The American Crisis

The Obama Regime Is Corrupt And Americans Are Sinking Into Despotism And Slavery

A Call To Take Action Number Seven

WE the People are sinking into despotism and slavery under a corrupt government! In the United States of America today there is no difference between DemocRATS and a government that is ruled by the tyrant Barack Hussein Obama and his thugs. You are all the same!

I have been meeting with American Patriots. No person voluntarily exchanges good company for bad. However, I am forced to return to the subject at hand in this American Crisis: Barack Hussein Obama. It is nearly six years since the tyranny of Barack Hussein Obama received its first constitutional attempt to be repulsed by a few American Patriot lawyers, only to be rebuffed at every opportunity to allow justice to be done with the judicial system argument that the plaintiffs have no standing. Using the no standing argument as a valid reason to allow Barack Hussein Obama to continue his treason against the United States of America and WE the People is tantamount to the judicial system of the United States of America saying in Shakespearian manner: Obama is vile stuff and we hold vile stuff so dear! These past years are a period in American history that has given birth to an evil government because the dumb voters elected a charlatan imposter as the folly of the world.

I cannot help being sometimes surprised at the complimentary references which I have seen and heard made to ancient histories and transactions. The wisdom, civil governments, and sense of honor of ancient Greece and Rome are frequently held up as objects of excellence and imitation. Americans have lived to very little purpose, if, at this period of the world, they must go two or three thousand years back for lessons and examples. We do great injustice to ourselves by placing them in such a superior line. We have no just authority for it, neither can we tell why it is that we should suppose ourselves inferior, unless we admit that under the present dictatorship rule of Barack Hussein Obama we have become inferior.

Could the mist of antiquity be cleared away and men and things be viewed as they really were, it is more than probable that antiquity would consider us as being inferior. Throughout the past two hundred and forty-four years America has surmounted a greater variety and combination of difficulties than, I believe, ever fell to the share of any one people in the same space of time, and has replenished the world with more useful knowledge and sounder maxims of civil government than were ever produced in any age before. Had it not been for America, there would have been no such thing as freedom left throughout the whole universe. But ... under Barack Hussein Obama WE the People have lost many of our freedoms in a long chain of wrong reasoning from wrong principles, and it is from this situation now that America must learn the resolution to redress herself, and the wisdom how to accomplish it.

The Grecians and Romans were strongly possessed of the spirit of liberty but not the principle, for at the time that they were determined not to be slaves themselves, they employed their power to enslave the rest of mankind. But this distinguished era is blotted by not one misanthropical vice. In short, if the principle on which the cause is founded, the universal blessings that are to arise from it, the difficulties that accompanied it, the wisdom with which it has been debated, the fortitude by which it has been supported, the strength of the power which American Patriots had to oppose in 1776, and the condition in which American Patriots undertook it then, be all taken in one view, we may justly style the patriotic action as the most virtuous and illustrious revolution that ever graced the history of mankind. WE the People have now arrived at a condition in which it is necessary to undertake a new revolution against the oppressive Barack Hussein Obama thug regime.

A good opinion of ourselves is exceedingly necessary in private life, but absolutely necessary in public life, and of the utmost importance in supporting national character. I have no notion of yielding the palm of the United States to any group of charlatans or despots that were ever born. WE the People have patriotically equaled the bravest in times of danger, and excelled the wisest in construction of civil governments.

From this agreeable eminence let us take a review of present affairs. The spirit of corruption is so inseparably interwoven with Obama's politics that his puppet ministries suppose all mankind are governed by the same motives. They have no idea of a people submitting even to temporary inconvenience from an attachment to rights and privileges. Their plans of business are calculated by the hour and for the hour, and are uniform in nothing but the corruption which gives them birth. They never had, neither have they at this time, any regular plan for the governing of America by good, patriotic policies. They know not how to go about it, neither have they power to effect it if they did know. The thing is not within the compass of human practicability, for America is too extensive to be fully conquered by a dictator. America can be defended by actively defeating or making legal prisoners of those who threaten or attack her. And this is the only system of defence that can be effectual in such a large country.

There is something in a domestic war carried on by subversive activities which makes it differ in circumstances from any other mode of war, because he who conducts it cannot tell whether the ground he gains be for him, or against him, when he first obtains it. In the elections of 2008 and 2012, Barack Hussein Obama was successful with an air of victory declared through the enemedia before the elections were over, the consequence of which was their seeing Obama as a savior not only of America, but of the world. But America needs no savior and the world needs more than one. In November 2014 and again in two years American Patriots will turn Barak Hussein Obama's first triumphs into a trap in which the will be totally routed. WE the People will attend to the circumstances and events of a domestic war carried on by subversion and Barack Hussein Obama will find that he will be defeated in the end.

