

FREDERICK WILLIAM DAME

RENOWNED, HISTORICAL VOICES
COMMENT ON BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA
ISSUE NUMBER SEVENTEEN

Issue number seventeen of Renowned, Historical Voices Comment on Barack Hussein Obama has 37 voices making 142 comments. The time period concerns the greater part of the nineteenth century. All of the renowned historical voices are important. One voice, however, should be investigated for the person's uprightness and truth. Consult <http://digital.library.upenn.edu/women/truth/1850/1850.html> and the link <http://xroads.virginia.edu/~hyper/TRUTH/toc.html> for superb non-political correctness and clarity.

1. John Woodcock Graves (1795-1886)

John Woodcock Graves was an English woolen mill owner, composer, and the author of D'ye ken John Peel.

- On knowing Obama: D' ye ken Obama with his mask so gay?
D' ye ken Obama at the break of day?
D' ye ken Obama when he's far far away
With his POLDS-hound in the morning?
'Twas the sound of their evils brought me from my bed,
And the cries of his POLD-hounds, has me oft times misled;
For Obama's views ... would waken the dead,
Or the fox from his lair in the morning.¹

2. John Keats (1795-1827)

The English Romantic poet John Keats ranks with Lord Byron and Percy Bysshe Shelley as a most famous poet of the second generation of English Romantic poets even though his works were published only four years before his death. After his death he became world famous. His poetry (odes) is mainly concerned with the sensual aspects of human life.

- On relief from Obama: For one who has been long in Obama's city pent,
'Tis very sweet to look into the fair
And open face of heaven.²

¹ John Peel, 1832.

² Poems, 1817. To One Who Has Been Long in City Pent.

- American Patriots estimation of Obama:

Much have I travel'd in the realms of gold,
 And many goodly states and kingdoms seen;
 Round many western islands have I been
 Which bards in fealty to Apollo hold.
 Oft of one wide expanse had I been told
 That deep-brow'd Homer ruled as his demesne;
 Yet did I never breathe its pure evil
 Till I heard Obama speak out loud and liesbold
 Then felt I like someone being fooled.³

- On American Patriotism: And patriotic spirits there are standing apart
 Upon the forehead of the age to come
 These, these will give the world another heart,
 And other pulses. Hear ye not the hum
 Of mighty workings – ?
 Listen awhile, ye nations, and be dumb.⁴

The patriotism in America is never dead.⁵

O for eon years, that I may overwhelm
 Myself in patriotism; so I may do the deed
 That my own soul has to itself decreed.⁶

And can I ever bid Obama's evils farewell?
 Yes, I must pass them for a nobler life,
 Where I may find the agonies, the strife
 Of human patriotic hearts.⁷

A drainless shower
 Of patriotism is poetry; 'tis the supreme of power;
 'Tis might half slumb'ring on its own right arm.⁸

- On Obama's evil: Obama's evil ... not of the Muses born
 Is of the devil's angel: trees uptorn,
 Darkness, and worms, and shrouds, and sepulchers
 Delight it; for it feeds upon the wholeness
 And truths of life; forgetting the great end
 Of liberty, that it should be a friend
 To soothe the cares, and lift the thoughts of man.⁹

- On Hell and Obama: There is not a fiercer hell than the politics of Obama.¹⁰

³ Ibid. On First Looking into Chapman's Homer.

⁴ Ibid. Addressed to Benjamin Robert Haydon.

⁵ Ibid. On the Grasshopper and the Cricket.

⁶ Ibid. Sleep and Poetry, line 96.

⁷ Ibid. line 122.

⁸ Ibid. line 235.

⁹ Ibid. Line 241.

¹⁰ Endymion, 1818, Preface

- On Michelle: A person of beauty is a joy forever:
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.
*I say a person of beauty, not Michelle.*¹¹

- On American Patriots: The crown of these
Is made of love and friendship, and sits high
Upon the forehead of humanity.¹²
A hope beyond the shadow of a dream.¹³

- Exposing Obama: Do not all charms fly
At the mere touch of cold philosophy?¹⁴

American Constitutional Philosophy will clip his wings.¹⁵

For to bear all naked truths,
And to envisage circumstance, all calm,
That is the top of sovereignty.¹⁶

- On Obama's presence: The murmurous haunt of flies on summer eves.¹⁷

Forever piping outworn politics forever new.¹⁸

How many bards gild the lapses of time!¹⁹

Obama is the most non-person of anything in existence; because he has no Identity – he is continually informing – and filling some other Body.²⁰

- Obama's policy on being unfaithful: Ever let the fancy roam,
Pleasure never is at home.²¹

- On Obama pouting: Deep in the shady sadness of a vale
Far sunken from the healthy breath of morn,
Far from the fiery noon, and eve's one star,
Sat gray-hair'd Obama, quiet as a stone.²²

¹¹ Ibid, Book I, line 1.

¹² Ibid., line 800.

¹³ Ibid., line 857

¹⁴ Poems, 1820, Lamia, part II, line 229.

¹⁵ Ibid., line 234.

¹⁶ Ibid. Hyperion: A Fragment, book II, line 203.

¹⁷ Ibid. Ode to a Nightingale, stanza 1.

¹⁸ Ibid. Ode on a Grecian Urn, stanza 3.

¹⁹ Poems, 1817. Sonnet. How Many Bards Gild the Lapses of Time.

²⁰ Letter to Richard Wodhouse, October 27, 1818.

