

THE IMPOSTER

A PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT OF JOSEPH ROBINETTE BIDEN, JR.

I. Entrée

The mainstream media and the Democrat Party are conducting a Joe Biden protection-racket intending to canonize him and demonize Donald J. Trump. Everything the American mainstream media reports and Joe Biden does and says is to enhance his vanity and his position as Impostor-in-Chief.

II. Etymology

The indogermanic word stem of impostor is apo- meaning off, away from¹ in the sense of off or away from reality. The term impostor came into the English language in approximately 1586 as imposture, which was confused with the Middle French imposteur that was borrowed from the Latin impostor, impostus (impositus), the past participle of impōnere, meaning to place upon, to deceive.

An imposter is a person who deceives under an assumed identity. As such, the person is a swindler, a deceiver, a fraud. According to The Generall Historie of Virginia (1624) by Captain John Smith, an imposter pretends to be distinguished.²

² The generall historie of Virginia, New-England, and the Summer Isles with the names of the adventurers, planters, and governours from their first beginning. an^o: 1584. to this present 1624. With the proceedings of those severall colonies and the accidents that befell them in all their journeyes and discoveries. Also the maps and descriptions of all those countryes, their commodities, people, government, customes, and religion yet knowne. Divided into sixe bookes. By Captaine Iohn Smith

Already in 1851, an applicable definition of the impostor Joseph Robinette Biden Jr. was defined in the book Die gefährlichen Klassen Wiens (The Dangerous Classes of Vienna) where it is stated that an impostor is like "a dangerous beggar person who, employing false certificates of misfortunes experienced or the like, and by usually attaching to himself aristocratic names and titles, prefers to plunder the higher classes."³ At many times in his life, Joe Biden claimed misfortunes and attempted to achieve titles with the intent of becoming part of the governing class of American society and plundering the electorate. Thus the term impostor can be used to describe Joe Biden, who has been in the Democrat Party for a long time.

III. Main Course

Psychology is the study of a person's mind and behavior. This attempted psychological assessment deals with Joseph Robinette Biden, Jr. (Joe Biden). The condition of the impostor-in-chief's psychological status warrants an evaluation. The following presentation is deemed accurate. Joe Biden is a mentally disturbed impostor and is an excellent study case for both a psychologist and a psychiatrist.

Democrat Party politicians (perhaps all politicians) with psychological disorders want to be what they are not or can never become. They mix reality with non-reality, and only too often they have success. They are successful in pulling the wool over the citizen's eyes, mainly with the Democrat Party's mass media's help and the fact that the American citizen is dumb or has been dumbed down by the education system.

Mr. Biden has been very successful because he constructs lies on the populace's lack of knowledge. He receives attention and recognition for things that really are wrong and often did not happen.

Such politicians as Joe Biden begin very small and lie their way up the political ladder of success. Underway they receive much trust, and the more recognition and trust they receive, the more they lie and cheat to be successful. They are imposters who are successful over long periods. In the case of Joe Biden 48-plus years. He began to lie and deceive at an early career age. He used the strength of his fantasy to overcome setbacks. He lied/lies to overcome the reality of the situation in which he found/finds himself. Joe Biden's reality remains hidden.

Joe Biden does not feel any guilt at being a liar and swindler because he believes that he is allowed to do so to be successful. Over the years, he has come to believe the collective fake he has presented to the world. Joe Biden does not possess a bad conscience. All the other persons are wrong. Being a psychologically disturbed politician, Joe Biden is never wrong.

1. POSSIBLE CAUSES OF IMPOSTOR SYNDROME

From where does the irrational self-doubt and fear of failure come? Psychologists agree that performance-related self-esteem is one of the causes of impostor syndrome. The interaction between disposition and the environment's influence leads to the fact that those affected only feel valuable when they achieve something, even if that something is superficial and without meaning.

The Democrat Party's demand to be higher, faster, better, more competent, and in absolute control fuels the pressure on Joe Biden and increases his fear of criticism and rejection. For a politician, fear of being a failure in one's office is paramount. This further distorts the already established high self-demands. Concerning Joe Biden, this causes him to feel inadequate, and he searches for methods to camouflage this deficiency. When he desperately needs them, his supporters and the mainstream media rush to aide him. Their active white-washing of his deficiencies is paramount to his acceptance by the American public.

