

THOUGHTS FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Frederick William Dame

The Ceremony of Honor

Every Memorial Day there was a parade in four towns in the Northeast Kingdom and the Le Bois du Nord of the North Country. The Canaan Memorial High School Band under the direction of Mr. Lynwood B. Peck and the local American Legion Veterans would parade through Canaan, Vermont, stop at the memorial in the Canaan Park, pay homage with a speech, rifle salute, Taps, and the laying of a flowered wreath to honor Americans who had fallen in previous wars. The parade would then continue towards West Stewartstown, New Hampshire stopping on the bridge over the Connecticut River connecting Canaan, Vermont with West Stewartstown, New Hampshire. In the middle of the bridge there would be a short speech, a moment of silence, followed by a rifle salute, and then Taps, played by the band's solo trumpeter. A wreath of flowers was thrown into the Connecticut River to honor those men and women who had given their lives at sea in the American wars for freedom since the Revolutionary War in 1776. After the firing, the children would scatter between the ranks to pick up the shells of the dumb-dumb shots and with their bicycles, scooters, and tricycles, follow the marchers to the next ceremony. From the bridge, the marching unit would continue to the memorial stone in the park in West Stewartstown, at which the ceremony was repeated and a wreath laid on the memorial plaque to honor those men and women who had died on land in the previous patriotic wars for freedom.

From the very first moment when I was old enough to follow the band, I wished that I were the one playing Taps. When I reached the high school grades I had become a beginning trumpeter and from my freshman year through my senior year I was the trumpeter who played Taps at this and other ceremonies. When the ceremony was finished in Canaan and West Stewartstown we would be transported to Beecher Falls, Vermont, Canaan's neighboring village to the north, and continue the same memorial procedure at the park and the bridge over the Connecticut River. After Beecher Falls, the group would continue to Pittsburgh, New Hampshire where the ceremony was repeated at the stone memorials in the park and the bridge over the Connecticut River as it flowed out of the first Connecticut Lake.

Three Dictators

This once-a-year Memorial Day celebration is a constant remembrance of the fact that monuments are the reminders and remains of both real and false paradises. During these memorial procedures no one ever thought about the two worst politicians and the politics of two death-bringing dictators the modern world had ever seen. The villagers thought about and remembered the dead American patriots. And certainly no one foresaw the rise to power of a demagogue, degenerate and anti-American politician by the name of Barack Hussein Obama. All of the respective townspeople knew of the names Adolf Hitler and Josef Stalin and had heard of the evil they had done. They had no idea about the future of America under the dictatorship of Barack Hussein Obama. The townspeople I knew in the Northeast Kingdom and Le Bois du Nord were not concerned with the monuments to Hitler and Stalin. They should not be concerned with memorials to Barack Hussein Obama, for dictators on a pedestal will eventually fall and come under the ground. Likewise the townspeople should not be concerned if Barack Hussein Obama becomes a graved person.

Culturally speaking, Hitler and Stalin left us with an architectural movement in their attempts to create paradise that is symbolic of the way their political systems handled cultures. Both architectures are called brutalism. Officially coined in England in 1954 to describe the reinforced concrete structure style of Le Corbusier, because the concrete is exposed with its roughest texture and is designed to show over-emphasis with chunky members colliding ruthlessly, the term brutalism has been applied to the architectural works and planning methods under both Stalin and Hitler. They have also been described as pseudo-classicism. Suitable cities for suitable inhabitants of a suitable political state were to be built. Suitable buildings for a suitable culture were to be built to give the members of the supreme political system the impression of living in palaces and temples and to divert attention from the everyday drabness of life. The great city of the political empire of tomorrow as a built paradise beyond reality is the key to understanding both destructive political systems. For Hitler that city was Berlin, Germany as well as Linz, Austria. For Stalin the future communist city was Moscow, Russia. What architectural concepts Barack Hussein Obama has for the United States of America we do not yet know. However, I would not be surprised if Washington, now the District of Corruption, be renamed Obot City in acknowledgement of Barack Hussein Obama's devout robots.

