself with the prescription painkiller oxycodone, which she had become addicted to after hip and knee problems as well as surgery.

During an argument in her bedroom, he claims she pointed a gun at him. That's when he grabbed a hammer off the bedroom wall and knocked the gun out of her hand.

He said he then left the room, only to return with a tomahawk which he used to bash her head. He then retrieved a revolver from a closet and shot her in the back about four times.

Using a knife, he then sliced open her chest, removed her heart with his hands and then put it back in her body. He then masturbated because "he needed to be with himself and needed a release after the event," according to the documents.

After carrying out the sickening slaying, Pettigen said he had a few beers with friends in the San Francisco Bay area and booked an airline ticket for Chicago. (KRON)
