The American Crisis

WE The People Will Not Let This Crisis Go To Waste!

A Call To Take Action

Number Nine

You POLDS! ... You Progressives, Obots, Liberals, Dumbed-downers, Socialists-communists! Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye! Normal people use their ears to listen carefully and to place in their brains located between their ears important information that will assist them in becoming American Patriots. WE the People do this every day! You POLDS should also! Doing such will help you to change your attitude. Use The American Crisis to cure your anti-American illness!

There are stages in the business of serious life in which to amuse is cruel, but to deceive is to destroy; and it is of little consequence in the conclusion whether people deceive themselves, or submit by a kind of mutual consent to the impositions of each other. That the United States of America has long been under the influence of delusion, no ... mistake, needs no other proof than the unexpected and wretched situation that she is now involved in. So powerful has been the influence that no provision was ever made or thought of against the misfortune, because the possibility of its happening was never conceived, except by the Founding Fathers when they wrote the Constitution for the United States of America, specifically Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 5. However, they did not foresee that the brain-dead American voter, the DemocRAT Party, the United States Congress, and the Supreme Court of the United States of America would not care in 2008/2009 and again in 2012/2013.

The general and successful resistance of American Patriots will result in the conquest of Barack Hussein Obama and his regime. It will usher in a new age in the truth of upholding the Constitution treated by WE the People as the dream of a political opposition with a patriotic goal. The Barack Hussein Obama regime and its thugs are beheld as dangerous objects unworthy of attention, yet with the necessity of serious thought. The bare intimation of them affords the nighttime talk shows a triumph of laughter. But those are short triumphs! Everything which has been predicted against the Obama regime has happened, and all that it promised has failed. A long series of politics so remarkably distinguished by a succession of misfortunes, without one alleviating turn, must certainly have something in it systematically wrong. It is sufficient to awaken the most credulous into suspicion and the most obstinate into thought. Either the means in the Obama regime's power are insufficient or the measures ill planned. Either the execution has been bad or the thing attempted impracticable; or, to speak more emphatically, either you, Barack Hussein Obama, are not able, or heaven is not willing. For why is it that you have not conquered us? Who, or what has prevented you? You have had every opportunity that you could desire, and succeeded to your utmost wish in every preparatory means. Your fleets of DemocRAT Party Idiots and armies of Dumb Pelosis are all over America. No uncommon fortune has intervened. The patriotic opposition, either in or out of Washington, D. C., has disconcerted the Obama regime's measures; retarded and diminished your force. They have foretold the Obama regime's fate. Every regime scheme was carried with as high a hand as if the whole nation had been unanimous. Everything the regime thugs wanted was asked for, and everything asked for was granted by a wishy-washy Congress.

Barack Hussein Obama! A greater force than your thugs was not within the compass of your abilities to send, and at the time you sent them you were the most favorable person in America. For proof one only needed to ask you! You were then at rest with the whole world beside. You had the range of every enemedia ... uncontradicted and deceived. You excited Americans with tales of hope and change. Under that disguise you collected numerous brainwashed followers and came almost unexpectedly upon the nation as its next leader. Your accolades of promise were much greater than America looked for or needed, and that which American Patriots had to oppose it with was not believed because it was badly communicated and poorly presented by the enemedia. The hope and change dope was embodied only for a short time and expired within a few months after your illegal arrival in the Oval Office. You had a regime to form; measures to concert; and thugs to train, and every necessary article to import or to create in the form of dictatorial laws. Your socialist-communist scheme had exhausted the realm of imagination, and deceit intercepted our political calls for redress. WE the People were unknown to you, unconnected with your political world of evil destruction, and strangers to the disposition of socialism-communism. Could you possibly have wished for a more favorable conjunction of circumstances? Yet all these have happened and passed away, and, as it were, WE the People now laugh at you. Indeed, you have become a laughing stock full of glitches. There are likewise events of such an original nativity as can never happen again, unless a new evil world should arise from Hell, from whence you came.

If anything can be a lesson to presumption, surely the circumstances of your domestic war will have their effect. Because Barack Hussein Obama will be defeated by American Patriotic power, his pride will draw no consolation from the importance of his conquerors, the American Patriots. In the present case Barack Hussein Obama is excelled by those that he affected to despise, and his own opinions retorting upon himself become an aggravation of his disgrace. Misfortune and experience are lost upon mankind when they produce neither reflection nor reformation.