Adolf Hitler, Josef Stalin, Barack Hussein Obama! What names! Are there differences between these persons? Not much, not really, except that they came from different cultures. But for themselves they were and are destroyers of culture, probably not being capable of recognizing what culture is. Their legacy? Destruction! No, there is not very much difference, not really! All three names are pseudonyms of the opposite side that humans live. Not one was really a son of the land that each later misruled.

Born in Braunau am Inn, Austria, Adolf Hitler (1889-1945) might have been named Adolf Schicklgruber. His father Alois was formally a Schicklgruber (1837-1903) for 39 years up to 1876 when the name was officially changed to Hitler. He was the illegitimate son of Johann Nepomuk Hüttler and Anna Maria Schicklgruber. Alois Schicklgruber, shoemaker by trade, carried the name of the mother, as was common in cases of illegitimacy. Adolf's mother was Klara Pölzl, the legitimate daughter of Johann Baptist Pölzl and Johanna Hüt(t)ler, the legitimate daughter of Johann Nepomuk Hüttler. Klara had married Alois in his third marriage (Such marriages were common.) with assent of the Catholic Church, necessary because they were 2nd to 3rd degree relatives. In his authoritative book Adolf Hitler Legende Mythos Wirklichkeit, Werner Maser traces 255 ancestors of Adolf Hitler – some with Jewish heritage – back seven generations, portions of the ancestry resulting from incest, mainly in the second, and third generations, and to a lesser extent in the fourth and fifth generations.

Born in Gori, Georgia, located in the Caucasus, Josef (Yossif) Vissarionovich Djughashvili might have kept his birth name had it not been necessary for him to adopt the aliases Koba and finally Josef Stalin in his fight against Czarist Russia. Born the son of a shoemaker, Soso, as his mother Ekaterina called him, grew up to be the anti-anti-counterpart of Adolf Hitler. From the vantage point of character, each could have looked in a mirror and have seen the character image of each other.

The conservative estimates of human destruction claim that under Hitler's and Stalin's combined rule over Europe as allies and adversaries during World War II only, 26,000,000 – 34,000,000 million people died, not counting military personnel. Another conservative estimate is that Hitler alone eliminated approximately 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 European Jews, at least 10,000,000 Slavs, 1,500,000 Gypsies, plus more than 500,000 political, homosexuals, lesbians, and physically and mentally disabled persons. This amounts to 20,000,000 dead that came as a result of the war and over 20,000 concentration camps stretching west to east from the Atlantic Coast to the Ural Mountains, and north to south from Norway to North Africa. (But we all know that is a lie! The truth is likely that there were more!). Stalin was more effective in the death number toll. Conservative estimates are that between 20 and 40,000,000 million people alone in the Soviet Union died under Stalin's dictatorship between 1922 and 1953. That figure is most likely a lie, too. There were probably more.

Whether or not Barack Hussein Obama will conduct genocide against American patriots is not a mute question. Yet if he does not exterminate them physically, Barack Hussein Obama will surely exterminate them politically, if he is allowed to do so. All one has to do is to research the Saul Alinsky method of destroying one's adversaries and one will be convinced of Barack Hussein Obama's goal of destroying active and passive political opponents.

Hitler and Stalin brought systematic destruction to Europe. Neither one achieved, nor attempted to achieve the goals for which governments should aim: economic growth and security, raising the standard of living, the promotion of human rights, and individual responsibility in securing one's own welfare. Political frameworks that guaranteed ordered, freedom, and life to its citizens were swept away. Nazism cut off Germany from its rich cultural heritage. While Europe lost its Jewish culture, the Baltic States, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, which had been taken over by Russia in 1940, saw Stalin politics deplete their populations and send them off to the GULAGS in Siberia. Stalin moved all of what he and Hitler left of Poland westward. At the end of the war he exploited what remained of the European countries in which the Red Army had advanced and made their economies subordinate to that of the Soviet Union, while Western Europe, Trieste, Portugal, Denmark, Austria, the Netherlands, Italy, Great Britain, France, West Germany, Greece, Belgium, Luxembourg, Norway, Ireland, Sweden, Iceland, and some countries historically associated with Eastern Europe, but not part of the Soviet post-war political construction, such as Yugoslavia and Turkey, enjoyed the advantages of the Marshall Plan.

