

Frederick William Dame

The American Crisis

The Golf-Course Politics Of Nothingness

A Call To Take Action

Number Ten

As recently as January 2014, Barack Hussein Obama says trust in him to his followers and subjects, the legal citizens and the illegal aliens in the United States of America, and then plays a round of golf.

As a God-fearing Christian, I trust in God, in the Divine Providence and in the justice of the American Patriots' cause. I am firmly resolved to prosecute the fight against Barack Hussein Obama with vigor and to make every exertion in order to compel the enemy Obama regime to the terms of defeat and failure. To this declaration the United States of America are witness. If the Barack Hussein Obama regime wants a fight, they will have it and shall have more than enough of it.

Barack Hussein Obama! Five-plus years have nearly elapsed since your commencement of hostilities against WE the People, and every campaign, by a gradual decay, has lessened your ability to conquer WE the People, without you producing a serious thought on the condition you are in or your fate. Like a prodigal lingering in a habitual consumption, you, Barack Hussein Obama, feel the relics of life and mistake them for recovery. New schemes, like new medicines, have administered fresh hopes and prolonged the disease instead of curing it. Even a change of military generals, like a change of physicians, serves only to keep the POLDS' flattery of you, their charlatan, alive, and furnish new pretences for new extravagances.

"Can Obama fail?" political pundits have taken pride in themselves when they have asked at the undertaking of every one of your enterprises; and that "whatever Obama wills is fate," has been given with the solemnity of prophetic confidence; and though the question has been constantly replied to by disappointment, and the predictions falsified by the enemedia, yet still your insults continue, and Barack Hussein Obama's catalogue of national evils increases therewith. Eager to persuade the world of your power, you have considered the destruction of a once-proud world power as the ultimate sign of greatness, and conceived that the glory of the Obama regime lies in the number of foreign policy failures, the domestically unemployed, and the miseries which Barack Hussein Obama and his regime thugs inflict on the United States of America.

The results of the destruction of American-friendly allied governments such as that in Egypt under Hosni Mubarak in 2011, the hatred you have towards the government of Israel, and the eradication of a minion government under Muammar al-Gaddafi in Libya in 2011, have spread with wanton cruelty in the Middle East, along the coast of North Africa and into Africa proper. All the while you, with an uncontrolled desire to expend money that is neither yours nor that of your quean, remote from the scene of suffering, have nothing to lose and as little to dread. Information – if you ever attend your daily morning briefings – reaches you like a tale of antiquity in which the distance of time defaces the conception and changes the severest sorrows into conversable amusement – an attitude that allows you to play golf, have taxpayer-financed holidays, and soul concerts without a tear of guilt for those souls who are suffering under your dictatorship.

This present paper is addressed perhaps in vain, to you, the self-appointed king of Obamaland and your regime That advice should be taken wherever example has failed, or precept be regarded where warning is ridiculed, is like a picture of hope resting on despair: but when time shall stamp with universal currency the facts the Obama regime have long encountered with a laugh, and the irresistible evidence of accumulated losses, like the handwriting on the wall, shall add terror to distress, you will then, in a conflict of suffering, possibly learn to sympathize with others by feeling for yourselves. You, Barack Hussein Obama, deserve no pity!

The triumphant appearance of the combined Pelosis and Reids at your side when you babble at the mouth, and the expeditions of John Kerry, as of late to Ukraine located on the Black Sea, will, by placing in your mind the condition of an endangered country, read to you a stronger lecture on the calamities of your foreign policy of nothingness and bring to your mind a truer picture of promiscuous distress than the most finished rhetoric can describe or the keenest imagination conceive.

