The American Crisis

What Barack Hussein Obama Says Is Not What Is

A Call To Take Action

Number Thirteen

Of all the innocent passions which actuate the human mind there is none more universally prevalent than curiosity. It reaches all mankind and in matters which concern us, or concern us not, it alike provokes in us a desire to know the truth behind what is and what is not.

Although the situation of America, superior to every effort to enslave her, and daily rising to importance and opulence, has placed her above the region of anxiety, it has still left her within the circle of curiosity. In the beginnings, Americans fancied to see and hear the speeches of a man who had proudly threatened to bring America to his feet with the threats of hope and change. Such fancy was visibly marked with tranquil confidence at first, but now which cares nothing about their contents. The speeches are presently inquired after with a smile, read with a laugh, and dismissed with disdain. It surely has something to do with the fact that Barack Hussein Obama needs teleprompters to deliver simple sentence constructions. He, who would speak and cannot speak, can surely tell lies.

Yet, as justice is due, even to the enemy Obama regime, it is right to say that Barack Hussein Obama's speeches are as well managed as the embarrassed condition of their affairs could well admit of; and though hardly a line in them is true, except for the fact that lies are lies, they may serve to amuse the deluded POLDS and brain dead of America for whom they are calculated.

The job to change America, says the speeches, is still unhappily prolonged by that restless ambition which first excited the enemy Obama regime to commence it and which still continues to disappoint American Patriots' earnest wishes and diligent exertions to restore the public tranquility.

How easy it is to abuse truth and language when the dictator, by habitual wickedness, has learned to set justice at defiance. That the very man who began the domestic war against WE the People; who with the most sullen insolence has refused to answer to WE the People, and even to hear the humblest of all petitions; who has encouraged his thugs in the most savage cruelties, and the most scandalous plundering; who has stirred up the socially weak on one side, and the African Americans on the other; and invoked every aid of hell in his behalf, should now, with an affected air of pity, turn the tables from himself, and charge to the wickedness that is his own, can only be equaled by the baseness of the heart that spoke it. Of course, it is not his fault! In Obama's warped mind wickedness is the fault of the Republicans!

To be humbly wrong is manlier than to be meanly progressives who think they are always right. Humility is an attitude often encountered in many American Patriots and it is equally applicable now. American Patriots feel something like respect for consistency even in error. WE the People lament the virtue that is debauched into a vice, but the vice that affects a virtue becomes the more detestable: and amongst the various assumptions of character, which hypocrisy has taught, and men have practised, there is none that raises a higher relish of disgust than to see disappointed inveteracy twisting itself, by the most visible falsehoods, into an appearance of piety to which it has no pretensions.

Barack Hussein Obama says he should not have to answer to the trust committed to the sovereign of a free people, nor make a suitable return to his subjects for their constant, zealous, and affectionate attachment to his person, family, and regime. If Barack Hussein Obama consented to sacrifice, either to his own desire of domestic peace on his terms only, or to the temporary ease and relief of Americans on his terms only, those essential rights and permanent interests, upon the maintenance and preservation of which the future strength and security of the United States of America must principally depend, would cease to have meaning.

That the man whose ignorance and obstinacy first involved and still continues to plunge the nation into the most hopeless and expensive of all presidential terms of office, now meanly flatters Americans by naming them a free people under his terms only and under the disguise of their essential rights and permanent interests, and makes a merit of his regime's organized crimes against America. Barack Hussein Obama's behavior disgraces even the character of perverseness.

Is Barack Hussein Obama afraid Americans will send him into banishment, or what does he fear? Why is the sycophant thus added to the hypocrite and the charlatan who pretends to govern, sunk into the humiliation and submissiveness coming from foreign powers like Russia and China, and dwarf-rogue North Korea.?

In his speeches Barack Hussein Obama talks about the vital rights and interests of America. Yet, what those essential rights and permanent interests are, on which the future strength and security of America must principally depend, are in fact not further alluded to. Indeed, American rights and interests coming from Barack Hussein Obama are nothing more than words that impress nothing but the ear and are calculated only for the sound.

If they have reference to America, then they amount to a disgraceful confession from Mr. Zero who once assumed he could lead. The dictator Barack Hussein Obama and his regime are constantly holding up the vast importance which America is in order to allure the nation to carry on his intent of instituting socialism-communism. Now, whatever ground there is for this idea, it ought to have operated as a reason for not beginning it; and, therefore, the Obama regime supports their present measures to their own disgrace, because the arguments which they now use, are a direct reflection on their former policy against productive, free market economies.