2. IMPOSTOR SELF-DOUBT IS COMMON AMONG THOSE OF LOW CLASS ORIGINS

Joe Biden's working class origins made him a minority, economically, politically, and socially. Only through the Democrat Party was he able to cover up this deficiency and blame other minorities, such as Blacks, for society's adverse developments. Biden still blames Blacks for negative developments in American society. A most recent statement is that blacks and minorities cannot fill out the necessary forms to receive a Covid-19 vaccination.

Biden is affected by impostor syndrome. After all, he assumes that he is successful because he is a Democrat Party politician who has been in politics for approximately 50 years. A working-class background, subtle discrimination, and a lack of recognition solidified a self-image that did not allow for confidence in his abilities.

3. JOE BIDEN'S IMPOSTOR SYNDROME

These aspects present Joe Biden's imposter syndrome:

- Competence: Impostors tend to selflessly attribute causes and chronically underestimate their abilities by maintaining the lies that they are geniuses. They attribute negative results to others and claim that what they do are positive achievements. Moreover, when the camouflage is taken away, Biden's statements and policies prove that he has low intelligence and will not accept feedback for improvement. The result is a subconsciously dampened self-confidence.
- Worries about failure: The fear of failure leads to a procrastinating approach to a task or, conversely, to investing much time prematurely. The result can be claiming to work excessively. As a result, the impostor is reinforced in the idea that extreme working is the prerequisite for success. The fear of failure at the next task is cranked up again. With Biden, this is a circular or even a futile argument because Biden never did excessive work. He always had people doing the work for him for which he took credit and claimed that he had worked hard to achieve the goal that others achieved for him.

- Perfectionism coupled with the urge to be recognized as a genius: Affected people are usually overly competitive and motivated by a desire to be the best. But Biden could only aspire to these standards via the Democrat Party. This is the core of his being an imposter. Only the best performance brings satisfaction. Average performance, on the other hand, brings enormous disappointment. But the Democrat Party will convince its members that being average or below-average is being the best! Joe Biden is a perfect example of this strategy.

- Self-delusion: Due to their very deliberate and context-adapted actions, Impostors appear less authentic. They are relatively passive in conversations. They also tend to be very dangerous in their behavior towards others. Biden's career activities constantly prove this statement. He is not authentic because he has always lied about his capabilities. He is not a rhetorically-gifted speaker (C'mon man!) who cannot give a speech without a teleprompter. He is cut-throat and dangerous in his behavior with others. The prime example is his threats against Viktor Shokin, the Ukrainian prosecutor general in the Burisma Affair (2014) when Biden was Vice-President under his impostor-mentor Barack Hussein Obama.⁴

4. BIDEN IS A LOW ACHIEVER AND A CHEATER

It is not uncommon for a multi-talented person to think that one is an impostor. The irrepressible curiosity about various topics and the emphasis on diversity rather than specialization often go hand in hand with thinking one is misunderstood and different from others. Most of the time, versatile people need less effort to cope with school, studies, and career. This may increase one's self-imposed feeling of having cheated one's way through life and that one feels that one does not deserve success. This is not the case with Joe Biden. He and his supporters claim that he has outstanding achievements. That these achievements are not provable causes him to have self-doubt in his subconscious. Under his pseudo-successful career surface, Biden has a large amount of self-doubt. This is a significant reason for his habit of lying and being clever with words when he is not dement.

Biden claiming that he has a high intelligence quotient or graduated in the top ten of his class at Syracuse University means that he is trying to cover up for his being a low achiever. The same logic applies to his using cheat sheets at his recent press conference on 24 March 2021.⁵ Low achievers always cheat! Biden's cheating at the press conference is augmented by the fact that he needs such assistance due to his on-going dementia health situation. At the same time, it must be stated that cheating is not uncommon with Joe Biden.⁶

Some of Biden's notes.

Joe Biden's notes show the faces and relative information of the reporters at the press conference.

Being a law school graduate Biden has a socially accepted high level of education. Such persons are particularly affected by the impostor phenomenon. Many politicians are phonies, at least occasionally, and thus must struggle with the impostor syndrome.

