RENOWNED, HISTORICAL VOICES
COMMENT ON BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA
ISSUE NUMBER ELEVEN

This issue of Renowned, Historical Voices Comment on Barack Hussein Obama has fifteen personalities who deliver true statements. The majority of the comments in this issue are from John Milton. Do not take the comments lightly. It is from such various geniuses that we are able to understand the situations and persons of the present age. Please read all of them with attention and discuss them with fellow American Patriots.

1. Izaak Walton (1593 - 1583)

Izaak Walton was an English author who wrote many short biographies of English historical persons. They have been collected under the title of Walton's Lives. However, his best known work is The Compleat Angler.

(Perhaps Barack Hussein Obama's best known work in the future will be titled the Incomplete and Incompetent Golfer!)

- On God marking Obama: But God, who is able to prevail, wrestled with him, as the Angel did with Jacob, and marked him; marked him as evil.¹
- Obama on his work ethic: I have laid aside business, and gone golfing.²
- Obama on golfing: Angling may be said to be so like the mathematics that it can never be fully learnt.³
As no man is born an artist, so no man is born a golfer.⁴
- Obama's message to Congress: I shall stay ... no longer than to wish them a rainy evening to read this budget; and

³ Ibid.

⁴ Ibid.

that if they be honest politicians, the bad wind
may never blow when they go golfing.⁵

- Obama at his impeachment: I am Sir, a brother of the golf ball.⁶
- Obama on the future of golf: Doubt not but golfing will prove to be so pleasant that it will prove to be, like virtue, a reward to itself. My father was a most dear lover, – when he met my mother he made a hole in one – and a frequent practicer of the art of golfing; of which he would say, "it was an employment for his idle time, which was then not idly spent ... a rest to his mind, a cheerer of his spirits, a diverter of sadness, a calmer of unquiet thoughts, a moderator of passions, a procurer of contentedness; and that it begat habits of peace and patience in those that professed and practiced it." You will find golfing to be like the virtue of humility, which has a calmness of spirit and a world of other blessings attending upon it.⁷
- Obots on Obama: An excellent golfer, and now with Satan.⁸
- Obama on the electorate: Use them as a frog. Put your hook through their mouth, and out at their gills; and then with a fine needle and silk sew the upper part of their leg, with only one stitch, to the arming-wire of your hooked politics; or tie the their leg, above the upper joint, to the armed-wire; and in so doing use them as though you loved them.⁹
- Obama's message to the voters: Let the evil of Satan be upon all that are not lovers of progressivism, and dare trust in him, and be quiet and go golfing.¹⁰

2. James Howell (c. 1594 -1666)

James Howell was an English-Welsh historian and writer. His work Dodona's Grove, tells the history of England and Europe through the framework of trees and respective allegories related to the symbols of the trees. Thus the work can be interpreted as a true history in fable-fairy-tale form.

*On Obama's work ethic: All play and no work.*¹¹

3. Thomas Carew (c. 1595 - c. 1619)

Thomas Carew was an English poet who belonged to the Caroline Cavalier poets.

- Obama's epitaph: Here lies a King that rul'd, as he thought fit
The universal monarchy of no wit;
In this manner he was the best:
Above, he was the worst.¹²
- On Obama's narcissism: Thou shalt confess the vain pursuit
Of human glory yields no fruit
But an untimely grave.¹³
- On Obama's penchant for body servants: He that loves a rosy cheek,
Or a coral lip admires,
Or, from starlike eyes, doth seek
Fuel to maintain his fires;
As old Time makes these decay,
So his flames must waste away.¹⁴
- On Michelle's beauty: The magic of a face. (showed that she had none.)¹⁵

¹¹ Proverbs, 1659. The original is: All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

¹² An Elegy upon the Death of Dr. Donne.

¹³ Poems, 1640. On the Duke of Buckingham.

¹⁴ Ibid. Disdain Returned, stanza 1.