²¹ Poems, 1820, Fancy, line 1.

²² Ibid. Hyperion: A Fragment, book I, line 1.

- Satanic Obama to Americans:
This Satanic hand, now warm and capable
Of earnest grasping, would, if it were cold
And in the icy silence of the tomb,
So haunt thy days and chill thy dreaming nights
That thou would wish thine own heart dry of blood
So in my veins red life might stream again,
And thou be conscience-calm'd – see here it is –
I hold it towards you.²³
- Obama to his man servant: O for a Life of Sensations rather than of politics.²⁴
- On the right of Americans to revolt against Obama: Though a revolution in the streets is a thing Obama hates, the energies displayed in it are fine; the commonest Man shows a grace in his revolution.²⁵

3. Alfred Bunn (1796-1860)

Alfred Bunn was an English theatrical manager who achieved renown as the stage-manager of Drury Lane Theatre, London in 1823, the Theatre Royal in Birmingham, 1826, and the joint management of Drury Lane and Covent Garden, London in 1833.

- Obama recalling a dream: I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls,
With vassals and serfs at my side.²⁶

4. David Hartley Coleridge (1796-1849)

David Hartley Coleridge, the eldest son of the poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge, was an English biographer, educator, essayist and poet. His contributions to English literature are his works of criticism, an unfinished lyric drama titled Prometheus, and his sonnets. Probably his most famous work is his dual biography of the English dramatists Phillip Massinger (1583-1640) and John Ford, (1586-1639), published in 1839.

- On American Patriotism and Freedom:
The soul of the patriot is larger than the sky,
Deeper than ocean, or the abysmal dark
of the unfathomed center.²⁷

But what is Freedom? Rightly understood,
A universal license to be good.²⁸

²³ Life, Letters and Literary Remains of John Keats, 1848, On Seeing the Elgin Marbles.

²⁴ Letter to Benjamin Bailey, November 22, 1817.

²⁵ Letter to George and Georgiana Keats, February 14-May3,1819.

²⁶ The Bohemian Girl, 1843, Act II, Song.

²⁷ To Shakespeare.

²⁸ Liberty, 1833.

5. Horace Mann (1796-1859)

The American reformer of education Horace Mann served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives from 1827 to 1833 and in the Massachusetts Senate from 1834 to 1837, and as Secretary of the Massachusetts State Board of Education 1837-1848. He was elected to the US House of Representatives, 1848-1853. He served as President of Antioch College 1852-1859. Horace Mann was a brother-in-law to author Nathaniel Hawthorne.

- On America's loss of liberty: Lost, November 2008, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, non-golden hours, each set with sixty destructive minutes. No reward is offered, for liberty is gone forever.²⁹
- *Call to American Patriots: Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for America.*³⁰

6. James Robinson Planché (1796-1880)

James Robinson Planché, a British antiquary, dramatist, and officer of arms, adapted, collaborated on, and wrote 176 plays over a period of 60 years in the genres of burletta, comedy, extravaganza, farce, melodramas, and opera. He emphasized the necessity of using historically accurate costumes in the presentation of plays. He is also known for his expert publications on historical costumes.

- *On Obama's honesty: It would have made a cat laugh.*³¹

9. Sam Slick [Thomas Chandler Haliburton] (1796-1865)

Thomas Chandler Haliburton, a Canadian judge and author, created the character Sam Slick. Beginning in 1836, Sam Slick of Slicksville, with his wise-cracking commentary, wry wit, and Yankee thinking wrote about his views on human nature in a regular column in the Novascotian. The Clockmaker, or the Sayings and Doings of Samuel Slick of Slicksville consists of twenty-one sketches that were published in a collection titled First Series in 1836. It was supplemented by an additional 12 unpublished or new sketches.

- *On getting rid of Obama: Circumstances alter cases.*³²

10. Thomas Haynes Bayly (1797-1839)

Thomas Haynes Bayly, English author, dramatist, poet, and songwriter, wrote for the stage and the periodical press. He composed and wrote hundreds of songs, as well as novels and farces. His most famous songs are songs include Old House at ²⁹ Aphorism on time.

³⁰ Commencement Address, Antioch College, 1859.

³¹ The Queen of the Frogs, 1879, act I, scene iv.

³² The Old Judge, 1849, chapter 15.

Home, I'd be a Butterfly, Oh, no, we never mention him, She wore a Wreath of Roses, The Mistletoe Bough, and Long, Long Ago. Thomas Haynes Bayly and Thomas Moore (1779-1852) are regarded as the most popular song writers of their time.

- On what America was before Obama: Tell me the tales that to me were so dear,
Long, long ago, long, long ago.³³

11. Heinrich Heine (1797-1856)

Heinrich Heine whose birth name was Harry Heine changed his name to Christian Johann Heinrich Heine upon his conversion to Christianity from Judaism. Heine is definitely one of the most significant 19th century-German poets, as well as essayist, journalist, and literary critic. His lyric poetry (Lieder = art songs) was set to music by composers such as Robert Schumann and Franz Schubert. Heine's later poems and prose contain satirical wit and irony throughout. His radical political views led to many of his works being banned in Germany because they contained radical, political views concerning democratic republicanism. Heine lived the last 25 years of his life as an expatriate in Paris.