I confess myself one of those who believes the defeat of Barack Hussein Obama to be attended with more advantages than present injuries. The case stands thus: The Obama enemy imagines life under his rule to be of more importance to us than it really is; for we all know that it has long ceased to be special: not positive developments for living Americans have transpired since the Obama regime usurped powers in 2008 and again in 2012. Yet, the enemy believes the conquest of it to be practicable, and to that belief has added the absurd idea that the soul of all America is centered in them! ... and WE the People would be conquered and forced into their socialist-communist straightjacket. It naturally follows that WE the People must break up the plans that Americans had so foolishly gone upon. WE the People must force the Obama regime thugs out of office and if they cannot be impeached, we must make sure that they will never again raise their ugly heads in American political life.

WE the People never had so evil an enemy to fight against, nor so fair an opportunity of final success as now. The death wound is already given. The day is ours if we follow it up. The enemy, by his situation, is within our reach, and by his reduced strength is within our power. The Obama regime thugs may rage as they please, but our part is to conquer and defeat them into political oblivion: Progressives, Obots, Liberals, Dumbed downers, Socialists (POLDS)! Let them wrangle and pout, but let it not draw our attention from the one thing needful. Here, in this spot is our own business to be accomplished, our felicity secured. What we have now to do is as clear as light, and the way to do it is as straight as a line. It needs not to be commented upon, yet, in order to be perfectly understood I will put a case that cannot admit of a mistake.

WE the People should certainly think ourselves the greatest heroes in the world; and should, as soon as possible, indeed immediately, collect together all the patriotic force of the country and lay siege to the usurped White House, for it requires a much greater force to besiege an enemy in the District of Communists than to defeat them in the field. The case now is just the same as if it had been produced by the means I have here supposed. Innumerable victims have been laid waste by the Obama regime. Guns and munitions stores in our possession, which are guaranteed by the Second Amendment to the Constitution, are being stolen by the regime because of their apprehensions of a defeat if they continue their politics of domestic war on Americans, or their conscious inability of keeping the home field safe. I see no advantage which can arise to America by hunting the enemy from State to State. It is a triumph without a prize, and wholly unworthy the attention of a people determined to conquer. Neither can any State promise itself security while the enemy remains in a condition to transport themselves from one part of the country to another.

The Obama regime cannot conquer where WE the People oppose them. Any undertakings by them are mean and cowardly, and reduce Barack Hussein Obama to a common pilferer. He will be despised if he appears in public. If he hides, he may be shut up and starved out, and the country, if he advances into it will become his Waterloo. He has his choice of evils and WE the People of opportunities. If he moves early, it is not only a sign but a proof that he expects no victory, and his delay will prove that he either waits for the arrival of a plan to go upon, or force to execute it, or both; in which case our strength will increase more than his; therefore, in any case we cannot be wrong if we do but proceed to revolt against him. We can begin by holding patriotic, anti-Obama meetings on weekends, picketing town and state government offices, signing petitions, writing letters, giving speeches, etc. Post your anti-Obama positions and calls for impeachment on all social networks. Write your Congress men and women and tell them that they can begin impeachment at any time, regardless of the fact that the Senate may not have a Republican majority to convict Barack Hussein Obama and his thugs for treason and felonies. Remind the sit-on-its-posterior, docile Congress that the words of the Roman emperor Tiberius apply to them as a collective body of inaction belonging to self-seekers possessed of moral cowardice: "Those men (and women) are fit to be slaves."

The particular condition of the DemocRAT Party deserves the attention of all the States. Their strength must not be estimated by the number of inhabitants. Here are men of all heritages, characters, professions, and interests. Here are the firmest American Patriots, surviving, like sparks in the ocean, unquenched and uncooled in the midst of discouragement and disaffection. Here are men and women losing their all with cheerfulness, and collecting fire and fortitude from the flames of their own estates. Here are others skulking in secret, many making a market of the times, and numbers who with new patriotic hopes are changing to become American Patriots with the circumstances of every day. It is by a mere dint of fortitude and perseverance that the American Patriots of some States that have such patriots have been able to maintain so good a countenance, and do even what they have done.

We want help, and the sooner it can arrive the more effectual it will be. The individual States, be they which they may, will always feel an additional burden upon their backs with Obama's policies, and be hard set to support its own civil power with sufficient authority; and this difficulty will rise or fall, in proportion as the other states throw in their assistance to the WE the People and our patriotic common cause: the retaking of America, our country!

The enemy will most probably make many manoeuvres at the opening of this 2014 election campaign, to amuse and draw off the attention of the several States from the one thing needful: an immediate change of government! We may expect to hear of alarms and pretended political expeditions to this place and that place, to the southward, the eastward, the westward, and the northward, all intended to prevent WE the People from forming into one awesome body. The less the Obama enemy's strength is, the more subtleties of this kind will they make use of. Their existence depends upon it, because the force of America, when collected, is sufficient to swallow up their present thug goons. It is, therefore, our business to make short work of it by bending our whole attention to this one principal point, for the instant that the main political body of the DemocRATS is defeated, all the inferior alarms throughout the country, like so many shadows, will follow their and Obama's downfall.