5. VANITY AND MEGALOMANIA

Joe Biden, the impostor, is a person who wants to appear more than he is by claiming to have a superior social rank, an outstanding professional position, or exceptional wealth, often with the intention of deception. Paramount examples regarding Joe Biden's vanity and megalomania are Joe Biden's numerous plagiarisms.⁷

Frequently, such impostors make a name for themselves who are able to deceive those around them over a more extended period, for example, when they function as soi-disant political know-it-alls or other self-styled experts. They often enjoy certain sympathies when they expose grievances or contend that their victims are greedy individuals.

In psychology, the impostor syndrome is a phenomenon in which affected people do not always doubt their achieved successes due to luck or coincidence, despite obvious evidence to the contrary, i.e., that their success is a result of chance or coincidence. They are unable to relate success to their abilities and achievements. Instead, they explain it by overestimating their abilities. If any politician has ever overstated his abilities, it is Joe Biden. The self-doubt is so pronounced that those affected live under the constant fear of being exposed with their actual inability. Therefore, without the Democrat Party, Joe Biden perceives himself as being insecure.

Among many others, there are these main recent actions that support Biden's vanity and megalomania. They are: 1) allowing China to have influence in the United States power grid, 2) his appeasement of Russia while at the same time calling the President of the Russian Federation Russian, Vladimir Putin, a killer, 3) the canceling of the Keystone pipeline, 4) and opening the southern United States border with Mexico and allowing for illegal immigration.⁸ These show the type of character Biden is. He is vain and megalomaniac!

The news media will not criticize Joe Biden like they did 24 hours a day for four years with President Trump. They will support Biden's vanity and megalomania.

6. BIDEN IS UNABLE TO ACCEPT ASSISTANCE FOR HIS IMPOSTURE

We note that

- Biden cannot accept praise from colleagues who are more intelligent than he is. (Being more intelligent than Joe Biden is not difficult!)
- Biden cannot acknowledge his obstructive behaviors and consciously counteract them.
- Biden cannot make his true personality public.
- Biden cannot realize that his bluffing will be called out because he maintains that he does not bluff.
- Biden cannot seek support because he considers himself more intelligent than others and is without mistakes.
- Biden cannot set realistic demands on himself.
- Biden cannot sustainably escape the low-level bluffing system through treatment because he refuses to do so and thinks he is a genius. For him, geniuses do not make mistakes!
- Biden cannot understand criticism and failures as a form of further development and not as a personal defeat.

⁸ Refer to Biden Rescinds Trump Order Banning Chinese Communist Involvement In US Power Grid, 'Moscow Joe' Already Trying to Appease Russia, https://consent.yahoo.com/v2/collectConsent?sessionId=3_cc-session_c3558107-f5f1-44e3-95af-a751ec8baf0b, Tucker Carlson: Biden cancels Keystone Pipeline, <https://www.washingtonexaminer.com/opinion/columnists/bidens-open-borders-immigration-policy-why>, all accessed on March 24, 2023.

- Biden cannot visualize success and cannot imagine failure. He is convinced he does no wrong.

Joe Biden's sub-conscious self-doubting will not disappear. The stressful thought patterns have formed over a long period. It takes time and work, and perhaps more support, to see himself with the clarity needed to dismantle the walls of protection that prohibit recognizing self-doubt. Joe Biden does not realize that he needs solutions to manage his imposter distress and imposter stress.

Joe Biden should have undergone treatment for imposter syndrome during his early career years. Now it is practically too late for him to be cured of his false self-image and misunderstanding of what he considers to be his success. He will always maintain his imposter syndrome. He is intrinsically addicted to it because his whole life has transpired with his being an impostor. The situation complements the behaviors of the Democrat Party. The Democrat Party is an impostor political party, and Joe Biden is an impostor member of that political party. Both need each other.

IV. Imposter Joe Biden Deceives with Lies⁹

Source: <https://iotwreport.com/your-dad-looks-a-lot-like-kevin-kline-joe/>.

Lies are morally inexcusable and below all dignity. Censorship is the weapon used when lies lose their power. The result is callous indifference. Biden's lies are illegal and an unethical, immoral, heathen betrayal of America's values and the logic behind the Founding Fathers' creation of the United States of America. His lies lead to corrupt political power and cause irreversible abuse of the citizens who eventually lose their desire for political participation.