4. René Descartes (1595 – 1650)

René Descartes, Latin Renatus Cartesius was a French mathematician, philosopher, who has been called the Father of Modern Philosophy, Meditations on First Philosophy is the standard text for university courses in philosophy. He is the name-giver for the Cartesian coordinate system that is able to show algebraic equations in geometrical shapes. He was influential in the development of analytical geometry, calculus, and analysis. Furthermore, his Passions of the Soul is a treatise on the emotions. His contributions to natural philosophy are two-fold: he rejects the analysis of physical substance into matter and form and he rejects the explanation of natural phenomena as being divine or natural. His theological view is that he was insistent on the absolute freedom of God's act of creation. Descartes famous philosophical statement is Cogito ergo sum (French: Je pense, donc je suis; English: I think, therefore I am). It is found in part IV of Discourse on the Method.

- A general observation on why Obama is not great: Good sense is of all things in the world the most equally distributed, for everybody thinks he is so well supplied with it, that even those most difficult to please in all other matters never desire more of it than they already possess.¹⁶ It is not enough to have a good mind. The main thing is to use it well.¹⁷ The greatest minds are capable of the greatest vices as well as of the greatest virtues.¹⁸ The first precept is never to accept a thing as true until proven without a single doubt.¹⁹ One cannot conceive anything so strange and so implausible that it has not already been said by one.²⁰ I think, therefore I am.²¹ Obama does not think, therefore he is not.

5. James Shirley (1596-1666)

James Shirley was an English dramatist who was active in the great period of English dramatic literature, which extended from 1625 to 1642, the year in which Parliament suppressed and forbade stage plays.

- Michelle to Barry: I presume you're mortal, and may err.²²
- To American Patriots: Only the actions of the just Smell sweet and blossom in their dust.²³
- American Patriots to Obama and his obots: The glories of our blood and state
Are shadows, not substantial things;
There is no armor against fate;
Death lays his icy hand on kings.²⁴

6. Oliver Cromwell (1599-1658)

Oliver Cromwell English military and political leader, later Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland underwent a religious conversion in the 1630s. He then became an independent puritan and styled himself as a Puritan Moses who unflinchingly believed God was guiding his victories. Cromwell was an active and successful military leader against the Royalist forces in the English Civil War. Cromwell was one of the signers of King Charles I's death warrant in 1649. Between 1649 and 1653 he was the leader of the English Commonwealth. After defeating Royalist and Catholic forces in Ireland, he became Lord Protector of England, Wales, Scotland, from December 1653. Till his death in 1658. He was buried in Westminster Abbey. When the Royalists regained power in 1660 they dug up his corpse, hung it in chains, and beheaded him.

- Advice to American Patriots: A few honest men are better than numbers.²⁵
- The problem in electing Obama: The State, in choosing men to serve it, takes no notice of their opinions, If they be willing faithfully to serve it, that satisfies.²⁶
- Ultimatum to Obama: You have sat too long here for any good you have been doing lately. Depart, I say; and let us have done with you. In the name of God, go!²⁷
- On Obama's way of governing: Necessity hath no law. Feigned necessities, imaginary necessities are the greatest cozenage that men can put upon the Providence of God, and make pretenses to break known rules by.²⁸

- Obama's last words: It is not my design to drink or to sleep, but my design is to make what haste I can to destroy America.²⁹

7. Pedro Calderon de la Barca (1500 - 1681)

Pedro Calderón de la Barca y Barreda González de Henao Ruiz de Blasco y Riaño (Pedro Calderón de la Barca), was sporadically a soldier, Roman Catholic priest, a dramatist, poet and writer during the Golden Age of Spain. His work is the culmination of the Spanish Baroque theatre.