In his speeches Barack Hussein Obama is always of the opinion that the favorable appearance of affairs concerning the social safety net of ObamaCare for his subjects in his kingdom must have the satisfaction of the populace; that things are not quite so bad everywhere in America is the cause of some consolation, but can be none for triumph. One broken leg is better than two, but still it is not a source of joy. The same is with the appearance of affairs in the East, the West, the North, and the South be they ever so favorable! Yet in reality, Barack Hussein Obama, you and your appearances are nevertheless worse than at first, without a prospect of either ever being better.

In the course of his kingly years in the Oval Office Barack Hussein Obama maintains that his assiduous endeavors to protect his fifty-seven domains have not only met with success, but that the result is equal to the justice and uprightness of his views. What justice and uprightness there was in the beginning of the war of hope and change with America the world will judge of, and the unequalled anti-social barbarity with which it has been conducted is not to be worn from the memory by the cant of sniveling hypocrisy.

Furthermore, it is with great concern that Barack Hussein Obama inform Americans that the events of his domestic and diplomatic policies have been very unfortunate, some having ended in the loss of American lives. The great concern of WE the People is that Barack Hussein Obama does not consider this important because he maintains that all served in the same manner, as if to say they knew they would die some day.

Obama claims that no endeavors have been wanted on his part to extinguish the social inequality that has always been a part of Americans' lives, and to give to his endeared subjects a happy and prosperous condition which will be found in his paradise of socialism-communism. In a republic the sovereignty of the political structure rests in each individual. In a democracy the sovereignty of the political structure is located in the group, in the mob. This is the reason Karl Marx said that the first step to socialism-communism is a democracy, rule by a political mob. "We have seen ... that the first step in the revolution by the working class is to raise the proletariat to the position of the ruling class, to establish democracy. The proletariat will use its political supremacy to wrest by degrees all capital from the bourgeoisie; to centralize all instruments of production in the hands of the state." Therefore, democracy will be used to establish certain socialist-communist policies so that the collective society will be directed toward communism. It must be stated that in a democratic republic the opportunity for a happy and prosperous condition of the citizens is guaranteed by laws and is derived from a due obedience to the laws. The Marx and Engels' ideology-revolutionary aspect places emphasis on the idea that people need to actively change the socioeconomic system to a better form.

Interestingly enough, this is what capitalism and laissez-faire economics with moral and ethical principles does. Marxism-Communism does not change a socioeconomic system into a better form because it is neither moral nor ethical. This is the truth behind Marxism and its evil offshoot ideas.

One cannot help but believe that when Barack Hussein Obama says the term democracy he is using it in its classical sense: democracy is mob rule. The mob is his regime and the POLDS (Progressives, Obots, Liberals, Dumb-downers, Socialists-communists). They are the more so contemptible when we see them licking up the drool that flows from the Obama regime in Washington, that the pride of not being laughed at would induce a man of common sense to leave it off. But the most offensive falsehood in Barack Hussein Obama's speeches is his attributing the prosperity of America to a wrong cause: Obama's social and environmental politics and unions. It was the unremitted industry of the workers without unions and their descendants, the hard labor and toil of persevering fortitude, that were the true causes of the prosperity of America. The former tyrannies of Europe served to people America, and the virtue of the adventurers served to improve the nation. Go back into American history and ask the man, who, with his axe, cleared a way in the wilderness to possess an estate, what made him rich, and he will tell you the labor of his hands, the sweat of his brow, and the blessing of heaven. It was not and never will be the handouts from the federal government. True American Patriots are not the parasites of society. The growth of America was a result of the aggregate efforts of a busy multitude. Every American toiled for himself. Each American gathered competence and wealth. The attempt of Barack Hussein Obama to control America is a gigantic Sisyphus ambition striving to take hold of a free, independent nation! It is a vain attempt!

Let Barack Hussein Obama but leave America to herself and America asks no more. The United States of America has risen into greatness without the knowledge and against the will of dictator Zero, and has a right to the unmolested enjoyment of her own created wealth.

Barack Hussein Obama will order the estimate wealth of the ensuing year to be laid before Americans. He says he will rely on America's wisdom and public spirit – wisdom and public spirit of the POLDS – for such solutions as the circumstances of the Obama regime's affairs shall be found to require. Among the many ill consequences which attend the continuation of the present policies, he says, he most sincerely regrets the additional burdens which it must unavoidably bring upon his faithful subjects. After such messages he departs for a round of golf!