- Obama to his body servant: On wings of song, my dearest,
I will carry you off.³⁴

I will not mourn, although my heart is torn,
Oh, love forever lost! I will not mourn.³⁵

I cannot tell why this imagined
Despair has fallen upon me;
The ghost of my ancient lover Reggie
That will not let me be.³⁶

Man-Child, you are like a flower,
So sweet and pure and fair.
I look at you, and sadness
Touches me with a prayer.³⁷

- Obama bout himself: *I'm a knight of the satanic spirit.*³⁸
- On Obama burning the Constitution: *Wherever they destroy such papers they will also, in the end, burn human beings.*³⁹

³³ Long, Long Ago.

³⁴ Auf Flügeln des Gesanges.

³⁵ Ich grolle nicht.

³⁶ Lorelei.

³⁷ Du bist wie eine Blume.

³⁸ Harzreise.

³⁹ Almansor: A Tragedy, 1823. The original is: Wherever they burn books, they will also, in the end burn human beings.

- To POLDS: Mark this well, you ... men of action: you are nothing but the unwitting agents of the men of thought who often, in quiet self-effacement, mark out most exactly all your doings in advance,⁴⁰
- On what America was before Obama: People in those old times had convictions; the moderns only have opinions. And it needs more than a mere opinion to erect a Gothic cathedral.⁴¹
- On Obama's regime: Wild, dark times are rumbling toward us, and the prophet who wishes to write a new apocalypse will have to invent entirely new beasts, and beasts so terrible that the ancient animal symbols of Saint John will seem like cooing doves and cupids in comparison.⁴²

The future smells of satanic leather, of blood, of godlessness and of much whipping. I advise our grandchildren to come into the world with very thick skin on their backs.⁴³

- On Obama's intelligence: Ordinarily he is insane, but he has lucid moments when he is only stupid.⁴⁴
- On freedom under the Obama regime:
So we keep asking, over and over,
Until a handful of earth
Stops mouths –
But is that an answer?⁴⁵
- Obama on God forgiving: Of course He will forgive me; that's his business. (Bien sûr, il me pardonnera; c'est son métier.)⁴⁶

12. Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley (1797-1851)

- Satan on Obama: I beheld the wretch – the miserable monster whom I had created.⁴⁷

13. Sojourner Truth [Isabella Van Wagener] (c. 1797-1883)

Sojourner Truth Gave herself the name from 1843 onward. She was born a slave and named Isabella Baumfree. She escaped to freedom with her daughter in 1826. She filed court charges against the owner of her son and won the victory, the first black woman to win such a case against a white man. Sojourner Truth was an African-American abolitionist and women's rights activist. Her best-known free-delivery (without notes) speech on gender inequalities is Ain't I a Woman?, which she ⁴⁰ History of Religion and Philosophy in Germany, 1834, Volume III.

⁴¹ The French Stage, 1837, chapter 9.

⁴² Lutetia; or, Paris, 1842, from the Augsburg Gazette, 12, VII.

⁴³ Ibid.

⁴⁴ Of Savoye, appointed ambassador to Frankfurt by Lamartine, 1848.

⁴⁵ Lazarus, I, 1854.

⁴⁶ Last Words, 1856.

⁴⁷ Frankenstein, 1818, Letter I, chapter 5.

delivered at the Ohio Women's Rights Convention in Akron, Ohio in 1851. Sojourner Truth helped recruit black troops for the Union Army during the Civil War. She was unsuccessful in securing land grants from the federal government for former slaves after the Civil War.

- *On the situation in America under Obama: Is God dead?*⁴⁸
- On sexual equality better than Obama can speak about it: That man says that women need to be helped into carriages, and lifted over ditches, and to have the best place everywhere. Nobody ever helps me into carriages, or over mud puddles, or gives me any best place, and aren't I a woman? I have plowed, and planted, and gathered into barns, and no man could head me – and aren't I a woman? I could work as much and eat as much as a man (when I could get it), and bear the lash as well – and aren't I a woman? I have borne thirteen children and seen them most all sold off into slavery, and when I cried out with a mother's grief, none but Jesus heard and aren't I a woman?⁴⁹

That ... man ... says women can't have as much rights as man, cause Christ wasn't a woman. Where did your Christ come from? From God and a woman. Man had nothing to do with him.⁵⁰

- On political theft under Obama: The rich obots rob the poor and the other poor obots rob one another.⁵¹

14. Auguste Comte (1798-1857)

Auguste Comte (Isidore Auguste Marie François Xavier Comte) was a French philosopher. He founded the discipline of sociology and the doctrine of positivism, which teaches that in the natural and social sciences information is derived from sensory experience. Data from logics and mathematics are the singular source of authoritative knowledge.

- American citizens under the Obama regime: The dead govern the living.⁵²

15. August Heinrich Hoffmann [Hoffmann von Fallersleben] (1798-1874)

August Heinrich Hoffmann von Fallersleben was a German poet. His pen name was Hoffmann von Fallersleben. His best known poem is Das Lied der Deutschen, for the lines Deutschland, Deutschland, über alles. The song's third stanza without Deutschland, Deutschland, über alles is now the national anthem of Germany. The music was composed by Joseph Hayden in 1797.

- *Cry of the POLDS: Obama, Obama über Alles.*⁵³

⁴⁸ Question to speaker Frederick Douglass, c. 1850.

⁴⁹ Speech at Women's Rights Convention, Akron, Ohio, 1851.

⁵⁰ Ibid.

⁵¹ Saying.

⁵² Catéchisme Positiviste, 1852.