Evils, like poisons, have their uses and there are diseases which no other remedy can reach. It has been the crime and folly of Barack Hussein Obama to suppose himself invincible and without acknowledging or perceiving that the fullness of his strength has been drawn away by the country he is now at domestic war with. The arm of the Barack Hussein Obama regime has been spoken of as The Arm of The One, and he has lived his whole life as if he thought the whole world was created for his diversion. His politics, instead of civilizing, have tended to brutalize mankind. Under the vain, unmeaning title of Defender of the Islamic Faith, he has made war like a terrorist against the religions of humanity in making absolutely no condemnations of Muslim terrorism against Christianity, or Hinduism, or Buddhism. His cruelties against the people living on the unsecured borders with Mexico will never be forgotten, and it is somewhat remarkable that the drug produce of that country, transported to America, should be allowed to destroy Americans. The chain of evil is continued, though with a mysterious kind of uniformity both in the crime and the non-punishment. The latter runs parallel with the former, and time and fate will give it a perfect illustration of blame and conviction of you, Barack Hussein Obama.

When information is withheld, ignorance becomes a reasonable excuse. One would charitably hope that the Obama regime does not encourage cruelty from choice but from mistake. But the evidence indicates the opposite. Their recluse situation, surrounded by their own perfectness, preserves them from the calamities of a domestic war and keeps them in the dark as to the conduct of their own DemocRATS.

The Obama thugs see not, therefore they feel not. They tell the tale that is told them and believe it, and accustomed to no other news than their own, they receive it, stripped of its horrors and prepared for the palate of the nation through the channels of the enemedia. They are made to believe that their propaganda and policies differ from those of other socialist-communist countries and have nothing of rudeness or barbarity in them. They suppose their propaganda and politics what they wish them to be. They feel a disgrace in thinking otherwise, and naturally encourage the belief from a partiality to themselves. There was a time when many Americans voted for Obama. They felt the same prejudices that he told them to feel and reasoned from the same errors that he convinced them were truths. But experience, sad and painful experience, has taught them better. If voting today, they would not give their ballot to Obama and the DemocRATS. Having seen and experienced reality, they are now being illegally audited by the Internal Revenue Service.

What the conduct will be after WE the People get rid of the Obama regime, I know not; but what the conduct of the present is, I well know. It is low, cruel, indolent, and profligate; and have the people of America no other cause for the impeachment of the Obama regime than what Obama and his policies have occasioned, that alone is cause sufficient.

The field of politics in Washington, D. C. is far more extensive than that of any news created by the enemedia. Men have a right to reason for themselves, and though they cannot contradict the intelligence in the patriotic media, they may frame upon it what sentiments they please. The misfortune is that a general ignorance has prevailed over the whole nation respecting America under the Obama regime. The majorities and the minorities have both been wrong. Since 2008 the former have always been so and the latter have always been so.

Politics, to be executively right, must have a unity of means and time, and a defect in either overthrows the whole. The senators and representatives and court justices rejected the legal arguments of those petitioning the government and the Supreme Court for redress while they were practicable. They are now beginning to join in these petitions and are becoming aware of the investigations into the legal authenticity of Barack Hussein Obama at a time when the practicability of the Obama regime is sinking as if in quicksand. The danger still looms for the Obama regime. From wrong measures they got into wrong time, and have now completed the circle of absurdity by closing it upon themselves.

Americans who were in Washington, D. C. a few months before the breaking out of Obama hostilities against America in 2009 and 2013 found the disposition of the people such that they might have been led by a thread and governed by a reed. Their suspicion was quick and penetrating, but their attachment to Barack Hussein Obama was obstinate, and it was at that time a kind of treason to speak against it. They may have disliked the Obama regime, but they esteemed Obama's misinformation propaganda as supplied by the enemedia. Their idea of grievance operated without resentment, and their single object was reconciliation. I always believed the Obama regime to be capable of measures so rash and wicked as the commencing of domestic hostilities. I even imagined the DemocRATS in the nation would encourage it. I viewed the dispute as a kind of lawsuit in which I supposed the parties in the wishy-washy Congress would keep their necks out of the rope's loop and would find a way either to decide or settle disputes. I have always had thoughts of calling for Congressional impeachment of all DemocRATS and RINOs who deserve impeachment – all of them! Moreover, I shall fight Barack Hussein Obama regarding all themes – with a weapon unknown to him – intellect coupled with American Patriotism without teleprompters and speech writers.