It is strange that a nation must run through such a labyrinth of trouble and expend such a mass of wealth to gain the wisdom which an hour's reflection would have taught. The final superiority of America over every attempt that Barack Hussein Obama might make to destroy her, is as naturally marked in the constitution of things, as the future ability of a giant over a dwarf is delineated in his features while an infant. How far providence, to accomplish purposes which no human wisdom could foresee, permitted such extraordinary errors, is still a secret in the womb of time, and must remain so till futurity shall give it birth.

Barack Hussein Obama often claims that believing in change for America maintains a firm confidence in his being right in what he undertakes; that he has a special protection and conviction of his cause. Further, he has no doubt but that by the concurrence and support of his regime, by the begging of his pee-ons, and by a vigorous, animated, and united exertion of government handouts to his subjects, he will be enabled to establish the blessings of a socialist-communist paradise in all of his fifty-seven dominions.

King Obama is one of the readiest believers in the world of himself. In the beginning of the contest against WE the People he said he would sign a law to place America under the control of the United Nations, which would make the world safer and better. The truth of the matter is that the reverse would be more appropriate in providing for a safer and better world. Although providence, for six years together under Obama, has kept America out of his vision of United Nations protection, still the destroyer-in-chief has no doubt. Like Pharaoh on the edge of the Red Sea, he sees not the plunge he is making, and precipitately drives across the flood that is closing over his head. The tyranny of Barack Hussein Obama is worse than any other. His form of governing has become so oppressive that it must be thrown off.

I think it is a reasonable supposition that his speeches are composed before the arrival of the news which Barack Hussein Obama is addressing, because what he addresses in his speeches does not exist. Three examples provide the proof.

1. Obama claims that women must finally have the right to have their pay equal that of men. The truth behind the matter is that since the Equal Pay Act passed by Congress in 1963, it is a violation of federal law to monetarily compensate a woman less than a man for accomplishing the same work under the same conditions.
2. Obama falsely argues that comprehensive immigration reform would fix America's immigration system that is not functioning properly. The problem is not the lack of new immigration laws. The truth behind the matter is that Obama is not enforcing the already existing federal immigration laws.
3. Obama falsely argues that ownership of guns is responsible for the rise in the numbers of persons murdered or assaulted by criminals with guns. Therefore, he says, the freedom to possess a firearm that is guaranteed by the Second Amendment to the Constitution must be voided. The truth behind the matter is that in town, cities, and regions where a state does not allow people to carry firearms, the murder rates and assaulted persons are always high because the people murdered and assaulted could not defend themselves.

If a crisis does not exist, Barack Hussein Obama will create one by claiming that there is a crisis! What Barack Hussein Obama says a situation is at the time he describes it certainly has no relation to the condition at the time the description was spoken. Truth is very scarce among politicians and Barack Hussein Obama's supply of it has always been in shortage of the demand. Barack Hussein Obama lies, not just sometimes, but always!

Be this as it may, it is nothing to American Patriots. Our line is fixed. Our lot is cast; and America, the child of fate, is arriving at maturity sans Obama. WE the People have nothing to do but by a spirited and quick exertion, to stand prepared for every evil undertaking the Obama regime comes up with. Too great to yield and too noble to insult; superior to misfortune, and generous in success, let WE the People untaintedly preserve the character which the United States of America has gained, and show to future ages an example of unequalled magnanimity. There is something in the cause and consequence of America that has drawn on her the attention of all humankind. The world has seen her brave. Her love of liberty; her ardor in supporting it; the justice of her claims, and the constancy of her fortitude have won her the esteem of the world, and attached to her interest the first power without Barack Hussein Obama.

America's situation now is such that to whatever point, past, present or to come, she casts her eyes and new matter rises to convince her that she is right. In her conduct towards the enemy Obama regime no reproachful sentiment lurks in secret. No sense of injustice is left upon the mind. Untainted with ambition, and a stranger to revenge, America's progress has been marked by providence, and providence, in every stage of the conflict, has blest her with success.

America! Do not wrap yourself up in delusive hope and change and suppose the business done! The least remissness in preparation, the least relaxation in execution, will only serve to prolong the struggle against Obama and his thug-regime-domestic war, and increase expenses. If the enemy Obama regime can draw consolation from misfortune, and exert themselves upon despair, how much more ought WE the People, who are to win back a country by the actions of American Patriotism, have an earnest of successful consolation. Patriotism gives the American the feeling of having glory over everything.

I shall now make my remarks on what Barack Hussein Obama's speeches do not contain.