⁵³ Title of poem, September 1, 1841.

16. Jules Michelet (1798-1874)

The French historian Jules Michelet was born in Paris. His family were Huguenots, members of the Protestant Reformed Church of France coming out of the 16th and 17th centuries. In Histoire de France (History of France, 1855), Jules Michelet was the first historian to use and define the word Renaissance (Re-birth in the French language). He described it as a period in Europe's cultural history that represented a break from the Middle Ages, because it created a modern understanding of humanity and the role of humankind in the world.

- *On what POLDS do not know about politics: What is the first part of politics? Education. The second? Education. And the third? Education.*⁵⁴

17. Dionysios Solomos (1798-1857)

Dionysios Solomos, Greek poet from Zakynthos, Greece is best known for writing the Hymn to Liberty. It (the first two stanzas) became the Greek national anthem in 1865. It was set to music by Nikolaos Mantzaros. Dionysios Solomos is considered the national poet of Greece because he showed the influence of Greek and Greece in modern literature. It is interesting to note that that only the Hymn to Liberty was completed. Practically nothing that he wrote was published during his lifetime.

- On American Liberty:
We knew thee of old,
O divinely restored,
By the light of thine eyes
And the light of thy sword.

From the graves of our slain
Shall thy valor prevail
As we greet thee again –
Hail, Liberty! Hail!⁵⁵

- On the destruction of America under Obama: On the blackened spine of America,
Glory, pacing alone,
Broods on her shining heroes;
She crowns her hair with a band
Born from the spare, few grasses
That are left in the ruined land.⁵⁶

18. Amos Bronson Alcott (1799-1888)

Amos Bronson Alcott was an American educator, philosopher, reformer, and writer. Alcott focused on a conversational style in educating students. He also avoided traditional punishment as a disciplinary measure. His goal was to perfect the human ⁵⁴ Le Peuple, 1846.

⁵⁵ Hymn to Liberty, 1823, stanza 1, 2.

⁵⁶ The Destruction of Psara, 1825.

spirit, which he thought would be better achieved via a vegan diet, abolition of slavery, and women's rights.

- On the deficiencies of Obama's speeches:
One must be a wise reader to quote wisely and well.⁵⁷

To be ignorant of one's ignorance is the malady of the ignorant.⁵⁸

19. Honoré de Balzac (1799-1850)

Honoré de Balzac was a French novelist and playwright. He is famous for his sequence of short stories and novels collectively entitled La Comédie humaine (The Human Comedy, 1842). The collection presents a panorama of French life in the years after the 1815 fall of Napoleon. It is his magnum opus.

- *On Obama's character: The Man is no angel. He is ... a hypocrite and no less, and ... has not moral principles.*⁵⁹
- *On POLDS: Those sweetly smiling false angels with pensive looks, innocent faces, and cash-boxes for hearts.*⁶⁰

20. Simon Cameron (1799-1889)

The American politician Simon Cameron served as United States Secretary of War for Abraham Lincoln at the start of the American Civil War. Cameron made his fortune in canals, banking, and railways. In 1845 he became senator for the state of Pennsylvania, succeeding James Buchanan. Failing to secure a nomination for senator from the Know-Nothing party, and joined the People's Party, the Republican Party's name in Pennsylvania. He won the Senate seat again in 1857. He was a Republican nomination for the presidential election in 1860.

- *On why Obama is an honest politician: An honest politician is one who when he's bought stays bought.*⁶¹

21. Rufus Choate (1799-1859)

Ranked among the greatest trial lawyers of his era, Rufus Choate (1799-1859) was also an active participant in American politics. His brilliant legal mind and flamboyant oratorical skills helped him win numerous high-profile courtroom battles. As a United States representative and senator, Choate opposed sectional extremists and fought for the preservation of the Union.

⁵⁷ Table Talk, 1877. Quotation.

⁵⁸ Ibid. Discourse.

⁵⁹ Le Père Goriot, 1835.

⁶⁰ La Cousine Bette, 1846, chapter 15.

⁶¹ Attributed.

- On the Founding Fathers: The courage of the Founding Fathers was the "courage of conscience." It did not rise to that insane and awful passion, the love of war for itself.⁶²
- On why Americans must not become members of leftist political parties: We join ourselves to no party that does not carry the flag and keep step to the music of the Union.⁶³

22. Thomas Hood (1799-1845)

Thomas Hood was an English humorist and poet. Hood's most famous work is a poem titled The Song of the Shirt, a lament for a poor London seamstress. She made shirts to support her ill child. However, the proceeds of her sales had to be given to her employer. The poem became a popular song. It inspired social activists to lobby for countless laboring women living in poverty.

- On Obama's death: They went and told the sexton, and
The sexton tolled the bell happily.⁶⁴
- Obama remembering his birthplace: I remember, I remember
The Kenyan hut where I was born,
The little window where the sun
Came peeping in at morn.⁶⁵
- On Obama going to Hell: Now 'tis great joy
To know he's farther off from heaven
Than when he was a boy.⁶⁶

And there is even a happiness
That makes the heart so glad.⁶⁷

His evil was wrought by want of thought,
*As well as want of heart.*⁶⁸

Straight down the Crooked Lane,
And directly to the burning Square.⁶⁹
- On POLDS: No warmth, no cheerfulness, no healthful ease,
No comfortable feel in any member –
No shade, no shine, no butterflies, no bees,
No fruits, no flowers, no leaves, no birds,
*Just POLDS!*⁷⁰

⁶² Address at Ipswich, Massachusetts, Centennial, 1834.