The world could not have persuaded me that I should be either a soldier or an author. I became both and many more. Thomas Jefferson inspired me to become in my own way a renaissance man. The talents for soldier and author were somewhat buried in me, and might ever have continued so, had not the necessity of the times with the illegal election of Barack Hussein Obama to the Oval Office dragged and driven them into action with the inestimable support of American patriotic colleagues. I had formed my plan of life, and conceiving myself happy, wished everybody else so. But when the country into which I entered life as a natural born citizen was set on fire about my ears, it was time to stir. It was time for every American patriotic man and woman to stir. Those who had been long settled had something to defend; those who had just come of age had something to pursue; and the call and the concern was equal and universal. In a country where all men and women were once concerned with their no-socialism-communism lives, the difference of a few years with government involvement taking action can make their confirmed status as free citizens independent of government, become non-existent.

The breaking out of domestic revolt opens a new suspicion in the politics of America, which, though very rare, have since been proved to be very right. What I allude to is a secret and fixed determination in the Obama regime to sell out America to the United Nations as a conquered country under the inevitable control of the ludicrous Islamic countries who are a majority in that ludicrous body. This must be taken as the object. The whole line of conduct is uniform and consistent in its parts. This conduct pursued by the Obama regime is rash in its origin and ruinous in its consequences. Coupled with other policies like ObamaCare there is no proportion between the object and the charge. Nothing but the whole soil and property of the United States of America can be placed as a possible equivalent against the trillions which the Obama regime has expended. No taxes raised in America can possibly repay their expenditures.

If an American spends one dollar for every second, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year, it would take that American 31,688 years to spend one trillion dollars. It would take the American Patriot 11.5 days to pay back one million dollars at the spending rate of one dollar per second; 32 years to pay back one billion dollars at a spending rate of one dollar per second, and 31,688 years to pay back one trillion dollars at a spending rate of one dollar per second. The national debt, not including interest on the borrowed money is somewhat over seventeen trillion dollars. It will take 538,696 years and more for one person with a one-dollar-per-second spending rate to pay back the seventeen trillion dollars-plus of debt without interest payments.

It is a moot question to ask: How much money the Obamas and their thugs have received in kickbacks during the last five plus years? The Obamas and Valerie-slum-lord-psychopath Jarrett did not make sure that their friends received government contracts for nothing! There is only one solace: at the end of paying back one billion dollars, in the 32-year period, the Obamas and their thugs should be dead or near to death, and with the guidance of Providence, the United States of America will still exist, hopefully as the Founding Fathers conceived it.

Reconciliation never appears to have been the wish or the object of the Obama regime. They looked on conquest as certain and infallible, and, under that persuasion, sought to drive WE the People into what they might style a general rebellion, and then, crushing WE the People with force that dictators always use, reap the rich harvest of a general confiscation, and silence WE the People forever; whereas it is they that should be silenced forever. The profligacy of the Obama regime requires that a new gold mine should be opened and that gold mine could be no other than America, conquered, forfeited, and sold off. The Obamas and their regime have nowhere to go. Every channel of patriotic money has been drained; and their extravagance, with the thirst of a drunkard, is gaping for supplies. WE the People taxpayers will gladly pay for their keeping in iron bar cells until the devil comes to take them!

If the Obama regime denies the selling out of America to have been their plan, it becomes them to explain what was their plan. For either they have abused us in coveting property they never labored for, or they have abused us in expending an amazing sum with an incompetent spender. Taxation can never be worth the charge of obtaining it by fines; and any kind of formal obedience which WE the People could have made would have weighed with the lightness of a laugh against such a load of expense. It is, therefore, most probable that the Obama regime will at last justify their policy as they always do, by their dishonesty, and openly declare that their original design was the conquest of WE the People: and, in this case, it well becomes WE the People to consider how far the nation might be benefited by the success of American Patriots this spring and coming autumn in 2014.

In a general view there are few conquests that repay the charge of making them, and mankind are pretty well convinced that it can never be worth their while to go to revolution for profit's sake. If WE the People are made domestic war upon, our country plundered, or our existence at stake, it is our duty to defend and preserve ourselves, but in every other light, and from every other cause, is domestic war inglorious and detestable.

