KOWTOWING OBAMA DID IT AGAIN

On October 26, 2012 Barack Hussein Obama issued the following kowtowing statement: “Michelle and I extend our best wishes for a joyful Eid al-Adha to Muslims in the United States and around the world. We also congratulate the millions of peaceful pilgrims who are performing the Hajj, including thousands of American Muslims. Throughout the year, Muslims join members of many faiths in serving those suffering from hunger, disease, and conflict. Muslim communities will continue this practice as they celebrate Eid by distributing food and charity to those in need. Such acts of compassion underscore the shared values of the Abrahamic religions and people of all faiths. On behalf of the American people, we extend our warmest greetings on this holiday. Eid Mubarak.”¹

The First Lie

The reader should not be surprised that Barack Hussein Obama does not know his own religion. He lies all of the time. Why not lie about Eid al-Adha, which in itself is a lie? What? An Islamic holy festival is a lie? Yes!!! By examining Barack Hussein Obama's kowtowing propaganda to the Islamic propaganda we will be able to answer the question.

Eid al-Adha is the Islamic Feast of the Sacrifice. According to Islamic dogma, four thousand years ago – Islam did not exist! – the Meccan Valley was uninhabited, dry, and full of rocks. God commanded Abraham to bring his Egyptian wife Hagar and his only son at the time of the command, Ishmael from the land of Canaan to the land of Arabia, which also did not exist at the time. Islam does not say why God ordered Abraham to go to the Meccan Valley. Perhaps Islam wants its believers to understand that one has to do what Allah, which is not the Hebrew or Christian God, says. For any reason whatever, Abraham prepared for his return journey to the Land of Milk and Honey, Canaan. Before Abraham left, Hagar asked him, ¹ <http://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2012/10/26/statement-president-hajj-and-eid-al-adha>.

"Did God order you to leave us here? Or are you leaving us here to die?"

Facing his wife and at the same time pointing to heaven, Abraham, full of sadness indicated that God commanded him to leave Hagar and Ishmael in the Meccan Valley.

Hagar promptly said, "Then God will not waste us; you can go".

Leaving a large amount of food and water, Abraham packed up his mule and left. (Right at this instance we can understand why Islam maintains that Jews are evil. Naturally, no Muslim would ever leave his wife and son in a rocky, uninhabited desert, unless Allah-Hubal commanded him to do so!)

The supplies that Abraham had left were quickly depleted. Within days there were pangs of hunger and thirst in Hagar and Ishmael. With the remaining strength she could muster, Hagar began searching for water between the two hills Al-Safa and Al-Marwah. In her search for water Hagar searched up and down the hills seven times. Completely exhausted, – who would not be exhausted? – Hagar fell to the earth beside baby Ishmael. She began praying to God to deliver her and Ishmael from their danger. A miracle then occurred. Just as she finished her beseeching, a spring of water began gushing up from the earth right at Ishmael's feet.² The water flowed in great quantities, so great that the well, known as the Zamzam Well provided for Hagar and Ishmael. Not only that, Hagar was able to trade off the water for goods from nomads passing by.

A number of years passed and God told Abraham to return to the Meccan Valley where he had left Hagar and Ishmael. Upon arrival Abraham was to build a place of worship next to Hagar's Zamzam Well. Ishmael had grown to become a strong boy and Abraham and his began the construction of a stone and mortar building that is called the Kaba. This was to be the place where all of the worshipers were to come together and pray and give thanks to God and solidify their faith in Him. When Ishmael came of adult age, God blessed him with prophet hood. Ishmael took to his calling and began to preach his message to the nomads of the desert and tell them that they must be submissive to God. This should sound familiar, for Islam means submission and obedience. After a few hundred years, Mecca, thanks to the Zamzam Well, developed into a major trading center.

Abraham faced a number of trials and tribulations in his life. One of the most serious was to obey God's command to sacrifice his dearest son. When Ishmael was about 13 years old (Abraham was 99.), Abraham dreamt that God commanded him to sacrifice his son. Abraham told Ishmael of this dream and God's command. Both ² Other Islamic renderings of the story – Islam always tells the truth no matter what the story is! – claim that the Angel Gabriel struck the earth and caused the spring of water to appear. It is always Gabriel who comes to the rescue as if Islam as if Mohammed knew of no other angel.

Abraham and Ishmael believed this was a test for Ishmael to prove his love, maturity, and trust in God, as well as to show his obedience and his love for his father. Ishmael said to his father,

"Father, do what you have been commanded. You will find me, God willing, to be very patient."

Abraham was preparing to execute God's will when Satan appeared and tried to convince Abraham and his family to not obey God's command. Being angered by Satan, Abraham drove the evil one away by throwing stones at him. To celebrate and commemorate Abraham's rejection of Satan, the pilgrims on their Hajj throw pebbles at symbolic columns that symbolize Satan.