⁶³ Letter to the Whig Convention, Worcester, Massachusetts, October 1, 1855.

⁶⁴ Faithless Sally Brown, 1826, stanza 17.

⁶⁵ I Remember, I Remember, 1827, stanza 1.

⁶⁶ Ibid., stanza 4.

⁶⁷ Ode to Melancholy, 1827.

⁶⁸ The Lady's Dream, 1827, stanza 16.

⁶⁹ A Plain Direction, stanza 1.

- *On why Obama is always not at fault: He washes his hands with invisible soap in imperceptible water.*⁷¹
- *Three words that Obama does not understand: Work! work! work!*⁷²
- An Obama praise to Satan concerning American Lives:
O Satan, that bread should be so dear,
And flesh and blood so cheap!⁷³

23. Mary Howitt (1799-1888)

The English poet Mary Howitt is the author of the famous poem The Spider and the Fly, originally published in 1829.

- An Obama Invitation to a body servant:
"Will you walk into my parlor?" said Obama to his guy;
" 'Tis the prettiest little parlor that ever you did spy."⁷⁴

24. Thomas Noel (1799-1861)

Thomas Noel was an English poet. He is known for the singular work The Pauper's Drive.

- A two-liner on hearing of Obama's death:
Rattle his bones over the stones!
He's only a nothing, *not worth a scone!*⁷⁵

25. Alexander Pushkin (1799-1837)

Alexander Sergeyevich Pushkin was a Russian author of the Romantic era. Literary historians consider him to be the greatest Russian poet and the founder of modern Russian literature.

- *American Patriots' reactions to Obama's speeches: Reason's icy intimations, and records of a heart in pain.*⁷⁶
- On an Obama talent: Unforced, as conversation passed, he had the talent of saluting feliculously every theme,
of talking like a judge supreme while serious topics were not disputing,

⁷⁰ No!

⁷¹ Miss Kilmansegg and Her Precious Leg, 1841-1843. Her Christening, stanza 10.

⁷² The Song of the Shirt, 1843, stanza 2.

⁷³ Ibid. stanza 5.

⁷⁴ The Spider and the Fly, 1844.

⁷⁵ The Pauper's Drive, stanza 1.

⁷⁶ Eugene Onegin, 1823, dedication.

or, with an epigram-surprise,
of kindling smiles in young men's eyes.⁷⁷

- On special Obama relationships: Always contented with his life, and after his dinner, with his nightlife.
- An Obama guide to solve problems: Why fight what's known to be decisive?⁷⁸
- On Obama taking dope: The illness with which he'd been smitten should have been analyzed when caught, something like spleen, that scourge of idocy,
or ineptitude, for short.⁷⁹
- An Obama satanic saying: Evil is Hell's own redress:
it takes the place of happiness.⁸⁰
- Obama preparing his politics:
Body-servant love passed, Satan's muse appeared, the weather
of mind got clarity newfound;
now free, I once more weave together evil emotion, evil thought, and evil sound.⁸¹
- Obama writing his autobiography:
One more political evil, the final record, and my annals
Are ended, and fulfilled the duty laid
By Satan on me, his executor. Not in vain
Hath Satan appointed me for many years
A witness, teaching me the art of letters;
A day will come when some laborious pold
Will bring to light my zealous, valuable toil,
Kindle, as I, his lamp, and from the parchment
Shaking the dust of ages, will transcribe
My evilness.⁸²
- On Obama making decisions: Like to some magistrate grown gray in office
Calmly he contemplates alike the just
And unjust, with evil indifference he notes
Evil and good, and knows not wrath nor pity,
And decides for the evil.⁸³
- An Obama public announcement: Good folk! The Republicans and their Tea Party have poisoned themselves. We have seen their dead bodies. [The people are silent with horror.] Why are you silent? Cry, Long live King Obama and his POLDS! [The people are speechless.]⁸⁴

⁷⁷ Ibid., chapter 1, stanza 5.

⁷⁸ Ibid., stanza 25.

⁷⁹ Ibid., stanza 38.

⁸⁰ Ibid., chapter 2, stanza 31.

⁸¹ Ibid., stanza 59.

⁸² Boris Godunov, 1825.

⁸³ Ibid.

And thus he mused: "From here, indeed
Shall we strike terror in America;
And here a Sodom and Gomorrah, by our labor
Founded, shall exterminate all goodness;
'Here cut off' – Satan gives command –
Your enemies' heads throughout the world: stand
Firm-footed by lit up Hell, unchanging!"⁸⁵

26. Thomas Babington, Lord Macaulay (1800-1859)

Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1st Baron Macaulay, was a British historian and politician. His books on British history are literary masterpieces. He was Secretary at War between 1839 and 1841 and Paymaster-General between 1846 and 1848. He is considered the reformer of Indian education system. Among his achievements were the replacement of Persian by English as the official language; the use of English as the medium of instruction in all schools; and the training of English-speaking Indians as teachers. Concerning historical movements, Macaulay divided the world into civilized nations and barbarism.