A. Lying to Receive Admiration.

Biden's lying arises from insecurity caused by a lack of recognition. Biden wants to be liked, and he wants to impress people. Therefore exaggeration of the truth are lies, and they are not uncommon with Joe Biden. Insecurity is one of the most common reasons for stating untruths. Very important persons want to be liked and want to impress some people and intimidate others. Especially in a professional context, lies disguised as misjudgments are frequent.

B. Lying to Avoid Negative Consequences.

Biden lies in order to avoid negative consequences that could happen to him if the truth were known. When the truth is known, Biden will lie and say that the truth is a lie.

C. Lying to Achieve the So-Called Common Moral Goal.

Lying that serves a common moral goal is more acceptable by the populace. A moral conviction for a cause – not fairness – can influence people's perceptions of individuals whose behavior violates moral norms. People are comparatively tolerant of norm violations such as their politicians' lies when they serve (their own) moral mandate. In other words, it is okay if the politician who represents the citizens' interests lies, but not if the politician of the opposite party lies, or if the lie is not in one's interest. An explanation for corrupt actions undertaken politicians is that such lies appear to be perceived by supporters as acceptable and perhaps necessary to achieve a higher moral goal. This is a central argument of Joe Biden when he is not in a condition of dementia that is the same as the policy of the Democrat Party. Indeed, both Joe Biden and the Democrat Party are convinced that only they have the answers to America's political, economic, and social problems.

D. Lying to Flatter.

Biden's lying out of reasons for flattery means that he wants something from the voters: their vote in the elections for which he is a candidate for political office. Biden's charming someone is to make that person feel important because he needs something from the charmed persons, and he wants to be considered as being on good terms with them. The end goal has always been that Biden wants their electoral support.

E. Lying to Get Influence.

Biden lies to influence the electorate. He wants to direct the voter in a specific direction: vote for him and the Democrat Party. Only this decision will solve their political problems.

F. Lying to Maintain the Lie.

Joe Biden's lies have a snowball effect. A small lie will lead to a bigger and bigger lie. When the mainstream media covers for him by not investigating or even reporting about his lie, the small lie will turn into a big lie. It will eventually be accepted as the truth, particularly when Biden says that the lie originated with his political opponent and the media reports this as being the case. For Biden, this is the truth, and it substantiates his conviction that he always tells the truth.

G. Lying as a Social Tactic.

Another common reason for Joe Biden to lie is that he knows that lying is an excellent and effective tactic to cause social interaction. Even if a small lie has no particular consequences for the people, Biden considers it okay to lie because the average persons do not expect to be lied to because they assume that when Biden supposedly speaks to them on common ground, he is telling the truth. That is a reason he gets away with little lies. Biden's lies are intended to influence living together in the American society as long as the society's penchant for togetherness is served. Thus Biden accepts telling lies out of social tactical reasons to be okay.

A troubling and timely consequence of these findings is that political figures can act corruptly without damaging their image, at least in the eyes of their supporters.

People show greater leniency toward politicians' lies when they serve a common goal in support of a particular political or their moral stance.

The Washington Post monitored President Donald J. Trump's so-called lies over his four-year administration, often creating their own lies in so doing. The Washington Post contends that it is unnecessary to monitor Joe Biden's lies because the Washington Post insinuates that Biden does not lie. As for Joe Biden, Pamela Geller at <https://gellerreport.com/> will monitor Joe Biden's lies.¹⁰

V. Concluding Treat

This attempted psychological assessment of the imposter-in-chief might warrant disbelief if the reader is not a psychologist or psychiatrist. Albeit, the appraisal is accurate. The demented imposter Joe Biden is an excellent study case for a professional psychologist and/or psychiatrist.

How has the 78-year-old been able to fool the others so credibly? Tyrants do not have to worry about answering such questions. Even the most inexperienced person knows on his first contact with the Imposter Biden that Biden radiates something he is not. He is a false authority with his theatrical demeanor. He mumbles a few phrases, and the media is awestruck. This kind of imposing behavior is widespread among wannabes who, on their own, cannot accomplish anything.