- Obama's view of life: What is life? A madness. What is life? An illusion, a shadow, a story. And the greatest good is little enough: for all life is a dream, and dreams themselves are only dreams.³⁰ But whether it be dream or truth, to do well is what matters. If it be truth, for truth's sake. If not, then to gain friends for the time when we awaken.³¹ What surprises you, if a dream taught me this wisdom, and if I still fear I may wake up and find myself once more confined in prison? And even if this should not happen, merely to dream it is enough, For this I have come to know, that all human happiness finally ceases, like a dream.³²
- America after Obama: The treason past, the traitor is no longer needed.³³

8. Friedrich von Logau (1604 – 1655)

Friedrich Freiherr von Logau was a German epigrammatist. His epigrams appeared in two collections: Erstes Hundert Teutscher Reimensprüche (The First One-Hundred German Rhyme Sayings, 1638) and Deutscher Sinngedichte drei Tausend (German Three Thousand Poetic Aphorisms, 1654). Both contain a wide topic of variety and expression.

9. Thomas Browne (1605 – 1682)

Sir Thomas Browne was an English author of many works on diverse topics such as the differing fields of the esoteric, medicine, religion, and science. Therefore, many consider him to be an English Renaissance Man.

- *Obama on his power takeover: I dare, for the purpose of usurpation, assume the honorable style of a Christian.*³⁶
- *Obama and criticism: I ... accept myself from any man upon the difference of an opinion, and am angry with his judgment for not agreeing with me in that ...*³⁷
- *On Obama's status: Many have too rashly charged the troops of error, and remain as trophies unto the enemies of truth.*³⁸
- On Obama's wealth: Rich with the spoils of America.
- *On what Obama is: This unreasonable moderator, and ... piece of injustice, ...*³⁹
- *Obama on his feelings: My heart is a place the devil dwells in: I feel ... a hell within myself.*⁴⁰
- Obama on his continued evil: I could be content that we might procreate like trees, without conjunction, or that there were any way to perpetuate the World without this trivial and vulgar way of coition with Michelle.
- *Obama's opinion of the world: For the world, I count it not an inn, but a hospital; and a place not to live, but to die in.*⁴¹
- *Obama's opinion of the United States of America: An old and gray-headed error.*⁴²

10. Anne Bigot Cornuel (1605 – 1694)

Anne-Marie Bigot, dame Cornuel, was a celebrated spirit of aphorisms and precise French sayings who was host to a circle of intellectuals of her day.

- On Obama and his body servant: No man is a hero to his valet.⁴⁴

11. Pierre Corneille (1606-1684)

Pierre Corneille was a French tragedian. Writing plays for almost 40 years, he belongs with Molière and Racine in the group of the three most important tragedians of the seventeenth century. As such, he has been called the Founder of French Tragedy.

- Advice on defeating Obama: To conquer without risk is to triumph without glory.⁴⁵
- Advice to American Patriots: Brave men are brave from the very first.⁴⁶ Do your duty and leave the rest to Heaven.⁴⁷
- On communism: The worst of all states is the people's (communist) state.⁴⁸
- On why Obama and the democrats are afraid: Who is all-powerful should fear everything.⁴⁹
- On why the lamestream media praise Obama: A liar is always lavish of oaths.⁵⁰
- On American patriotism: The fire which seems extinguished often slumbers beneath the ashes.⁵¹
- Obama on his fame: I owe my fame only to myself.⁵²

12. Sir William Davenant (1606-1668)

Sir William Davenant was an English poet and playwright. His writing career spanned the Caroline Age and the Restoration.

- Obama apologizing for not completing hope and change: I shall ask leave to desist, when I am interrupted by so great an experiment as dying.⁵³

13. Edmund Waller (1606-1687)

Edmund Waller was an English poet and politician and member of the House of Commons sporadically between 1624 and 1679. Waller spent time in the Tower of London for his part in Waller's Plot against Parliament. He paid a fine of £10,000, was released and banished from the realm in November 1643. He returned in 1651 when Parliament revoked his banishment. Waller was prolific in the classical couplet long before John Dryden and Alexander Pope became specialists in the genre.