- On government: That is the best government which desires to make the people happy, and knows how to make them happy.⁸⁶

Free trade, one of the greatest blessings which a government can confer on a people, is in almost every country unpopular.⁸⁷

There is only one cure for the evils which newly acquired freedom produces, and that cure is freedom.⁸⁸

- On where Obama's books belong: The dust and silence of the upper shelf.⁸⁹
- On POLD progress: As POLDS advance, civilization almost necessarily declines.⁹⁰
- On being like Obama: Perhaps no person can be an Obama, or can even enjoy being a POLD, without a certain unsoundness of mind.⁹¹

Nothing is so useless as being an Obama.⁹²

Obama's imagination resembled the wings of an ostrich.
It enabled him to run, though not to soar.⁹³

⁸⁴ Ibid.

⁸⁵ The Bronze Horseman, 1833.

⁸⁶ Essay on Milford's History of Greece, 1824.

⁸⁷ Ibid.

⁸⁸ On Milton, 1825.

⁸⁹ On Milton, 1825.

⁹⁰ Ibid.

⁹¹ Ibid.

⁹² On Machiavelli, 1827.

⁹³ On John Dryden.

The conformation of Obama's mind was such that whatever was little seemed to him great, whatever was great seemed to him little.⁹⁴

- On the enedia's opinion of Obma's speeches:
That wonderful ranting of nothingness, while it obtains admiration from the most fastidious critics, is loved by those who are too simple to admire it.⁹⁵
- On the Obama POLDS: We know no spectacle so ridiculous as the Obama public in one of its periodical fits of lunacy.⁹⁶

From the words of The One they drew a system of evils compounded of misanthropy and voluptuousness – a system in which the two great commandments were to hate your neighbor and love to your neighbor's wife.⁹⁷

- American Patriots' message to America after Obama:
Reform, that you may preserve.⁹⁸
- An estimation of the Obamas and their POLDS:
Ye diners-out from whom we guard our spoons.⁹⁹
- Promise of American Patriots regarding POLDS's politics: Such misfortune in America ne'er before had been, nor ne'er again shall be.¹⁰⁰
- On the importance of America: An acre in capitalist America is better than a principality in any Utopia.¹⁰¹
- On dumbed-down POLDS: Every schoolboy used to know who wrote the Constitution and who was the first president.¹⁰²
- On Obama: The Chief ... was rich, queer, and infamous.¹⁰³

In order that he might rob Americans whom he had promised to defend, American were forced to buy products they didn't want and pay taxes on wealth that he had been stolen from them.¹⁰⁴

We hardly know an instance of the strength and weakness of human nature so striking and so grotesque as the character of this haughty, vigilant, resolute, sagacious, drugged-up half-wit bearing up against America with his pockets full of poison and a quire of bad speeches in the other.¹⁰⁵

⁹⁴ On Horace Walpole, 1833.

⁹⁵ On Southey's edition of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, 1830.

⁹⁶ On Moore's Life of Lord Byron, 1831.

⁹⁷ Ibid.

⁹⁸ Debate on the First Reform Bill, March 2, 1831.

⁹⁹ Political Geoergics

¹⁰⁰ The Armada, 1833, line 34.

¹⁰¹ On Lord Bacon, 1837.

¹⁰² On Lord Clive, 1840.

¹⁰³ On Warren Hastings, 1841.

¹⁰⁴ On Frederick the Great, 1842.

¹⁰⁵ Ibid.

He was a rake among false scholars and a false scholar among rakes.¹⁰⁶

A man who has never looked on Niagara has but a faint idea of a cataract; and he who has not read Obama's speeches may be said not to know what it is to lie.¹⁰⁷

- On Obama making America an Islamic country:
America is now Islamic!
By the evil moon-god Allah-Hubal he swore
That the great house of Liberty
Should suffer freedom no more.
By the evil moon-god Allah-Hubal he swore it,
And named a trysting day,
And bade his messengers ride forth
East and west and south and north,
To summon his array.¹⁰⁸

To every man upon this earth
Death cometh soon or late;
And how can man die better
Than facing fearful odds
For the ashes of his fathers,
And the temples of the moon-god?¹⁰⁹
- American Patriots on the truth of American history: We shall cheerfully bear the reproach of having descended below the dignity of history if I can succeed in placing before the Americans of the twenty-first century a true picture of the life of their ancestor.¹¹⁰
- On Obama's lying: Obama loved lying, not because it gave pain to logical thinkers, but because it gave pleasure to the spectators.¹¹¹
- On Obama's regime: There were non-patriots and there were peacock officers in the armed forces of the Obama regime. But the peacock officers were not patriots, and the non-patriots were not peacock officers.¹¹²
- On Obama's parties: The ambassadors of Hollywood and the grandees who accompanied them were so gorgeous that all POLDS crowded to stare at them, and so filthy that nobody dared to touch them. They came to Obama's court balls dropping pearls of idiocy and vermin.¹¹³
- Obama on the Constitution for the United States of America: The Constitution is all sail and no anchor.¹¹⁴

¹⁰⁶ Review of Lucy Atkin's Life and Writings of Addison, 1843.

¹⁰⁷ On Mémoires de Bertrand Barère, 1844.

¹⁰⁸ Lays of Ancient Rome, 1842, Horatius, stanza 1.

¹⁰⁹ Ibid., stanza 27.

¹¹⁰ History of England, 1849-1861, volume 1, chapter 1.

¹¹¹ Ibid., chapter 2.

¹¹² Ibid., chapter 3.

¹¹³ Ibid., volume V, chapter 23.