What are the behavioral motives of Impostor Biden? There are three central answers:

- 1.) The main motive is to cover up his corruption and his lies. Biden propaganda is typical of that of Joseph-Goebbels¹¹ and the Democrat Party. He knows that if he lies often enough and the lamestream media in the United Banana Republic of America and the media in the world propagandize his lies as the truth, then the dumbed-downers who watch the news reports will accept what he says as being the truth.

¹⁰ <https://gellerreport.com/2021/03/washington-post-sayd-they-wont-hold-joe-biden-accountable-with-fact-checker-then-we-will.html/>, always accessible.

¹¹ Paul Joseph Goebbels was one of the most influential politicians during the National Socialist era and one of Adolf Hitler's closest confidants. As Gauleiter of Berlin from 1926 and as Reich Propaganda Director from 1930, he played a significant role in the rise of the NSDAP in the final phase of the Weimar Republic. As Reich Minister for Popular Enlightenment and Propaganda and President of the Reich Chamber of Culture, Goebbels held two decisive positions in Germany from 1933 to 1945 for the control of the press, radio, and film as well as other cultural activity. Consult https://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Joseph_Goebbels, translated and accessed on 26 March 2021.

- 2.) Impostor Biden must have compensation for his inferiority complex. Joe Biden has a weak ego, an unstable ego complex. He strives for something higher and is not satisfied with what he has achieved because he knows that he did not earn it due to his engagement. This is the psychological phenomenon behind Imposter Biden slipping into roles for which he might be ridiculed. The Democrat Party and his handlers will make sure that those who criticize Imposter Biden will be shut-mouthed.
- 3.) Impostor Biden will refuse to accept limitations. He wants to be the king of everything, which is why he is particularly susceptible to imposture. He will refuse to believe he has no clothes on.

Impostor Joe Biden is an everyday-life narcissist who overestimates himself immeasurably by suppressing his inferiority complex. Biden is an egomaniac who desires to outshine everyone else and wants to be the center of attention. Impostor Biden sees his political reflection in a self-absorbed way. Biden suffers from pathological narcissism, a personality disorder between delusions of grandeur and suppressed feelings of inferiority. He has a need for subjectively experienced grandiosity, a need of admiration, and a lack of genuine empathy. To be an impostor, one needs to pull the wool over the eyes of those possessing average human intelligence. To be an impostor, one has to be knowledgeable of this aspect. Biden is no genius, but neither is he dumb. His career has taught him this lesson and this knowledge about human nature.

An impostor has to be constantly on guard. But Biden is too demented to do so. His goons and aides will be on guard for him. They will make him look better than he is. This will result in an overestimation of Joe Biden's performance by his colleagues and the mass media.

Admiration is critically crucial to Impostor Biden. Biden's lack of humility means that his controllers do not consider it necessary to correct anything about his personality. If Biden is exposed as an impostor and, despite this defeat, tries to fool everyone again with the same means, his handlers will make sure he succeeds. Joe Biden's career depends upon his being an impostor.

Joseph Robinette (Robbing it) Biden, Jr. changes his mind like mother's change their babies' diapers. Sometimes he disguises himself as a politician, appears as a pedophile, or a shrewd know-it-all. The repertoire of Impostor Joe Robinette Biden, Jr. from Maryland seems unlimited. And he does not stop. Now he even pretends to be a legal President of the United States of America.

This is not a joke. It is a severe situation. Joe Beijing Biden, also known as Sleepy Joe, is America's most lucrative imposter. Joe, the Imposter Biden, should be on trial before an upright and honest United States Supreme Court of law for condoning the rigging of the 2020 United States of America's presidential election in which he emerged as the Imposter-in-Chief.

Imposters destroy. It is what Democrat Party goons and Joe Biden do. For the past 48 years-plus Joe Biden has been a cheater, grifter, swindler, and fake. Biden's offenses sound like an unconvincingly narcissistic personality who is pathologically lying and addicted to publicity. When not in a demented state of mind, Impostor Biden is often highly adaptable, pairing his adaptability with pleasant shrewdness and a confident demeanor, which allows him to stay cool in situations where one would generally be afraid. This is a quality that gets many psychos into government leadership posts in the American Republic. It also gets criminal impostors into prison where they belong.