Abraham did not want to see his son die. Therefore, Abraham covered his own eyes with a blindfold before he slit Ishmael's throat. Once the cut had been made, Abraham removed the blindfold and saw that not only was Ishmael unharmed, but that a ram had been slaughtered with the cut at the throat.

Thus both Abraham and Ishmael had passed God's test of obedience.

The Koran relates the story as follows:

"O my Lord! Grant me a righteous (son)!" So We gave him the good news of a boy, possessing forbearance. And when (his son) was old enough to walk and work with him, (Abraham) said: O my dear son, I see in vision that I offer you in sacrifice: Now see what is your view!" (The son) said: "O my father! Do what you are commanded; if Allah wills, you will find me one practicing patience and steadfastness!" So when they both submitted and he threw him down upon his forehead, We called out to him saying: O Ibraheem! You have indeed fulfilled the vision; surely thus do We reward those who do good. Most surely this was a manifest trial. And We ransomed him with a momentous sacrifice. And We perpetuated (praise) to him among the later generations. "Peace and salutation to Ibraheem!" Thus indeed do We reward those who do right. Surely he was one of Our believing servants.³

As a reward for this sacrifice, God's reward to Abraham was the birth of his second son, Isaac.

³ Koran 37:100-111. The use of the plural we and our is the formal reference to Allah(-Hubal).

*And We gave him the good news of Is-haaq, a prophet from among the righteous.*⁴

Abraham had shown that his love for Allah(-Hubal) superseded all others: that he would lay down his own life or the lives of those dearest to him in submission to Allah(-Hubal)'s command. Every year during Eid al-Adha Muslims commemorate Abraham's act of sacrifice which showed that the love of Allah(-Hubal) is paramount to all other things and that it is the duty of the believer to submit to Allah(-Hubal)'s commands, even if it means the sacrifice of loved ones.

Islam maintains beyond all doubt that Abraham, the patriarch of the Jews, is also the patriarch of the Arabs. Abraham is the ancient prophet of the monotheism that Muslims call Hanif.⁵

The reason that this is the first lie is that the story is just that: a story. The truth is that "The case for this episode is very obvious because it is of recent date and came into vogue just before the rise of Islam. Islam exploited it for religious reasons."⁶

The Second Lie

Allah(-Hubal) sent Abraham and Ishmael to the Meccan Valley where they built the Kaba.⁷ However, there are no archaeological proofs and there is no historical evidence to substantiate that Abraham, Hagar, and Ishmael were ever in the Meccan Valley. The truth is that the oldest records of Abraham and his family are found in the Torah, the first five books of the Jewish Bible and likewise, the Old Testament. Neither the Torah nor the Old Testament mentions the Meccan Valley and the building of the Kaba. Moreover the oral tradition of the Torah was written down during the Babylonian captivity between 600 BC and 400 BC. Islam did not exist until the 8th century AD.

The Third Lie

Islam claims that Abraham and Ishmael built the Kaba. The Greek-Roman historian Ptolemy (90-168) writes of a place he names Macoraba in a text that he authored sometime during the second century AD, which is four hundred years before the appearance of Mohammed.⁸ It was a temple sanctuary; a place of pilgrimage for all tribes in Arabia, whether Christian, Jewish or pagan, where they worshipped stone fetishes, and/or mountains, and/or special rock formations, and/or "trees of strange growth."⁹ Furthermore, according to archaeological discovery, it is highly possible that the Kaba is a former Hindu Temple.¹⁰

⁴ Koran 37:112.

⁵ The Hanif believers are those people who rejected idolatry and kept the teachings of Abraham, i.e., pure submission to God.

The Fourth Lie

Muslims believe and Islam maintains (without error, or course!) that Abraham and Ishmael built the Kaba, after Ishmael was sacrificed and saved by God.¹¹ The truth is that Ishmael was never sacrificed by Abraham, nor saved by God. However, Islam claims that the Jews substituted Isaac for Ishmael because they were jealous of Abraham's connection to Mecca and the Arabs. It truly was Abraham's son Isaac that was to be sacrificed. Islam stole the story from the binding of Isaac on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. Later, Muslims also stole the Jewish Temple Mount, upon which they constructed the Al-Aqsa Mosque and The Dome of The Rock. What was the reason? It is interesting to observe that the city of Jerusalem is never mentioned in the Koran. The reason for the thievery is that nothing except good old capitalist competition was in play. The local Arab rulers in Jerusalem needed a mosque to compete with the Kaba in Mecca so that the pilgrims would come to Jerusalem, instead of Mecca. Pilgrims bring money with them on their pilgrimages.