- Obama from Hades: My joy, my grief, my hope, my love,
Did all within this circle move!⁵⁴
So all we know
Of what they do above
Is that they happy are, and that they love.⁵⁵
Poets that lasting marble seek
Must carve in Latin or in Greek.⁵⁶

14. Thomas Fuller (1608 - 1661)

Thomas Fuller was an English clergyman and historian. A prolific writer, his most famous work is Worthies of England, published after his death. The term worthies refers to distinguished persons in English history.

- Description of Obama: He was one of a lean body and visage, as if his eager non-soul, biting for anger at the clog of his body, desired to fret a passage through it.⁵⁸
- On Obama's fame: Fame sometimes hath created something of nothing.⁵⁹
- On Obama's anger at not getting his way: Anger is one of the sinews of the soul; he that wants it hath a maimed mind.⁶⁰
- Advice to American Patriots on defeating Obama: It is always darkest just before the day dawneth.⁶¹

15. John Milton (1608 - 1674)

John Milton was an English man of letters, poet, polemicist, and civil servant under Oliver Cromwell and the Commonwealth of England. He is famous for his epic poem Paradise Lost.

- On the US Economy after Obama: Time will run back and fetch the Age of Gold.⁶²
- On obots: The obots are dumb.⁶³
- On loathed Obama: Hence, loathed Obama,

Quips and cranks and wanton wiles,
Nods and becks and wreathed smiles.⁶⁶

Mirth, admit me of thy crew,
To live with her or him, and live with thee,
In unreproved immoral pleasures free paid for by the taxpayers.⁶⁷

While the cock with lively din
Scatters the rear of darkness thin,
And to the stack, or the barn door,
Stoutly struts his dames before,
Oft list'ning how the hounds and horn
Cheerly rouse the slumb'ring morn.⁶⁸

And every shepherd tells his tale
Under the hawthorn in the dale.⁶⁹

Meadows trim, with daisies pied,
Shallow brooks, and rivers wide;
Towers and battlements it sees
Bosom'd high in tufted trees,
Where perhaps some beauty lies,
The cynosure of neighboring eyes.⁷⁰

Tower'd cities please us then,
And the busy hum of men.⁷³

Ladies, whose bright eyes
Rain influence, and judge the prize.⁷⁴
And pomp, and feast, and revelry,
With mask, and antique pageantry,
Such sights as youthful poets dream
On summer eves by haunted stream.
Then to the well-trod stage anon,
If Jonson's learned sock be on,
Or sweetest Shakespeare, Fancy's child,
Warble his native wood-notes wild,
And ever, against eating cares,
Lap me in soft Lydian airs,
Married to immortal verse,
Such as the meeting soul may pierce,
In notes with many a winding bout
Of linked sweetness long drawn out.⁷⁵

Such strains as would have won the ear
Of Pluto, to have quite set free
His half-regain'd Eurydice.
These delights, if thou canst give,
Mirth, with thee, *We mean to live.*⁷⁶

- A judgment on Obama's and Michelle's governing:

Hence vain deluding Joys,
The brood of Folly without father bred!⁷⁷

- Obama awaiting death: I walk unseen

On the dry smooth-shaven green,
To behold the wandering moon,
Riding near her highest noon,
Like one that had been led astray
Through the Hades' wide pathless way,
And oft, as if her head she bow'd,
Stooping through a fleecy cloud.⁷⁸

Oft, on a plat of rising ground,
I hear the far-off curfew sound
Over some wide-watered shore,
Swinging low with sullen roar.⁷⁹

Where glowing embers through the room
Teach light to counterfeit a gloom,
Far from all resort of mirth,
Save the cricket on the hearth.⁸⁰

Sometime let gorgeous Tragedy
In sceptered pall come sweeping by,
Presenting Thebes, or Pelops' line,
Or the tale of Troy divine.⁸¹

Or bid the soul of Orpheus sing
Such notes as, warbled to the string,
Drew iron tears down Pluto's cheek.⁸²