Barack Hussein Obama! When conquests are made of foreign countries, it is supposed that the commerce and dominion of the country which made them are extended. But this could neither be the object nor the consequence of the present domestic war. You enjoyed the whole of American capitalism before. There could be no possible addition by a conquest, but on the contrary, it must diminish as the inhabitants would be forced to reduce their wealth by becoming socialists-communists. You have the same dominion over the country which DemocrATS used to have, and you have no complaint to make against America for breach of any part of a fictitious contract between you or America, or contending against any established commercial, political, or geographical custom. The country and commerce were both your own when you began to conquer in 2008/2009, essentially in the same manner and form as had been available to the DemocrATS throughout a hundred-plus years before. Nations have sometimes been induced to make conquests for the sake of reducing the power of their enemies, or bringing an enemy country to a balance with their own. But this could be no part of your plan. No authority is claimed here, neither is any such authority suspected by you, or acknowledged or imagined by WE the People. What then, in the name of heaven, could you go to domestic war for? Or what chance could you possibly have in the event, but either to hold the same country which you held before and that you have placed in a much worse condition, or to lose, with an amazing expense, what you might have retained without a penny of charges?

Domestic war can never be the interest of a free nation. Yet a domestic war against WE the People is more than a quarreling comparable to people in business. But to make a domestic war with those who pay the greater majority of taxes, which you and Michelle expend as if it were pennies, is like setting two bull-dogs upon a customer at the shop door. The least degree of common sense shows the madness of the bull dogs, and it will apply with the same force of conviction. Piratical Islamic countries of Africa having neither commerce nor commodities of their own to lose, may make war upon all the world, and lucratively find their account in it; but it is quite otherwise with the Obama regime: for, besides the stoppage of the free market in time of the domestic war, WE the People expose more of our own property to be lost than WE the People have the chance of receiving our property from an evil government.

Barack Hussein Obama! Some hacks in Congress, practically all of them from the DemocRAT Party and slaves to the Obama regime, have mentioned the greatness of your Affordable Care Act as an apology for the greatness of being able to use free time to write poetry or partake in social chattings. The social parasites are living off the producers. This is miserable politics indeed, because it ought to have been given as a reason for your not engaging in socialism-communism at first.

The southern border of the United States America commands the Republic of Mexico trade almost as ineffectually as a non-existing border to permit free trade. But what is the trade? – open markets for drugs for POLDS' consumption in exchange for free firearms from the Obama regime Justice Department and the gunrunner-in-chief, Eric Holder.

In whatever light the domestic war with America is considered upon commercial drug principles, it is evidently the interest of the people of the United States of America and the Republic of Mexico not to support it; and why it has been supported so long against the clearest demonstrations of truth and national advantage, is, to me, and must be to all the reasonable world, a matter of astonishment; or is it a matter of crime with some aspects of payback for those at the top?

Perhaps it may be said that because I am American I write this from interest. To this I reply that my principle interest is American Patriotism and American Freedom from socialism-communism. My attachment is to a never existing socialism-communism and ever to an American Patriotism and Freedom. What I advance is right, no matter where it transpires or whom it touches. WE the People have received the proclamations of your DemocRATS in the enemedia. Yet, I have no doubt that my pen will not be given mass media attention. To oblige and be obliged is fair. But fairness means nothing to you, Barack Hussein Obama.

I shall mention one more circumstance in which I think the people of the United States of America have been equally mistaken. There is such an idea existing in the world as that of national honor, and this, falsely understood, is oftentimes the cause of war. In a Christian and philosophical sense, mankind seem to have stood still at individual civilization and to have retained as nations all the original rudeness of nature. Peace by treaty is only a cessation of violence for a reformation of sentiment. It is a substitute for a principle that is wanting and ever will be wanting till the idea of national honor be rightly understood. As individuals we profess ourselves Christians. As a nation America is a Christian nation. Regardless of your shooting the bull from your teleprompters, your statements regarding your lie that America is not a Christian nation are immoral! Your statements are indecent! Your language is improper! You are exposing your character and you do not cut a good figure! With your character non-qualities, you will never cut a good figure! In private, WE the People feel sorry for your odor, for utterance by someone of your rank cannot change your smell. It is below the stench of a skunk that has aimed at one of dem RATS. Your statements are a dishonor to the United States of America. Dishonor exudes out of the depths of a corrupt individual who thrives at living in a political cesspool! It is, I think, exceedingly easy to define what ought to be understood by national honor; for that which is the best character for an individual is the best character for a nation; and wherever the latter exceeds or falls beneath the former, there is a departure from the line of true greatness.

I have thrown out this observation with a design of applying it to the Obama regime. Their ideas of national honor seem devoid of that benevolence of heart, that universal expansion of philanthropy, and that triumph over the rage of vulgar prejudice, without which man is inferior to himself and a companion of common animals. To know who they shall regard or dislike, they ask what country they are of, if they are Muslim, or of the Muslim Brotherhood, and what amount of wealth they enjoy. Their idea of national honor seems to consist in national insult, and that to be a great people, is to be neither a Christian, nor a philosopher, nor a gentleman, but to threaten with the rudeness of a bear and to devour with the ferocity of a lion. This perhaps may sound harsh and uncouth, but it is too true, and the more is the pity.