Hitherto you have experienced the expenses but nothing of the miseries encountered by WE the People. Your disappointments have been accompanied with no immediate suffering, and your losses come to you only by intelligence. Like fire at a distance you hear not even the cry; you feel not the danger, you see not the confusion. To you everything has been foreign – even the taxes to support your regime's policies. You know not what it is to be alarmed at midnight with an armed enemy in the streets. You are a stranger to the distressing scene of a family in flight, and to the thousand restless cares and tender sorrows that incessantly arise, more so when they are in a refugee camp. To see women and children wandering in the severity of winter in Syria, with the broken remains of a well furnished house, and seeking shelter in every cranny and makeshift tent, are matters that you have no conception of. You know not what it is to stand by and see your household furniture chopped for fuel and your beds and goods ripped to pieces to make packages of plunder. The misery of others, like a tempestuous night, is added to the pleasures of your own security, your golf games, and the self-contenting ceremonies that you engage in with your body servants. You even enjoy the storm by contemplating the difference of conditions of using drones that carry sorrow into the breasts of thousands. They serve but to heighten in you a species of tranquil pride. Yes, you ... kill innocent people and American military personnel with your ridiculous rules of engagement. Yet these are but the fainter sufferings of your inept foreign policy, when compared with carnage and slaughter of the Muslim Brotherhood that you unequivocally support, or a Syrian or African town in flames at the torch of Muslims ... potential terrorists all, and the miseries of a beheaded Christian family of Muslim honor killing, all in the name of your peaceful Allah. You say Islam is peaceful! Respect it! For heaven's sake you cannot even spell respect correctly, to say nothing of your foolishness in understanding it.

The people of America, by anticipating distress, have fortified their minds against every species you are able to inflict. They have resolved to protect their homes, not to resign them to destruction, not to seek new settlements, and not to submit to your regime. Thus familiarized to misfortune before it arrives, WE the People will bear OUR portion with the less regret. The justness of OUR cause is a continual source of consolation, and the hope of final victory, which will never leave WE the People, serves to lighten the load and sweeten the cup of patriotism from which WE the People drink.

But more troubles shall become you and your foreign policy failures will be transferred upon you and not on John Kerry, for he is too much of a diplomatic imbecile. You will have neither expensive VIP golf courses to fly to, your body servants to comfort you, nor any hope to rest upon. Distress of you and your regime will not be sharpened by self-reflection. You and your regime will have brought it on yourselves. Although you have endeavored to avoid it, you will have descended even below the mark of a moral human. The national honor or the advantages of independence are matters which, at the commencement of the Obama regime's aggressiveness against WE the People, were never studied. It has only been at the last moment that you ever thought of national honor and concluded that it does not apply to socialism-communism, to say nothing of Islam's world dominating Umma. Thus circumstanced, you naturally and conscientiously feel a dependence upon providence, but it is the anti-providence of Satan. You have a clear pretension to it, and call for it because you fail. Your infidelity to morals and ethics has triumphed over you.

Your condition is the reverse of WE the People. Everything you suffer you have sought: nay, you have created mischiefs on purpose to inherit your inflicted sufferings. You could not have secured your title ZERO by a firmer deed. The world awakens with no pity for your complaints. You felt none for others; you deserve none for yourselves. Nature does not interest herself in cases like yours, but, on the contrary, turns from them with dislike, and abandons them to punishment. You may now present memorials to whomever you please, but so far as America is the object, true American Patriots will not listen. The policy of the Obama regime and the propensity there in every mind to curb America's ambition, and bring cruelty to judgment, are unitedly your policy; and where nature and interest reinforce with each other, the compact is too intimate to be dissolved.

Make but the case of others your own, and your own theirs, and you will then have a clear idea of the whole. Had any president – even James Earl Carter – acted towards Americans as you have done, he would have had to have branded them with every epithet of abhorrence; and had you stepped in to succor a struggling people, all the world would have echoed with your own applauses. But entangled in the passion of dispute you see America not as you ought, and form opinions thereon which suit with no interest but your own. You wonder that America does not rise in union with you to impose on herself socialism-communism and reduce herself to unconditional submission. You are amazed that the powers of the individual State governments do not assist you in conquering a country which is afterwards to be turned against itself; and that no one is interested in contributing to keep you in an America that already enjoys the free market for myriad products of the world.

