

Obama Addresses and Multiple SSNs

The following list of names, addresses, and Social Security numbers is from the following web site:

http://www.westernjournalism.com/?page_id=3326

According to the above site, the data was compiled by Mr. Neil Sankey, a former British police officer who is now an American citizen and a licensed private investigator in Los Angeles.

The data can also be found at:

<http://defendourfreedoms.org/letterHolder.htm>

Mr. Sankey compiled the data for Dr. Orly Taitz, the attorney in various lawsuits challenging Barack Obama's eligibility to serve as President of the United States because he is not a natural born citizen. Sankey writes, "During the course of the work I have been doing in the past six months, regarding the activities and qualifications of Mr. Obama, I have kept a record of all of the addresses in regards to which I have seen the use of his name. The records and databases I use are many and varied being accumulated for many different reasons but all are of Public Record and the documents I have used are available to the General Public, with, or without the payment of fees."

The Sankey data is reproduced below. (Some duplicates have been omitted.) A column has been added to indicate the state of issuance of the Social Security number. For Social Security numbers assigned before 1972, the first three digits of the nine-digit number represent the state of residence when the number was assigned. (See <http://www.usrecordsearch.com/ssn.htm> for additional information.)

Note that the final four digits of the Social Security numbers have been omitted for privacy purposes. The table does not represent all addresses of Obama, his mother, or his grandparents—only those identified by investigator Sankey. Some of this information can be found using Internet searches of various online databases of addresses, telephone numbers, property taxes, property transfers, business records, etc. (www.intellius.com, www.whitepages.com, etc.)

Items 1 and 2 in the table are for Stanley Armour Dunham, Obama's maternal grandfather. Those two entries show Honolulu addresses. Dunham grew up in Kansas, and his Social Security number reflects that because it starts with the digits 514.

Entries 3 through 11 are for Obama's mother, Stanley Ann Dunham. Although she was born in Kansas, the family later moved to the Seattle, Washington area, where her Social Security number—properly starting with 535—was assigned.

Stanley Ann Dunham divorced Barack Obama, Sr., and then married Indonesian Lolo Soetoro. Her name then became Stanley Ann Soetoro, or Ann Soetoro. She apparently sometimes used the spelling Sutoro, although it is not known why. The letters "Sta" apparently represent the first three letters of "Stanley."

Item 12 is an individual living in Bothell, Washington who purportedly has the same Social Security number as Stanley Ann Dunham. (That would be improper, of course, because two persons cannot use the same number, and they are not reassigned after a person's death. Often, however, illegal immigrants will fraudulently use the Social Security number of a deceased person.) That Washington individual was contacted and she stated that 535-40-xxxx is not in fact her Social Security number, suggesting an error in the computer database accessed by investigator Sankey.

Items 13 through 91 represent Barack Hussein Obama, Jr., or other individuals with the same or similar names.

Item 13 for Barack Obama shows a Social Security number (282-80-xxxx) assigned in Ohio, where he never lived or worked. The address "713 Hart Senate" refers to the Hart Senate Office Building in Washington, D.C., which is named after former Michigan Senator Philip A. Hart.

Item 14 and many subsequent entries for Obama reflect the number 042-68-xxxx, which was assigned in Connecticut, where he also never lived or worked. That number was purportedly assigned in 1976 or 1977, when Obama was a teen-ager attending high school in Hawaii.

Item 28 reflects a Somerville, Massachusetts address for Obama. That was likely where he lived while attending Harvard Law School. But that Social Security number (042-68-xxxx) was issued during 1976-1977 to someone living in Connecticut and who was born in 1890. That may reflect an error in the public records used to compile this list. Or, as some suspect, it suggests that Barack Obama fraudulently obtained the Social Security number of a dead Connecticut man—possibly because he had no U.S. birth certificate and could not legally apply for a Social Security number. Both the issue of his long form birth certificate and his improper and illegal use of one or more Social Security numbers may be why he is paying lawyers a small fortune to keep his birth certificate and school records from being made public. It may very well be that Obama has been using one or more fraudulent Social Security number for more than 25 years. Not only should Obama provide his long form birth certificate to prove he is a natural born citizen, he should explain why his Social Security number starts with 042.

Currently, Social Security numbers are assigned soon after a child is born. (Without a number, the parents cannot claim a tax deduction for the child on their tax return.) For someone born in 1961, like Obama, the number would have been assigned for his first job—his entry into the workforce. If his first job was as a teen-ager in Hawaii, his Social Security number would have started with the digits 575 or 576. Had his first job been in California, when he attended Occidental College, his number would have started within the range 545–573. Had he applied for a number when he attended Columbia University in New York, his Social Security number would have started with 050–134. Had his first job been while he attended Harvard Law School, the first three digits would have been 010–034.

Obama's Social Security number (at least the number he appears to use most frequently) starts with 042, signifying a Connecticut assignment. If Obama never lived or worked in that state, his Social Security number would start with something other than 042.

Clearly, many of the names on the following list are simply individuals who simply happen to have the same or similar name as Barack Obama, and one should not read too much into that. (One might think the name Obama is rare or even unique, but it apparently is not.) There are, however, a few Social Security numbers and addresses on the list that are unusual, to say the least. For example, Social Security numbers do not start with 999. (Numbers beginning with 650–699 are unassigned and for future use; 700–728 are for railroad workers though 1963; 729–799 are unassigned and for future use; and 800–999 are invalid.)

One or more of the California addresses may be places Obama lived while attending Occidental College in Los Angeles. One or more of the New York address may be places Obama lived while attending Columbia University in New York City.

Item 15 references an invalid number beginning with 799. Strangely, the address is for 111 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, Utah. (The White House is at 1601 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D.C.) Item 31 lists “123 White House” as the street address. Item 91 lists “White House” as the address.

The list contains several people named Barack Obama living in Chicago or the suburbs of Chicago (Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights, and Mount Prospect). Do those entries simply reflect one or more persons who share the same name? (One has a Social Security number issued in Michigan, where it was once easy for an illegal immigrant to get a drivers license.) Or did Obama rely on a collection of Social Security numbers? (Coincidentally, Obama represented ACORN in a lawsuit against the State of Illinois demanding that it comply with the federal “Motor Voter Law”—which then-Governor Jim Edgar resisted because he properly realized it would facilitate voter fraud. Obama and ACORN have also long fought photo-I.D. requirements for voting.)

This author is not familiar with the method by which Social Security numbers are assigned to immigrants who become naturalized U.S. citizens. If you are aware of those rules—or have any other relevant information pertaining to these topics—please feel free to pass on that information to colony14@gmail.com.