I mention this only as the Obama regime's general character. But towards America the Obama regime has observed no character at all; and destroyed America by its conduct of what it assumed in its fake sense of perfection. The hope-and-change-in-chief set out with the title The One. The associations of ideas which naturally accompany this expression are filled with everything that is fond, tender, and forbearing. They have an energy peculiar to themselves, and overlooking the accidental attachment of common affections, apply with infinite softness to the first feelings of the heart. It is a political term which everyone can feel the force of, and every child can judge of. It needs no painting of mine to set it off, not even nature can do it justice. But has any part of your conduct to America corresponded with the title Hope And Change Set Up By The One? If in your general perception of national character you are unpolished and severe, in this you are inconsistent and unnatural, and you must have exceeding false notions of national honor to suppose that the world can admire a want of humanity, or that national honor depends on the violence of resentment, the inflexibility of temper, or the vengeance of execution.

I would willingly convince you, and that with as much temper as the times will suffer me to do, that as you opposed your own interest by quarrelling with WE the People, so likewise your conception of honor, rightly conceived and understood, as narcissism, is no ways called upon to enter into a domestic war with WE the People. Had you studied true greatness of heart, the first and fairest ornament of mankind, you would have acted directly contrary to all that you have done, and the world would have ascribed it to a generous cause, besides which you had (with the assistance of the enemedia) secured a powerful name – The One – by your hope-and-change speeches. Little did brain-dead Americans understand that your real meaning was dopes in chains! You were not known and not dreaded; and it would have been wise in you to have suffered WE the People to have slept undisturbed under that idea. It was to you a force existing without expense. It produced to you all the advantages of real power; and you were stronger through the universality of that charm than any future fleets and armies could ever probably make you. Your greatness was so secured and interwoven with your The One narcissism that you ought never to have awakened WE the People, and had nothing to do but to look in a mirror. Had you and your regime thugs been true politicians you would have seen all this and continued to draw from the magic of a name, and brainwashed the force and authority of a nation.

Unwise as you were in breaking the charm, you were still more unwise in the manner of doing it. Samson only told the secret, but you have performed the operation. You have shaven your own head and wantonly thrown away the locks. America was the hair from which the charm was drawn that infatuated the world. You ought to have quarreled with no power; but with America upon no account. You had nothing to fear from any condescension you might make. You might have humored America, even if there had been no justice in your claims, without any risk to your reputation; for America, fascinated by your self-acclaimed fame, would have ascribed it to your benevolence, and America, intoxicated by your majesty's rankness, would have slumbered in her fetters and followed the pied piper into oblivion.

But this method of studying the progress of the passions in order to ascertain the probable conduct of mankind is a philosophy in politics which those who preside at any Obama regime meeting of thugs have no conception of. They, like you, Barack Hussein Obama, know no other influence than corruption and reckon all their probabilities from precedent. A new case is to them a new world, and while they are seeking for a parallel they get lost. The talents of any one of your thugs, particularly Valerie-the-slumlord-thug Jarrett can be estimated at best no higher than those of a sophist. Any one of your thugs may understand the subtleties but not the elegance of nature; and by continually viewing mankind through the cold medium of hate, never thinks of penetrating into the warmer region of the mind. As your adversary, it is happiness to have in them no philosophy and no sentiment, for they sleep the better for it. Punishment becomes your support, for while you will eventually suffer the lash for your sins, you keep yourself up by twirling about with a body servant. In politics you are a good steer stooler and in everything else nothing at all.

There is one circumstance which comes so much within George Soros' province as a financier that I am surprised it should escape him, which is, the different abilities of the DemocRATS in taking advantage of the George Soros monies but in not supporting the party's expenses. Strange as it may seem, DemocRATS are not a match for George Soros in this particular. By a curious kind of revolution in accounts, the people of rural America, where the DemocRAT Party platforms are planks on manure piles, are told to mistake America's poverty for America's riches; that is, they reckon the national debt as a part of the national wealth. What poor nation could amass such a national debt? Only rich America can do this and The One will pay for it. They make the same kind of error which a man would do, who after mortgaging his estate, should add the money borrowed to the full value of the estate in order to count up his worth, and in this case he would conceive that he got rich by running into debt. Just thus it is with your economics. According to the Treasury's Debt to the Penny Calculator, the national debt when Barack Hussein Obama putatively occupied the Oval Office on January 20, 2009 was 6.307 trillion dollars. The gross federal debt was about $10.627 trillion dollars. To the nation collectively it was so much poverty. There are as effectual limits to public debts as to private ones, for when once the money borrowed is so great as to require the whole yearly revenue to discharge the interest thereon, there is an end to further borrowing. In the same manner as when the interest of a man's debts amounts to the yearly income of his estate, there is an end to his credit. This is nearly the case with the Obama regime's economics. The projected interest on the debt for the year 2014 is $146,552,822,954.87. The projected revenue for 2014 is 5.7 trillion dollars. To the brain dead that means that the United States of America has approximately 5.5 trillion surplus. The brain-dead-in-chief thinks this also. Yes. ... in-debt America is wealthy! Moreover, Chief Brain Dead says that America can pay her debts easily. Just print more money!