The Fifth Lie

Barack Hussein Obama and Michelle wrote that "Muslim communities will continue this practice as they celebrate Eid by distributing food and charity to those in need."

This statement is what is called kitman in the Arabic language and the philosophy behind the Koran. "Muslim communities will continue this practice as they celebrate Eid by distributing food and charity to those in need." is a half-lie and a half-truth. The real truth is that Muslims will never be active in "distributing food and charity to those in need" who are not Muslims. Indeed, to give charity to non-Muslims, whether in the form of money or goods is a waste of resources because Allah, Mohammed, and the Koran teach that unbelievers will go to Hell, no matter what! Therefore, the charity investment would be lost for Islam. Money must be given from non-Muslims to Muslims or from Muslim to Muslim.¹² Furthermore, Muslims do not believe in disaster relief because they believe that disasters are caused by Allah as a form of punishment. A prime example is the charity that was given by Muslims to survivors of the floods in Pakistan in 2010. Muslim charities denied such aid to the Christians who survived the Pakistani floods in 2010 because they were not Muslim.¹³

There is only one recorded instance when Mohammed provided charity to non-Muslims: The truth is that according to the Hadiths, The Prophet said, "I give to them so as to attract their hearts to Islam."¹⁴

The Sixth Lie

"Such acts of compassion underscore the shared values of the Abrahamic religions and people of all faiths." This is another case of kitman. It is only a half truth. Because Islam supports only Muslims, where are the shared values of the religions? The truth is that there are no shared values of true religions with Islam.

The Seventh Lie

An Abrahamic religion is one that traces its origin to Abraham and thus recognizes a spiritual belief identified with him. These are the monotheistic faiths. The largest Abrahamic religions are Judaism, Christianity, Druze, Baha'i Faith, and Islam. The statement made by Barack Hussein Obama claims that Islam is an Abrahamic religion. This is also what Islam claims. However, the Islamic claim can be discounted for three reasons.

Firstly, the nomenclature used for the Supreme Being is Allah, which was and still is an appellation for a moon god. Allah and Hubal were only two of the 360 names Arab pagans had for their moon god(s). What Mohammed commanded was that the pagan Arabs could pay ritual to any moon god, but they had to refer to the moon god as Allah because Allah was the greatest of the moon-god names.

Secondly, as shown above, Abraham never had anything to do with the building of the Kaba or the founding of Islam. Only Islam claims that Abraham founded it, whereas, the proofs of archaeology and history show otherwise.

Thirdly, Islam must be able to answer the following questions in the Abrahamic manner like Judaism and Christianity can:

1. Why do Jews and Christians worship a God called WHYH but Islam worships a (moon-god) called Allah-Hubal, and why is WHYH not Allah?
2. Judaism and Christianity have temple worship that is different from Islam. Why?
3. Why is the direction of the prayer significant to Muslims only?
4. The shrine to Mohammed, the prophet of Allah – the Dome of the Rock – is a hatred that desecrates WHYH. Why does Islam hate and Judaism and Christianity love?
5. WHYH's promise to the Hebrews and Christianity comes through the seed of Isaac and not Ishmael. Why?
6. Church and state are separated for Judaism and Christianity. In Islam there is no separation, Islam is pure totalitarianism. Why?
7. Wine is important in sacred practices in both Judaism and Christianity, but is forbidden (haram) in Islam. Why was it once permitted by Mohammed and then changed by him? Why is the forbidding of wine a directive from Mohammed and not from Allah?

Islam cannot answer these questions in the Abrahamic manner and meaning.¹⁵

The statement by Barack Hussein Obama at the beginning of this essay has seven sentences, including Eid-Mubarak. There is a lie to sentence ratio of 1 to 1. This is quite conclusive. Both Barack Hussein Obama (and Michelle), as well as Islam, are 100 percent liars. The statements by both Barack Hussein Obama and Islam are not only doing taqiyya, lying in certain circumstances to promote Islam, or kitman, the telling of only half-truths to promote Islam. Emphatically, Barack Hussein Obama and Islam are exercising tawriya, the doctrine that allows one to lie in all circumstances as long as the cause of Islam is being advanced.

There is only one immediate solution to the political cancer that is Barack Hussein Obama: vote him out of office and into political oblivion on November 6, 2012. There is only one solution to combat the cancer that is Islam. This is not so immediate. American Patriots have to combat Islam wherever it appears. Do not give one inch to any Muslim demand anywhere in the United States of America, or for that matter, anywhere in the world. Fight it everywhere. It is an ideology with the goal of destroying the United States of America, its culture, its traditions, its Constitution and replacing them all with Islamic sharia law.