Or call up him that left half told
The story of Cambuscan bold.⁸³

Where more is meant than meets the ear.⁸⁴

And storied windows richly dight,
Casting a dim religious light,
There let the pealing organ blow,
To the full-voiced choir below,
In service high, and anthems clear
As may, with sweetness, through mine ear
Dissolve me into ecstasies,
And bring all Hell before mine eyes.⁸⁵

 Begin to throng into my memory,
 Of calling shapes, and beck'ning shadows dire,
 And airy tongues that syllable men's names
 On sands and shores and desert wilderness.⁸⁸

- On Michelle's hardness: Tis Chastity, my brother Reggie, Chastity;
 She that has that, is clad in complete steel.⁸⁹

- Obama on being proud of his posterity: I have fill'd the air with barbarous *dissonance.*⁹⁰

- American Patriots to Obama: Thou canst not touch the freedom of our minds.⁹¹

- Obama on himself: I am Nature's brag, and must be shown
 In courts, at feasts, and high solemnities,
 Where most may wonder at the workmanship;
 It is for homely features to keep home-
 They had their name thence; coarse complexions
 And cheeks of sorry grain will serve to ply
 The sampler, and to tease the huswife's wool.
 What need a vermeil-tinctur'd lip for that,
 Love-darting eyes, or tresses like the morn?⁹²

- Obama on being voted out of office: But now my task is smoothly done:
 I can fly or I can run.⁹³

- *Obama on himself: My fame is no plant that grows on mortal soil.*⁹⁶
- *On Barry and Michelle: Blind mouths! That scarce themselves know how to hold a sheep-hook.*⁹⁷
- Obama and his sheeple: The hungry sheep look up, and are not fed,
But swoln with wind and the rank mist they draw,
Rot inwardly, and foul contagion spread:
Besides what the grim wolf with privy paw
Daily devours apace, and nothing said;
But that two-handed engine at the door

Methinks I see in my mind a noble and puissant nation rousing herself like a strong man after sleep, and shaking her invincible locks, Methinks I see her as an eagle mewing her mighty youth, and kindling her undazzled eyes at the full midday beam.¹⁰²
- *What American Patriots want: Give us the liberty to know, to utter, and to argue freely according to conscience, above all liberties.*¹⁰³
- On Truth: Though all the winds of doctrine were let loose to play upon the earth, so Truth be in the field, we do injuriously, by licensing and prohibiting, to misdoubt her strength. Let her and Falsehood grapple; who ever knew Truth put to the worse, in a free and open encounter?¹⁰⁴

- A truism: No man who knows aught, can be so stupid to deny that all men naturally were born free.¹⁰⁶
- Prayer to God for American Patriots: Avenge, O Lord, thy slaughter'd saints, whose bones
Lie scatter'd on the Alpine mountains cold;
Ev'n them who kept thy truth so pure of old
When all our fathers worshipp'd stocks and stones
Forget not.¹⁰⁷

What in me is dark
Illumine, what is low raise and support;
That to the height of this great argument
I may assert eternal Providence,
And justify the ways of God to men.¹⁰⁹

- On Obama's origin: Hades: Regions of sorrow, doleful shades, where peace
And rest can never dwell, hope never comes
That comes to all.¹¹⁰

And out of good still to find means of evil.¹¹¹

The seat of desolation, void of light.¹¹²

- On the deception of Obama: A mind not to be chang'd by place or time.
His mind is its own place, and in itself
Can make a heav'n of hell, a hell of heav'n.¹¹³
- On Obama's view of governing: To reign is worth ambition though in hell:
Better to reign in hell than serve in heav'n.¹¹⁴
- Call to American Patriots: Awake, arise, or be forever fallen!¹¹⁵
- American Patriots see Obama as Satan:

High on a throne of royal state, which far
Outshone the wealth of Ormus and of Ind,
Or where the gorgeous East with richest hand
Showers on her kings barbaric pearl and gold,

¹⁰⁹ Paradise Lost, Book 1, line 22.