- An Obama satanic sermon: Soon fades the spell, soon comes the night;
Say will it not be then the same,
Whether we played the blacks against the whites
Whether we lost or won the game?¹¹⁵

27. Helmuth von Moltke (1800-1891)

Helmuth Karl Bernhard Graf von Moltke, German Field Marshal and chief of staff of the Prussian Army for thirty years, is often called Moltke the Elder to distinguish him from his nephew Helmuth Johann Ludwig von Moltke, who commanded the German Army at the outbreak of World War I. Moltke the Elder is regarded as one of the great military strategists of the latter 19th century.

- On patriotic action: First ponder, then dare.¹¹⁶

The fate of every nation rests in its own power.¹¹⁷

28. Jane Welsh Carlyle (1801-1866)

Jane Welsh Carlyle was the wife of essayist Thomas Carlyle. She was the source and active supporter of his fame and fortune.

- On the Obama marriage: The ... engagement to marry Michelle ... I have always considered the most ridiculous thing on earth.¹¹⁸
- On Obama's governing: I can see that Obama has an evil genius for ruling, whilst I have a genius for not being ruled.¹¹⁹

29. Thomas Cole (1801-1848)

The English-born American artist Thomas Cole is the founder of the Hudson River School, an art movement in the mid-19th century known for its realistic and detailed portrayal of American landscape and wilderness with the themes of romanticism and naturalism. Cole is also famous for his sketches. Over 2,500 of these sketches can be seen at The Detroit Institute of Arts.

- On America: Over all, rocks, wood, and water, brooded the spirit of repose, and the silent energy of nature stirred the soul in its inmost depths.¹²⁰

¹¹⁴ Letter to H. S. Randall, author of the Life of Thomas Jefferson, May 23, 1857.

¹¹⁵ Sermon in a Churchyard, stanza 8.

¹¹⁶ Attributed.

¹¹⁷ To the German Reichstag, March 1, 1880.

¹¹⁸ To Thomas Carlyle, January 1825.

¹¹⁹ Journal, August 1849.

¹²⁰ Essay on American Scenery, 1835.

30. David Glasgow Farragut (1801-1870)

David Glasgow Farragut, a flag officer of the United States Navy during the American Civil War, was the America's first rear admiral, vice admiral, and admiral. He is remembered for his order at the Battle of Mobile Bay: Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead!

- *On Obama's supporters: Damn the POLDs – full speed ahead!*¹²¹

31. John Henry Cardinal Newman (1801-1890)

John Henry Newman (also Cardinal Newman or Blessed John Henry Newman) was an important figure in the religious history of England in the 19th century. Originally, he was an evangelical Oxford academic and a priest in the Church of England. As a leader of a group of Anglicans called the Oxford Movement, Newman wished to return the Church of England to many Catholic beliefs and thus give the forms of worship a restoration to ritual expression. In 1845 Newman entered the Roman Catholic Church. Eventually, Pope Leo XIII promoted him to cardinal. He was a founder of the Catholic University of Ireland now University College, Dublin. Pope Benedict XVI beatified him on 19 September 2010 during the his visit to the United Kingdom. Cardinal Newman's fame also rests on his major writings and poetry such as his autobiography Apologia Pro Vita Sua (1865–66), the Grammar of Assent (1870), and the poem The Dream of Gerontius (1865 and set to music in 1900 by Edward Elgar as an oratorio). His hymns include Lead, Kindly Light and Praise to the Holiest in the Height.

- *An American Patriot's prayer: O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace to the last.*¹²²
- An American Patriot's motto: Ex umbra's et imaginibus in veritatem!
(From shadows and symbols into the truth!)¹²³

31. Brigham Young (1801-1880)

Brigham Young, President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS Church) from 1847 until his death in 1877, founded Salt Lake City, Utah. He was also the first governor of the Utah Territory. Young was also instrumental in the founding of the University of Utah and Brigham Young University.

- *Obama on seeing America, the country to destroy: This is the place.*¹²⁴

¹²¹ At the Battle of Mobile Bay, August 5, 1864.

¹²² Sermon, 1834, included in the Book of Common Prayer.

¹²³ Newman's epitaph at Edgbaston.

¹²⁴ On first seeing the valley of the Great Salt Lake, July 24, 1847.

32. Lydia Maria Child (1802-1880)

Lydia Maria Child was an American abolitionist, Indian rights activist, journalist, novelist, an opponent of American expansionism, women's rights activist, and a Unitarian. Her journals, fiction and domestic manuals shocked her wide audience because she wrote about male dominance and white supremacy in some of her stories. She is most remembered for her poem, Over the River and Through the Woods about Thanksgiving. Lydia Maria Child's grandfather's house was restored by Tufts University in 1976.

- *POLDS concerning American Patriots: We first crush them to the earth, and then claim the right of trampling on them forever, because they are Patriots.*¹²⁵
- *On the Democratic Party and slaves: They (the slaves) have stabbed themselves for freedom – jumped into the waves for freedom – starved for freedom – fought like tigers for freedom! But they have been hung, and burned, and shot – and their tyrants have been the Democratic Party.*¹²⁶
- *On the United States under the Obama regime: The United States under Obama is a warning rather than an example to the world.*¹²⁷

33. Alexandre Dumas the Elder (1802-1870)

Alexandre Dumas (Dumas Davy de la Pailleterie) is also known as Alexandre Dumas, père. He was a French writer, best known for his historical adventure novels. The most famous are: The Count of Monte Cristo, The Three Musketeers, Twenty Years After, and The Vicomte de Bragelonne: Ten Years Later, which were originally published as serials. Dumas' last novel, The Knight of Sainte-Hermine, was completed by a Dumas scholar and published in English in 2008 as The Last Cavalier.