Hitler and Stalin brought destruction to Europe. Barack Hussein Obama is bringing political destruction to the United States of America. The Democratic Party controlled Congress has become a rubber stamp to his whims. The Democratic National Committee continues its praise of Barack Hussein Obama's political goals. The mainstream news media in the United States has crawled so far into Barack Hussein Obama where the sun does not shine that they can no longer see reality or think logically!

A New Order

Can hindsight not say that Hitler and Stalin accomplished anything positive? As far as Hitler and the Nazis are concerned, one German historian, and a number of professors – those who always look backward to the Good Old Days – have told me that they are convinced that if anyone could have formed a geopolitical United States of Europe then it was Adolf Hitler. They claim the real reason for a united Europe not having come about in the 1940s is because the disease of international Jewry formed a conspiracy against Hitler and his allies. In short, it was Jewish money and backing that caused the goodness in Hitler's vision of the future not to materialize. Now, I shall not name these so-called intellectuals, for I deeply believe that the identification of idiots should be protected. No person other than the self should accomplish it. With their pseudo-intellectual sciences and ologies, they are well on the way to self-identification. However, if the reader is interested, all you have to do is to surf for the appropriate Home Page on the Internet. The garbage is easily identifiable. Such Home Pages support the computer-programming maxim: Garbage in, garbage out! My reply to such a stance is that Hitler's or Stalin's form of a United Europe would not have been worth the effort. Any country or regime that does not uphold basic human rights, privileges, and duties will be short-lived. All dictatorships – Hitler, Stalin, and Obama types in particular – have the capability of enveloping the society that they control to such a great extent, that simple human functions, like flatulence, will cause your death if the dictator and the party do not personally approve it.

As far as Stalin and Communist Russia are concerned, the order of historical development and change in that former political bloc is evidence of the ineptitude of Stalin and the incapability of his personality to influence and develop posterity in a positive manner. Dictators will never learn that they do not own political office. They lease it only, and that illegally and immorally. L'état ce n'est pas moi. L'état c'est les citoyens et le croix liberté. As far as Barack Hussein Obama's United States of America is concerned, the goal is to institute The Socialist United States of America, most likely with the national religion being Islam!

Death Comes With Revenge

Shortly before three-thirty in the afternoon on Monday, 30 April 1945, Adolf Hitler and his wife Eva (Braun) Hitler went into their suite in the Führer's bunker under the Chancellery in Berlin. After Eva had swallowed poison, Hitler took a pistol and shot himself through the mouth. So much evil had come out of it in his fifty-six years that finally some good had to go into it. A few minutes later their bodies were burned. Taking his own life, Hitler finally reached the level of cowards. He had disappeared from humanity without a physical trace. Yet, the continuing tragedy is that humans are still being molested, attacked, and killed in the name of his political movement, and this more than sixty-five years after his suicide.

Josef Stalin out-lived Adolf Hitler by eight years. He died of a brain hemorrhage, a stroke of paralysis with loss of speech and consciousness, and a second heart attack on 5 March 1953, which slowly strangled him to death during his last hours. He left this world as he had lived it: slow strangulation of his own culture. He was seventy-three years old. Even the memorial ceremony on Red Square Stalin took people to their deaths. The militia was not prepared and could not control the immense procession of people. Crowds stampeded and hundreds of men, women, and children were trampled to death and run over by security militia trucks in the presence of Stalin's bier. The exact numbers of those who were killed is not of record. But from his grave Stalin had laid claims to his last victims. His body was carried down into the mausoleum and placed next to Lenin's. During the night his name was painted on the outside of the shrine next to Lenin's name. Eventually the body was ejected from the mausoleum and removed, the succeeding Soviet government seeking to exclude him from memory.