The very reverse of this was the case with America in 1776. At that time Americans began the War for Independence without any debt upon America, and in order to carry it on, America neither raised money by taxes, nor borrowed it upon interest, but created it out of patriotism and the work ethic; and America's situation at that time was so much the reverse of yours. When we shall have sunk the sum which has been created under your non-leadership, we shall then be out of debt, be just as rich as when we began, and all the while we are doing it shall feel no difference, because the value will rise as the quantity of the currency decreases.

There is not a country in the world so capable of not wanting to bear the expense of a socialist communist state as America; not only because she was not in debt when she began, but because the country is still young and capable of infinite improvement, and has an almost boundless tract of new ideas in store; whereas socialism-communism has got a stench of age and growth, and has never occupied land or property successfully. The one is like a young heir coming to a large improvable estate; the other like an old man whose chances are over, and his estate mortgaged for half its worth.

In the second Call To Take Action of The American Crisis I endeavored to set forth the impracticability of conquering America. I stated every case that I conceived could possibly happen, and ventured to predict its consequences. As my conclusions were drawn not artfully, but naturally, they have all proved to be true. I am upon the spot; know the politics of America, her strength and resources, and by a train of services, the best in my power to render, was honored with the friendship of the remaining American Patriots who are my colleagues, those like-minded, those in the United States Armed Services, and the people for whom I stand. I consider the cause a just one. I know and feel it a just one, and under that confidence never make my own profit or loss the ultimate object. My endeavor is to have the matter well understood on both sides, and I conceive myself tendering a general service by setting forth to the one the impossibility of being conquered, and to the other the impossibility of conquering. Most of the arguments made use of by your propaganda supporting the cause of socialism-communism are the very arguments that ought to have been used against supporting it; and the plans, by which you thought to conquer, are the very plans in which you are sure to be defeated. You have taken everything up at the wrong end. Your ignorance is astonishing, and were you in my situation you would see it. Some Americans may, perhaps, have your confidence, but I am persuaded that they would make very indifferent members of socialism-communism. I know what you are and what America is, and from the compound of knowledge, am better enabled to judge of the issue than what the king Obama or any one of his regime thugs are able to judge.

In this number I have endeavored to show the ill policy and disadvantages of the domestic war against WE the People. I believe many of my remarks are new. Those which are not so I have studied to improve and herewith place in a manner that may be clear and striking. Your failure is, I am persuaded, as certain as fate. America is above your reach. She is more than your equal in the world and her independence neither rests upon your consent, nor can it be prevented by your evil. In short, all of you spend your substance in vain and impoverish yourselves without a hope. That is good change!

But suppose you and your regime thugs have conquered America. What advantages, collectively or individually, as merchants, manufacturers, scientists, or conquerors, could you have looked for? This is an object you seem never to have attended to. Listening for the sound of victory, and led away by the frenzy of evil, you neglect to reckon either the cost or the consequences. You must all pay; you must all bear a share, and it is both your right and your duty to weigh seriously the matter. If America is conquered by socialism-communism she will have to be parceled out in grants to the favorites at the Obama regime court for the simple reason that your tax revenues will be lessened because America will be in no condition to pay. WE the People are rich by contrivance of our own, which will cease as soon as you became total masters. Our paper money is now of almost no use, and silver and gold we have none. In the last socialist-communist takeover in this world no freedom was achieved. As the taxes of socialism-communism pay for the charge of making them, has not the same been the case in every attempt at socialism-communism?