You seem surprised that George Soros does not pour in his billions as succors to maintain you as a mistress of your body servants. Barack Hussein Obama! Stop twirling at midnight! America's economy is suffering! American foreign policy is suffering to the precipice of it being non-existent. No country will see America being successful while she is under your fetters.

Such excesses of passionate folly, and unjust as well as unwise resentment, have driven you on like the Pharaoh of ancient Egypt, to unpitied miseries, and while the importance of the quarrel shall perpetuate your disgrace, the flag of American freedom will carry it round the world. The natural feelings of every rational being will be against you, and wherever the story shall be told, you will have neither excuse nor consolation left. With an unsparing hand and an insatiable mind, you have desolated freedom-loving America to gain dominion and to lose it; and all the while, in a frenzy of avarice and ambition, the east and the west are doomed to bondage. You have rapidly earned destruction as the wages of a nation.

At the thoughts of a domestic war at home, every man and woman amongst your regime ought to tremble. The prospect is most dreadful in America; more so than Russia under Vladimir Putin. You know who he is, don't you? He's your adversary who makes you look like a wimping pussy.

The DemocRAT Party has always been against the measures of the republican form of government and are, in general, composed of haters who add no strength whatsoever to the United States of America. There does not exist a being so devoid of sense and sentiment as to covet anything said by them or by you and therefore no patriotic man or woman in America can be with you and them in principle. Several might from a cowardice of mind, prefer you and them to the hardships and dangers of opposing you and them; but the same disposition that gives them such a choice, unfits them to act either for or against American Patriots with equal shares of resolution.

The principle which produced you – hope and change – now divides the nation. OUR animosities are in the highest state of fermentation. Both sides, by calls of the enemedia, are in arms. No human foresight can discern and no conclusion can be formed concerning what turns your golf-course-politics might take. Vladimir Putin you say is not now in a fit disposition to make sense out of your actions. Therefore, you fly to Florida for a weekend of golf taking with you your scrub thug Valerie Jarrett, whom Putin in one action would throw into a Chicago gutter where she belongs. You have no success to hope for abroad and nothing but expenses arising at home. Your everything is staked upon a midnight twirl, and the longer it gyrates the worse off you are.

There are situations that a nation may be in, which when abstracted from every other consideration, may be politically right or wrong. But with the wrongs of your policies you are not doing what is right for America and what is right for America you are not doing at all. Such was the situation of America at the commencement of your hostilities in 2008/2009 and again in 2012/2013. It is still the same.

That America is beyond the reach of foreign conquest is a fact which experience has shown and time confirmed, and this admitted, what, I ask, is now the object of contention? If there be any honor in pursuing self-destruction with inflexible passion – if your imposed national suicide be the perfection of national glory, you may, with all the pride of criminal happiness, expire from America's borders unenvied and unrivalled. When the tumult of domestic war shall cease, and the tempest of present passions be succeeded by calm reflection, or when those, who, surviving the Obama regime's fury, shall inherit a legacy of debts and misfortunes, when the yearly revenue will scarcely be able to discharge the interest accumulated in one year, and no possible remedy be left for the others, ideas far different from the present will arise, and embitter the remembrance of former follies. A mind disarmed of its rage feels no pleasure in contemplating a frantic quarrel. Sickness of thought, the sure consequence of conduct like yours, leaves no ability for enjoyment, no relish for resentment; and though, like a man in a fit, you feel not the injury of the struggle, nor distinguish between strength and disease, the weakness will nevertheless be proportioned to the violence you create, and the sense of pain will decrease with the recovery of America when you are gone.