Barack Hussein Obama is still alive. Yet when he dies, I am sure that there will be a place in Dante's Inferno. A tenth circle will be created for him alone! That will be divine revenge! What comedy!

In 2008, the American voter elected a usurper to the American Presidency. That person is BARACK HUSSEIN OBAMA, a/k/a: BARRY SOETORO, a/k/a: BARRY OBAMA, a/k/a: BARACK DUNHAM, a/k/a: BARRY DUNHAM, or even X/Y/Z, or, any other aliases that have yet to be uncovered. This Usurper of Republican Democracy has much in common with Adolf Hitler and Josef Stalin.

- Just as the latter two had aliases, so does Barack Hussein Obama.
- Just as Hitler and Stalin were not born in the countries in which they ruled, it is most likely that Barack Hussein Obama was not born in the country over which he now rules. In any event, Barack Hussein Obama is not a natural born citizen president according to the requirements of the Constitution for the United States of America.
- Just as Hitler and Stalin instituted dictatorships, Barack Hussein Obama has begun to institute a dictatorship under the guise of Organizing of America.
- Just as Hitler and Stalin constantly lied to their peoples, Barack Hussein Obama lies constantly to the American public. As of this writing there are, according to the internet site <http://conservativeamerican.org/>, 1,444 documented occasions in which Barack Hussein Obama has caused scandals and lied.
- Just as thousands of Germans pined to see Hitler at his public appearances and Nazi Party rallies and thousands more Russian Communists were in love with Stalin, millions followed the Pied Piper of Chicago in his hope-and-change movement to make an Obama socialist/communist dictatorship out of the United States of America.

- Just as Hitler suspended the Constitution of the Weimar Republic and Joseph Stalin invoked a dictatorial constitution for Russia, Barack Hussein Obama has broken the Supreme Law of the Land, the Constitution for the United States of America in every possible and before-now-unthinkable way.

- Just as Hitler established the concentration camp system and Stalin his GULAG, Obama is attacking patriotic Americans as the real terrorist threat to his vision of America.

I do not believe in reincarnation. Yet the fact that Barack Hussein Obama is such a despicable, debased, immoral person leads me to conceive of him as being Hitler, Stalin, and even Mao Tse-tung, all rolled into one devilish person.

No matter how you interchange or separate the names – Barack Josef Hussein Adolf Stalin Hitler, Josef Barack Hitler, Adolf Hussein Stalin, or whatever – the results are the same: Evil! There will come the hour, there will come the day, when dictators will see in graveyards what they leave behind. Nothing is more raw than war on a country's own people. Hitler and Stalin are only two examples from recent history showing that humans have deep within them the capability of being the opposite of what good people live. Barack Hussein Obama is the present-day reminder of this fact. From darkness comes darkness.

Visions of Paradise

Hitler's and Stalin's visions of paradise – appropriate names are the Land of Megalomania, or the Maniac Kingdom – are continuing evils for the world. Barack Hussein Obama's vision of a socialist/communist America in a socialist/communist world is an attack and an insult to those Americans we remember on Memorial Day; to the memory that they were ready to give their lives that their fellow Americans live in freedom. Hitler's and Stalin's personal aspirations not only stoned the state, they came close to destroying humanity. Barack Hussein Obama's personal aspiration is to place a gravestone on American traditions, freedoms, values, and the Constitution for the United States of America. It is a non-paradise and it will cause America's death as a free nation.

American citizens! Remind yourselves of this threat to your lives as free individuals. Give thanks and pay remembrance to those who were willing to die for your freedoms in America's historical past. The United States of America defeated Adolf Hitler. The United States of America won the Cold War against Stalin-infested Russia. Barack Hussein Obama is now in the process of conducting war against American traditions, values, way of life, and the Constitution for the United States of America. We can win the war against the usurper-dictator Barack Hussein Obama and take our country back.

Think about these matters on every Memorial Day.

I do not want to play Taps for a bygone United States of America.