There is not a syllable in them respecting alliances based upon reciprocal trust. Either the injustice of Barack Hussein Obama is too glaring, or his condition too desperate, or both, for no foreign power really comes to his support because they know that he is an illegal occupier of the Oval Office. This affects domestic and international relations because everything that Barack Hussein Obama signs as putative President of the United States of America is signed without legal authority. Should the United States Supreme Court uphold the legality of his signature, for example at any future instance on the ObamaCare legislation, the Court would continue its sanctioning of Obama's illegality. Likewise, if Congress does nothing against Obama's illegality, WE the People can take it for granted that Congress is complicit in Obama's violations of the Constitution. The situation being such, Congress as the victim of Barack Hussein Obama's constitutional crimes is afraid of the political consequences. Furthermore, Americans then encounter an extremely important question: Does Congress believe in the Constitution for the United States of America?

In the beginning of the contest against America when he had only America to contend with, Obama seemed to be the savior of the world. Yet, what has he saved? Nothing! The remembrance of his nothingness ought to inspire us with confidence and greatness of mind, and carry us through every remaining difficulty with content and cheerfulness. What are the little sufferings of the present day compared with the hardships that are past? There was a time, in 1776, when WE the People had neither house nor home in safety; when every hour was the hour of alarm and danger; when the mind, tortured with anxiety, knew no repose, and everything, but hope and fortitude, was bidding us farewell.

It is of use to look back upon those situations; to call to mind the times of trouble and the scenes of complicated anguish that are past and gone. Then every expense was cheap, compared with the dread of conquest and the misery of submission. WE the People did not stand debating upon trifles, or contending about the necessary and unavoidable charges of one political party against the other. Every American Patriot bore their lot of suffering, and looked forward to happier days and scenes of rest.

Perhaps one of the greatest dangers which any country can be exposed to arises from a kind of trifling which sometimes steals upon the mind when it supposes the danger past; and this unsafe situation marks at this time the peculiar crisis of America. What would she once have given to have known that her condition at this day should be what it now is? Yet, Americans do not seem to place a proper value upon it, nor vigorously pursue the necessary measures to secure it. Yet, Americans know that they cannot be defeated by Barack Hussein Obama. WE the People have no right to expect it; neither ought WE to look for it. WE are a people, who, in OUR situation, differ positively from all the rest of world. WE form one common floor of public good, and, whatever is our charge, it is paid for OUR own interest and upon OUR own account.

Misfortune and experience have now taught us system and method; and the arrangements for carrying on the fight against Barack Hussein Obama. The positions of the several states are ascertained, and WE the People know what red states and blue states are, and the necessity as well as the advantages of vigorously providing for the right ones.

New information concerning the origin of Barack Hussein Obama is emerging every day. These revelations are truths, thus supporting the maxim that an error (Obama) is the more dangerous the more truth it contains. We all know that the Obama family does not have any legal certification of existence. Zero has succeeded Zeros. Barry, the adopted son of an Indonesian citizen was also an Indonesian citizen. While going to school in Hawaii and California (still an Indonesian citizen?), he was normally unacademically high on drugs, perhaps five or six shots a month, and made some attempts to be moderately successful. He gradually learned that success and power are the only situations in which cruelty – by throwing those he had used under the bus – can be transformed into being victorious, and those who are cruel, because they are victorious, can with the same facility act out any other degenerate character trait.

Immediately after Barry's arrival in Chicago, the true place of gangster education, Barry got to know the streets and how to get over without doing anything, except taking credit for positive outcomes to which he had no input. Going on to Colombia University – if he ever attended – and then to Harvard University where he became editor of the Harvard Law Review, again a position in which he did nothing, Barry got over on academics most likely as being part of the racial quotas. Returning to Illinois, he registered as a lawyer by lying on his application form. Getting over again by being dishonest! This was certainly not the first time! Barry then became a member of the Illinois state legislature where he did nothing but vote present and take credit for success that he did not accomplish. He then bought and bullied his way into being elected as United States Senator from Illinois in which position he continued to vote present and accomplish nothing, all the while taking credit for success he never had anything to do with and for being a chairman of a committee which he never held. Those who got in his way like Donald Young, Larry Bland, and others, were either shot in the head, like wild beasts, or put to death in cold blood – also methods of throwing someone under the bus!

Barack Hussein Obama presents the reader with one of the most shocking instances of successful cruelty ever practised. I leave it to rest on your mind that Barack Hussein Obama may be fully impressed with a sense of the destruction and likewise, that he may see and feel the necessity for his own personal safety as a result of those whom he obeys, as well as for the interest evil, to omit or delay no one preparation necessary to secure the ground which WE the People so happily stand upon.

Nothing is more anti-American than Barack Hussein Obama and his thug regime.

This is not what Barack Hussein Obama says. It is what is!
