The American Crisis

We Fight Not To Enslave But To Set Our Country Free

A Call To Take Action Number Five

Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must, like men, undergo the fatigues of supporting it. Thus we are continuing the fight to set our country free. The events of these Barack Hussein Obama years are those kinds of alarms which are just sufficient to rouse us to duty, without being of consequence enough to depress our fortitude. It is not a field of a few acres of ground, but a cause that we are defending, and whether we defeat the Obama enemy in one battle, or by degrees, the consequences will be the same: FREEDOM!

Look back at the events of the past five years and more! There you will find that the enemy's successes by lies and forgeries always contributed to reduce them. What they have gained in ground, they paid so dearly for in numbers of followers that their political bashings of WE the People have in the end amounted to defeats. WE the People have always been masters at the last push, and always shall be while we do our duty. Barack Hussein Obama has been many times on the cozy propaganda couches and in the chairs of the enemedia, and from thence he has never been driven back with loss and disgrace by the enemedia: and why must we allow this to continue? Obama's political condition and ours are very different. In reality he has everybody to fight. WE the People have only his one regime to cope with, and which wastes away at every engagement. WE the People can not only reinforce, but can redouble our numbers; he is cut off from all patriotic reality, and must sooner or later inevitably fall into our hands, for fight we American Patriots will. It would be amenable to defeat Obama and his regime non-violently. Yet, American Patriots will not shrink from active revolution, if necessary, to achieve the goals of our Declaration of Independence and the guarantees of our Constitution.

Shall a band of regime robbers, who are this day less in strength than they were last year, conquer America, or subdue even a single State? The thing cannot be, unless we sit down and suffer them to do it. Notwithstanding WE American Patriots should lose the ground, we would by ever confronting the enemy argumentation, propaganda, and thuggery put them in a condition to be afterwards totally defeated.

Could our whole body of American Patriots attack Obama and his regime at one time, and continuously without political correctness interruptions, the consequences would be more profitable for the whole country because the enemedia would have to take notice of it. Our having different parts of the country under control would pit us against the enemedia still under control of Obama's financial support and thug controllers; and the uncertainty which approach the enemy would attempt to take, naturally affords us an opportunity of gathering our patriot forces together for various media forays with their main political bodies at their studios and offices; for it must strike every thinking man with conviction, that it requires a much greater force to oppose an enemy in several places, than is sufficient to defeat him in any one place.

Men who are sincere in defending their freedom will always feel concern at every circumstance which develops to take action against them; it is the natural and honest consequence of all affectionate attachments, and the want of it is a vice. But the dejection lasts only for a moment; they soon rise out of it with additional vigor; the glow of hope, courage, and fortitude, will, in a little time, supply the place of every inferior passion, and kindle the whole patriotic heart into heroism.

There is a mystery in the countenance of some causes, which we have not always present judgment enough to explain. It is distressing to see an enemy regime advancing as a mob to take over this country, but throughout America is the only place in which we can beat them, for it is the source from which we have always had fortitude to eventually defeat our enemies, whenever they made the attempt to conquer us. Obamaism is a killer disease and the nearer any disease approaches to a crisis, the nearer it is to a cure. Danger and deliverance make their advances together, and it is only the last push, in which one or the other takes the lead.

There are many men who will do their duty when it is not wanted; but a genuine public patriotic spirit always appears most when there is most occasion for it. Thank God! Our patriots, though fatigued by five years of congressional inaction and wishy-washy political correctness, are yet entire. The attacks made against us in the past were under many disadvantages, naturally arising from the uncertainty of knowing which type of illegal actions and propaganda the socialist-communist enemy would take; and, from that circumstance, the whole of our patriotic force could not be brought up together in time enough to engage all at once. Our patriotic strength is yet reserved; and it is evident that Obama does not think himself a gainer by the scandals of his non-leadership, otherwise he would not have acted as a king-dictator, as a sulking narcissist before the Congress in the 2014 State of the Union farce.

Men and women of America's cities and countryside, it is in your power, by a spirited improvement of the present circumstance, to turn it to a real advantage. Barack Hussein Obama! You are now weaker than before, and every propaganda shot of truth from WE the People will contribute to reduce you. You are more immediately interested in yourself than in any other part of the country. Your all is at stake; it is not so with the general cause; you are devoted, because you are the enemy, to plunder and destruction: it is the encouragement which you, the plunderer-in-chief have promised his plundering regime. Thus circumstanced, you may think you are saving yourselves by a considering a pseudo-justifiable resistance, but you can have no hope in any other conduct. I never yet knew one weakness our brave American Patriots, or any part of WE the People, women or men, out of heart, and I have seen them in circumstances a thousand times more trying than the present. It is only those that are not in action, that feel languor and heaviness, and the best way to rub that off is to turn out, and make sure the work of our future election and propaganda encounters, and if need be, our active, even violent revolutionary encounters with the Obama side come to fruition.

Our American Patriots must undoubtedly feel fatigue, and want a reinforcement of rest though not of valor. Our own interest and happiness call upon us to give every American support in our power, and make the burden of the day, on which the safety of this nation depends, as light as possible. Remember, that we have patriotic forces throughout the United States of America, and if the enemy be but checked till all American Patriots can mobilize, this country will be saved, and the enemy finally routed. WE the People have too much at stake to hesitate. WE the People ought not to think an hour upon the matter, but to spring to action at once. Other States like Texas, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, Missouri, Wisconsin, Alabama, South Carolina, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Mississippi, and Kansas have confronted Obama on his destructive politics, particularly the Affordable Care Act, and have so far driven off the future invaders. More states are fighting Obama and his thugs. Now our time and turn is come, and perhaps the finishing stroke is reserved for us. When we look back on the dangers we have been saved from, and reflect on the success we have been blessed with, it would be sinful either to be idle or to despair.

I close this paper with a short address to Barack Hussein Obama. You are only lingering out the period that shall bring with it your defeat. You have yet scarce begun upon the encounter with us. It will come this year! The further you push the forray, the faster will your troubles thicken. What you now enjoy is only a respite from ruin; an invitation to destruction; something that will lead on to our deliverance at your expense. We know the cause which we are engaged in, and though a passionate fondness for it may make us grieve at every injury which threatens it, yet, when the moment of concern is over, the determination to duty returns. WE the People are not moved by the gloomy smile of a worthless, self-appointed dictator-king serviced by a body servant. WE the People are moved by the ardent glow of generous patriotism. Contrary to Your DemocRATS and socialist-communist thugs, WE the People fight not to enslave, but to set our country free, and to make room upon the earth for honest men to live in. In such a case we are sure that we are right; and we leave to you the despairing reflection of being the tool of a miserable tyrant: yourself!