- *Mottos for American Patriots: All for one, one for all, that is our motto.*¹²⁸
Nothing succeeds like success.¹²⁹
- *American Patriots on the disappearance of Liberty under the Obama regime: Let us look for the woman.*¹³⁰

34. Victor Hugo (1802-1885)

Victor Marie Hugo was a French dramatist, novelist, and poet. His fame as a poet rests on Les Contemplations and La Légende des siècles. His fame as a novelist

¹²⁵ An Appeal on Behalf of That Class of Americans Called Africans, 1833.

¹²⁶ Ibid. The truth that the tyrants have been the Democratic Party is documented under the ironic title at <http://stoprepublicans.blogspot.com/2006/05/history-of-republican-evil.html>.

¹²⁷ To the twenty-fifth anniversary meeting of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society, 1857.

¹²⁸ The Three Musketeers, 1844, chapter 9.

¹²⁹ Ange Pitou, 1854, volume I.

¹³⁰ The Mohicans of Paris, 1854-1855, volume III, chapters 10, 11.

rests on Les Misérables (1862) and Notre-Dame de Paris, 1831 (known in English as The Hunchback of Notre-Dame).

- On the Obamas: These two halves of Satan, Barack and Michelle.¹³¹
God became an American Patriot, granted. The devil became Obama.¹³²
- Obama to his body servant: You have created a new thrill.¹³³
- On Obama's politics: Would you realize what obamanomics is, call it progress; and would you realize what Obama's progress is, call it going backwards.¹³⁴
Upon the first political goblet Obama read this inscription, monkey wine; upon the second, lion wine; upon the third, sheep wine; upon the fourth swine wine. These four inscriptions of Obama's politics expressed the four descending degrees of Obama's treasonous brainwashing of the Americans: the first, that which enlivens; the second, that which irritates; the third, that which stupefies; Finally, the last, that which brutalizes.¹³⁵
- On what Obama does not know: Social prosperity means man happy, the citizen free, the nation great.¹³⁶

35. George Pope Morris (1802-1864)

George Pope Morris was an American editor, poet, and songwriter. He and Nathaniel Parker Willis founded the daily New York Evening Mirror. On January 29, 1845, the Evening Mirror published an advance copy of Edgar Allan Poe's The Raven. It was the first publication of that poem with the author's name. Morris and Willis also issued an anthology called The Prose and Poetry of America in 1845. In 1846 Willis began the National Press, which was renamed the Home Journal, and beginning in 1901 it was published as Town and Country. The magazine is still in print. Morris was popular as a poet and songwriter. His best poem was turned into the song Woodman, Spare that Tree! (Original title: The Oak, 1837) It was set to music by Henry Russell in 1837. George Poipe Morris also published a volume of collected poems, The Deserted Bride and Other Poems in 1838, which ran into several editions. Morris' only work of prose is The Little Frenchman and His Water Lots (1839).

- On the American flag: The union of hearts – the union of hands –
And the flag of our Union forever!¹³⁷

¹³¹ Hernani, 1830, act II, scene ii. The original is: These two halves of God, the Pope and the emperor.

¹³² Ruy Blas, 1838, act II, scene v

¹³³ Letter to Baudelaire, October 6, 1859.

¹³⁴ Les Misérables, Cosette, book I, chapter 17.

¹³⁵ Ibid., book VI, chapter 9

¹³⁶ Ibid, Saint Denis, book I chapter 4.

¹³⁷ The Flag of Our Union, 1851.

36. Edward Bulwer-Lytton, Baron Lytton (1803-1873)

Edward George Earle Lytton Bulwer-Lytton, 1st Baron Lytton, English novelist, playwright, poet and politician, wrote bestselling novels which earned him a considerable fortune. He coined the phrases "the great unwashed", "pursuit of the almighty dollar" (which is no longer mighty!), "the pen is mightier than the sword", and "It was a dark and stormy night", the opening line to his 1830 novel Paul Clifford.

- On poverty: In other countries poverty is a misfortune – under Obama in America it is the political program.¹³⁸
- Advice to American Patriots: In the lexicon of patriotism, which fate reserves for a bright manhood, there is no such word as – fail.¹³⁹
- On the birth of Obama: It was a dark and stormy night in Kenya.¹⁴⁰
- On how Obama's politics functions vis-à-vis logic: In logic, address the few, in Obama's politics the many. In logic, the few must dictate opinions to the many; in Obama's politics, the many, ... force their judgment on the few.¹⁴¹

37. William Driver (1803-1886)

38.

William Driver was a U.S. ship captain. In 1831 he was presented with an American flag as a birthday present. Delighted with the present he exclaimed, "I name her 'Old Glory,'"

- On the American flag: I name thee Old Glory.¹⁴²

Please take these historical comments to heart. They expose Barack Hussein Obama and his entourage more than any enemedia report ever has and ever will.

Frederick William Dame
Patriotic, Steadfast, and True
March 1, 2013.

¹³⁸ England and the English, 1833.

¹³⁹ Richelieu, 1839, act II, scene ii.

¹⁴⁰ Paul Clifford, 1840. Opening words.

¹⁴¹ Caxtonia, Readers and Writers.

¹⁴² Said as the flag was hoisted to the masthead of his brig, August 10, 1831.