To the Congress I wish to address myself in a more particular manner. They appear to have supposed themselves partners on the golf course so that they could receive an expectation of a right to the booty; but in this it is most probable they would, as legislators, have been disappointed. The case of the pathetic Obama regime is quite a new one, and many unforeseen difficulties have arisen thereon. The Congress claimed a legislative right over America and the toleration of the Obama regime's pressure originated from that pretence. But if America is ever conquered through the means of a docile Congress, the claims of the legislature will be suffocated in the conquest. WE the People are out of the authority of Congress. But neither Barack Hussein Obama nor Congress is out of OUR authority. Congress has all this while been supporting measures not meant to assure the establishment of their authority in the issues of which they have been triumphed over by the Obama regime. Had Congress remained the separate branch of government it is supposed to be, a new and interesting situation between the Congress and the Obama regime would have developed. You would have said that you conquered for yourself, and that to conquer for Congress was an unknown case. The Congress might have replied that WE the People are a country in rebellion. WE the People would say that you cannot conquer US! You cannot reduce US! WE the People are foreign to a socialist-communist state because we have a Declaration of Independence and a Constitution for the United States of America that say WE the people are the source of political power! You and Congress cannot insist that America is the sole property of The One! Congress is supposed to be the legal delegates of the people. This brings us to a set of very interesting and rational questions.

1st, What is the original fountain of power and honor in this country?

2nd, Whether the prerogative does not belong to the people?

3rd, Whether there is any such thing as the Constitution?

4th, Of what use is the Obama regime to the people?

5th, Whether he who invented the Obama regime is not an enemy to mankind?

6th, Whether it is not a shame for a woman to spend millions a year as would a queen and do no good for it, and whether the money might not be better applied?

7th, Whether such a person should exist at all?

8th, Whether a Congress, constituted like that of America, is not the most happy and consistent form of government in the world?

9th, Whether the present usurped, docile Congress can completely be retaken in 2014?

10th, Should not the Obama regime be indicted for, convicted of, and executed for treason?

In short, the contention about the dividend might have distracted the nation; for nothing is more common than to agree in the conquest and quarrel for the prize; therefore it is, perhaps, a happy circumstance that the successes of WE the People have prevented the dispute.

To the great bulwark of the nation, the legal citizens, I likewise present my address. It is their interest to see America as an independent and not a conquered socialist-conquered country. If conquered, she is ruined; and if ruined, poor. Consequently, the profits will be a trifle and her credit will remain non-existent at best. If independent, she flourishes, and from her flourishing profits arise. It matters to you who governs America. It matters nothing only to socialist-communist parasites that never do anything for America! A free market economy is at stake! Some articles will consequently be obtained from other places, and it is right that they should; but the demand for others will increase by the greater influx of legal inhabitants which a state of independence and peace will occasion, and in the event all immigration is regulated to zero, legal citizens may be enriched. The commerce of America is perfectly free, and ever will be so. She will consign away no part of it to any nation, or to any international organization like the United Nations, neither to socialism-communism. She has not to her friends, and certainly will not to her enemies; though it is probable that your narrow-minded politicians, particularly DemocRATS and RINOs, thinking to please you thereby, may at some time or other, unnecessarily make such a proposal. Trade and democratic republicanism flourishes best when it is free, and it is weak policy to attempt to fetter it. America's treaties are made on the most liberal and generous principles. American Patriots have proved themselves to be philosophers, politicians, and heroes.

The Obama regime has studied the ruin of this country during the last six years from which it is not within the abilities of POLDS to rescue her. Attempts by the DemocRATS, Congress, or even Killary Klinton to recover America are as ridiculous as the Obama plans which involved America's demise.

Reading The American Crisis will give you POLDS more common sense than you ever before had. It is a long lane that has no turning. A period of six years of misconduct and misfortune is certainly long enough for any one nation to suffer under; and upon a supposition that domestic war has no official declaration; I beg to place a line of conduct before you that will easily lead you out of all your troubles. It has been hinted before and cannot be too much attended to.

Regime thugs! Suppose America had remained unknown to Barack Hussein Obama. What, I ask, in that case, would have been your conduct towards America? For that will point out what it ought to be now. The problems and their solutions are equal, and the right line of the one is the parallel of the other. The question takes in every circumstance that can possibly arise. It reduces politics to a simple thought and is moreover a mode of investigation in which, while you are studying your interest, the simplicity of the case will cheat you into good temper. You have nothing to do but to suppose that you have found America and she appears found to your hand, and while in the joy of your heart you stand still to admire her, the path of politics rises straight before you.

Were I disposed to paint a contrast, I could easily set off what you have done in the present case, against what you would have done in that case, and by justly opposing them, conclude a picture that would make even thugs blush. But, as when any of the prouder passions are hurt, it is much better philosophy to let a man slip into a good temper than to attack him in a bad one, for that reason, therefore, I only state the case, and leave you to reflect upon it.