To what persons or to whose system of politics you owe your present state of wretchedness is a really a matter of total indifference to the majority of Americans. They have contributed, however unwillingly, to set you above themselves because the enemedia have told them to do so, and you, in the tranquility of conquest, resign the inquiry. The case now is not so properly who began the fight for the implementation of socialism-communism, as who continues to combat it. That there are men and women in all countries to whom economic confusion and distress is a mine of wealth, is a fact never to be doubted. Characters like these naturally breed in the putrefaction of distempered times, and after fattening on the disease; they perish with it, or, impregnated with the stench, retreat into obscurity. This is your fate!

But there are several erroneous notions to which you likewise owe a share of your misfortunes, and which, if continued, will only increase your trouble and your losses. One opinion is that the patriotic men and women of America would relish conservative, moral measures under a different administration, which they would not from the present regime. Several possible survivors of your regime are steering the same course. Such distinctions in the infancy of the argument have some degree of foundation, but they now serve no other purpose than to avoid prison terms as co-conspirators in treason. The limits of this dispute will not be changed or altered by trivial circumstances.

The obots of the Obama regime sacrifice their time in disputing on a question with which they have nothing to do, namely, whether America shall continue to be independent or become a socialist-communist system under dictatorship. WE the People will decide that question and the answer will be continued freedom and nothing else. The only question that can come under the Obama regime determination is: When will they disappear? – The sooner the better! They confound a logical question with a political one, and undertake to supply by a vote what they will lose by a battle. Say America shall not be independent of socialism-communism, and it will signify as much as if they voted against a decree of fate, or say that she shall continue independence from socialism-communism, and she will be more independent than before. Such a dumb question of being socialist- communist serves only to show the folly of the Obama regime and the weakness of its disputants.

From a long habit of calling America your own, you suppose her governed by the same prejudices and conceits which govern yourselves. You have set up a particular denomination of pseudo-religion ideology, namely Obamaism, a religion to the exclusion of all others. You, with an unsociable narrowness of mind, have cherished enmity against American Patriots.

You suppose America's alliance must be friendship with the Muslim Brotherhood and Islamic terrorists. But copying notions of the world from the Founding Fathers, America feels herself free, and the prejudices removed, she thinks and acts upon a different system. It frequently happens that in proportion as we are taught to dislike persons and countries, not knowing why, we feel an ardor of esteem upon the removal of the mistake: it seems as if something was to be made amends for, and we eagerly give in to every office of friendship, to atone for the injury of the error; but never under Islam and its terror.

Perhaps, there is something in the extent of countries, which, among the generality of people, insensibly communicates extension of the mind. The soul of an usurper, in its native state, seems bounded by the foggy confines of treason's edge, and all beyond affords to him matters only for profit or curiosity, not for forgiveness. His usurpation is to him his world, and fixed to that, his everything centers in it; while those who are the legal inhabitants of America, by casting their eye over a larger field, take in likewise a larger intellectual circuit, and thus approaching nearer to an acquaintance with the universe, their atmosphere of thought is extended, and their intelligence fills a wider space. In short, our American minds seem to be measured by countries when we are men, as they are by places when we are children, and until something happens to disentangle us from the prejudice, we serve under it without perceiving it. In addition to this, it may be remarked, that men who are not dumbed down by progressives, the principles of which are universally known, or admitted, and applied without distinction to the common demise, obtain thereby a larger share of philanthropy than those who remain dumb, social parasites, and unimproved. Anti-socialism-communism, anti Muslim Brotherhood, and anti-progressivism carry the mind from the country to the creation and give it a fitness suited to the extent. It is honorable that a country's leader is also its natural born citizen and philosopher. Such persons the heavens will liberate from the prejudices of a usurper.

WE the People taking a standpoint of being anti-everything that you propose and maintaining American Patriotism against all enemies will expand OUR souls. Others will remain rogues and ask for trust, play golf, and be enthralled with their nothingness.

Frederick William Dame
Patriotic, Steadfast, and True
March 13, 2014