The only way to finish a domestic war with the least possible bloodshed, or perhaps without any, is to collect an American Patriot force against the power of which the enemy shall have no chance. By not doing this, we prolong the domestic war, and double both the calamities and expenses of it. What a rich and happy country would America be, were she, by a vigorous exertion, to execute Barack Hussein Obama to a reduction to nothingness as she has reduced all of her enemies! Her currency would rise to millions beyond its present value. Every man would be rich, and every man would have it in his power to be happy. And why not do these things? What is there to hinder us? America is her own mistress and can do what she pleases.

If we had not at this time a man in the field, we could, nevertheless, raise an American Patriot force in a few weeks sufficient to overwhelm all the obot goons which dictator Obama at present thinks he commands. Vigor and determination will do anything and everything. We began the war in 1776 with this kind of spirit. Why not end it with the same spirit in 2014 and again in 2016? Here, fellow Americans is the enemy. Here are We the People and the American Patriots! The interest, the happiness of all America, is centered in this ruined spot, the District of Communist Poverty. Let's change it into the District of Conservative Principles. Come and help us on May 16, 2014. Here are laurels, come and share them! Here are evil Obama regime thugs, come and help us to expel them! Here are true Americans that will make you welcome, and enemies that dread your coming!

The worst of all policies is that of doing things by halves. Penny-wise and dollar-foolish have been the ruin of thousands. Pennies no longer count and dollars are valueless under Barack Hussein Obama. The present spring, summer and fall, if rightly improved, will free us from our troubles, and save us the expense of millions. We have now only one enemy to cope with. No opportunity can be fairer; no prospect more promising.

That in which every man is interested is every man's duty to support. Any burden which falls equally on all men, and from which every man is to receive an equal benefit, is consistent with the most perfect ideas of liberty. I would wish to revive something of that virtuous ambition which first called Americans into the field in 1776. Then every American was eager to do his part, and perhaps the principal reason why we have in any degree fallen therefrom, is because we did not set a right value by it at first, but left it to blaze out of itself, instead of educating, regulating, and preserving it by just proportions of memorials and service. Patriotism is an ever-occurring process and must always be properly honored and passed on from generation to generation. This has not happened in the United States of America. What is left in education nowadays is the evil progressive process called Common Core, which has no core and is so commonly communicated that two plus two no longer equals four. America! Your citizens are being made dumb by POLDS and their like!

We must undertake this important revolution step-by-step and there are some basic rules to follow:

- Band together under the call for freedom of the Founding Fathers. Don't Tread on me! Rally round the Liberty Tree! Let Freedom ring throughout the land!
- Let the names of Obama supporters be registered and their pictures be placed on a Wanted List so that all American Patriots can see who their enemies are.
- Let the sums of money collected by the Obama regime be confiscated so that they may be used for the financial support of the new American Revolution.
- Do not be politically correct, particularly with the enemedia. The enemedia are just as guilty as Barack Hussein Obama is in conducting the greatest scam the history of the world has ever experienced. Political correctness is a form of lying. Be honest, particularly with the enemedia. Call them out if they attempt to mock you, put words in your mouth, change the topic, etc. Tell them that if they do not support American Patriots and WE the People, they are traitors and no better than the Obama regime to which they have enslaved themselves into becoming non-entities.

As it will always happen that in the space of ground on which a hundred men shall live, there will be always a number of persons who, by age and infirmity are incapable of doing personal service, regard these people as equal American Patriots.

There never was a scheme against which objections might not be raised. But this alone is not a sufficient reason for rejection. The only line to judge truly upon is to draw out and admit all the objections which can fairly be made, and place against them all the contrary qualities, conveniences and advantages; then by striking a balance you come at the true character of any scheme, principle or position.

The advantages of the new American Revolution here proposed are ease, expedition, and cheapness; yet the men so raised get a much larger bounty than is anywhere at present given; because all the expenses, extravagance, and consequent idleness of recruiting are saved or prevented. The country incurs neither new debt nor interest thereon; the whole matter being all settled at once and entirely done with by WE the People with what we have. Active support for WE the People and American Patriots can be accomplished without a tax, without either the charge or trouble of collecting one. True support comes from a moral conscience and a just heart. The American Patriots are ready for the field with the greatest possible expedition, because it becomes the duty of the inhabitants themselves, in every part of the country, to find their proportion of patriotic men and patriotic women

WE the People will never forget that a corrupt government behavior causes a nation to lose its freedoms and sink into despotism and slavery.