To go a little back into politics, it will be found that the true interest of WE the People lay in proposing and promoting the continuous independence of America immediately and continuously; for the expense which America had then incurred by having Barack Hussein Obama a major product in the previous term ought to have shown Americans the policy and necessity of changing the leadership of the country as the best probable method of preventing future non-covered expenses, and the only method by which she could hold the economy without the charge of sovereignty. Besides which, the title WE the People that America possessed from the beginning of her history, as a parent country to all legal citizens, led to, and pointed out the propriety, wisdom, and advantage of a republic. Just as in private life, children grow into men and women, and by setting up for themselves, extend and secure the interest of the whole family, so in the settlement of States large enough to admit of maturity, the same policy must be pursued, and the same consequences would then follow. Nothing hurts the affections both of parents and children so much as living too closely connected as well as keeping up the distinction too long. Domineering will not do over those, who, by a progress in life, have become equal in rank to their parents, that is when they have families of their own; and though they may conceive themselves the subjects of their advice, will not suppose them the objects of their government. By drawing this parallel I admit the simplicity of the relationship of the federal government with the state governments. It is time for the state governments to exercise their constitutional independence and tell the federal government under the Obama regime that they no longer desire to live in a government family based on the concepts of dictatorship and socialism-communism.

Barack Hussein Obama! When you saw the state of strength and opulence, and that by her own industry, which America in its history has arrived at, you ought to have advised her to continue to exercise democratic republicanism. You ought to have proposed an alliance of continued support with her for democratic republicanism, not for socialist-communist hope and change. In so doing you and all Americans would have drawn more real economic advantage and freedom than from any weak and wrangling socialist-communist government that you could exercise over America. In short, had you studied only the domestic politics of a family, you would have learned how to govern. Instead of this easy and natural line, you flew out into everything that was wild and outrageous, till, by following the passion and stupidity of the ship's captain, you wrecked the vessel within sight of the shore. Family and children have no meaning to you unless they are controlled by the government.

Having shown what you ought to have done, I now proceed to show why it was not done. The caterpillar circle of the Obama regime court had an interest to pursue socialism-communism, distinct from, and opposed to WE the People; indeed, opposed to the interest of the nation. The loss of DemocRAT-held state governorships, DemocRAT-held Senate seats, and DemocRAT-held House of Representative seats, all with their appendages, is a shocking sound in the ear of a hungry dictator. Your present dictatorship-kingship and regime thugs will be the ruin of you; and you had better risk a revolution and call yourself defeated, than be thus led on from madness to despair and from despair to ruin. WE the People have set you the example and you may follow it and be free, or you may fight us in the coming revolt, be taken prisoner, tried, found guilty, and executed.

I now come to the last part, a domestic war with WE the People. This is what no man in his senses will advise you and all good men would wish to prevent. Whether WE the People will declare war against you is not for me in this place to mention, or to hint, even if I knew it; but it must be madness in you to do it first. The matter is come now to a full crisis; yet, peace is easy if willingly set about. Whatever you may think, Barack Hussein Obama, WE the People have behaved handsomely to you. WE the People would have been unjust to ourselves to have acted otherwise than we did. WE the People give you genteel notice that there is nothing in our conduct reserved or indelicate, and while WE the People announce our determination to support the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution for the United States of America, we leave you, Barack Hussein Obama, to give the first offence. American Patriots, on their part have exhibited a character of firmness to the world.

In 1776, unprepared and unarmed, without form or government, WE American Patriots singly opposed a kingdom that domineered over half the globe. The greatness of the deed demands respect – but you are unable to spell that wonderful word ... probably because it is foreign to your behavior – and though you may feel resentment, you are compelled both to wonder and admire.

Here I rest my arguments and finish my address. Such as it is, it is a gift, and you are welcome for your unsaid and unthought-of Thank You! It was always my design to dedicate a Crisis to you, Barack Hussein Obama, when the time should come that would properly make it a Crisis; and when, likewise, I should catch myself in a temper to write it, and suppose you in a condition to read it. That time has now arrived and with it the opportunity for conveyance. I wish you all the failure possible, even the failures with your private life and your body servants. May the American Crisis not wither about your ears, but that you write:

WE THE PEOPLE WILL NOT LET THIS CRISIS GO TO WASTE!

between your ears. Your intellectualism as shown by your non-leadership proves that surely there is more than enough space in your scelerous cavern.