¹¹⁵ Ibid. line 330.

Satan exalted sat, by merit rais'd
To that bad eminence; and from despair
Thus high uplifted beyond hope, aspires
Beyond thus high, insatiate to pursue
Vain war with heav'n.¹¹⁶
But all was false and hollow; through his tongue
Dropp'd manna, and could make the worse
The better reason.¹¹⁷

For who would lose,
Though full of pain, this intellectual being,
Those thoughts that wander through eternity,
To perish rather, swallow'd up and lost
In the wide womb of uncreated night,
Devoid of sense and motion?¹¹⁸

Thus Belial with words cloth'd in reason's garb
Counsel'd ignoble ease, and peaceful sloth,
Not Peace.¹¹⁹

With grave
Aspect he rose, and in his rising seem'd
A pillar of state; deep on his front engraven
Deliberation sat and public care;
And princely counsel in his face yet shone,
Majestic though in ruin.¹²⁰

To sit in darkness here
Hatching vain empires.¹²¹

And hard, that out of hell leads up to light.¹²³

Their rising all at once was as the sound
Of thunder heard remote.¹²⁴

Others apart sat on a hill retir'd,
In thoughts more elevate, and reason'd high
Of Providence, foreknowledge, will, and fate,
Fix'd fate, free will, foreknowledge absolute,
And found no end, in wand'ring mazes lost.¹²⁵
Vain wisdom all, and false philosophy.¹²⁶

Far off from these a slow and silent stream,
Lethe the river of oblivion rolls.¹²⁷

At certain revolutions all the damn'd
Are brought: and feel by turns the bitter change
Of fierce extremes, extremes by change more fierce.¹²⁸

Whence and what art thou, execrable shape?¹²⁹

Before our eyes in opposition sits

Grim Death my ... foe.¹³⁰

Thus with the year

Seasons return; but not to us returns

Day, or the sweet approach of ev'n or morn,

Or sight of vernal bloom, or summer's rose,

Or flocks, or herds, or human face divine;

But cloud instead, and ever-during dark

Surrounds us, from the cheerful ways of men

Cut off, and for the book of knowledge fair

Presented with a universal blank

Of Nature's works to us expung'd and raz'd,

And wisdom at one entrance quite shut out.¹³¹

Into a limbo large and broad, since called

The Paradise of Fools, to few unknown.¹³²

The hell within him.¹³³

Admonition to the Obamas:

Live while Ye may,

Yet happy pair.¹³⁴

Squat like a toad,¹³⁵

- *On the United States of America under the Obama regime: All hell broke loose.*¹³⁶
- *The Obots' opinion of Obama: Him first, him last, him midst, and without end.*¹³⁷
- *On the successor to Obama: He onward came, far off his coming shone.*¹³⁸
- *On what is important: Not hope and change, but to know that which lies before us in daily life is the prime wisdom.*¹³⁹
- *On what Obama is: The serpent subtlest beast of all the field.*¹⁴⁰
- *Obama on his body servant before being thrown under the bus: So dear I love him, that with him all deaths I could endure, without him live no life.*¹⁴¹
- *On American Patriots and patriotism: Our state cannot be sever'd; we are one' One flesh; to lose thee were to lose myself.*¹⁴²
- *Obama's Washington, D. C.: Pandemonium, city and proud seat of Lucifer.*¹⁴³
- *On Obama's psyche: Demoniac frenzy, moping melancholy, And moon-struck madness.*¹⁴⁴
- *On Obama's love of virtue: Most men admire virtue who follow not her lore.*¹⁴⁵
- *On Obama's character: Deep vers'd in Saul Alinsky and shallow in himself.*¹⁴⁶

There are approximately sixty days until the November Presidential Election. Use the remaining time to the fullest to make sure that Barack Hussein Obama and his toad-obot-thugs are sent into political oblivion forever.
